CONFESSION OF FAITH.

[Accompanied by Scripture Proofs.]

Article 1.—We believe there is only one true God,\(^1\) existing in three persons, the Father, Son and Holy Ghost;\(^3\) a Being of infinite wisdom,\(^3\) power,\(^4\) justice,\(^5\) holiness,\(^5\) goodness\(^6\) and truth;\(^7\) and the only proper object of religious worship.\(^8\)

(1) Deut. 6: 4. Isa. 44: 8, and 45: 23.

Article 2.—That God is the Creator\(^1\) and sovereign Disposer of all creatures and events.\(^2\)

Article 3.—That the Holy Scriptures were given by inspiration of God;\(^1\) and are the only perfect rule of religious faith and practice.\(^3\)

Article 4.—That our first parents were created in the image of God, perfectly holy and happy,\(^1\) and that by transgressing the divine command, they fell into a state of sin and misery.\(^2\)

(2) Gen. 3: 3, 6. Rom 5: 12, 15–19.

Article 5.—That, in consequence of their apostacy, all men are by nature wholly destitute of true holiness, alienated from God,\(^1\) and under the curse of the divine law.\(^2\)
ARTICLES OF FAITH AND COVENANT.

ARTICLE 6.—That Christ, the Son of God, being God and man mysteriously united in one person, has, by his sufferings and death, made an atonement for sin, which is sufficient for the whole world, and thus rendered it consistent with the holy character of God to pardon and save every penitent believer.

ARTICLE 7.—That none do truly repent of sin and believe the gospel, but those who are renewed in heart by the special influences of the Holy Spirit according to the eternal purposes of God; and that all such will be kept by the power of God through faith unto salvation.

ARTICLE 8.—That the sacraments of the New Testament are Baptism and the Lord's Supper, baptism to be administered only to covenanting believers and their households, and the supper only to believers in regular standing in the church of Christ.

ARTICLES OF FAITH AND COVENANT.

ARTICLE 9.—That it is the privilege of parents and heads of families, who are visibly in covenant with God, to bring their children and all under their paternal care, to the ordinance of Christian baptism,¹ and their duty to train them up in the nurture and admonition of the Lord.²

ARTICLE 10.—That, in this world, the Lord Jesus Christ has a visible church,¹ that the terms of membership are a credible profession of faith in Christ,² and of that holiness which is wrought by the renewing grace of God,³ and that habitual communion with God⁴ and conscientious attendance upon public, family and secret worship;⁵ and the habitual practice of righteousness, temperance, sobriety, sincerity and truth, are essential to Christian character.

Acts 21: 21, and 3: 22, 25

(4). 1 John 1: 3. 2 Cor. 13: 14.

ARTICLE II.—That all mankind must one day stand before the judgment seat of Christ¹ to receive a just and final sentence of retribution according to the deeds done in the body,² and that, at the day of judgment, the state of all will be unalterably fixed, and that the punishment of the wicked³ and the happiness of the righteous will be endless.⁴

ARTICLES OF FAITH AND COVENANT.

THUS YOU PROFESS AND BELIEVE.

You will now enter into solemn covenant with God and with this Church.

THE COVENANT.

You do now, in the presence of God and man, avouch the great Jehovah, Father, Son and Holy Ghost, to be your God, the object of your supreme affections, and your chosen portion forever. You cordially acknowledge and receive the Lord Jesus Christ, in all his mediatorial offices, Prophet, Priest and King, as your only Saviour and final Judge; and the Holy Spirit as your Sanctifier and Guide. You humbly and cheerfully devote yourselves to God, consecrating all your powers and faculties to his service and glory. You promise to take the word of God as the rule of your life and conversation, and to give diligent attention to his ordinances, to family and secret prayer, and to the due observance of the Sabbath; that you will seek the honor of his name, and the interest of his kingdom; and, that henceforth, denying all ungodliness, and every worldly lust, you will live soberly, righteously and godly in the world.

Acknowledging this to be a church of Christ, you do now cordially unite with it, engaging to submit to its discipline so far as conformable to the rules of the gospel, solemnly covenanting to strive, as much as in you lies, to promote its peace, edification and purity, and to walk with its members in christian love and faithfulness; and, abandoning the sinful pleasures and amusements of the world, to prove what is that good and acceptable and perfect will of God.

THUS YOU COVENANT AND ENGAGE.

[The ordinance of Baptism will now be administered.]

We (the church rising) do now receive you into our communion, promising you our prayers and Christian love. And we severally engage, with the aid of divine grace, to walk with you in all brotherly watchfulness and kindness; praying that God would strengthen both you and us unto every good work, to do his will, working in us that which is well pleasing in his sight.

Now, beloved, you have opened your mouth unto the Lord. Wherever you go these vows will be upon you. You have unalterably committed yourselves, and henceforth you must be the servants of God. Hereafter the eyes of the world will be upon you, and, as you demean yourselves, so religion will be honored or dishonored; if you walk worthily of your profession you will be a credit and a comfort to us, but, if it be otherwise, it will be an occasion of grief and reproach. But, beloved, we are persuaded better things of you, and things which accompany salvation, though we thus speak. May the Lord guide and preserve you till death, and at last receive you and us to that blessed world where our love and joy shall be perfect. Amen.
ARTICLES OF FAITH AND COVENANT.

ECCLESIASTICAL PRINCIPLES AND RULES.

