Home Economics Meeting Held in Practice House

The monthly meeting of the Home Economics Club was held on Tuesday evening, at the Practice House. About twenty-five members were present.

A business meeting was held. Nominations were made for the freshman members of the entertainment committee.

Miss Poyntz, instructor in Sociology, gave a splendid address on "Opportunities for Women in Social Service Work." She told much that was interesting and instructive.

The evening ended with a social hour. A special feature was the Christmas tree, laden with popcorn and candy.
