REPORT OF SUPERVISOR OF SCHOOLS,

FOR THE YEAR ENDING MARCH 1, 1882.

DISTRICT No. 2... ROSCOE BAKER, Agent.

Summer Term—by Miss M. Stella Fall, of Albion. This was Miss Fall's first attempt at teaching, and as it was in her own district she labored under some difficulties; nevertheless, the scholars present at our last visit showed good improvement, and we think with experience she will become an excellent teacher.

Winter Term—by Mr. F. B. Hussey, of Albion. Under his faithful instruction the school was all that could be desired.

DISTRICT No. 3... R. L. BAKER, Agent.

Summer Term—by Miss Annie J. Chase, of Albion. Miss Chase merited success, and the progress of her scholars showed that they appreciated her faithful labor.

Winter Term—by the same teacher, with success as in the summer.

DISTRICT No. 4...ELIAS FOWLER, Agent.

Summer Term—by Miss Selima Ewer, of Albion. This was Miss Ewer's first attempt at teaching, and was a very profitable term.

Winter Term—by Chas. W. Brown, of Hampden, with fair success.

DISTRICT No. 5...DEARBORN FULLER, Agent.

Summer Term—by Miss Emma Webb, of Albion. Miss W. is a teacher of experience, and the closing examination showed that the time had been well improved.

Winter Term—was commenced by the same teacher, who left on account of sickness. The school was progressing favorably at our first visit.

DISTRICT No. 6...L. SHOREY, Agent.

Summer Term—by Miss Sadie F. Shorey, of Albion, an experienced and successful teacher. She fully sustained her former reputation.

Winter Term—by Miss Sadie F. Shorey with success as in the summer.

DISTRICT No. 8...SYLVANUS DAVIS, Agent.

Summer Term—by Miss Florence L. Fowler, of Albion, and was a first class school in every respect.

Winter Term—by Mr. J. C. Ryder, of Waterville, who is one of the best of teachers. Scholars make a steady improvement under his thorough and systematic instruction. This was his fifth term in district No. 8, and we hope to see him here again. The assistant for the term was Georgie Wilson. For report see No. 10.

DISTRICT No. 9...DAVIS McDONALD, Agent.

Summer Term—by Miss Charlotte B. Taylor, of Albion. Miss Taylor is well adapted to teaching. Teacher and scholars worked together, and the result was satisfactory.

Winter Term—by Miss Anna McGray, of Unity, an old and faithful teacher. The progress was excellent.

DISTRICT No. 10...GEO. RYDER, Agent.

Summer Term—by Miss Georgie A. Wilson, of Albion. Miss Wilson devoted herself to her task with an energy worthy of commendation, and the improvement showed that the term was very profitable.

Winter Term—by Miss May E. Bradstreet, of Freedom. Miss B. has always been a successful teacher, and we think she worked hard for the scholars in this district.

DISTRICT No. 11...OLIVER ABBOTT, Jr., Agent.

Summer Term—by Adelle M. Whitaker, of Waterville. This school was small and the term short. Miss W. is a young teacher, but we think she tried to make the term profitable.

Winter Term—by Miss Annie M. Pratt, of Benton. Miss P. is a teacher of experience, and the school ought to have been a good one.

DISTRICT No. 12...HARRISON CROSEY, Agent.

Summer Term—by Olive A. Gould.

Winter Term—by the same teacher.

DISTRICT No. 13...H. ROBINSON, Agent.

Summer Term—by Miss Lizzie Fuller, of Albion. This was Miss Fuller's first school, and the result was entire satisfaction.

Winter Term—by Miss Mellie Rowe, of Palermo. The school closed sooner than we expected, on account of sickness, consequently was visited but once. It was then doing well.

DISTRICT No. 14...NORRIS BRAGG, Agent.

Summer Term—by Miss Addie Littlefield, of Albion. This was Miss L.'s first school. After keeping a short time the school was closed, and not being notified we cannot, personally, report the progress.

Winter Term—by Charlotte B. Taylor, of Albion. For report see No. 9.

In closing, permit us to say that our reports are from personal observations at our several visits. We have endeavored to give an impartial statement of the condition of each school, and if we have erred, the error is not intentional.

Most of the schools for the past year have been good; a few have been unprofitable. It should be the object of the agent to secure the best teachers, and of the teacher to use all the means in his power to promote the welfare of his pupils. If teachers wish success, they must deserve it. We want our schools visited by the parents. It would do much towards increasing the interest of the pupils, and encouraging the teacher.

All of which is respectfully submitted.

OLIVE A. GOULD,

Supervisor of Schools, Town of Albion.
