The Executive Committee is made up of Frank Chadwick, chairman, Arnold Corbett, Richard Morrison, Kenneth Pruett, and Janet Wheeler.

The members of the Banquet Committee are Helen Eaker, chairman, Harold Boardman, Ruth Clark, Kenneth Johnstone, and E. Sturgis.

DR. CLOKE ADDRESSES FRESHMEN
 Last Sunday evening in the Recreation Room of Hannibal Hamlin Hall, a very interesting talk on the Honor System was given the freshman boys by Dean Cloke.

The Dean presented the subject in such a way that he made the underlying purpose of the proposed system very clear. He gave some striking examples of the value of the Honor System; he told of several colleges which have inaugurated a system similar to the one proposed for Maine.

An open forum followed and the boys were given an opportunity to express their views regarding the proposed system.
EDITORIAL

It seems that it is entirely unnecessary for the members of the freshman class to deface any of the university property as was done last Wednesday evening. The mere thought that freshman rules are likely to be prolonged if this reoccurs is not the proper incentive to influence its repetition. Certainly no member of this class would willingly deface any of the property of his own home. If not, then why should university property be marked with foolish ditties. The university is your home during the time that you stay here and should be treated as you would treat your own home. Besides, the expense for removing the damage has to be sustained by every member of the freshman class. This cost will in all probability be added to the class dues and it is indeed an entirely unnecessary expense. It is earnestly hoped by the members of the class that there will be no reoccurrence of this foolishness, for that is all that it amounts to. When a fellow comes to college, he is supposed to be of a more mature mind than the average high school boy. This prank of defacing property seems to be a very childish trick and the university cannot be blamed for being put out over the matter.

Aside from all this, the reputation of the class of 1930 must be considered. Everyone watches the activities of its members, and if the class is judged by such action, it will be hard to show the true worth of our class to the rest of the university. Very often the virtues of a class are easier to erase than to obtain.

"Hello"

The traditional Maine "hello" is rapidly becoming a thing of the past. Come on, Freshmen, let's do our stuff! It's up to us to keep it going.

THE CHIMNEY CORNER

That was a captivating man at assembly on Tuesday! He was old and tired, but through his frailness, there kept welling up the refined nature, poetic vision, sparkling wit, dashing courage, that had made him shine forth from an isolated isle to lighten the whole world. Hard to think of this purveyor of Irish whimsies as a target for the missles of robbers, as a producer planting the audience with police, then deliberately starting the show that would bring on the fight! What had such delicacy to do with violence? One wonders.

But is it not natural that the more sensitive a courageous man is to wrong, the more he feels the obligation to end it? It is the delicate man who has the compelling sense of need that makes a fight worthwhile and endurable. Sensitiveness and courage are wedded in such persons as William Butler Yeats, and they bring forth power that captures the heart of the world.

MISS STONE ADDRESSES FRESHMAN GIRLS

The third meeting of the Freshman Y was held Wednesday evening at Mount Vernon. Hazel Scully, chairman of the program committee, called the meeting to order.

The subject of the evening was "Love Bungling". Miss Stone, a member of the English Department of the University, led the discussion. The meeting closed with the singing of several Maine songs.

Sue Bailey Thurman, outstanding negro Y.W.C.A. leader, will be in charge of the next meeting, to be held Wednesday, Nov. 9, at Mt. Vernon. All freshman girls, whether Y members or not, are cordially invited to attend.

CARE OF MEN'S DORMS

We have all seen the new fire boxes located on each floor of the dormitories. They have been put up for the protection of those living there. Let us try to take good care of them, and show others that the class of '36 appreciates them.

In years past they have been removed because the freshmen have misused them. Let's not tamper with them, but regard them as a means for protection.

THE FRESHMAN

Monday Night Mount Vernon witnessed one of the most boisterous merrymakings it has ever witnessed in its years of association with Freshman girls. Each and every maiden was requested to dress in costume for dinner.

When the dinner bell finally rang, many and various were the costumes to be seen in the artistically decorated dining-hall. Each one was presented with favors, and a delicious four-course dinner was enjoyed, topped off with pumpkin pie, angel cake, pop-corn and candy.

After dinner, everybody joined in singing University songs. At 6.30 the party broke up, but many strange and unusual happenings continued far into the night.

The Mount Vernonites certainly went beyond their usual bonds of good behavior and decorum, and indulged in one grand and glorious Hallowe'en.

