Religious Program Ends Tonight

Religious Emphasis Week will come to a close tonight with the first annual Religious Emphasis Week banquet in Balentine Hall dining room.

Donald V. Taverner, Executive Secretary of the University of Maine General Alumni Association, will be the featured speaker at the event which will get underway at 6:30 p.m.

Taverner will get right down to earth and talk to the students about the little things in their every day life and try to raise the question of the relevance and importance of religion.

List Highlights

Highlights of the week-long program, which had for its theme the "Relevance of Religion," were a religious arts festival and a mock trial of campus gods.

The Religious arts festival was presented Sunday evening, April 15 in the Little Theatre and attempted to show the importance of religion in creative affairs.

Three interpretive dances by the Modern Dance club and a presentation of the religious drama "Everyman" were featured attractions.

At the mock trial held last evening in the Main Lounge of the Union the gods of science, conservatism, fraternity, progressivism, secularism, and others found on this campus were explored and an attempt to present alternatives to them was made.

Donald W. Webber, Associate Justice of the Supreme Judicial Court of Maine, gave the Religious Emphasis Week keynote address at an Assembly Monday, in Memorial Gym.

Justice Webber, whose topic was "Six Day Religion—a Layman's Point of View," spoke about religion on the campus, at work, and in the home. He discussed the relevance of religion every day of the week and not just on Sunday.

Also highlighting the week was an address by Rabbi Michael Szenes at a luncheon in Merrill Hall yesterday. Rabbi Szenes, who appeared under the auspices of the Jewish Chataqua Society, also participated in dormitory and fraternity discussions.

Maine Debaters Face West Point

University debaters will take on West Point in a debate this evening at 7:30 p.m. in the Bumps Room of the Union.

According to Dr. Wofford G. Gardner, head of the University Speech department, this is believed to be the first time that Cadet Debaters have visited the University. Maine and West Point have met, however, at various debate tournaments in the past at other colleges.

Richard Barter and Dana Devoe will represent Maine in the debate. They will argue the affirmative side while West Point will debate the negative side of the question.

Senate Votes To Investigate Store

BY JOHN LITTLEFIELD

The General Student Senate voted to set up a five member committee to investigate the University Bookstore at a meeting Tuesday evening.

The vote to establish the committee followed discussion of the Bookstore and questioning of Bookstore student representative Francis Soyachak by senators. The Senate voted to have Soyachak attend the Tuesday evening meeting at its last session before vacation.

Soyachak who described himself as "between the Student Senate and the Bookstore," told senators in answer to questions that he didn't know just who owned the Bookstore, but said that profits from the Bookstore go toward University athletics.

Suggests Co-op

Senator Stanley Freeman, who pressed Soyachak on the actual ownership of the Bookstore, suggested that the store be turned into a co-operative organization like some other colleges have.

Soyachak told the Senate that Bookstore stock is issued to the Board members at five dollars a share. Each of the 11 board members owns one share, he said. The board is made up of four faculty members, four University alumni, and three students.

Freeman contended that the board owned the Store.

Senator Reginald Collins suggested that the senators draw up a list of grievances against the Bookstore.

Senator Earle Simpson asked Soyachak just how much money the Bookstore gives to the University each year for athletics. Soyachak told him that he didn't know and could not even give an estimate.

Senate Vice President Kelly Elliott rose to speak in favor of the Bookstore. He told the Senators they couldn't "sit back and unjustly criticize the Bookstore without facts..."

Senator Gilles Auger's resolution concerning the Bookstore which was presented at the last Senate meeting was then brought from the table. Auger's motion recommended that President Arthur A. Hauck or his assistant investigate the possibility of better service and submit an outline of the Bookstore to the Senate.

Elliott Speaks

Senate vice president Elliott again rose and told the Senators, "This must be defeated." He said it was not a job for the University President or his assistant to do, but was a job for students who had gripes against the Bookstore.

Senator Collins moved that the resolution be amended so that the Senate could set up a committee to reevaluate the Bookstore.

After further discussion the resolution, as amended, was passed.

Chosen to the committee to investigate the Bookstore were Senators Reginald Collins, Paul McLeod, Carlton Hurd, Winona Moreshead, and Kathleen Vickery.

