Freshman Track Team Swamp Weak
Portland High Aggregation
In First Outdoor Meet

A powerful and well-balanced freshman track team swamped the weak Portland High Tracksters by a score of 112 to 14, to continue on their way for an undefeated season.

The Portland team was able to take only one first place, when they topped the hammer throw with a long heave by Henry. The frosh runners held the visiting team scoreless in seven events, and in the remainder of the events, the Portlanders could only take one second place and five thirds.

The best race of the meet was the 440 yard dash, won by O'Connor of Maine, who outran Aaskov of Portland. O'Connor took the lead at the gun, and held it for a quarter lap, when his Portland opponent passed him. On the homestretch, however, O'Connor put on a great burst of speed to take first place.

Outstanding performers for the first year men were: Huff, Collette, Roberts, Frame, Thompson,
Ireland, and Sidelingier.

The summary:

One Mile Run—Won by Prince and Clark, both of Maine, tied for first, third, third, Real, Maine. Time, 5 min., 6 sec.
440 yard Dash—Won by O'Connor,
Maine; second, Aaskov, Portland, third, Snow, Maine. Time 55 4/10 seconds; 100 yard dash—Won by Huff,

THE BLACK MANSION
by Bettina Sullivan

Many tourists visit Ellsworth and one of the most interesting sights of this New England town is the renowned Black Mansion, which Ann Eliasson's parents have superintended for seventeen years.

Originally, it was privately owned by a Mr. Black. His son took it over at the latter's death, and lived there until his death in 1928. It was left to Hancock County as a museum at that time.

The elder Mr. Black built this house in 1802. Its charm and beauty lie in the fact that not a thing has been moved since it was built. The huge old beds are over one hundred years old. Since there were no railroads, coaches were used and have been saved to keep up the old spirit of the days of yore.

Every brick was brought over from England. British workmen put each brick in place so well that today it stands well-preserved, and a spot of special interest to all.

THE FRESHMAN is published Mondays during the college year by the members of the Class of '36.

ASSEMBLY TO BE ON WEDNESDAY THIS WEEK

The weekly assembly this week will be on Wednesday instead of today.

The speaker will be Dr. Everett Dean Martin of New York, well-known educator. His topic will be "The Educated Man".

Perhaps it was the Orientation lecture for Technology students that caused the poor freshman attendance at the concert given by the Bangor Symphony Orchestra. However, that does not account for the missing Arts students that would have been interested in classical music.

There has been a notice on the bulletin board in Alumni Hall calling out candidates for a golf team. This should prove to be a very interesting spring sport, as seen competition is offered by other Maine colleges.

880 yard Run--Won by Peasley, Maine second, Wakefield, Maine, third, Keller, Maine. Time, 2 minutes, 7 2/5 seconds.

120 yard High Hurdles--Won by Collette, Maine, second, Halle Maine, third, Keniski, Portland. Time 18 3/5 seconds.

Broad Jump--Won by Ireland, Hallé, and Roberts, all of Maine, tied for first. Distance, 19 feet, 10 3/4 inches.

At a meeting on Wednesday, the numeral men of the class of '36 formed a club to be known as the Numeral Club. The organization aims to stimulate an interest in athletics, to add prestige to those men a'arded their numerals, and to provide a systematic method of giving out numerals.

The freshman ball team opened its season with an easy 12-11 win over Caribou Friday afternoon at Alumni Field, in a game which saw five pitchers in action for the frost nine.

The Maine coach expressed himself as being well satisfied with the performances of Gomboska, Jordan, and Wakely, on the mound for Maine.

The game was replete with errors, and saw little hitting on either side, until the first of the ninth inning when the Caribou team hit Johnstone and Dudley for nine runs.

FROSH TRY OUT FOR TENNIS TEAM

Coach Small, University of Maine not instructor, has been sending his tennis team through regular practice sessions of the specially constructed indoor court in the Alumni Hall gymnasium.

Among the prominent freshman aspirants for a regular berth on the team is Alfred Rottenberg, one of the two finalists, in the Autumn Tournament. Coach Small has several outstanding prospects trying out for the team this year.

The schedule for the team is announced as follows--

May 4--Bates at Lewiston
May 8--Colby at Orono
May 13--Colby at Waterville
May 22--State Meet at Waterville
May 26--Port Fairfield (Jayvees)

The officers, all members of the Track Club are, Donald Huff, president, Myron Collette, vice-president, and James O Connor, secretary and treasurer.

At a later meeting, the members will select delegates to be awarded membership in the track club.
President Harold S. Boardman has approved the deferred rushing plan passed by the interfraternity council. The president's approval of the plan means that it will go into effect with the opening of college in September, and that freshmen will not be allowed to enter any fraternity house until the first of the spring semester of 1934. The penalty is that freshmen who violate it will not be allowed to join the fraternity whose house they enter before the fall semester of their fourth year in college. The amendment provides, not only that freshmen shall not enter any house, but also that they shall not attend any organized fraternity supper, party, or smoker on or off campus during that period.

