In a quaint old coun - try school-room, — The teach - er asked each
Now the hol - i-days are ov - er, — The kid - dies have once.

lit - tle girl and boy — To tell her in a sim - ple note, What would give them greatest more re - turned to school, — Though all seem glad and full of cheer, There's one ex - cep - tion to the joy, — One girlie's note brought tears to the teach - er's eyes, When she read with great sur - prise. — rule, — One lit - tle girl is sad, Just as sad as can be, For no one heard her plea. —
