500 Maine Day Workers Toil In Wet Weather

Maine Day 1953 dawned chilly and damp, the sun didn't rise in Orono that day, but the University Band did, and roused approximately 500 loyal workers to salvage the projects despite inclement weather.

The highlight of the day was the inauguration of the new mayor, Norman Brochu, class of '56, who gamboled into office on a "revive the rallies" platform.

The day's events began with exchange breakfasts at 7:30 followed by the work period from 8:30-11:30. John Randall reported that the spirit of the workers was great and their accomplishments better still. Refreshments were distributed at each project by chuckwagons.

The float parade was held as scheduled, allowances being made for damage done by the rain. The names of the winners were not available at press time.

The student-faculty skit, "State of Mainia," added the final punch to the damp but undaunted holiday. Once again, Prexy Hauck stole the show with his dancing and clowning. He was ably assisted by Russ Woolley, Eileen Cassidy, Stan "Wally" Wallace, Nelson Jones, Bob Dunlap, Dean Wilson, and many other faculty members, as well as a raft of students headed by Phil Haskell. Not only was the legislature pleased by the new budget, but the audience was enthusiastically appreciative of its presentation.

Cheerleader Tryouts

Tryouts for the position of cheerleader for the coming year will be held Monday, Tuesday, and Wednesday, May 18, 19, 20, in the Memorial Gym, from 7-9 p.m.

Dionne Presented Alumni Sabre At Annual Review

Patrick Dionne was presented the Alumni Sabre this morning at the annual military inspection as being the outstanding graduating ROTC cadet.

Honorary Colonel Janet Marston presented Dionne with the award.

Mr. James A. Gannett was the honored guest and reviewing official in appreciation of his 45 years of service at the University and his interest in ROTC.

Largest In History

More than 1,000 students participated in the review. This marks the largest Cadet Corps in the history of the University.

Other awards at the 9:25 a.m. ceremony were as follows:

Two awards were presented for the first time this year by the Penobscot Valley Reserve Officers Association. Henri Breton, Outstanding Performance while serving as a Company Commander, and Paul Marcoux, for Outstanding Performance while serving as a First Sergeant, received the awards.

Inspecting officers were Colonel George W. Palmer, Colonel Benjamin E. Thurston, Lieutenant Colonel George W. Putnam, Lieutenant Colonel John O'Connell, and Major Joseph F. Sulkowsky.

Election Results

Those elected to key campus positions at General Elections Tuesday were:

General Student Senate:

President: Gorham Hussey; Vice President: Charles Hussey; Secretary: Sandra Glorsky; Treasurer: Nancy Witham.

Athletic Association:

Student Religious Association:

President: Don Poulin; Vice President: Nancy Caton; Secretary: Joan Letourneau; Treasurer: Mark Lieberman.

Mayor:

Norman Brochu. The Senate Constitution amendment was passed by a wide margin of 1290 to 206, which makes the constitution amendable at a student referendum at any time during the school year, instead of at General Spring Elections as it previously read.

Informal Program Planned; Use Of Facilities Begins Next Week

BY JOE RIGO

The Memorial Union Building will observe its opening day by holding open house Sunday from 2 to 5 p.m. The building will open for regular use Monday at 7 a.m.

The opening day program will be informal in nature, according to Janice Griswold, chairman of the committee handling the event. It will commence with a jazz concert led by Don Lord. This will be followed by a short movie program, and at 4 p.m. the ensemble groups of the music department will present their annual concert. These events will all take place in the Bangor Room of the north wing.

In the main lounge in the south wing, a string trio composed of Jean Dolloff, Elizabeth Hopkins, and Hilda Lesch, will present an informal program lasting for the major part of the afternoon.

In the food service department on the ground floor a television set will be in operation during the period that the Bangor station is on the air. Also in the Main Lounge and in the Orono Room, tea and punch will be served.

The Senior Skulls, All Maine Women, the Sophomore Owls and Sophomore Eagles will assist the Union Building Committee in serving refreshments and acting as guides and ushers.

In planning the open house, Miss Griswold and her committee had in mind a program which would not have to be followed rigorously, but one which would provide entertainment of some kind for those people desiring it through the open house hours.

Beginning Monday, May 18, the building will be open daily 7 a.m. to 11 p.m. with full time custodians on duty. The Sales Desk in the lobby and the food service department will be open from 7:30 a.m. to 10:30 p.m. daily except Sunday when the food service hours will be 9 a.m. to 2:30 p.m. and 5:30 to 10:30 p.m. The Sales Desk on Sunday will be open from 9 a.m. to 1 p.m. and 5 to 10 p.m.

At this Sales Desk there will be an information service, a lost and found section, and the issuing of games and recordings, and the sale of cigarettes, candy, newspapers, and magazines.

The food service will operate similarly to the bookstore and Carnegie. However, hot foods from the grill will also be available. The Union is now sponsoring a "Name the Room" contest to find a suitable name for this department. First prize is ten dollars worth of credit.

On the matter of governing, the present Union Building Committee will continue temporarily to be the operating student board to plan social programs and discuss policies of operations, according to Nelson B. Jones, Union director.

Inasmuch as only two weeks of classes remain, an extensive program for the Union is not planned for this year, Jones says. However, a limited number of social events will be held.

Commencement Plans Now Underway For June 11-14

Two important announcements and a complete Commencement Week program has been released by the commencement week committee.

Orchestra for the commencement ball has been announced as Brad Kent, who will come directly from the Copley Plaza in Boston.

The orchestra has played on the Maine campus once before when two years ago it was engaged to play for the Sophomore Hop.

Commencement week chairman Phil Haskell has also announced that each senior will tentatively receive five tickets to this year's commencement exercises. However, each senior will also have the privilege of applying for more.

The Right Reverend Gerald Francis Burrill, Suffragan Bishop of the Diocese of Dallas, Texas, will deliver the baccalaureate sermon Sunday, June 14, at 10:30 a.m. in the Memorial Gym.

Principal speaker for the commencement exercises will be Dr. Reuben G. Gustavson, chancellor of the University of Nebraska.

The Commencement Week program:

Thursday, June 11

6:00 p.m.—Senior buffet supper and entertainment, Memorial Gym
8:00-12:00 p.m.—Informal dance, Memorial Gym

Friday, June 12

10:00 a.m.—Senior Class Meeting,

Memorial Gym
1:45 p.m.—Class Day Exercises, The Oval
3:15 p.m.—All Maine Women Pageant, Coburn Green
4:00-5:00 p.m.—President and Mrs. Hauck, "At Home," President's House

Senior Skulls Tap Seven Men

Seven junior men were tapped Senior Skulls at the annual Junior Class Assembly Tuesday morning in the Memorial Gym.

Those achieving the highest non-scholastic honor available to senior men were: Llewellyn E. Clark, Mark H. Cohen, Gorham W. Hussey, Mark S. Lieberman, Paul E. Marcoux, John E. Randall, and Davis E. Wiggin. Patrick Dionne presented the awards in the absence of Skull president Linwood Carville.

