Biographical Note

David White Trafford was born in Blaine, Maine, in 1916 and died in Florida in 1993. He graduated from the University of Maine in 1939 with an A.B. Degree, Summa Cum Laude, in history. He received both his M.A. and Ph.D. degrees in history from Indiana University in 1940 and 1947. In 1947, he joined the University of Maine faculty teaching history and was appointed chair of the University of Maine Study Abroad Program in 1965. He retired in 1979. He was affiliated with the Institute of American Studies Abroad, serving as an honorary fellow of the Institute, vice president for admissions and, during the early 1980s, as director of the Institute-Affiliated British Studies Centre in Kent, England.

Restrictions on Access

Kept at Fogler Library's offsite storage facility. One week's notice required for retrieval.

Accruals

Accruals from Professor Trafford are not anticipated.

Appraisal

Records considered to not be of archival value were disposed of by the processing archivist, including: student grades, student papers, employment information of History Department staff, faculty, and student workers, reference material, book orders, and duplicate copies of items. Also, material duplicated in other record groups, particularly Graduate Board meeting minutes.

Terms Governing Use and Reproduction

Information on literary rights available in the repository.

Processing Information

Processed by Putting History to Work intern Zeb Mimbs and Matthew Revitt, June-August 2019 and February 2020, Raymond H. Fogler Library Special Collections Department. Processing involved a collection survey and intellectual arrangement into series and the creation of this finding aid. Material was rehoused into appropriate archival folders and the boxes and folders numbered and titled using information from ArchivesSpace. The disposal of material deemed not of archival value meant the contents of the boxes could be consolidated into 6 boxes from than the original 10 boxes.
