Eyes of Blue

By ED. COLEMAN.

Andante Moderato

There's a pret-ty pair of eyes that haunt me
There are eyes of brown that glit-ter like the mf

in my dreams And to me it seems, Love speaks thro' their beams brightest gold And tho' oft they're told, That dear sto-ry old,

Just to whis-per, that the one I dream of loves me true And to Oth-er folks may rave o'er them and think them just di-vine, Toast their prom-ise that they'll e'er be true; For ev'-ry time I look in them they brightest light in spark-ling wine. I've fram'd with-in my heart two ten-der world grows bright, Ev-en in the night, Stars give forth more light; eyes, such eyes, Col-or of the skies, In whose depth there lies

Girl - ie think a mo - ment and you'll guess just who,
Some-thing that I've grown to feel is just a sign,

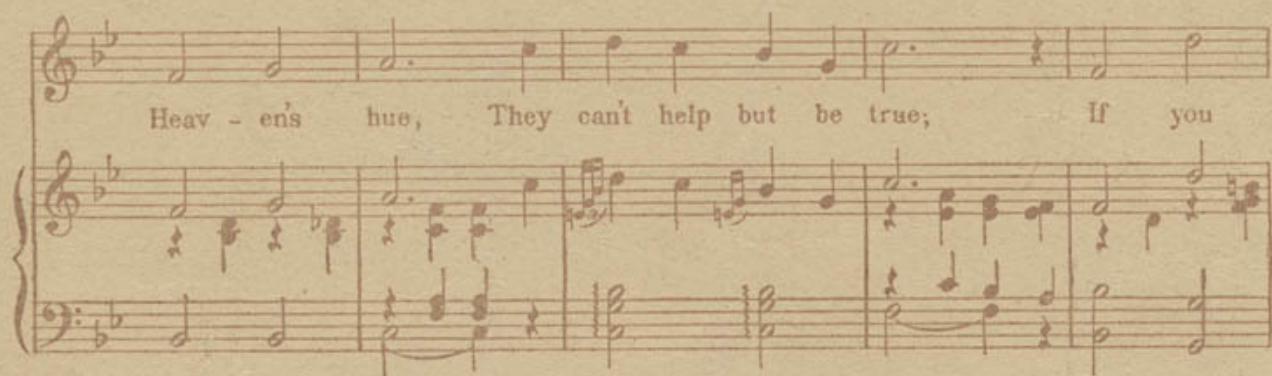

Stole my heart with ten der Eyes of Blue.
That the eyes of blue are mine all mine.

CHORUS

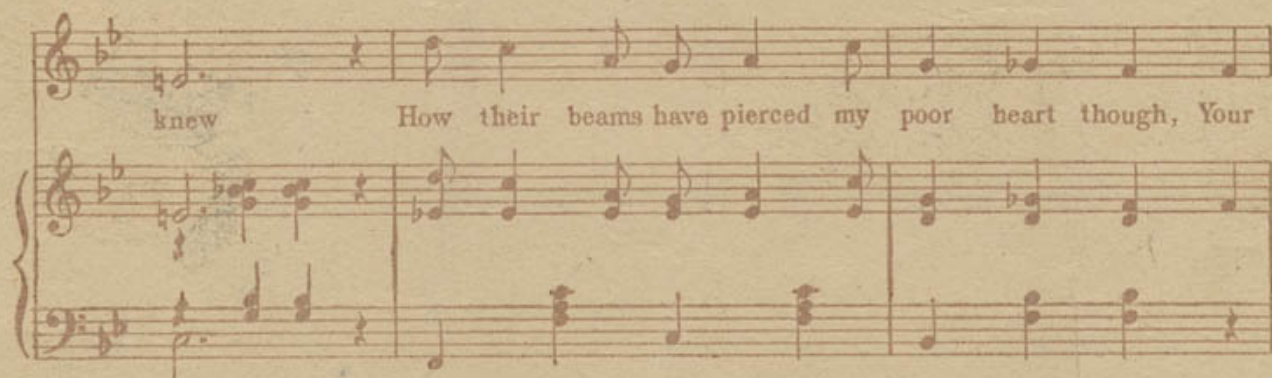

Eyes of Blue, I love them because they be-long to you!

Heav - en's hue, They can't help but be true; If you knew How their beams have pierced my poor heart though, Your hand would be in mine And love-light would shine In Eyes of Blue.