Lack Quorum

Lack of a quorum and the late hour prevented the Senators from drawing up the list of Senate office candidates for the General Election, May 8.

Nomination of candidates for the offices of president, vice president, secretary, and treasurer of next year's Senate was on the agenda for Tuesday evening's meeting.

Frank Cowan, Campus Cop 31 Years, Dies Suddenly

Frank Cowan, 70, University Police Chief, died suddenly at his office in Alumni Hall early yesterday morning while dictating a letter.

Cowan, who was due to retire in June, reached out for support and then crumpled to the floor.

Dr. John Radebaugh of the University Health Service was called to the scene, but Cowan was already dead when he arrived.

Cause Undetermined

The cause of death has not yet been determined, but is being investigated by medical authorities.

Father Francis LeTourneau of Newman Chapel administered the last rites of the Catholic Church at the scene of the death.

Cowan had been employed by the University since 1925 and had been a campus police officer since 1929. He was made chief in September, 1949.

Cowan was a grounds keeper when he first joined the University staff and later was employed at the heating plant.

Frank Cowan has become an institution on campus and has been referred to as "Mr. University." One of the best known figures at the University of Maine for more than a quarter of a century, he is known by alumni all over the country.

Before coming to the University Cowan attended Orono schools and was employed by the International Paper Company in Orono as a paper machine operator.

From 1923 until he came to work for the University he was a fire engine driver for the Orono Fire Department. Cowan was a member of St. Mary's Catholic Church and Our Lady of Wisdom Chapel, both in Orono.

He is survived by his wife, his mother, three children, and a brother.

Lambda Chi Gives Firemen Hard Time

A small grass fire in back of Lambda Chi Alpha fraternity last Friday afternoon caused the Orono fire department more than a little trouble and difficulty.

The fire, set by members of the fraternity to burn over their grass, was reported at about 4:30 p.m. and one man, usually sufficient to handle such a fire, responded.

However, according to University Fire Chief Leigh C. Plaisted, Lambda Chi members persisted in re-setting the fire and it was necessary to call extra help.

With extra men on the scene the blaze was put out in about fifteen minutes, but not before it caused considerable damage to valuable trees and shrubs in the Entomology Department's arboretum located behind Lambda Chi.

Plaisted pointed out that the fraternity men involved would be subject to heavy fine if the matter had been pressed.

Prom Will Be May 4 At Gym

The theme of the Junior Prom will be "Intrigue of the Orient," the executive committee of the class announced this week.

The dance will be held in the Memorial Gym on Friday, May 4 from 9 p.m. to 2 a.m. The popular Leroy Holmes Orchestra will play for the event.

The theme will be carried out in soft colors of the Orient throughout the gym. The orchestra itself will be surrounded by a big pagoda with a mural of Mt. Fujiyama behind it. Japanese lanterns will hang from the ceiling.

Chinese Symbols

Around the walls there will be figures representing objects from the East including rickshas, dragons, Chinese symbols, and a three dimensional junk.

Barbara Berce and Angela Nichols are co-chairmen of the decoration committee. Others assisting in the planning of the decorations are William Sterritt, Janet Higgins, Wesley English, John Buzzell, Margaretmary McCann, and Earle Simpson.

The dance committee has announced that tickets will be sold for seats in the balcony at $1 per person. These people should wear dress clothes, but they will not be allowed on the dance floor.

Juniors will be admitted free for both the balcony and the formal.

Meet Dick Foster

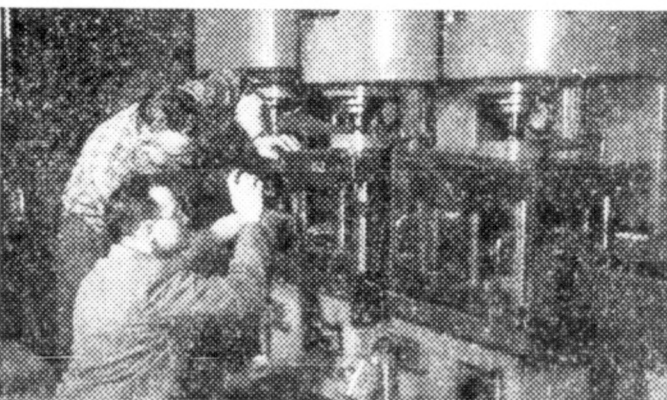

Western Electric development engineer

Dick Foster joined Western Electric, the manufacturing and supply unit of the Bell System, in February 1952, shortly after earning his B. S. in mechanical engineering at the University of Illinois. As a development engineer on a new automation process Dick first worked at the Hawthorne Works in Chicago. Later, he moved to the Montgomery plant at Aurora, Illinois where he is pictured above driving into the parking area.

