Voice

We're the jolly, jolly Juniors of the country. Singing gaily as we march along the way; For there's something in the rhythm of a march tune That will keep us swinging onward through the day. As the soldiers marching to the field of battle Spring to action at the rolling of a drum, - when there's music in the air you will find the Juniors there, Tra la la la! Tra la la la! Here we come!

2. Where the pines of Maine are singing to the ocean
Where the beach is warm beneath the summer sun,
Where the lakes reflect the skies of blue above them,
Where the brooklets and the winding rivers run,

There are always songs that wake the lazy echoes,
Sung by jolly Junior voices near and far;
When there's music in the air you will find the Juniors there!
Tra la la la! Tra la la la! Here we are!
