 sor-rows and our joys. — Can you see the co - sy cor-ner

The first system of music consists of a vocal line on a single staff and a piano accompaniment on two staves. The vocal line begins with a treble clef and a key signature of one sharp (F#). The lyrics are: "-bi-tion I had tea. — Some were say - ing where they'd been in sor-rows and our joys. — Can you see the co - sy cor-ner". The piano accompaniment features a steady eighth-note bass line and chords in the right hand.

lands a - cross the sea, — Some were say - ing where they'd like to go, down the wind-ing lane, — Where you used to meet your sweet - est girl,

The second system of music continues the vocal line and piano accompaniment. The lyrics are: "lands a - cross the sea, — Some were say - ing where they'd like to go, down the wind-ing lane, — Where you used to meet your sweet - est girl,". The piano accompaniment maintains the same rhythmic pattern as the first system.

Some said you can tell us you've been up and down and 'round, I
