The love of the game and a will to win has long been the University of Maine’s athletic tradition. As an integral part of the total educational process, intercollegiate athletics has proved to be a rich experience for hundreds of Maine students. In 99 years the University has awarded the Varsity “M” to approximately 6,000 athletes. The combination of courage, team work and pride has provided excellence in all sports as Black Bear teams have brought honor and distinction to the University.

Athletics at the University of Maine will continue to develop qualities of leadership, fair play and a competitive spirit in those young men and women who choose to include varsity competition as part of their college education. The University takes great pride in paying tribute to all “M” letter winners for their outstanding contribution to the University Family and its athletic programs.

The University of Maine at Orono, with its six colleges and four schools, is the largest campus in the statewide university system. There is plenty of elbow room on its 1,100 acres, where the student is offered the diversity and challenge of a large university in the invigorating atmosphere of a small college. Close personal contact among students, and among students and faculty, is a tradition at Orono, where one knows his neighbors and his teachers.

Orono is a cosmopolitan campus in a classic New England setting. Last year students from 25 foreign countries and 45 states studied here, and fully 20 percent of the total enrollment of some 11,000 students regularly is admitted from other states and nations around the world.

There is ample opportunity for the student to enrich his university days academically and socially outside the classroom. There are seven scholastic honor societies, four non-scholastic honor societies, 22 departmental and professional honor societies, 56 associations, clubs and organizations, and six religious groups. Nineteen fraternities and 10 sororities have chapters at Orono.

The campus is located one mile from the center of Orono, an attractive town of about 10,000 population, and eight miles from Bangor, the state's third largest city. It is in the center of the state's year-round outdoor recreation area, with ski slopes, scores of ponds, lakes, streams, and the beautiful Maine coast within easy driving distance.

Interstate Route 95, a scenic four-lane highway that bisects the state north to south to the New Hampshire state line, passes within a mile of the campus. Air travelers land at Bangor International Airport, where the University of Maine has established a campus in former Dow Air Force Base facilities, Bangor Community College. BCC, in the 1974-75 academic year, became the new sixth college of the University of Maine at Orono. Although the 162 acre campus, with its 58 buildings, is located in Bangor, its relationship with Orono is the same as the other five colleges.

In its role as a community college, the primary objectives of BCC are to offer two-year associate degree programs, one-year certificate, and short-term programs to meet special educational needs.

The University of Maine at Orono offers programs in physical education, intercollegiate athletics, intramural sports, recreation and related club activities. These programs are recognized as an integral part of the educational process which the university controls and supports within the limitations of budget, staff, equipment, and facilities. These programs are to promote educational leadership, physical fitness, opportunity for recreational pursuits, and athletic excellence through instruction and competition.

In 1968 the State Legislature created a system of public higher education for Maine. This action unified the University of Maine and the five state colleges into one "cohesive structure of public education in the State of Maine." The university now has campuses in Orono, Bangor, Portland- Gorham, Augusta, Presque Isle, Farmington, Fort Kent, and Machias.

The information in this publication pertains only to the activities and programs at Orono.
FOOTBALL AT MAINE

It all started in 1878 when an unidentified junior attempted to kick a round football over Brice Hall (now Oak Hall) in his leisure time. History doesn’t record whether or not he ever succeeded or how many panes of glass he broke in the process, but he sowed the seeds of a game which was officially launched at the University of Maine in 1892 and is called football.

The first era could logically be called the “growing pains” period and stretched from 1892 to 1900. The period was not fruitful for UM clubs as they posted a 10-28 record with one tie. The year 1896 brought a first — the hiring of the first full-time coach, Jack Abbott, a Dartmouth graduate. Systemized training was started and players ate at a regular training table.

The 1901 to 1920 period saw the first appearance of “Bananas,” the mascot — a brown bear, and the hiring of former Harvard star Jack Farley as coach in 1901.

The 1921-40 period can only be described as the Fred Brice Era as “Foxy” Fred Brice began a 20-year coaching career at Maine which saw Black Bear teams win 79 games against only 58 losses and 15 ties. An innovative man, Brice specialized in trick plays and after a building year in 1921 Maine went on to win State Series titles in seven of the next eight years. Tabbed as one of the finest periods in UM football history, the years between 1925 and 1934 saw the Bears win unofficial New England titles in 1925, 1927, and 1928 and share one in 1926. From ’31 to ’34 Maine won 12 straight State Series games.