Davis Wiggin, junior class president, presided at the meeting and introduced reports on the budget, the 1954 Prism, Beaux Arts Ball, and business for next year.

University Society

BY HILDA STERLING

Pi Beta Phi held their annual Initiation and Founders' Day Banquet Saturday evening at the Penobscot Valley Country club. Phyllis Noyes received the Amy Burnham Onken award for Alpha East Province. This designates that Phyllis is the outstanding active member of Pi Beta Phi in this Province. She is candidate for the national award. Mary June Renfro was named the outstanding pledge of the year. An entertainment by the initiates was in the form of a skit, "Pi Phi Angels in Disguise." Jan Hovey was toastmistress. Speakers were Barbara Brown and Gwen Bryant. The committee for the banquet was Frances Willett, chairman; Sally Carroll, programs; and Lee Joy, place cards.

Phi Mu sponsored their annual Mother's Day Bazaar and Tea Saturday afternoon in Balentine Sun Parlor. Various homemade foods and articles were sold. Punch and cookies were served to the guests. Jean Kincaid was general chairman.

The Newman Club held their annual picnic Saturday at the club hall. A picnic lunch was served, and softball, dancing, and games were enjoyed by the group. Chaperons for the affair were Mr. and Mrs. T. L. Sullivan, the Rev. Abel Herbert, and the Rev. Francis LeTourneau. Harriet Taylor, Annette Langevin and Tom Sullivan were the committee in charge of the arrangements.

ATO held their annual Daisy Mae Party Friday evening. Approximately one hundred couples danced to the music of the Hal Burill Trio. The decorations conformed to the theme of Dogpatch with the figures of Daisy Mae and Lil Abner featured on the front of the house. Mr. and Mrs. M. L. French and Mother Meeks were the chaperons. Refreshments of sandwiches, cookies, and punch were served.

Omicron Nu, Home Economics honor society, sponsored an informal tea Wednesday afternoon in recognition of the freshman Home Ec majors who made Dean's List. A display was arranged by Jane Mitchell of the society's pin, scrap book and national magazine. Pink and lavender flowers decorated the serving table. Mary Noyes was general chairman.

AOPi held their annual Spring Initiation and Banquet at the Penobscot Valley Country club Sunday evening. The new initiates are: Diana Livi, Sally Anderson, Jane Rodick, and Evelyn Whitney. Alice Rinehart was toastmistress with Sue Chase, Margaret Smith, Mary Moore, and Evelyn Whitney as speakers.

Sixteen Tri Deltas attended a regional meet at Boston University on Saturday. Representatives from the alumni and college chapters of New England were present. The group enjoyed discussion periods, a luncheon, and tea.

Mrs. Mary Pray, housemother of Sigma Chi, was given a surprise birthday party last Tuesday evening by the members, pledges, and wives of the fraternity. Refreshments of cake and punch were served.

The freshman class sponsored a stag dance in the Women's Gym Saturday evening. Music was provided by the Freshman Band with Pat Gill as vocalist.

Lambda Chi sponsored a tea and reception Sunday afternoon at Carnegie Lounge in connection with the art exhibit, "Contemporary Schools, USA—Maine." Dick Newdick was chairman of the reception committee.

Pinned: Vic St. Pierre, Phi Eta, to Doris Baron, Caribou; Al Paine, Lambda Chi, to Sue Humphrey; Al Smith, Phi Kap, to Norma Lee Cumming.

Engaged: Jane Wheeler, 1952, to Bob Whytock, Phi Eta; Henrietta Byrd to Bob Artesani.

Married: Carole Armstrong to Bill Bunter; Dorothy Booth to Mike Dimitre.

Speech Department Class To Give 'Don Juan In Hell'

On Saturday, May 16, the Advanced Oral Interpretation class of the speech department will give a performance of "Don Juan In Hell," an excerpt from "Man And Superman," by George Bernard Shaw, before members of the Faculty Arts Club and their guests.

The performance will be held in the Little Theatre.

3000 People Hear Laughton

Approximately 3,000 people packed the Memorial Gym last Monday night to hear "An Evening With Charles Laughton" with the famed actor, producer, and director, delivering a series of readings ranging from some extremely light poetry to a chapter from the Bible.

Opening his program with some comments and poetry, he soon was in a discussion on sadism in children's literature. From this stemmed the James Thurber parody on Little Red Riding Hood, The Little Girl And the Wolf, in which the little girl at the crucial moment takes a revolver from her purse and shoots the beast. This led into another Thurber piece, "The Bear Who Could Leave It Alone."

From Thurber he turned to a serious speech from the movie "Rembrandt", in which he appeared several years ago. This particular excerpt was that of a man discussing his wife. Laughton termed the selection "soupy but nice."

He followed this with a portion of Shaw's "Don Juan In Hell" and then closed the first part of his program with a lengthy reading from Charles Dickens' "Little Dorit."

In almost all of his readings, Laughton drew or inferred comparisons between the works, mostly written many years ago, and how easily they could be interpreted to seem to be referring about the present day. One which he particularly felt expressed this connection was the Don Juan selection, written just after the turn of the century, but which comments greatly on mankind's far greater proficiency in handling matters of war than those of peace.

The second part of the program featured works by Thomas Wolfe and Hans Christian Andersen, and the third chapter of the Book of Daniel concerning Shadrach, Meshach, and Abednego and their adventures with the fiery furnace. He concluded the 2½ hour program with two works by Abraham Lincoln: his first clumsy, political speech delivered at Pappysville, Illinois, when Lincoln was running for the state legislature, and then the polished Gettysburg Address.

Student Group Holds Hearing On Violation

A student committee has held a hearing as a student judiciary and made recommendations to the committee on administration on a student violation of University rules. John Stewart, Dean of Men, revealed last week at the SRA Coffee Hour.

Talking to a small group, Dean Stewart said the General Student Senate committee studying the matter of a judiciary, had investigated and held a hearing on a student case. The committee on administration had accepted the recommendation and commended the board.

Stewart said this test case—to learn how students did on such hearings—was conducted with the approval of the Committee on Administration and the consent of the student, who afterwards said he was "very happy with the decision."

Leon J. Segal, chairman of the judiciary committee, told the group the proposed judiciary would be called a Student Advisory Board, "as a name more fitting to its duties."

The Board would, according to Segal, acquaint students with university rules, and advise the deans of men and women on individual violations.

This would not, as the committee now sees it, touch fraternities as organizations. The WSGA would handle violations of rules that were only for women—dormitory regulations, for instance. The Advisory Board would handle both men's and women's cases when the rule broken concerns all students.

The Board, according to Segal, would be composed of eight members, four men and four women, three of whom would be seniors, three juniors, and two sophomores. They would be elected in the spring, after a stiff filtering process, to serve the next year.

