VAMP

One day I ask a sol-dier boy whod been a-cross to France, To The men who say that Er-in should be ruled by Eng-land still, Should

mf

tell me if he thot that Ir-e-land should have a chance; To rule her self like Un-cle Sam and think of Washing-ton and al-so think of Bunker Hill; For if those he-ros had not fought and have her lib-er-ty, He answered, Well I'll tell you now, just how it looks to me. suf-ered day by day, Wed be an-oth-er Ir-e-land, And not the U. S. A.

CHORUS Marcia

Our Boys ffrom here, Went and fought o-ver there, That ev-ry Na-tion should be free..... They told us it was right, That we should go and fight and save the world for De-moc - ra - cy..... The Ir - ish were true,.....

..... To the Red, White and Blue..... And gave their lives for our lib - er - ty.....

..... So now that all is done, And Vic - to - ry is won, We've got to set old Ire - land free..... free.....