The years between 1941 and 1950 saw teams depleted of personnel by the war, several coaching changes, and 26 wins, 28 losses and four ties during the decade. The most outstanding player was Jack Zollo, a guard who suffered severe wounds in the war. He led Maine to a 6-1 record in ’47 and was named to the All-American team.

Maine won its first Yankee Conference crown in 1949 under a new coaching staff — one of the finest ever assembled in New England football history. Head Coach during 1949 and 1950 was Dave Nelson, who later became Delaware’s most successful coach. His assistants were Hal Westerman, who became Maine’s winningest coach upon succeeding Nelson in 1951; Mike Lude, later head coach at Colorado State; and John Cuddeback.

The Hal Westerman Era lasted from ’51 to ’66 and saw Maine teams win 80, lose only 38 and tie seven and chalk up 15 straight winning records. The ’51 and ’61 Bears were undefeated and the ’65 team went to the Tangerine Bowl and won the Lambert Cup. Maine won Yankee Conference championships in 1951, 1952, 1961, and 1965. This era also marked the end of the State Series with Bates and Bowdoin bowing out after the 1964 season and Colby leaving the Maine schedule after the 1966 contest. Two players, guards Tom Golden and John Huard, were named All-America during Westy’s coaching career.

The year 1966 saw Westerman succeed Dr. Rome Rankin as Athletic Director and after the 1967 season he retired as head coach. He was succeeded by Walter Abbott, popular line coach during the sixties under Westerman. After two below .500 seasons, the 1969 Bears posted a 5-4 record.

Former Boston College assistant Jack Bicknell took over the Bears’ helm in 1976 and immediately led Maine to a 6-5 record, featuring a solid ground attack and a strong passing game.

NCAA football classification consists of four Divisions, I-A, I-AA, II, III. In addition to a common constitution and bylaws, each Division has its own regulations and policies governing its scholarship program.

Forty-six collegiate institutions, including the University of Maine at Orono, are classified in Division I-AA for NCAA football championships. The 1980 season is the third year for the Division which is recognized for its equality of competition.

The NCAA recognizes the major bowls as post-season competition for Division I-A football. Following the bowl games the national champion is selected by sportscasters.

Officially sponsored NCAA championships are conducted for Divisions I-AA, II and III. One team from each of the three regions and one at-large team are selected for the championship playoffs. Eastern Kentucky topped Lehigh 30-7 to take the 1979 I-AA title.

Questions on offense and answers on defense best describe the preseason football outlook for the University of Maine as the Black Bears tackle a tough 1980 schedule.

First the questions. The reconstruction of the offensive line will go a long way in determining the Bears’ scoring punch as coach Jack Bicknell’s squad must replace four starters and two senior tight ends. The offensive backfield could be one of the best ever to play for Maine with all 1979 starters returning.

Now the answers. A defensive unit that allowed 114 fewer points last year than in 1978 returns ten starters and should be the strength of the squad this fall.

Tri-captain Andy Neilson at guard will be the only returning offensive lineman for Maine, but with several position changes during spring practice and the development of inexperienced but capable linemen, this area could be a surprise. Mammoth tackle Andy Landers moves over to offense and has been very impressive. He will join probables Ray Ferretti at tackle, Steve Keating at center and either Barry Buckley or Jeff Munroe at guard. Sophomore Ray Sullivan has the edge at tight end.

Tri-captain John Tursky will return at quarterback, backed up by sophomore Mike Beauchemin, with ECAC Rookie of the Year Lorenzo Bouier and Paul Nigro at tailback and fullbacks Steve McCue, Matt Bennett and Brian Bruso holding down the running back slots. Bouier’s 910 yards set an NCAA I-AA rookie record last year and opposing defenses will have to give Mr. Bouier their full attention. Speedy Pat Madden, who caught 27 passes last year, returns at one wide receiver post with explosive Tom Torrisi at the other. Tursky threw for 1,155 yards a year ago and could be even more productive this year with improved pass protection and solid efforts from Maine’s quality running backs.

The place kicking job is wide open with tight end Tom Lamont the top candidate.

The defense returns nearly intact with juniors Ray Thumbs at safety, All-ECAC monsterback Matt Slane and cornerbacks John Chisholm and Matt Downey comprising a defensive backfield with speed and, now, experience. Linebackers Bob Waterman and Tom Rasmussen are solid veterans.