In choosing members, the Senate nominating committee would pick a slate and give a full report on each nominee to the General Student Senate. The Senate would discuss and nominate others. These new nominees would be checked by the nominating committee and reported on at the next Senate meeting. At this meeting, probably the first one in May, Segal said, the Senate would further discuss, but could not make any more nominations, and would then vote.

Dean Stewart, in answer to questions, said in most schools the judiciary was an advisory board, but its recommendations were always taken, although sometimes colleges had to lighten punishments when boards became too strict.

Another point Stewart made in discussion, was that the student committee had wanted the deans of men and women to have a hand in picking Advisory Board members. Stewart said he was entirely against this; it should be a student organization. At his request the committee dropped that part of their plan.

Dance Program

The Panhellenic Council will sponsor a modern dance recital Sunday, May 17, at 3 p.m., in the Little Theatre. There is no admission charge.

Theta Chi Wins Sing; Twenty Owls Tapped

Theta Chi took the laurels at the Interfraternity Sing last Tuesday evening. Delta Tau Delta and Sigma Phi Epsilon were the runners-up.

The ninth annual sing was sponsored by the Interfraternity Council. Patrick H. Dionne was the master of ceremonies, and co-chairmen were Philip Haskell and Gardiner Hall.

The winner's trophy, donated by the Ohio Alumni Association, was presented to Theta Chi by President Hauck. Theta Chi sang "Winter Song," "My Dear Little Girl of Theta Chi," and "Fraternity Anthem." Robert Savage was the leader.

Honorable mention awards were presented to the runners-up. Delta Tau Delta, directed by Gerald Humphrey, sang "Drinking Song," and "Sing To The Royal Purple." Sigma Phi Epsilon presented "De Animal a-Comin'" and a medley of Sig Ep Songs. They were led by Dana Baggett.

Twenty new Owls were announced at the sing by Winship Moody, president of the society. They were: James G. Bragdon, Hiram S. Bronson, Malcolm G. Boutilier, Roderick J. Cyr, Don E. Douglas, Lee E. Fitzgerald, Richard B. Griswold, Stuart P. Haskell, Emory B. Howard Jr., Richard C. Keith, Nicholas F. Khoury, John A. Nivison II, Robert C. Oldfield, Michael F. Polese, Norman R. Roux, Robert E. D. Scribner Jr., Jan E. Saleeby, Thomas N. Seavey, John H. Small, and Edric P. Starbird.

Moody also announced the recipient of a $50 Owls scholarship. John A. Nivison II was awarded the scholarship on the basis of his scholarship, character, need, and service to the University.

International Club Plans Millinocket Trip Soon

Approximately 25 people will attend the International Club's trip to Millinocket, May 22-24, according to Rev. Charles E. O'Connor of the Student Religious Association.

The churches of Millinocket have invited the Club to go mountain climbing on Saturday. Sunday, the group, as guests of the Great Northern Paper Company, will make an inspection tour of Ripogenus Dam.

Members of the Millinocket church parish have opened up their homes for the group. A banquet in their honor will be held in the municipal building on Saturday evening.

Sanat Majmudar of India, graduate student of the University and former member of the club, now working in the Millinocket mill, is co-ordinator of the trip.

SAE Elects

Winship Moody has been elected president of Sigma Alpha Epsilon. Other officers are Joseph Kneeland, vice president; Rodney Moulton, secretary; and Donald Poulin, treasurer.

Maine Second In Woods Events

Dartmouth College, with a score of 1148.7 out of a possible 1300 points, won in the Woodsmen Week End events held here last Saturday and Sunday. Maine was second with 1107.4 points.

The Maine teams won the felling and twitching event, 34.1 seconds; cross-cut sawing event, 26.4 seconds; buck sawing event, 86.1 seconds; and the log rolling event, 88.0 seconds.

Five schools, with eight teams entered the events. Each school was allowed to enter two teams, composed of six men each. Schools participating in the events were Dartmouth, Middlebury, Kimbal Union Academy, McGill, and Maine.

Group To Present 'Don Juan In Hell'

"Don Juan in Hell" will be performed in the Little Theatre at 8:15 p.m., Thursday, May 21, by the Advanced Oral Interpretation class of the speech department.

There will be no admission charge. Tickets for reserved seats may be obtained at 330 Stevens Hall. Mrs. Joyce Stevens, instructor in speech, is the director.

The group reading, an excerpt from "Man and Superman" by George Bernard Shaw, is also being presented at 7:45 p.m. this Saturday, before members of the Faculty Arts Club.

If you think we haven't heard about it, call Ext. 242.

Coles To Be Featured Speaker Scholarship Day

President James S. Coles of Bowdoin College will be featured speaker at Scholarship Recognition assembly, Tuesday, May 19, at 9:25 a.m. in the Memorial Gym.

Inaugurated last October as Bowdoin's ninth president, Dr. Coles has achieved prominence as a scientist and educator. He graduated from the Mansfield (Pa.) State Teachers College in 1934, and received graduate degrees from Columbia University.

During the war years, 1943-46, he did research at the Underwater Research Laboratory at Woods Hole, Massachusetts, having previously taught at City College of New York and at Middlebury. In 1946 he joined the Brown University faculty and the following year was made executive officer of the department of chemistry at Brown.

In 1951 Dr. Coles was appointed acting dean of the college, continuing as executive head of the chemistry department. His success at Brown as teacher and administrator led to his selection as president of Bowdoin.

Awards And Scholarships

Announcement of several scholarships and prizes and other awards will be made at this assembly. A new award, the Maine Association of Engineers Honor Award, will be made this year for the first time. High moral character, scholastic achievement, and qualities of leadership are the factors considered in choosing the recipient of this honor.

The fraternity scholarship cup and the Panhellenic Society scholarship award will be presented by the outgoing presidents of these organizations, Pat Dionne and Phyllis Noyes.

President Hauck will preside at the assembly, and there will be music by the University orchestra. Members of Neai Mathetai, the freshman women's honor society, will be ushers.

Grady To Be Speaker At WSGA Assembly

The W.S.G.A. compulsory General Assembly will be held second hour on Friday, May 15.

The program for the assembly will include the presentation of the new officers of W.S.G.A. and W.A.A., announcement of the recipient of the A.A.U.W. award, and acceptance of the Blue Book revisions.

Gerald Grady, assistant professor of government, will be the guest speaker. Professor Grady, receiving his education at Lawrence College and Chicago University, came to Maine in 1949. He is the faculty advisor to the General Student Senate. The title of his talk will be "Not So Ivory Towered."

Senate Names Officers For Committee Posts

Election of committees for next year made up the greater part of last week's General Student Senate meeting.

Named to committees were: elections, Joan Reed, Janet Bishop, Allen Anderson, Fred Breslin, Muriel Marcou, Frances Hanson, Anne Austin, and Edward McManus.

Social affairs, Jean Grindle, George Weiland, Gwen Bryant, Margo McCarthy, Charles Hussey, Robert Oldfield, Paul Marcoux, and Edward Knight.