Dick's day may begin in one of several ways: an informal office chat with his boss, a department "brain session" to tackle a particularly tough engineering problem (above); working with skilled machine builders in the mechanical development laboratory; or "on the line" (below) where he checks performance and quality and looks for new ways to do things.

Here Dick and a set-up man check over the automatic production line used to manufacture a wire spring relay part for complex telephone switching equipment. This automatic line carries a component of the relay on a reciprocating conveyor through as many as nine different and very precise operations—such as percussive welding in which small block contacts of palladium are attached to the tips of wires to within a tolerance of $\pm .002$ ".

Examining the plastic molded "comb" components of the wire spring relay Dick recalls his early work when he was involved in working-up forming and coining tools for the pilot model of the automation line for fabrication of wire spring sub-assemblies for relays. At present he is associated with the expansion of these automation lines at the Montgomery Plant.

Dick finds time for many Western Electric employee activities. Here he is scoring up a spare while tuning up for the engineers' bowling league. He is active also in the golf club, camera club, and a professional engineering society. Dick, an Army veteran, keeps bachelor quarters in suburban Chicago where he is able to enjoy the outdoor life as well as the advantages of the city.

Western Electric offers a variety of interesting and important career opportunities for engineers in all fields of specialization in both our day-to-day job as the manufacturing and supply unit of the Bell System and in our Armed Forces job.

If you'd like to know more about us, we'll be glad to send you a copy of "Your Opportunity at Western Electric" which outlines the Company operations and specific job opportunities in detail. Write: College Relations Department, Room 1030, Western Electric Co., 195 Broadway, New York 7, N. Y.

Let's Support Assemblies

Altogether too many people are attending assemblies in the Memorial gymnasium. Only last Monday nearly 400 spectators, over half of which were faculty members, jammed the Gym to hear an important message from a prominent figure in Maine government. The students present constituted almost two thirty-fifths of the student body. Such crowded conditions cannot continue to prevail at these assemblies.

Meanwhile back in the Bear's Den, a lonely gloom fell over the haunt, usually gay with boisterous, laughing throngs. Those immature few who care not for the seriousness of assemblies, and care even less for education in any form, had to wait in line but a few meager hours to get their hands on a cup of coffee.

We realize the importance of these assemblies, and we know the trouble the administration and guest speakers go through to make the assemblies possible. But, after all, the Bear's Den needs the money!

Furthermore we must not overlook the cultural opportunities to be found right here in the Bear's Den in the form of small talk and walking anatomy. During free periods while assemblies are going on, much can be gained by shoving currency across the counter, listening to "Sing, Sing, Sing," or by grabbing a little extra shuteye upstairs in one of the soft couches provided for just such purposes.

In all seriousness, attendance at assemblies this year has been completely disgusting. The assembly committee has gone to great lengths to line up programs which would not only benefit us students, but also keep us entertained. Last Monday, for instance, Assoc. Justice Donald W. Webber of the Maine Supreme Judicial Court gave an extremely interesting talk, connecting his experiences as a judge to the religious vein. Such efforts should not go unnoticed.

Lack of student interest in these assemblies shows a definite absence of mature responsibility. Rules set up by the administration to channel students in the right direction throughout college always evoke howls of protest. We students feel we are not being treated like adults. Until we can take it upon ourselves to demonstrate a little more seriousness and responsibility, we cannot expect the administration to change their policies.

Should Change Letters

The general consensus of opinion is that athletic letters are too easily earned at the University. This idea is probably derived from the fact that the letters do not stipulate what specific sport they represent. Football players, trackmen, cagemen, baseballers, tennis players, and possibly even the underwater basket weaving champs all have the same letter and sweater. It would seem quite normal for a football star to be insulted when mistaken for a basket weaver.

