ADVANCING WOMEN IN ACADEMIA: A Networking Conference

View the keynote speech by Dr. Kelly Ward of Washington State University. Dr. Ward is engaged in research related to faculty issues including integration of teaching, research and service; work and family concerns; and faculty diversity in science, technology, engineering and math (STEM). Her research goals include connecting theory to practice to create more equitable environments for students, staff and faculty. Request a copy of the DVD today by calling the ADVANCE Rising Tide Center at 207-581-3439, or e-mailing risingtide@maine.edu.