Assembly, Richard Keith, Maurice Hickey, Patrick Parent, Shirley Kirk, Patricia Damour, and Patricia Parsons.

Winter carnival, Alice Rinehart, Peter Wilson, Cynthia Nelson, and Richard Gardiner.

In other business the Senate discussed changes in the constitution that were voted on in Tuesday's election. It also voted to limit the student members of the Assembly Committee to six.

In a closed session at the start of the meeting the Senate voted to ask assistant professor Gerald Grady to return as faculty advisor for the group next year. This action was later approved by President Hauck as required by the Senate constitution.

Legislature Grants Funds

The Maine State Legislature has granted the University a total of $3,365,144 for the biennium 1953-55. This amount while approximately $500,000 under the amount requested by the University compares with $2,537,192 for the present two year period.

Of Noise And Rallies

The unforeseeable error in scheduling which brought together in the same evening the climax of the mayoralty campaign and the appearance of Charles Laughton was unfortunate but it could not be helped. Neither could the weather which tied a heat record for that date. What could and should have been prevented with a minimum of thought was the noise outside the gym which was only too audible during many parts of Laughton's readings.

The date for Laughton's appearance was necessarily set in March of last year, long before the date for the 1953 Maine Day had been officially set, but once made, it could not be changed. In future years, incidentally, Maine Day will automatically be on the second Wednesday of May, leaving no chance for a recurrence of such conflicts. But this year the conflict was there and there was nothing to do but to make the best of a bad situation. We do not feel that this was done very well.

What prompted the outside noise does not matter so much as the fact that it was there and that Laughton and his companions undoubtedly noticed it. It is from experiences like this that Laughton will derive his opinion of the University, one which he will carry with him, and one which he will have no special reason to keep secret.

If those making the noise did not want to hear him, that was their business, but there is no excuse for disturbing an already heat irritated assembly with further disturbance, mayoralty campaign or otherwise.

The Lecture Series

Speaking of Laughton, we would like to point out that this was the last in this year's University-Community Lecture Series. In the past two years this series has brought some of the greatest names in the lecturers to the campus and presented them to the students and faculty, as well as people from the neighboring communities, free of charge.

Last year it was Edward Weeks, editor of the Atlantic Monthly. Because of the time needed to arrange for speakers, he was the only one to appear. However, this year the series boasted people like John Mason Brown, associate editor of the Saturday Review; James B. Reston, now the Washington correspondent for the New York Times; Y. P. Mei, visiting expert on China; and, of course, Laughton. There are more planned for next year.

All these speakers draw high salaries, salaries which would prohibit their being brought here were it not for the generosity of two Bangor residents who, while wishing to remain anonymous, promised to donate $2,500 to the University for each of three years beginning last year to aid the school to present these high-caliber speakers.

We would like to go on record as expressing a deep vote of thanks from the 3,000 who heard Laughton Monday, the thousands who have heard and will hear the other speakers in the series, as well as those who, while perhaps not interested in the lectures actively, appreciate the prestige their presence on our lecture schedule brings to the University.

Voting Again

On Tuesday the student body turned out an excellent proportion of its members to elect new officers in several student organizations as well as choose the winners of major awards. It is curious, however, that this number was still far short of the total number of students enrolled.

The balloting was specially designed to consume a minimum of time and energy, but people still don't vote. Why? The Campus letter column will be glad to hear their reasons.

Opinionettes

Question: What impressed you most on your visit to the University?
(Asked of high school students up for Open House)

Ann Gero, Orono High School: This sure is an awful big place. I couldn't begin to find my way around. The library impressed me with its beauty, but the Gym is really wonderful—a bit larger than home.

Reginald Sawtelle, Lubec High School: I like the 'keep off the grass' signs. I was all set to cross a lawn when I ran into one—I took the hint, too.

Helen Corbett, Piscataquis Community High School, Guilford: There's so much to see and do that I couldn't really say what impressed me most, but I'll tell you what depressed me the most—all the walking.

Merritt Blake, Camden High School: I've been here before but I'm always impressed by two things: the Field House and the number of people. Something new has been added—who's this Honest John?

Bill Fleming, Bangor High School: The hospitality and hearty welcome I received really impressed me, since I've seen the campus before. But the Indoor Athletic Field is something that will always impress me.

John Parkin, Jr., Sumner High School, Sullivan: When are they going to finish the Union Building?

The Seeing I

Footprints And Burning Butts

BY DICK STEPHENS

Well, the tireless effort put in to turn out a column most every week has finally reaped results. I have here an honest-to-goodness letter from an irate... VERY irate... reader of the words tossed together in this space. Of course, I can hardly call it a fan letter, but who can complain?

Subject of the letter is the column written a few weeks ago concerning the nasty people who don't stop to pick up University hitchhikers. And here's an answer from one who does... or did:

"I wonder if Mr. Stephens was among the group of U. of M. hitchhikers I picked up in Bangor two weeks ago? Are those his size 14 prints on the back of my front seat? This is a minor incident in comparison to what I've put up with in the past four years at this institution... How about the two windows I had to replace when some nice hikers slammed the door? Or should I mention the lighted cigarette one of them was kind enough to leave me (on the back seat). I could mention a few more obnoxious incidents, but is it worth the trouble?

"Little wonder that many drivers are not picking up these needy students. Keep in mind, hitchhiker, the fella who picks you up is paying for the maintenance of that vehicle and you're not helping them in the least."

H. Breton '54

My advice to you, my friend, is to give up picking up riders. You deserve your battle star.

And, hitchhikers, this boy has some very good arguing points... all aimed at you. That's the trouble... he includes all hitchhikers in his comments, when actually he seems to have had just the luck to pick up the scroungiest characters around. Perhaps he is no judge of character in the first place.

Anyhow, I do agree that the type of road bum described in Mr. Breton's letter is wrecking the pickings for all of us.

And those footprints in the back of your car, Mr. Breton, are NOT mine, thank you.

Off-Campus Comments

Benches, Codes, And The Union

BY BOB OSTREICHER

Wherefo' are those two benches that once graced the exterior of the bookstore? As I remember, one of them faced the healthful-living classrooms... while the other gave a fair-to-middlin' view of choice gams easing down the steps. Although it is claimed that the new Union building has something for everyone, I seriously doubt that even this glorious edifice can boast a suitable substitute for those two benches... and the vistas offered in the locale.

Note to the boys from the Kittery-York area: A recent message (in code) from my associates at the beach informs me that we have nothing to fear this year; the local mothers and embittered spinsters have again been defeated! In other words, boys (and others), those among us who were prudently storing a few cases against the possibility of a dry summer can now relax and be refreshed during final exam week.

Incidentally, if this news seems stale to those diminishing few who were old enough to vote during last fall's town elections, please refrain from rehashing the fact that our town went "wet" by a terrifyingly close margin of 23 votes... and, instead, join with me in welcoming this year's newcomers to the ranks. Actually, those "ranks" have been depleted—what with the draft and all—to a handful of regulars barely numerous enough to hold down one large table.