The campus is dotted with the good-looking sweaters and jackets with the pale blue "M." They serve as ample emblems of athletic achievement, contribute to school spirit, and help to publicize the University.

Some schools present letters with an insignia stipulating the sport it was earned in. Others have sweaters with lines on the arms depending on the number of different sports engaged in by the wearer. Is Maine behind the times in neglecting to differentiate between athletes?

Frank Will Be Missed

The death of Frank Cowan, referred to as Mr. University by students and alumni, leaves a vacancy on this campus which he has filled for more than a quarter of a century.

Known only as Frank the Cop to many, he was undoubtedly the most familiar personality on this campus. Often a guest speaker at alumni gatherings because of his personal knowledge of University history, he was a friend of students, faculty, and alumni alike.

At one time or another, whether it was to account for a parking ticket or to exchange a cheerful "hello," every one of us has had the occasion to meet the campus Chief of Police.

The passing of Frank Cowan terminates an institution at the University of Maine.

LITTLE MAN ON CAMPUS

by Dick Bibler

Tradewinds

BY NEIL TROOST

The global turbulence of today reflects the simple fact that man has taken twelve thousand years of evolution to fail in a vital aspect of life, for he still cannot understand himself. Modern civilization has transcended all history, but man remains an unpredictable savage, a plunderer without conscience, and a destroyer of life, love, liberty, and all that is sacred to humanity. Man is his own greatest enemy.

World life forces man into complex interdependency, and his interactions have brought conflict and war. Political and economic ambition became perverted and the result is chaos and destitution. Godless Russians now seek to resurrect Genghis Khan; their thirst for the domination of all life is insatiable. Today the world is in greater danger than ever before.

In this potential holocaust, hostility, deception, frustration, frivolity, boredom, sloth, failure, pain, cruelty, squalor, unhappiness, and death are our morbid trademarks. The air is dampened by fear, hatred, jealousy, covetousness, gluttony, and egotism.

Campus Humor

A columnist known only as "Polly" has revealed the astounding results of an investigation in a recent issue of the Rensselaer Polytechnic:

"For a long time, Polly has suspected the presence of a select group among the faculty who have banded together into a 'Flunk Students' club. From my experience with this group I have cunningly deduced the by-laws of this fantastic fraternity. For the benefit of the entire student body, Polly fearlessly (and anonymously) presents them here:

1. Test questions on material in the main part of the text or given in lecture are too easy. Use items from footnotes, references, and from books listed in the bibliography for all your quizzes.
2. Give tests either twice a term or twice a week. Announcing quizzes ahead of time is utter foolishness.
3. Allot the students about half the time it would take you to do the test. Put the hardest question first and remember it's the answer that counts. Take off one and a half credit for numerical mistakes.
4. Unless you have a class of all "A" students (somebody has to flunk!) never use a curve for marking. It's a sign of weakness.
5. Last but definitely not least, remember our sacred motto: "They're here to work!"

Pettiness vampirizes business and politics. Carnal sexuality is deified. Religion and morals are deemphasized.

The answer lies within man himself. Education must be intensified and improved for man to gain the intelligence that leads to understanding. He must rise above the morbid forces, defy love, truth, and understanding. Through religion, science, culture, economics, commerce, and politics man may succeed, but education is the heart of the problem.

Religion has always offered the answer but man has never wholly accepted it, and he never will. The love, peace, fearlessness, and truthfulness of religious people are stabilizers in our quandary. Those needing the guidance of religion should seek it, for union with God is an inspiration beyond any temporal satisfaction.

Man must speculate, inquire, appraise, approve, disapprove, accept, and reject whatever religion, science, culture, etc., have to offer. Somewhere in man the answer lies. When he learns to govern himself he will find the passport to world peace and harmony—it is faith, tolerance, and understanding.

Campus Quotes

BY JOANNE LARSEN AND WAYNE JOHNSON

Question: What is your opinion of having more foreign college groups, such as the Haileybury College players, come to visit the University?

Mike Goldman, class of 1957, is in favor of this if there would be enough of an audience to merit bringing them here.