FRESHMAN BAND MEMBERS

The band has made a very fine showing at all the football games this season, and every student should be proud of it for it has had a great influence in developing the Maine Spirit. We Freshmen should be particularly proud of it, since nearly half its members are recruited from our ranks.

The members of the band who are freshmen are Adams, Barker, Blanchard, H. Boardman, J. Boardman Bridges, Brooks, Brown, Clunie, Copeland, Cunningham, Currie, Duncan, Freeman, Gowan, Harrison, Hatch, Jones, Levensaller, Little, McAlary, Rollins, Sisco, Stewart, Vaughan, Walker, Washington, Webber, Williard. The following are on trial for membership, Becheller, Ford, McCausland, Mongovan, Morton, Mullen, Murphy, Sanders, Verrill, Viner, and Wellman.
The Freshman football team enjoyed its most successful week of the season, winning from the Junior Varsity last Monday by a score of 6-0, and rolling over Ricker Classical Institute, 20-0.

The Freshmen made their lone score against the Jayvees when Smith, fleet frost end, intercepted a Jayvee pass on his own ten yard line and with perfect interference raced 90 yards across the goal line.

The first touchdown in the Ricker game came as the result of a steady 65 yard march with Bean and Pruett doing most of the ball carrying. Sargent carried the ball over, and a pass for the extra point was incomplete.

In the third quarter, Littlehalo and Bean brought the ball to the 12 yard line. Varsity took it to the 2 yard marker, and Littlehalo crashed through right tackle for another six points. Adams kicked the point from placement.

A Ricker pass was intercepted in the final period, and after another march of thirty yards, Littlehalo again scored. Sargent drop-kicked the point.

Every member of the Freshmen squad played at some time during the game.

HARRIERS IN N.E.I.C.A.A. MEET

The Cross Country teams A and B broke even Wednesday. Team B defeated Winterport, and by a score of 39-45, and Houlton made a perfect score against Team A.

The seven Freshmen finishing first in the meet, Prince, O'conner, Ives, Boston, Beall, Cunningham, and Dionna, were sent to the N.E.I.C.A.A. meet in Boston. They will return Tuesday.

ATTEND THE FRESHMAN-SOPHOMORE GAME NEXT SATURDAY
Greetings, brother Frosh, once more on our glorious theme morning—Monday to you, if you aren't wide enough awake to realize it—Speaking of themes, one bright freshman took a good dose of other for his inspiration--Ask anyone in Oak Hall—all of them may have tried it for all I know—(nothing)—And, Boy O Boy, it is certainly a calamity when C.Buck can't hold his ice-cream sodas—Ask Coo(A)nnie about it for further details, he knows—to much—One of our women luminaries—N. Harvey—by name—Came out of the library last week and saw some upperclassmen waving frantically in her direction—Being a good (?) girl she waved back—But listen—they were only surveying Boy was she all blushes—Ask her if you dare—Beware you little tormentors of poor defenseless pop-guns or you will get one of the new Autumn haircuts—Say, what's going on in the collar of Oak Hall? I think that the older man must have made plenty of money this week—Pass the word around when all is said—Not your themes tho—Help is desired immediately by C.F. He can't see the difference between being punished and marrying some gentleman's daughter—That's this we hear about Beanie hood's suit of cellulose—What a fire chief!—Boy, I know plenty who would like to be enterprising young firemen—There are plenty of Frosh on the masculine side who came to college to major in astronomy and anatomy—and—I'm all out of info as my correspondents are getting lax—As a parting shot, KEEP AWAY FROM THE SWINGING DOORS OF THE LIBRARY—That's all.

FRESHMAN SCHOLARSHIP CUP

Beginning with the class entering the University in 1936, the University has awarded a cup each year to that Maine secondary school having three or more of its graduates in full standing in the Freshman Class whose representatives as a group attain the highest scholastic standing for the fall semester. The announcement of the award is made as soon as the fall semester ranks are in and the averages can be computed.

In the spring of 1931 the cup was awarded to Fort Kent High School.

You can see how important it is that your standing is kept high and no absences are reported. The cup awarded last year was a very handsome one and worth trying for. Who will get it this year?

The following are the schools eligible for the competition this year:
Auburn (Edward Little)
Augusta (Cony)
Bangor
John Papst
Bethel (Gould Acad.)

Boothbay Hbr.
