The Season's Ballad Success

You Can't Forget the Old Love

WORDS OF CHORUS:

"You can't forget the old love, if that old love was true,
The old love lives forever, it's stronger than the new,
You'll find the whole world over, whatever you may do,
You can't forget the old love, if that old love was true."

A Catchy Waltz Melody and Pretty Story.

The Season's Story Song Success

In the Heart of the Rockies

(An Indian Love Story, Taken from Longfellow's Beautiful Poem "Hiawatha")

WORDS OF CHORUS:

"Way down in the valley, when the summer sun is red,
The corn is gently waiving, to and fro;
But the wigwams were forsaken, for the happy hunting grounds
In the heart of the Rockies, long ago."

Each Copy Contains a Pretty Quartette Arrangement of the Chorus.

The Season's Descriptive Song Hit

Don't Speak of Her Faults

WORDS OF CHORUS:

"Don't speak of her faults, when you meet her,
Act in the same old way—
Say the old home don't seem the same
Since she has been away;
Tell her the past is forgiven,
Beg her to come home, that's all—
Whisper that mother is lonely,
For my sake, don't speak of her faults."

A Pretty Waltz Chorus, the Story Taken from Life.
