I won-der whats the mat-ter with me, I My wife does fam'-ly wash'in at home. As

'till ready just can't get a - long. I try my hand at ev'-ry-thing, and all the white folks knows and me - well, I just hang a - round, and ev' - ry - thing goes wrong Dame Fort - une smiles at car - ry back de clothes She chas - es me on some folks_ but at the me she on - - ly grins, The er - rands_ to the store most ev - - ry day. And way old hard luck chas - es me it sure - ly is a sin, The lets me have a dime or two, for gin a - long the way, But land - lord wants his mon - ey and I dont know what to do, cause late - ly she's been ail - in' and she has - n't made a cent, I've these hard times is migh - ty hard, and dimes are migh - ty begged and bor - rowed ev' - ry where but I dont raise dat few. I told my wife to pack our things, cause rent, I hates to think of mov - in' but the we'd be mov - in' soon, She bounced a bed - slat time is migh - ty near. And when I men - tion on my head and said please tell me coon, Well it to her why this is all I hear.

CHORUS

Whats the use of mov-in' when you got no place to go, p-f

We can't sleep be - neath no tree, and cov-er up with snow, I'll give up pie, and cake and meat, but I won't face that cold and sleet, so What's the use of mov-in' when you got no place to go, — Well go.
