Happy Monday, all! I hope your week is off to a great start and that you all had a restful and happy Family and Friends Weekend here in Orono or wherever you’re reading this from! Hispanic/Latinx Heritage Month continues with Thursday’s Lunch and Learn, our first since before COVID-19 first arose so many months ago. I hope you can join us to listen and learn from some truly inspiring Hispanic leaders right here on our campus.

This Friday also kicks off LGBTQ+ History Month, and we will honor the occasion by once again hoisting the Philly Pride and Transgender Pride flags on the campus mall at noon. We will also stream the flag raising to our Facebook page for those who cannot be present in person.

We were excited to welcome our team of work-study students to staff training Friday evening and you can expect to start seeing them in our centers beginning this week as we confirm their schedules with them. Please join us in welcoming Xander, Auri, Tessa, Mina, Abriah, Alyssa, Maggie, Kalina, and Shreyash to the ODI team! We're happy you're here and can't wait to see what you create with us this year!

Lastly, a reminder that we have implemented a new form on our website for folks who would like to submit their events, programs, job postings, or other information to be included in this newsletter. We are fortunate to reach over 400 inboxes every week and we're happy to help promote your work as it pertains to our mission of furthering equity, diversity, and inclusion on campus and in our broader community. Please don't hesitate to reach out if I can be helpful.

Wishing you all a happy and healthy week to come!

All the best,

Rob Jackson

Florida's Board of Education has banned Critical Race Theory. But it's not all that clear if officials know what they voted for...or if activists understand what it is. Michael Moynihan is in Florida, asking the tough questions...like, what part of a fifth grader's textbook is teaching grad-school-level theory?
Maine Bound Adventure Center and the Office for Diversity and Inclusion invite you to participate in the Black Bear Outdoor Leadership Diversified (B BOLD) program, a weekend (overnight) full scholarship retreat for Students of Color. We hope to create a comfortable space where students can explore and grow in their leadership skills developed in the outdoor activities.

Jose Antonio Vargas, an award-winning multimedia storyteller, is the founder of Define American, a campaign that seeks to elevate the conversation around immigration. Born in the Philippines, Vargas immigrated to the United States at age 12. Stunning the media and political circles and attracting world-wide coverage, Vargas wrote the groundbreaking essay, "My Life as an Undocumented Immigrant," for the New York Times Magazine in the summer of 2011. A year later, he was the author (and subject) of a cover story for TIME magazine headlined "We are Americans — just not legally."

AMERICAN SIGN LANGUAGE CLUB

MONDAYS 6PM-7PM

WHAT'S OUR PURPOSE?

The purpose of American Sign Language (ASL) Club is to get club members comfortable with signing an introduction of who they are / where they come from in order to feel prepared to engage in conversation with deaf or hard of hearing people. Students will be a part of bridging the gap between hearing and Deaf cultures; they will gain new perspective. This preparedness will also come through learning about Deaf culture and the proper use of ASL.

WHERE?

We are currently meeting in front of the bear statue (on the opposite end of the library). When it gets too cold, we will relocate inside!