Just to be serious (it's possible?)... at the risk of being drowned out by the scoffers, wits, and other voices which joined mine in earlier ridicule of the Union building, may I herein say that in spite of rising costs (which often outran the donations) and other very trying obstructions, the net results—one spacious hunk of roofing and supporting bricks—makes all that knee-bending for moola look worthwhile.

For What It's Worth

'The Compleat Angler'

BY DAVE GETCHELL

In spring, this young man's thoughts turn to just one thing—fishing.

Gone the way of the gray snow-drifts are all thoughts of studies, work, and family responsibilities. Gone, too, are lecture notes on the pages of an all-too-thin notebook, to be replaced instead with more important stream diagrams, sketches of favorite trout brooks, and doodlings which an expert psychologist would analyze as fish fever.

More dangerous than spring fever to many a carefree young buck—or married man—is the fragrant smell of spring-drying woods and the roar of snow-swollen rapids. The bane of existence to more than one date-hopeful girl is the far-away look in her boy friend's eyes when, while walking to the movies, he stops before the fishing tackle display in a hardware store and trembles with thoughts of love—love of an arguing trout arching a slender flyrod.

The "trouble" all starts hereabouts the first day of April when the law says a man may legally go and get his feet wet in the waters of the coastal counties of Maine. If he's the average fisherman, this is about all he will do, since most of the fish are intelligent enough to stay where it's warm, wherever that is.

This lack of cooperation on the part of the hunted in no way deters the ardent purist, however, for if ever hope burned in a he-man's breast, it never glowed more warmly than it does beneath the layers of clothing which cover the early spring piscator.

He will break ice on the edge of a flooded stream in order to get into the frigid water so that he may better cast his lure and freeze his feet at the same time.

But he does not suffer alone. You can always tell how ardent a fisherman a man is by the rattles in his car. Backroads in spring are worse than nothing, and more than one man has sold his birthright to a garage man in order to continue his all-engrossing hobby.

And why does he do all this? I couldn't say. I spend too much time trying to catch my first trout to bother with little things.

Large High School Delegation Attends Open House Week-End

Several hundred students from high schools throughout the state were on Campus last week end for the University's first open house.

The program, sponsored jointly by the General Student Senate and the University, was intentionally simple, officials said.

President Hauck told Friday's group that they should consider carefully before choosing a school, to be certain it offered a course of study they wished to pursue.

Tours of the campus buildings followed and students were guided on the tours by Senior Skulls, All Maine Women, and Sophomore Owls and Eagles.

The guests had lunch in the New Cafeteria and continued their tours of the buildings, later visiting the atomic display in the gym.

30 Displays Included

The atomic display was brought to campus by the Maine Educational Extension Service and the Oak Ridge Institute of Nuclear Studies. It included about 30 displays, designed to give an intelligent picture of what atomic energy is, from a military and civilian standpoint.

Many visitors took home radioactive dimes—provided, of course, they furnished the dime.

To make it radioactive, the visitor's dime was dropped into a small "reactor" where a stream of neutrons is produced when alpha particles bombard atoms in the reactor.

The dimes are harmless. In fact, Dr. George Davis, general chairman of the exhibition at Maine, said he has been informed that 150,000 radioactive dimes have been taken out of the American Museum of Atomic Energy at Oak Ridge.

"I feel that the high school week end was very successful," said Paul F. Butler, chairman of the committee. "It was very well organized, and I think that the visiting students had a good time as well as learning something about college life.

"I would like to thank all the members of the administration, the faculty and the student body who helped in making the project a success."

MCA Plans Conferences

The Maine Christian Association is scheduling a planning conference May 23 and 24 at the Methodist Camp in Winthrop, Maine. The conference is being held by the new officers.

A cabinet supper and meeting will be held Thursday, May 20, at the MCA house. Faye Irish, president, will be in charge. Elizabeth Currier will be in charge of the supper.

Keep Maine friendly—Say "Hello!"

C Company is shown running through its paces in preparation for the annual ROTC Federal inspection held here today. Approximately 1000 students were to participate in the event. Awards were presented to outstanding cadets by the honorary colonel and her four lieutenant colonels.

MY QUESTION TO THE G-E STUDENT INFORMATION PANEL:

"What opportunities are available in General Electric for a career in manufacturing?"

... EARLE E. WARNER, U. of Illinois, 1952

The answer to this question, presented at a student information meeting held in July, 1952 between G-E personnel and representative college students, is printed below. If you have a question you would like answered, or seek further information about General Electric, mail your request to College Editor, Dept. 123-2, General Electric Co., Schenectady, N. Y.

G. C. HOUSTON, Manufacturing Services Division . . . In General Electric manufacturing operations involve supervising and administering the activities of more than 100,000 men and women in more than 100 plants. This includes the operation of approximately 75 distinct product businesses, producing some 200,000 different products ranging from heavy industrial equipment to precision instruments and consumers' goods.

The cost of manufacturing our products represents 70% of the total expenditure for all operations including research, engineering, marketing and other administrative functions.

With these activities and expenditures in the field of manufacturing one can readily visualize the breadth of opportunity in the area of manufacturing. This wide scope of manufacturing activities and the importance of their integration into an effective organization provide opportunity for challenging and rewarding careers in such areas as follows:

Manufacturing Supervision: The most important part of any manufacturing organization is men—those who apply their varied skills and talents to perform the many tasks involved in the manufacturing process. To direct the activities of these men, to inspire performance, co-operation and teamwork, to provide fair and equitable treatment, to see that work is done in required quantity—on time—and at the lowest possible cost, is the responsibility of Manufacturing Supervision. It offers a challenging and satisfying career for individual growth and development.

Manufacturing Engineering: This is the creative portion of modern manufacturing. It involves interpretation of initial product designs into good manufacturing practices through planning the methods by which a product will be manufactured, specifying and designing machine tools and equipment, and planning and developing new processes. It is vitally concerned with such subjects as plant layout, materials handling, operation planning, and quality control. It requires a thorough knowledge and broad understanding of how these subjects influence the manufacture of a product.

Purchasing: General Electric is one of the most diversified purchasers in the country today, buying material from every industry. Much of this purchasing involves technical problems, and requires a knowledge of sources of supply, market trends, and new products. Many items purchased are components or finished products of other technical industries. Constant contact with price, as well as evaluation of current and long-range raw material supply situations, is another phase of this activity. It is becoming more and more important as a career opportunity for young men.

In addition to the above described areas of opportunity in manufacturing, such manufacturing services as wage-rate determination, production control, inventory management, production planning and development, and materials handling offer opportunity for highly trained specialization and for competent management supervision.

These areas of manufacturing, together with many others, offer the college graduate of today a wealth of opportunity for a challenging and rewarding career.

Yale To Lead AP Seminar

The annual Associated Press Seminar will be held here tomorrow, Professor Brooks Hamilton, head of the journalism department, announced.

