ci-ty street, The crowd goes hurrying on, youth with golden dreams Thro' the years And I've Trav-eled devious ways Sim-row, happiness and un-ful-filled And age with dreams long gone. Time has banished my smiles and Tears I re-call when fancy strays Life has offered me youth-ful hopes And the ci-ty's glamour palls Just a little white worth-less joys Whose tin-sel soon was shed But love left remembrance that farm down home, Is the dream that my heart re-calls.

 never dies In an old-fashioned white home-stead.

In my heart I am there, In an old rocking chair. Rock-ing and steady-like rocking chair

Talking with my loved ones gathered round me By the fireside there.

In an old rocking chair I am back again In my home in Maine In an old rocking chair