Senior Jane Wiseman thinks it is a good idea because it brings a type of culture to campus which is not obtainable here.

Dotty Bradstreet, a sophomore, is all for it and says we should take advantage of this type of entertainment while we are in college, because following graduation we may not have the opportunity to do so.

Roberta Wayer, class of 1958, feels that we do not have enough such events, but adds that the student body would have to cooperate to make it worthwhile for these groups to come.

Senior Nick Khoury is very interested in having foreign college groups appear here at Maine and says that such events are an important part of college life.

Junior Henry Morton would like to see these groups come, but wishes that some other type of entertainment could be included along with the dramatic productions.

Dick Ross, a junior, feels that this kind of presentation interests students, but said more publicity is necessary to make students aware of its presence.

Society: Houses Hold Gala Parties

BY HULLY MAHER

All last weekend the entire campus was a veritable nightclub district. The common question was, "Which party tonight?" Parties ranged from the bizarre costume affair to the informal dance.

Friday night the Phi Gams transformed their house into a tropical isle complete with palm trees, fish nets... and grass skirts for their traditional Fiji Island party. Jim Tobias presided as King Fiji. Music was by Dale Whitney's band. Chaperons were Capt. and Mrs. M. A. Gardner and Mrs. Martha Tate. John Edgar was in charge. The outing was Saturday near Lincoln.

Another annual event Friday night was Phi Mu Delta's Shipwreck. Couples danced to the music of Lew Pearson. Chaperons were Mr. and Mrs. Norman Ness and Mrs. Perry. Chairman of the party was Bud McIntire.

Sig Ep staged their Showboat party Friday night at Stillwater Firehouse. Included in the evening's doings was a minstrel. Following the show was dancing. Social chairman Ralph Kelley was in charge. Chaperons were Mr. and Mrs. Robert York and Mr. and Mrs. J. W. Nichols.

The girls of East and West Chadbourne joined forces Friday night for a gala dorm party in the downstairs Estabrooke dining room. Decorations were on a Winter to Spring theme. Guests were entertained by a skit and danced to the music of Brad Sullivan's group. Mr. and Mrs. S. L. Freeman and Mr. and Mrs. K. S. Twedell were chaperons.

The combined Off-Campus Men and Women sponsored a Spring Fling vic dance Friday night in the main lounge of the Memorial Union. Ernie Hollis was chairman. Mr. and Mrs. John W. Beamesderfer and Mr. and Mrs. Irwin B. Douglass were chaperons.

The Sigma Nus entertained at an informal dance-party Friday night. Music was by Dick Morrison's band. Chaperons were Mr. and Mrs. Harry Everhart and Mr. and Mrs. R. E. Weeks, Jr.

Phi Mu Sorority had a party recently for the Phi Mu Deltas in the Balentine Recreation Room. The pledges furnished the entertainment, which consisted of a takeoff of a freshman at a Phi Mu Delta house party.

Chaperons were Dr. and Mrs. Supple and Mr. and Mrs. Roland Porter. PINNED: Janet Collins to Eugene Toothaker, University of Penn.; Mildred Mitchell to Wayne Jackson, Alpha Tau Omega.

'Maine Campus' Camera Catches Weekend Events

Frank Hickey and his date, right, and John Edgar and his date, next to Hickey, were among couples enjoying Phi Gamma Delta's annual Fiji Island party Friday evening. Tropical costumes, grass skirts, and the like were the mode of dress for the party held at the Phi Gam house. Dale Whitney and his orchestra provided dance music. Saturday the "Fijis" held an outing near Lincoln. Phi Mu Delta, Sigma Phi Epsilon, and Sigma Nu fraternities also held gala parties last weekend. (Photo by Johnson)

Yankee Conference baseball play opens in earnest this week with Maine journeying to Rhode Island and Connecticut.

Grab your hats and get your coats. Time for a quick round trip thru the circuit.

First stop is Storrs where the defending champions, Connecticut, have virtually the same team that copped the flag in '55, losing only four lettermen—three via graduation and one as the result of an intramural basketball injury. The UConn mound coups appear particularly impressive—paperwise—with veterans Don Kilbreth, 6-2 last year and Bill Risley back in the fold. Sophomore prospect Bob Wedin also figures to win his share of ball games.