I. Rights of the church.—This church is independent, so far as relates to its internal organization, and the regulation of its affairs. It is amenable to no other ecclesiastical body, except by its own consent or according to regular and established Congregational principles. With these exceptions, it controls the admission, discipline and removal of its members, according to its own understanding of the word of God.

II. Connection with other churches.—This church will extend to other Evangelical Congregational churches, and receive from them that fellowship, advice and assistance which the law of Christ requires. It will extend the usual rights of communion, and practise the mutual transfer of members, according to its own convictions of duty. It holds itself bound to regard the decisions of regular Mutual Councils, when fairly conducted, and to seek the promotion of peace with all the churches of our Lord.

III. Transfer of Members.—The church will give dismissal of its members, in regular standing, on their application, and recommend them to the fellowship of other evangelical churches. But members of this church, removing at a distance from us, should obtain their dismissal within one year from the time of their removal, unless circumstances be such as to render a union with any other church inexpedient; and in such case they should inform the church why they have not requested a removal of their church connection. And it shall be the duty of the clerk to report to the church, at the annual meeting, the names of the members of this church who shall have removed from us; where they are, so far as may be known; and the length of time they have been from us; with any other information which he may possess in relation to them, and which he may think will be useful to the church. It is expected that members of other churches, who may wish to commune with this church for more than one year, will request a removal of their connection to us, unless they give satisfactory reasons for delay, to the Examining Committee.

IV. Rights of Members.—Every member has a right to church privileges, unless forfeited by misconduct; and, when thus forfeited, he can be deprived of them only by regular process. When accused, he has a right to know the explicit charges and to have an open and candid hearing. No vote of censure shall be passed upon any member, except by the concurrence of a majority of the members present at a regular meeting.

V. Duties of the Church and its Members.—It is the duty of this church and its members to consult and seek the concurrence of their Pastor in matters of discipline and internal regulations. It is the duty of the members to attend such stated meetings as are appointed by a vote of the church, unless providentially prevented. Any member having cause of complaint against another, should immediately seek to have it removed in a Christian manner—Matt. 18th chap., 15th and 16th verses, being our guide, especially in cases of personal offence. Any member wishing to withdraw from this to another church or denomination, should signify his wishes and his reasons, and apply in a proper spirit to be first released from his obligations to this church. Any other mode of withdrawing will be deemed irregular and censurable; but this church will grant dismis-sions and recommendations to members in good standing, who conscientiously prefer any other evangelical denomination of Christians, when they apply as stated above.

VI. Censurable offences.—This church considers immoral conduct, breach of express covenant vows, neglect of acknowledged religious or relative duties, and avowed disbelief of the articles of faith to which the members have assented, as offences subject to the censure of the church.

VII. Evidence.—The confession of the party accused, the concurrence of two competent witnesses to the same fact, or circumstantial evidence to the same amount, shall be deemed sufficient for conviction.

VIII. Censures.—The censures inflicted on offenders are private reproof, public admonition, suspension from church privileges, or excommunication, according to the aggravation of the offence.

IX. Permanent Officers.—The permanent officers of this church are the Pastor or Pastors, and the Deacons. To the Pastor pertains the office of Moderator. It shall be the duty of the Deacons to preside in the absence of the Pastor, according to seniority; to assist in the administration of the Lord’s Supper, to distribute the charities of the church, and to aid the Pastor generally in the spiritual care of the flock.

X. Annual officers and Standing Committees.—At the annual meeting for business, the following officers and committees shall be chosen for the ensuing year.

1. A Scribe, who shall keep the records of the church.

2. The Examining Committee, of which the Pastor and Deacons shall constitute a part, who shall examine all applicants for admission, and present in a report the names of such as they approve; also to act as a committee of inquiry with two other members.

3. The Sabbath School shall be under the direction of the church; the Superintendent to be chosen annually by the church.

XI. Standing Rules,—1. All meetings for business shall be opened with prayer.

2. Business connected with the interests of the church may be attended to at the monthly conferences or meetings specially appointed, or at any regular meeting of the church.

3. All Standing Committees and annual officers shall be chosen in January by ballot.

4. The Examining Committee may grant the use of the chapel as they shall judge expedient.

5. Persons belonging to other churches, having been approved of by the committee, being accepted by a vote of the church, and assenting to the articles of faith and covenant, become members in full communion, and are to be publicly declared such by the Pastor. Persons desirous of making a public profession of religion and of uniting with this church, are to be examined and approved of by the committee; and, then, having stood propounded before the congregation one week at least,—having been admitted by a vote of two-thirds of the members present at a stated meeting, and having assented to the articles of faith and covenant, before the church and congregation, they shall become members in full communion.

6. The church will observe the sacrament of the Lord’s Supper on the first Sabbath of January, March, May, July, September and November. Ordinance of Baptism to infants administered also.

7. The church meets on Wednesday evening for devotional exercises and religious conference, to promote their growth in Christian knowledge and grace, and for monthly conference on the Saturday preceding the first Sabbath of each month. The preparatory meeting shall be on the Saturday preceding the communion.

8. A general invitation shall be given from the pulpit previous to the sacrament, to all present in regular standing in the church of Christ to partake in the ordinance.

9. Every candidate for the pastoral office in this church, shall be required, prior to his installation, to assent or subscribe to the articles of faith adopted by this church, and, as soon thereafter as convenient, become a member of the church.

10. No alteration shall be made in the foregoing principles and rules, unless at a regular meeting of the church, it having been proposed at a previous regular meeting, and by a vote of two-thirds of the members present.
