weak-ness in my heart, If she could but be near me, From her I would nev-er part.

Chorus.

Your mother is your best friend after all, — She's always there to help you when you fall, — When your days are dark and dreary, Mother dear does not grow weary, Just a word and she comes quickly at your call. — You'll find lots of friends as through this world you roam, — But there's no friend like your mother dear, at home; — Though her brows all lined with care, And there's sil-ver in her hair, Your mother is your best friend af-ter all. —