L. P. Yale, Boston, chief of the New England bureau of the Associated Press, will lead the AP delegation at the seminar. Others in attendance will be the news and telegraph editors of Maine's daily newspapers.

The morning seminar session will be held at 10:30 in Fernald Hall. The editors will discuss the Associated Press report with representatives of the news gathering agency.

A luncheon will be held at 12:45 in North Estabrooke Hall. The luncheon program will include talks by Douglass Kneeland, Orono, and David Getchell, Orono, both seniors in the journalism department. Ralph Clark, Campus editor, will introduce the speakers.

Don't miss the latest in worldwide, campus and state news every evening over station WORO.

Foreign Students Fete Advisor At Program May 10

The International Club dedicated its program Sunday evening to the Rev. and Mrs. Charles E. O'Connor. Mr. O'Connor is the club's advisor.

The affair was held at the Sigma Nu house. Theme of the evening was Oriental Night. A Japanese supper was prepared by Hanako Iida, a foreign student from Kamakura-shi, Japan. Miss Iida also showed family movies of her homeland and performed a Japanese dance.

Henry Sheng played several selections of Chinese music on the piano, and his brother, Clement Sheng, played the violin.

Committee

Maung Shwe Htoo, president of the club, acted as master of ceremonies. The program committee consisted of Ian G. Kinoshita, Jane Littlefield, Ragnhild Strand, Pierre Fischer, Mrs. Minnie Carson, Nicholas Legatos, Neville Bittar, and Bernard Majani.

Lee Corbett, and John Nordstrom from Sigma Nu helped with the decorations.

Guests included Dr. and Mrs. Arthur A. Hauck, Mr. and Mrs. Percy F. Crane, Prof. and Mrs. Lyle C. Jenness, Mrs. Elwin L. Wilson, Col. and Mrs. Herbert S. Ingraham, Dean and Mrs. John E. Stewart, Dr. Marion D. Sweetman, Mrs. Ingeborg MacKellar, Mrs. Mary E. Snyder, Dr. and Mrs. Irwin B. Douglass, Dr. and Mrs. Himy B. Kirshen, Dr. and Mrs. Charles F. Virtue, and Mr. Richard K. Stuart.

The club presented Mr. O'Connor a portable radio, and gave his wife a rare Japanese fan. A poem, dedicated to Mr. O'Connor, representing the sentiment of the club, was included with the gifts.

"Charlie O'Connor, as foreign student advisor," said Htoo, "has helped make a 'home' away from home' for all the foreign students at Maine. He was the founder of the International Club, and has been very sincere in doing many things beyond his duties in helping to make us feel at ease in a strange land. We are very sorry that he is leaving us, and wish him the best of luck in his new position."

Mr. O'Connor, recently named headmaster at Higgins Classical Institute, will leave the University in June.

All the roads lead to Kankakee

Some routes, naturally, are longer than others. But if there is less traffic on them, they might get you to Kankakee faster.

The same holds true of your Long Distance calls. When circuits are temporarily busy on the most direct route for your call, a new electronic brain in the telephone office automatically selects alternate routes. They may be hundreds of miles longer, but the detour saves you time.

And the entire operation of selection and rerouting is done in a split second!

The Bell System people who perfected, maintain and operate this electronic switching system have one goal: to make the best telephone service in the world even better. Would you like to join this competent, aggressive team?

There are many opportunities in the Bell System—in engineering, business administration, accounting, and other fields. Your Placement Officer can give you the details.

Red Hot Raymondmen Face Wildcats Here Friday

Bear Facts

BY MOE HICKEY

"All positions on this year's varsity Maine baseball nine are wide open," says Tubby Raymond, head coach of the Black Bear pastimers. "Varsity letters have no bearing, as the best possible combination will be sought," he adds.

That is what Coach Raymond said to me when I interviewed him a little over a month ago before the season started. He pointed out that he had scheduled tough teams to play on their southern spring trip in order that his players would face top-flight pitching. He didn't anticipate a very successful spring trip, but he expected the results to pay off when Maine started Yankee Conference and State Series ball.

If you have been following the baseball team in the Campus and the Bangor papers you've seen for yourself the wonderful showing Raymond's lads have done. After returning from a 4-3 record on the spring trip, the Raymondmen got off to a so-so start, but are now in high gear with a six game winning streak on the fire when this column went to press. The Bears copped a twin bill from Bates, downed New Hampshire and Connecticut and their latest victory was a 6-3 win over highly touted Colby.

With little more than a third of the season left the Bears seem to have shown their class among the Maine colleges and ranks one of the top teams in the Yankee Conference, if not the best. It will be a close battle to the finish, however, but Tubby's men have shown they have what it takes to win. Raymond's hard work and patience has paid off a hundred-fold.

Boston College's Eagles made practically a sweep when they won the 16th annual New England Intercollegiate golf championship at Watertown, Mass., May 8, 9, and 10. It was the fifth team title in six years for the Eagles, and Leo Grace won the individual championship for the second straight year. This is a remarkable feat in the fact that BC's Grace has the use of only one eye.

Maine's golfers failed to qualify for the New England, but their combined team score was a creditable 313. Bob McMahon, Tom Monaghan, and Don Mavor all shot 78's while Tommy Golden, the fourth man, carded a 79. This placed Maine ninth in a field of 25 teams, but with four talented sophomores returning the Pale Blue should be a threat in the New England next year.

Philip D. Jones, a 21-year old junior from the University of Connecticut, won the medalist award with a one, under par 70, and paced the UConn's to another Yankee Conference crown. The tournament was marked amid the best all-around scoring display in the history of the meet.

Congratulations go this week to Charlie Otterstedt for his fine four-hit pitching Monday that gave Maine an important State Series win over Colby, 6-3. Otterstedt held the Colby Mules scoreless until the eighth when they scored a run and then followed with two more in the ninth. The win put Maine on top of the State Series heap with a 4-0 record. Colby is second with a 3-2 ledger.

Bill Bruton, sensational rookie center fielder for the Milwaukee Braves, collected 10 hits in his first 18 trips to the plate. He also stole 3 bases as the 1953 National League season got underway.

Bears At YC Meet Saturday; Miss State Title

BY KEITH RUFF

After their third straight second-place finish in the State Meet last Saturday, Coach Jenkins' Bear cindermen will be in Amherst, Mass., this week end to compete in the Yankee Conference Track Meet.

The Jenkinsmen will be up against some of the top track powers in New England in this one and face a Saturday of rough competition. Rhode Island's power-packed cinder squad rates top billing in the YC Meet with New Hampshire also posing a threat.

Rhody Loaded

The Rhode Island squad, always a track power in New England, is favored to continue its domination of YC track and field events. Expected to run four men in every event, the Rams have a host of top-notch performers and boast a world of depth and balance all down the line. The strong and speedy New Hampshire Wildcats will also be in the running for top honors but aren't expected to match the Rhody machine.

