THE SONG THAT MY MOTHER SANG TO ME.

Words and Music by HERBERT H. TAYLOR.

Andante con espressione.

There's an old New Eng - land home - stead, near - ly cov - ered o'er with flow'rs Where the Ma - ny years have brought their chan - ges since we part - ed long a - go But a morn - ing glo - ries clus - ter 'round the door — There a moth - er's love will still re - main the same — And that moth - er dear has wait - ed and through man - y wea - ry hours She has love to me is dear - er far than a - ny thing I know And I prayed just to see her boy once more I was care not for rich - es wealth or fame some think - ing of the pic - ture and it made the tear drops start And day I'm go - ing back a - gain to see the same old place And
