Miss Dorothy Dot, in her little red chair,
Put her thimble on with a matronly air,

And said: "From this piece of cloth,
I guess,
I'll make baby brother a lovely dress."

She pulled her needle in and out,
And over and under and round about,

---

And through and through, till the snowy lawn
Was bunched and crumpled and gathered and drawn.

She sewed and sewed to the end of her thread;
Then holding her work to view she said:

"This is n't a baby-dress, after all;
It's a bonnet for my littlest doll!"