Bears 2nd In State Meet

Coach "Chet" Jenkins' Bears didn't give Bowdoin the fight they should have provided last Saturday and consequently ended second to the Polar Bears in the State Meet for the third straight year. According to Coach Jenkins, "Bowdoin was really up for meet while we failed to come through in spots."

The Polar Bears racked up 59 points to 36½ for second place Maine. Bates made a surprisingly strong third place showing with 31½ points. Colby managed to get six.

Here is a summary of places won by Maine men and a list of the winning times, heights and distances in each event.

Javelin—3rd, Folsom (171' 1½"). Broad Jump—3rd, Meyer (21' 9¾"). Hammer Throw—No Maine places (145' 6¾"). Shot Put—Won by Bogdanovich (46 feet). Discus—No Maine places (141' 11¾"). Pole Vault—Won by Lincoln; 2nd, Weatherbee, Smith and Osborne (Bates) (tied) (12' 3"). High Jump—2nd, Meyer; 3rd, Nixon tied with Barwise of Bates (6' ¾"). One Mile—3rd, Perry (4:26.8). 440—Swept by Bates (50.5). High Hurdles—2nd, Calkin (15.3). 100-Yard Dash—2nd, Calkin (10.1). Two Mile—Won by MacLean (10:07.4). 880—2nd, Haskell (1:58.3). Low Hurdles—2nd, Calkin (23.8) (New Record). 220-Yard Dash—Swept by Bowdoin (22.0).

Maine Pastimers Have Successful Home Stand

BY BOB CHADBOURNE

Maine pastimers concluded a fine home stand last Saturday by defeating the University of Connecticut in a free scoring slugfest, 12-11.

The Bears carried a six-game winning streak into this week as they play host to Colby on Wednesday, New Hampshire on Friday, and back to Brunswick for another important State Series contest with Bowdoin on Saturday.

Successful Home Stand

Following the twin win over Bates the Bears came home to win three straight at the hands of Bowdoin College, and the Universities of New Hampshire and Connecticut. Both pitching and hitting performances were impressive as Charlie Otterstedt, Hank Woodbrey, and Perley Dean all turned in excellent mound chores. Al Hackett, Dave Wiggin, and Don Arnold chipped in with some timely hits.

In slugging their way to a 12-11 decision over the UConn's last Saturday the Maine pastimers really showed themselves to be a fighting ball club. The Raymondmen came back from a 10-3 deficit, and overhauled the Storrs aggregation in the bottom of the ninth.

The Bears scored a brace of tallies in four straight innings to knot the score after the UConn's had fallen on starter John Dana and reliever Perley Dean for ten runs in two innings. One of the bigger highlights of this game was somewhat overlooked. Perley Dean's five hit ball for eight innings in relief took a back seat to the offensive showing of Coach "Tubby" Raymond's boys.

First In Series

Raymond seems to have ample cause to be optimistic in viewing the schedule for the remainder of the season. At this writing the Bears are in first place in State Series play with a record of four wins and no defeats. Colby trails in second place with three wins and two setbacks. The Bears have five more games in State Series play, three at home and two away. The schedule appears to favor the Raymondmen as there is a three-day layoff between each State Series contest for the rest of the season.

The recent three-game home stand provided more than the average in the way of excitement. The New Hampshire game saw just about everything. The disputed call on the drive hit by Wildcat second baseman, Ron Pare, provided one of the strongest protests seen on Alumni Field in some time.

The New Hampshire game also provided the longest hit ball of the season, a towering home run by Al Hackett, estimated to have travelled about 380 feet on the fly.

Sigma Pi Sigma Hears Miller, Elects Officers

Thirteen students have been initiated into Sigma Pi Sigma, honorary physics society.

New officers were also announced: Sidney R. Butler, president; Otis F. Russell, vice president; William S. Emery, secretary; and Arthur Whittington, treasurer.

The speaker for the meeting was Prof. Carl W. Miller, of Brown University. Dr. Miller gave an illustrated lecture on color photography.

Bowdoin won the State Series baseball championship and took first in the State Track Meet last spring.

Netmen Away; Cop 3rd In YC

Coach Garland B. Russell's Maine netmen will be on the road this Saturday and again on Tuesday for State Series and Yankee Conference matches. The Bear tennis team is slated for a Saturday afternoon match against Colby at Waterville and a Tuesday go against New Hampshire at Durham.

Maine took a third place in the Yankee Conference Matches at Durham, New Hampshire, last week end. Competing for the Pale Blue team were Brooks Whitehouse, Ernie Sutton (Capt.), Gene Drolet, Skip Hall, "Duffer" Pendleton and Ken Barnard.

Physical Education Group To Give Annual Program

The third annual Physical Education demonstration will be presented by the department of physical education and athletics on Monday, May 18, at 8:15 p.m. in the Memorial Gym.

The program will include folk dancing, recreational games, badminton testing, men's tumbling and apparatus work, fencing, and volleyball.

Members of the planning committee are: Stanley Wallace, Marion Rogers, Eileen Cassidy, Katherine Shaw, Inez Smith, Bella Frazier, Helen Strong, John Beeckel, and Robert Wallace.

The exhibition is free to the public.

Softball Semi-Finals On Tap Tonight At 6

Intramural softball reaches the semi-final stage this evening when eight teams fight it out for berths in the finals.

In the Fraternity league the four teams left are Phi Eta, Beta, Phi Mu, and SAE. Phi Eta, who swamped Sigma Nu 14-3 and Theta Chi 9-0, will face Beta, winners over Phi Gam 2-1 and Tau Ep 10-6. Powerful Phi Mu, who romped over Sig Ep 19-7 and Kappa Sig 16-0, will meet SAE, conquerors of Phi Kap 9-6 and Alpha Gamma Rho 11-10.

Corbett 4 will go against the Castoffs in one half of the Non-Fraternity Division semi-finals. Corbett 4 defeated Dunn 1, 18-0 and Corbett 3, 16-2. The Castoffs whipped the Faculty 9-1 and East Oak 7-6. In another semi-final, Corbett 1 will match talents with Dunn 2. Corbett 1 has defeated Corbett 2 by a lop-sided 30-10 score and Center Oak 14-8.

IMAA Elects Slate

Robert Irish was elected president of the Intramural Athletic Association at a meeting of the club last week.

Other officers elected were Edric Starbird, vice president, Kenneth Barnard, secretary, and Edward Bickerman, treasurer.

It was voted to change the name of the Intramural Relay Trophy to the William C. "Bill" Kenyon trophy.

Cub Trackmen Still Unbeaten; Go After Deering On Saturday

The Freshman track team will be after its eleventh straight win of the year when it goes into action here Saturday against Deering High School.

Last week the Bear Cub trackmen racked up win number nine as they overpowered Bangor High by a 78-39 score. The yearlings jumped off to their usual early lead and were never headed after that. Dick Hamblen won the 100-yard dash and 440 for 10 markers. Teammate Garnet Dow cleaned up in the broad jump and high jump events for another 10 points. "Chazz" Rearick led all scorers with 14 big points.