GIRLS IN PAGEANT FOR CLASS DAY

The Freshman class will be well represented in the Commencement Day pageant which is to be presented on June 9, by the following—Anna Elliasson, Louise Adams, Dolly Dolliver, Claire Saunders, Phyllis Hamilton, Janet Wheeler, Ruth Goodwin; and Heannette MacKenzie. This pageant is given by the All Maine Women each year as part of the Class Day exercises. This year's pageant, "Love and the Princess," was given in 1928 and is being repeated due to the many requests that have been received. The author, Mrs. Marcia Bailey, is directing the cast, so that an artistic and finished performance is assured.

Roger Cameron was one of the representatives for Maine at the annual meeting of the Outing Clubs of New England Colleges at New Haven over the week-end.

At a meeting of the freshman class held last Thursday afternoon in Alumni Hall, the class voted its approval of the Loan Fund Plan started by the Student Senate. According to the provisions of the plan, each member of the class will donate fifty cents toward the fund. The money will be taken out of the class treasury.

HERRICK TREASURER OF SPANISH CLUB

El Circulo Espanol, the honorary Spanish society, initiated into membership last Tuesday night Miss Eleabor Goven. The following officers were initiated for next year—President, Charles Straffin, vice-president, Emily Lyon, secretary, Marion Huges, treasurer, Vernon Herrick. Mrs. Bailey spoke on her last summer's trip through Spain. Miss Bettina Sullivan rendered two solos, the newly elected president of the club told a few facts about Cervantes, whose birthday was April 26. Wilbury Crockett played several selections on the piano.

FRESHMEN DOWN SENIORS FOR SECOND TIME

The Freshman Girl's volley ball team defeated the Senior outfit by the score of 59-49 last Tuesday evening. The Seniors got away to a quick lead as soon as the first half started, but the Freshettes began to click late in the first period and continued their good work into the last half, emerging the victors. The lineup, Archer, Havner, Hamilton, Campbell, Philbrook, Hill, Adams, Streeves, and Woodman.
Happy May Day, folks, and scallions to David H. (Ellsworth) Brown, who Saturday served so nobly as seventh assistant aide to the third assistant scorer of the Maine-Springfield track meet. When asked to comment on his success to the press, David said, "I only done my duty as I seen it."—Orchids to the only inhabitant of Mount Vernon, Alice, Campbell, who attended the Lambda Chi Formal—What was Louise Steeves, women's sports editor of the FRESHMAN doing down at Dreamwood Saturday night when she lost her coat.—It seems that Charlotte Fullerd's picture appeared in some Metropolitan daily which said that she had announced her engagement to a gentleman by the name of Hilton—but it wasn't our Charlotte —Extra!!! Paul Taylor had a date in Farmington (?)—And who were the Mt. Vernon lassies who have been taking sun baths on the bank of the Stillwater?—Mildred Broo'és has been without a roommate for the past few days. However, she has not been lonesome at night, since the Lappa Sig's sent over their pet cat to keep her company.—Who were the handsome boys seen with Sue Lord and Ann Eliassen at the aforesaid Dreamwood last Saturday night.—Spring surly has come. Helen Gonya has been spending most of her energy in trying to learn to ride E. Tracy's bicycle. And speaking of bicycles Claire Saunders and Arlene Higgins ain't so bad.—Orchids again to the Maples girls who did so nobly in trying to make some of the Springfield gentlemen feel at home Saturday afternoon, namely Phyliss Hamilton and Breezy Litz, etc.—It seems that Peanut Harriman came down with the measles and had to postpone two dates last week-end, however, she recuperated in time to attend the GAMUS banquet.—And who was the irrepressible scribe to another of Bangor's great metropolitan dailies who brought a bag of peppers to the said banquet.—Needless to say he didn't get home with all his peppers.—Congratulations to the same Breezy Litz who will attend the Phi Cam Formal with a gentleman that has been that same that way about another young lassie for the past two annums, or annas, or what have you.—"He was the Freshman co-ed from the Maples who announced her engagement at Bangor over the week-end.—And as I gaze from the windows of this spacious office I see Ronald Langille sitting on the steps of the infirmary talking with a beautiful damsel who has the measles.—And what is more, it is not the first time.—Isn't Ralph Hayes a beautiful flag bearer, girls, He's so modest that he hid his smiling countenance behind the flag when the girls looked at him.—And who were the Lambda Chi boys and girls who took a chocolate pie to the above Dreamwood Saturday night.—And speaking of chocolate pies, what about it, Sam Swasey, old boy, old boy, old boy, oldboy.—Elonor Ferriman says that there is nothing about her that can be put in the bull session, but she's in it just the same, and so, so long.
