1. Far, far from home, Sad - ly I roam, From Mil-
2. 'Mid friends of old, Gay stor-ies told, 'Side the wau-kee the Ger-man's Bo - hem - ia. Raths - kellers glare, ta - ble with steins o - ver - flow - ing. No nois-y din,

Beck - ons me there, The place where good fel - low-ship's prem - ier.
Com - rades all in, With fac - es and eyes all a - glow - ing,

Sei - dls and steins, Lob - sters and fines, Where the beer makes you Sad - ly I smile, Life seems worth while, When I think of the hap - py and talk - - y, Good health each one quaff - ing, At pals of my joy - - hood. Their dear friend - ly fac - es, My sor - row all laugh - ing, Oh! please take me back to Mil - wau - kee, mem - o - ry grac - es, It just takes me back to my boy - hood,

CHORUS.

Take me back to old Mil - wau - kee - town, — Where

p-ff

Pabst and Schlitz have both made hits, And won such great re - nown. — If you were me and I were you There's one thing I'd ask you to do, It's to take me — back to old Mil - wau - kee - town. — town. —