On Monday afternoon, three Aroostook County high schools ganged up on the freshman thincads but couldn't break the Cubs' victory string. The first year cindermen scored 65 points against 52 run up by Caribou, Houlton and Presque Isle combined. The win was number 10 for the undefeated yearlings.

Pete Werner, "Chazz" Rearick and Dick Hamblen led the Cubs with a pair of firsts apiece.

The summary includes only places won by Maine men and winning times, heights and distances.

Discus—Won by Werner (110' 6½"). Shot Put—Won by Werner (45' ¾"). Javelin—3rd, Hanson (133'). High Jump—2nd, Dow (5' 7"). High Hurdles—1st, Rearick; 2nd, Rouvalis; 3rd, Hartpence (9.3). 100-Yard Dash—1st, Hamblen; 3rd, Hooper (10.7). One Mile—Firlotte, Furrow and Ervin (three-way tie for first) (4:50.9). 440—Won by Hamblen; 3rd, Morrill (53.4). 880—Won by Hanson (2:07.3). Low Hurdles—No Maine places (22.8). Pole Vault—1st, Rearick; 2nd, Hartpence (10' 5"). 220-Yard Dash—2nd, Hooper (24.3). Broad Jump—1st, Dow (19' ½").

Golfers Host To Colby Saturday

Coach Charlie Emery's varsity linkmen will entertain Colby here Saturday at the Penobscot Valley Country Club in a final warm-up for the State Meet at Waterville, May 25.

Maine's topflight team is favored to beat the Mules by virtue of a previous win over Colby earlier this year. The Bear golfers had an impressive 4-2 record when the Campus went to press Tuesday. The Bears were scheduled to play Bates Wednesday.

In the New England at Watertown, Mass., last week, Maine failed to place an entry in the qualifying sixteen. Bob McMahon, Tom Monaghan, Don Mavor, and Tommy Golden scored a team total of 313 which placed the Bears third in Yankee Conference play and ninth among all the New England colleges. Boston College's Eagles took the New England crown and also the individual championship. Connecticut won the Y.C. title.

Women's Sports

BY PEGGY GIVEN

The finals of the badminton singles tournament are being played this week. Bella Frazier, last year's champion, is favored to win again this year. Finalists are the top two girls in the dorm ladder tournaments.

Jane Ingraham, softball manager, has announced that softball practice is now being held on the women's athletic field.

The following have been named by Muriel Verrill, general chairman, to head the various committees for the annual WAA award banquet to be held May 27; Shirley Bostrom, program; Mary Strickland, decorations; Jane Wiseman, attendance and seating; Ruth Johnson, awards; Jan Bishop, invitations; and Peggy Given, publicity.

Canoeing Institute To Be May 22-24

A canoeing institute for canoeing instructors and other advanced canoe handlers will be held at Camp Katosi, Panther Pond in Raymond, on May 22, 23, and 24.

The five-person faculty group will be headed by A. Elizabeth Weber, director of American Camping Association Small Craft School.

Students interested should contact Sam Sezak, Memorial Gym, and Marion Rogers, Alumni Hall. Several cars will be going down from the University.

University Society

BY HILDA STERLING

TEP had its annual Hades Hop on May 2. The front of the house was decorated with a devil's head. The mouth of the devil was the entrance to the house. Chaperons were Mr. and Mrs. Frank Marascia. Dean and Mrs. John Stewart were guests. Thirty-five couples attended the party. Refreshments of coke and sandwiches were served. Bernard Freedlander, assisted by the pledges, was in charge of the dance.

Delta Tau Delta held its annual Mother's Day banquet on May 3. Fifty guests attended the affair. The parents visited the opening of the art exhibit in Carnegie.

Colvin Hall went on an outing last Saturday at Beach Hill Pond. A group of fourteen girls enjoyed a day of swimming, boating and sun bathing. The party was chaperoned by Mrs. Mabel Dixon and Mrs. Edward Dy-sart.

The Newman Club held its annual Starlight Dance Saturday night at Newman Hall. Decorations of gaily colored pastel streamers were wound around an outdoor Maypole. Refreshments were served at intermission by Gene Arsenault and Annette Langevin. Chaperons were the Rev. Francis LeTourneau, the Rev. Abel Hebert, and Mrs. John Manchester. Co-chairmen of the committee in charge of arrangements were Thomas Sullivan and Helena Mehlhorn.

The annual Tech picnic was held Sunday at Donnell Pond. Approximately 130 students and guests enjoyed the outing. Hamburgers, hot-dogs, and fried clams were served. Henri Breton was chairman of the event.

Phi Kappa Sigma held a Parent's Day on Sunday, May 10. Attending the affair were the parents and relatives of the pledges. A buffet luncheon was served followed by a tour of the house and a softball game between the pledges and brothers. Don Rideout was chairman of the event.

Theta Chi sponsored the opening of an exhibition of paintings by Professor Vincent A. Hartgen at a coffee on Sunday evening. Refreshments of punch, coffee, cupcakes and cookies were served. Dick Talbot was in charge of the arrangements.

Delta Delta Delta held its annual banquet at the Tarratine Club on May 4. Joan Mason and Laura Little were co-chairmen of the affair. Speakers of the evening were Barbara Mason, Joan Reed, Sally Gay, Barbara Wigger and Joan Leach. Ruth Mitchell introduced Kathy Black as the outstanding pledge of the year.

A tea was given Sunday afternoon by the Tri-Deltas in honor of Dr. Ava Chadbourne who was the first initiate in Alpha Kappa chapter of Delta Delta Delta. Marion Young was in charge of the arrangements.

"Pledge Paddle Hop" was the theme of the party held at Phi Eta last Saturday evening. The house was appropriately decorated and refreshments were served. Approximately forty couples attended the affair. Six students from McGill University were guests. Chaperons were Mr. and Mrs. Duff Gillespie and Mother Cook. The new pledges were in charge of the party.

Delta Zeta entertained at a Mother's Day banquet in North Estabrooke on Sunday. Fifty-seven mothers and members attended. Speakers at the dinner were Barbara Gerard, Donna Richardson, and Faith Wixson. Joan LeTourneau was toastmistress. A Mother's club ceremony was held in the president's room, and each mother was presented with a Mother's pin.

Hartgen Shows Art At Theta Chi

Vincent A. Hartgen, head of the art department, is currently exhibiting twenty of his watercolors at the Theta Chi fraternity house. The exhibit will end May 16.

Hartgen's work has been displayed at one man exhibitions in Philadelphia, Baltimore, Washington, Professor Charles F. Virtue, of the philosophy department, said of Hartgen in a recent critique, "Vincent Hartgen's watercolors thrust and sway with the elemental power of nature itself."

The exhibit is open daily from 2 to 9 p.m.

Phi Eta Elects Officers

Donn Littlefield was recently elected president of Phi Eta Kappa. Ed Touchette is the new vice president; Peter Wilson, secretary; Ed Hansen, treasurer; and Mert Robinson, social chairman.
