THE MAINE HISTORICAL SOCIETY

Is Pleased to Announce

A Significant New Study

by Professor Gordon E. Kershaw

"Gentlemen of Large Property & Judicious Men"

THE KENNEBECK PROPRIETORS

1749-1775

Published in collaboration with the New Hampshire Publishing Company

"In this fascinating book, Gordon E. Kershaw explores in detail one of the main agencies of the northeastward push of New England settlement in the eighteenth century. For the first time, a writer has now looked closely at the grand men of these New England land companies and chronicled their colorful collective enterprise from birth to death. The result is an immense contribution to our understanding of colonial and Revolutionary northern New England."

The Maine Historical Society Quarterly is published at 485 Congress Street, Portland, Maine 04111. It is received four times a year by 1502 members and 143 libraries.

Articles appearing in this journal are abstracted and indexed in Historical Abstracts and America: History and Life.

Subscriptions to the Quarterly are available through membership only. Dues for membership in the Society start at $15.00.

The Quarterly is interested in considering articles pertaining to all aspects of Maine history which have not been published previously elsewhere. Normally, they should not exceed 6000 words in length.

All inquiries, manuscript submissions, membership applications, and requests for advertising schedules should be addressed to the editor, Gerald Morris.