Ends Phil Perrari, an All-YC pick, and converted linebacker Steve Vermette head a defensive line that is expected to spend a lot of time in the opposing offensive backfields. They join tackles Tom Loughlin and tri-captain Pete Thiboutot, who has switched from his starting linebacker post. Only Loughlin was not a regular starter on this unit a year ago. Loughlin, Slane and Ferrari recorded impressive tackle statistics in 1979 and are expected to spearhead Maine’s defense.

Punter Paul Pierce also returns.

Quality open-field runner Peter Ouellette, who has moved to wide receiver this year from QB, is once again Maine’s top kick return specialist. Ouellette will join Madden to give Maine a long distance return threat.

Another tough slate of opponents faces the Bears this year. Powerful Lehigh and Delaware head a list of teams second to none in Division I-AA. First-time foes Kings Point and Princeton join traditionally strong rivals Massachusetts, Connecticut, New Hampshire, Boston University and Rhode Island. Also expected to field strong units are Lafayette and Northeastern.

The Bears, 2-9 last year, have a combined all-time record of 104-129-16 against 1980 foes, an indication of the strength of Maine’s schedule.

Strong defensive play and a successful rebuilding effort in the offensive line could mean a Black Bear revival in 1980.

MEET THE BEARS

Andy Neilson, Tri-Captain
Sr., G, 6-0, 240, Sharon, Ma. — October 7, 1958 — Coming off outstanding season in Maine’s offensive line. Is expected to spearhead Bears’ effort to rebuild a line thinned by graduation. Andy has had to battle wrist injuries throughout his career, but is set for 1980. Was top senior for coach Bruce Allman’s Sharon HS squad. Also participated in track. Member of UM fraternity Phi Eta Kappa. Has been a top student majoring in Mechanical Engineering. His sister Linda is an outstanding basketball player at UConn. One of four children, Andy is the son of Richard and Janet Neilson.

Pete Thiboutot, Tri-Captain
Sr., DT, 6-3, 230, Waterville, Me. — March 24, 1959 — Moved to defensive tackle after stellar years at linebacker. Is expected to make this one of the team’s stronger areas. Was in on 64 tackles as 1979 LB. Has been a Bear starter since his sophomore year. Played for coach Lee Harriman at Waterville HS where he was a three-year star. He also lettered in both track and basketball. Has fine leadership qualities. A Special Education major, Pete hopes to teach after graduation. He is the son of Alphonse and Annette Thiboutot.

John Tursky, Tri-Captain
Sr., QB, 6-3, 195, Randolph, N.J. — September 10, 1959 — A natural leader on the field, “Turk” was fourth among the nation’s I-AA passers last year with 1155 yards and will call the signals again this season. Tursky’s ability to throw under pressure should complement Maine’s talented group of running backs in 1980. Perhaps his best effort was his passing late in the game that helped the Bears upset powerful Lehigh in 1978. Was a three-spot stickout at Randolph HS where he played football for coach John Saver. A Business Administration major, John is the son of Michael and Janice Tursky.
THE SENIORS

BRIAN BRUSO — Sr., FB, 6-1, 203, Auburn, Ma.
Brian Bruso — May 23, 1958 — Brian is expected to battle Steve McCue and Matt Bennett for playing time at fullback. Runs well inside and is a solid short yardage back. Played for coach John Hartnett at Auburn HS, where he captained the football and track squads. Is brother of former UM fullback-tight end Billy Bruso. A Political Science major, Brian plans on a business career after graduation. He is the son of William and Margaret Bruso.

JOHN CASSIDY — Sr., WR, 5-8, 143, Staten Island, N.Y.
John G. Cassidy — January 23, 1959 — A quick receiver with experience, John could see action at a split end post this fall. An All-City and All Island pick under Msgr. Farrell HS coach Dennis Barrett, Cassidy is a hard worker who had a solid spring. He will add depth to receiver corps. A Finance major, Cassidy is the son of Jack and Monica Cassidy. Is a member of UM fraternity Tau Kappa Epsilon.

RAY FERRETTI — Sr., OT, 6-5, 245, Woburn, Ma.
Raymond A. Ferretti — February 17, 1959 — Figures to be starting at an offensive tackle slot when the Bears open at Kings Point. Was a standout at Woburn HS for coach Peter Sullivan. Played in the prestigious Massachusetts State Super Bowl as a junior. He also participated in track at WHS. Member of UM fraternity Tau Kappa Epsilon. An Animal Science major, Ray hopes to go on to veterinary school after graduation. Ray is the son of Bruno and Doris Ferretti.

