Please share this invitation information with others who might be interested in watching this event.

Should you be interested in helping promote the mission and goals of the University of Maine's Women's, Gender, and Sexuality Studies Program, please visit here.

The Maryann Hartman Awards, named for the late UMaine Associate Professor of Communication, have recognized Maine women's achievement in the arts, politics, business, education and community service since 1986. Maryann Hartman (1927-1980) was a distinguished educator, feminist, scholar, and humanitarian.

The work of the Hartman award-winners provides inspiration to others and testifies to women's potential in their contemporary world.

Presented annually by the Women's, Gender, and Sexuality Studies Program, the awards increase campus and community awareness of women's issues and women's abilities to advance opportunities for all.