Massachusetts, winner of fifteen games, and participant in the New England NCAA playoffs in each of the past two seasons, is strong again this season. Coach Earl Lorden has five veteran outfielders battling for starting berths and a dandy defensive infield. Pitching may be the weak spot with much of the Redmen's success hinging on the good right arm of Dick Berquist, ineligible last spring. Berquist, if memory serves us correctly, threw a barrel of curve balls for Bates back in 1952.

Swinging southward to Kingston, Rhode Island has lost flinger Dave Stenhouse, and a sharp second base combo in Pete DiMasi and Dick Cahill. To add to Ram Coach Bill Beck's woes, Angie Dages, star centerfielder, signed with Baltimore last Summer. Rhody could be destined for the second division.

Closer to home, New Hampshire is in the process of face-lifting. Outfielders Neil Serpico and Art Valicenti left with sheepskins in June, and the Wildcats also must open with a revamped infield. Lefty Joe Kazura (7-1) returns to head a slim mound crew.

Vermont will not be contending for the YC title. The Green Mountain boys fail to meet the minimum requirements for championship eligibility, having scheduled only three conference foes. Conference rules call for at least eight games against four different opponents.

All of which brings us right back to Orono, and in one day, too. Ah, this jet age.

As the sprint for the roses begins, the Bears are of the darkhorse variety. The continued success of second-line pitching is necessary if the Pale Blue are to threaten. The work of Jim Carroll, Andy McClare, and a pair of Bills, Scott and Nicholson, was mighty encouraging on the Southern trip.

Certainly Maine will improve on last season's 2-5 record, and climb out of the YC basement.

Crawling out on that much-sawed limb, we like Connecticut, Maine, Massachusetts, New Hampshire, and Rhode Island in that order. And as a marginal note to Maine opponents—"Beware of the Bear."

Coach Walt Anderson has molded a good solid club, a club which has an advantage that most Maine clubs have in Conference play—superior spirit. The old adage, "Where there is a will, there is a way," might be the keynote of a major upset.

Batting the Breeze—Some 30 members of Sig Ep turned out with shovels to clear snowbound tennis courts last Tuesday. Tennis captain Don Mott and manager Johnny Black led the assault on the white stuff. A tremendous gesture, and instrumental in allowing Pale Blue net men to practice outside the past two weeks. A dip of the Bear Facts bonnet to Sig Ep! . . . Frosh golfers can expect a call to clubs within two weeks, according to Coach Charlie Emery. . . . Speaking of golf, varsity golfer Ron LeClair is rated a coming New England champ. . . . Our "Within the Walls" cracked just a bit last week with a pair of omissions—Sig Alpha Epsilon and Theta Chi. Sorry, men. We did much better this week.

Within The Walls

The race for the coveted Benjamin C. Kent All-Point Trophy tightened this week as the latest figures, including basketball, were posted. Phi Mu, league leaders, opened their six and one-half point lead over Phi Eta to thirty-one and one-half points.

On the strength of their basketball title, Phi Gam picked up 150 points and rose from sixth to third, biggest advance in the standing.

Standings are as follows:

Phi Mu Delta	370½	Volleyball was on the agenda Thursday. Twelve games were played. The scores follow: South Apts. topped Corbett 3, 15-8 and 15-10; Phi Mu won over Sigma Chi, 15-5 and 15-10; Kappa Sigma beat Alpha Gam, 15-6 and 15-8; Tau Epsilon nipped Phi Kap, 15-12 and 15-12; Cabins trounced Corbett 1, 15-3 and 15-5; Newman defeated Dunn 3, 15-4 and 15-7; Dunn 2 edged S. H. Hamlin, 16-14 and 15-10; Phi Gam whipped Sigma Phi, 15-4 and 15-8; Phi Eta slaughtered Sigma Alpha, 15-1 and 15-3.

Bears Open Yankon Season

Rifle Team 1st Army Champs

The University of Maine's ROTC rifle team has written another page in the school's history book. Figures released Tuesday by Capt. Moffat Gardner reveal that Maine is the 1956 First Army champion.