ANDY LANDERS — Sr., OT, 6-5, 250, Beverly, Ma.
Andrew M. Landers — February 7, 1959 — Has been converted to offensive line from defensive line this past spring and has been impressive. Andy is a major part of Bears' effort to rebuild the offensive line. Was Harry Agannis All-Star while playing for Beverly HS coach Nate Cunningham. Also played baseball. Andy's size, strength and quickness could make him a key to a solid season for the Bears. An Education major, Andy is the son of Richard and Eleanor Landers.
PAT MADDEN — Sr., WR, 5-9, 185, Lewiston, Me.

Patrick F. Madden — May 1, 1958 — The Bears’ top pass receiving threat returns after gaining a year of eligibility due to injuries suffered early in his standout career for the Blue and White. Caught 26 passes for 481 yards, an average of 18.5, tops in the Yankee Conference. Four went for touchdowns. His 23 catches led Maine receivers in 1978, but last year’s total was one behind recent Buffalo Bill draftee Roger Lapham. Also returns punts and kickoffos with fellow WR Pete Ouellette. Gives Bears a solid long-distance threat from anywhere on the field. Played his high school ball for coach Mike Haley — a former Maine grad — where he earned All-State honors. A Plants and Sails major, Pat is the son of Hubert and Claire Madden.

STEVE McCUE — Sr., FB, 6-0, 195, Woburn, Ma.

Steven M. McCue — April 18, 1958 — The Bears’ top fullback a year ago, is the leading FB candidate for 1980. Hard-driving runner and solid blocker. Was an outstanding schoolboy for Woburn HS coach Peter Sullivan. Was named a High School All-American and was named Outstanding Offensive Player in 1976 Div. Two Massachusetts Super Bowl. Especially tough in goal line situations, Steve lugged the ball 52 times in 1979 for 182 yards and three TDs. Caught five passes for 61 more. Enrolled in the college of Arts and Sciences, Steve is the son of James and Mary McCue.

JEFF MUNROE — Sr., G, 6-1, 235, Salem, Ma.

Jeffrey J. Munroe — February 21, 1959 — His experience and improved strength should enable Jeff to contribute to the Bears’ offense this fall, adding quality and depth to Maine’s “O” line. Played for Salem HS coach Ken Perrone, winning the SHS Captain’s Award. Also participated in hockey, track and baseball in high school. Member of Tau Kappa Epsilon fraternity at UM. A Physical Education major, Jeff hopes to land a coaching or teaching job after graduation. Jeff is the son of Arthur and Patricia Munroe.

BRAD PETERS — Sr., DE, 5-11, 197, Glastonbury, Ct.

Bradley K. Peters — July 4, 1959 — An aggressive, hard-working player, Brad makes up for lack of size with solid fundamentals. Could see duty at DE. Fine performer at Glastonbury HS under coach Ray Nicoletta. A solid student, Brad majors in Psychology at UM and is a member of fraternity Beta Theta Pi. He is the son of Edward and Nancy Peters.
JEFF REINEBOLD — Sr., DB, 5-9, 175, South Bend, In.

Jeff D. Reinebold — November 19, 1957 — This determined veteran should see action as Maine’s backup safety, taking advantage of his improved ability to run the defensive backfield. An All-State football and basketball performer at Clay HS, Jeff played for Elmer Brisson. Member of UM fraternity Tau Kappa Epsilon. A Parks and Recreation major, Jeff hopes to secure a college coaching position after graduation. Jeff is the son of James and Evelyn Reinebold.

STEVE VERMETTE — Sr., DE, 6-2, 215, Brunswick, Me.

Steven R. Vermette — April 30, 1959 — One of Maine’s top linebackers last year, Steve has been converted to DE where he has shown himself to be solid in spring drills. THE BLACK BEAR HALL OF FAME
Is Alive and Kicking

The football season is upon us and signals the beginning of another school year. The Black Bears have an ambitious schedule and coach Jack Bicknell's squad looks to be improved with added experience and quality recruits. 1980 should be something to watch with the likes of tri-captains QB John Tursky, guard Andy Neilson and DT Pete Thiboutot. Exciting performers such as tailback Lorenzo Bouier, the 1979 ECAC Rookie of the Year, and Monsterback Matt Slane, an All-ECAC pick on defense, will again be called upon to lead the Bears this fall.

We hope you will follow us throughout the campaign and give us the support we need from the most important part of our athletic program — you.

We look forward to having Black Bear Booster activities both home and away this year and encourage every fan to look for our representatives at these events. Should you wish to join us in these activities and need more information just give us a call.

Because we'll be looking for you.