The Pale Blue riflemen outshot runnerup Providence by 150 points, 7469-7319, in competition that included forty-four colleges from the New England, New Jersey and New York area. It is the first time that Maine has won the title. The team finished seventh last year.

Pace Firers

Captain Volney Gilpatrick, a senior, and Bob Abbott, a junior, paced the firers along with sophomore ace Milt Friend. The match was fired in four stages: prone-sitting, prone-kneeling, prone-standing, kneeling-standing. Ten shots were fired from each position.

Coach Gardner told the Campus Monday that the individual and team plaques, symbolic of First Army supremacy will probably be presented at the annual Federal Inspection here May 10. The team plaque is awarded on a rotating basis.

In Nationals

The Bears now move on to the ROTC National Intercollegiate Championships, results of which will be known in May. The locals were 18 in the 1955 nation-wide shoot.

The Nationals will also be fired in four stages. Fifteen men are to compete with the top ten scores forwarded to the ROTC Intercollegiate.

Exceptionally well-balanced, Maine will be represented by seniors Hans Van Leer and Gilpatrick; sophomores Ray Nelson, Marshall Batson, Lawrence Kincaid, Paul Webber, and Friend; freshmen Paul Piggott, Greyson Lane, Dave Rush, Don Martin, Ron Richardson, Dave Campeau, Jim Sargent; and the lone junior, Abbott.

Have 3-1 Record; Face 3 Clubs On Second Trip

By JOE MCCARTHY

The Black Bear baseball team embarked on their second swing through the South Wednesday afternoon to face three southern New England schools. Coach Walter Anderson's nine will face Northeastern at Boston on Thursday, Rhode Island on Friday, and Connecticut at Storrs Saturday.

Sporting a three win-one loss record from their trip earlier this season, the Maine club left Orono with a full squad. Coach Anderson reported that the team was in good physical shape before their departure. Gus Folsom was shaken up at Villanova when he was accidentally hit on the nose by a bat before that game. However, no serious damage was done and Folsom is in good shape.

UConn's Strong

Anderson looks for the stiffest competition on this trip from the UConn's. They have nine returning lettermen on their squad and are defending Yankee Conference champs. From all reports, they are again the team to beat.

Bill Scott will be on the mound for the Bears. The effective chucking of Scott on the Southern trip has made him Anderson's starting choice against the UConn's. Scott pitched well against Rutgers before that game was called on account of darkness.

Nominated for the starting role against Rhode Island is Jim Carroll, sophomore left-hander. Carroll started the first game of the season against Princeton and led Maine to a 12-5 victory over the Tigers. Carroll was shaky in spots in that game as he issued 10 free tickets to first. Good clutch pitching got him out of most of his jams.

Either Bill Nicholson or Andy Mc-

Clare will get the nod from Anderson for the first game of the road trip at Northeastern. Nicholson was a 2-1 winner over Howard University. He threw a two-hitter at the Washington school. Coach Anderson expressed delight with the way that McClare has shaped up this Spring.

Anderson Satisfied

As for the trip into New Jersey, Pennsylvania and Washington, Coach Anderson was very satisfied with his team's showing.

Anderson Tenders Resignation

The resignation of Walter Anderson, varsity baseball coach and assistant in football the past two years, was announced late Tuesday.

Anderson will join the staff of his alma mater, Boston University, next fall as varsity backfield coach in football and as freshman hockey mentor.

He piloted the Bears to a State Series baseball championship last year, his first at the helm.

Dr. Rome Rankin said his resignation had been accepted with regret. "Anderson has been an able coach, well liked by players, coaches, and fans," Rankin said. "We wish him the best of luck."

AROUND THE DIAMOND . . .

Anderson moved Frank Soyachak to third base from the outfield during the trip. Soyachak played good ball around the hot corner. . . . Don Ran-co was the big sticker on the trip with nine hits in eighteen official trips to the plate. A triple and double were included in that total. . . . Other outstanding averages. . . . Don Beattie, 1b, with .313. Second baseman Gerry Wright, 8 hits in 18 times for .444, and receiver Angelo LoCicero's .385. . . . The Bears have an all senior infield this year with Beattie at first, Wright on second, Soyachak at third and Co-Captain Gene Scribner at shortstop.

Varsity Golfers Open At R.I.

The Maine varsity golf team opens the 1956 season tomorrow, teeing off against Rhode Island at Kingston. The match is the first of a two day tour thru southern New England. The Bears meet Connecticut Friday.

Hit hard by graduation, the Pale Blue are pinning their hopes on talented captain Emery Howard, and a corps of promising sophomores. Howard, a senior and two year veteran, is the only returning letterman from last season's team that won the State Series.

Lists Starters

Battling for the other starting berth are juniors Chris Russell, Hal Hutchinson, Bill Sterritt, Dave Ober, senior Les Fogg, and Charlie Logue, a sophomore.

BC Here On Saturday For First Outdoor Meet

The outdoor track season gets underway Saturday at 1:30 p.m. with the possibility that most of the events will be held in the field-house. Coach Chester Jenkins' thinclads will meet an improved Boston College in a dual meet, the first of five this season.

"If we don't get at least two good days of solid sunshine," said Jenkins Monday, "only the hammer, javelin, discus, and shot events will be held outside with the running and jumping events held indoors rather than on a wet field."

Eight Days Practice

Come Saturday, the Maine team have had only eight days of practice for the meet. And most of the practice held thus far has been indoors. Jenkins says that this will hamper the team somewhat. He points out that Boston College will be suffering from the same ailment, though—lack of sun and outdoor workouts, but not to as great a degree.

The Maine team is expected to hold their own in the throwing events. Jenkins will have Jerome Pedro throwing the javelin along with Thibodeau, Stan Gass, and Bill Earle. Thurlow Cooper, a three-letter man, will be entered in the shot with Don Bur-chard, Gass and Cal Bickford. The discus event will find Bill Johnson, Bob Hastings, Bill Chandler, Gass, and Howie Katz competing.

Coach Jenkins expects the squad to be strong in the distance events. Jenkins said, "From the 880 up, we should do quite well." Outstanding Maine runners Dick Law, Paul Firlotte, and Karl Kraske are entered in the 880. Stan Furrow, Ray Holmes, Firlotte, and Dick Gould will compete in the gruelling two mile run. Law, John Lane, and Firlotte will toe the line for the one mile.

The big question mark right now is the middle distances. The 220 and 440 could be the Bears' Achilles heel. Jenkins is hoping for an even break in these events Saturday.

Jim Varner, capable indoor hurdler, will be entered in the 120-yard high and the 220-yard low hurdle events. Jim was a consistent scorer during the winter season and should do well outdoors.

Rod Spearin and Bill Finch will head a Maine quartet entered in the 100 yard dash against BC. In the high jump and pole vault events, Thurlow Cooper and Bill Schroeder, respectively, will lead the Black Bears.

List Frosh Ball Team

The freshman baseball squad has been pared according to a final cut announced Monday by Coach Jack Butterfield. Eight pitchers, five catchers, six infielders, and five outfielders comprise the twenty-four man roster.

Butterfield has been drilling the squad daily in the cage in preparation for the season's opener here May 1. MCI will be the opposition.

'Ace Of Spades' Attracts Nearly 1100 Persons

The second annual "Ace of Spades" held last Saturday night in the Memorial Union attracted more than 1100 students and faculty.

Patented along the same line as last year's event the program included such popular games as roulette, black-jack, poker-dice, casino, poker, blind hookey, horse racing, and chuck-o-luck and also included some new talent in the form of the Meddibempsters of Bowdoin and New Hampshire's Wildcat jazz band.

The roulette wheel operated by President and Mrs. Arthur A. Hauck proved to be the most popular of the amusements again this year.

All in all there were some 56 faculty and administration members on hand operating the various games.

The games were financed by $500 cash in toy money exchanged for the 50 cent price of admission.

Prizes for high scores were ten tickets to the Maine Masque production of "Candida." Winning tickets were Marilyn Pennell, who was high winner for the night with $55,000. Per Fodaess, Richard Lester, John Corson, Jan Saleeby, Laurel Kealiher, James Cusack, Bernard Pellerin, Frederick Liberty, and Robert Foster.

The Meddibempsters appeared at 8:30 p.m. and were followed by the jazz band at 9.
