1981-82 BASKETBALL GUIDE

Published by the University of Maine at Orono's department of public information and central services in cooperation with the department of physical education and athletics.

The University of Maine invites all disabled or handicapped students, community spectators and personnel to attend Black Bear home contests throughout the school year. Assistance is made available by calling 207/581-2186 with your request.

ON THE COVER: University photographer Jack Walas' cover photo shows All-American Mark Aguirre of DePau batting Maine's Clay Gunn (44) and Dave Wyman (52) in the Bangor Auditorium last year.
Intercollegiate athletics at the University of Maine at Orono is an integral part of the total educational process. Hundreds of students enjoy the privilege and accept the challenge of competition as they represent the University and the state of Maine every year.

Maine athletic tradition has been established over the past 100 years by young men and women striving for excellence in their sport within the spirit and philosophy of amateur athletics, "love of the game and the will to win."

The University takes great pride in paying tribute to all "M" winners for their outstanding contribution to the University Family and its athletic programs.

Harold Westerman
Director of Athletics

The University of Maine at Orono, with its six colleges and four schools, is the largest campus in the statewide university system. There is plenty of elbow room on its 1,100 acres, where the student is offered the diversity and challenge of a large university in the invigorating atmosphere of a small college. Close personal contact among students, and among students and faculty, is a tradition at Orono, where one knows his neighbors and his teachers.

Orono is a cosmopolitan campus in a classic New England setting. Last year students from 25 foreign countries and 45 states studied here, and fully 20 percent of the total enrollment of some 11,000 students regularly is admitted from other states and nations around the world.

There is ample opportunity for the student to enrich his university days academically and socially outside the classroom. There are seven scholastic honor societies, four non-scholastic honor societies, 22 departmental and professional honor societies, 56 associations, clubs and organizations, and six religious groups. Nineteen fraternities and 10 sororities have chapters at Orono.

The campus is located one mile from the center of Orono, an attractive town of about 10,000 population, and eight miles from Bangor, the state's third largest city. It is in the center of the state's year-round outdoor recreation area, with ski slopes, scores of ponds, lakes, streams, and the beautiful Maine coast within easy driving distance.

Interstate Route 95, a scenic four-lane highway that bisects the state north to south to the New Hampshire state line, passes within a mile of the campus. Air travelers land at Bangor International Airport, where the University of Maine has established a campus in former Dow Air Force Base facilities, Bangor Community College. BCC, in the 1974-75 academic year, became the new sixth college of the University of Maine at Orono. Although the 162 acre campus, with its 58 buildings, is located in Bangor, its relationship with Orono is the same as the other five colleges.

In its role as a community college, the primary objectives of BCC are to offer two-year associate degree programs, one-year certificate, and short-term programs to meet special educational needs.

The University of Maine at Orono offers programs in physical education, intercollegiate athletics, intramural sports, recreation and related club activities. These programs are recognized as an integral part of the educational process which the university controls and supports within the limitations of budget, staff, equipment, and facilities. These programs are to promote educational leadership, physical fitness, opportunity for recreational pursuits, and athletic excellence through instruction and competition.

In 1968 the State Legislature created a system of public higher education for Maine. This action unified the University of Maine and the five state colleges into one "cohesive structure of public education in the State of Maine." The university now has campuses in Orono, Bangor, Portland-Gorham, Augusta, Presque Isle, Farmington, Fort Kent, and Machias.

The information in this publication pertains only to the activities and programs at Orono.
The University of Maine at Orono offers no apologies for the abilities of its athletes — nor for the academic talent of its 11,000-plus student body. UMO's role of athletic success in recent years, playing against what has come to be known as "the big time", is well documented. Perhaps not so well known is the fact that UMO is in "the big time" when the measurement is by academic excellence.

The latest report of the National Merit Scholarship Corporation, for instance, points out that UMO has 45 National Merit Scholars currently enrolled — more than any other public college or university in New England. The number nearly equals those enrolled in all the other land grant colleges in New England combined (50). And it's higher than such well-recognized institutions as the University of Maryland, University of South Carolina or the University of Oklahoma.

Overall in New England UMO ranks ninth in the number of National Merit Scholars, behind such giants as Harvard/Radcliffe, Yale and MIT. A total of 31 schools in New England enroll one or more such scholars.

President Silverman has taken note of the school's academic excellence a number of times. In referring to the enrollment of National Merit Scholars, Dr. Silverman says, "The University of Maine at Orono's ability to attract National Merit Scholars speaks exceedingly well for the reputation and substance of the institution's many programs, as well as its faculty".
The Black Bear Hall of Fame is an organization of alumni and friends of UMO who support the educational and athletic goals of UMO and its student athletes.

Club members provide essential assistance in the following ways. Members furnish financial assistance to men’s and women’s athletic programs; members encourage community support for the University’s programs; members help recruit promising student athletes; members recruit new memberships for the Black Bear Hall of Fame; and members create a solid bond between UMO and its many friends nationwide.

The ultimate goal of the club is to enrich the UMO athletic program in a manner that will continue to make UMO teams, at all levels, highly competitive and entertaining for the students and fans.

The benefits are many. Gifted young men and women can gain the opportunity of a lifetime to excel in higher education while refining sports skills and meeting top competition. And you as a contributor can gain pride in your role in making their achievements possible through your generosity. Also, regional Black Bear Hall of Fame branches or “dens” will be established to help organize the efforts of Hall of Fame members.

So join the Black Bear Hall of Fame! Lend your support and help keep UMO’s athletic tradition on the move.
The history of basketball at Maine is unique. While it includes the accomplishments of a number of outstanding teams and several brilliant players, it also shows that the University dropped the sport from its intercollegiate program on two occasions due to a lack of proper playing facilities. But those days are behind now as the game has become one of the most popular indoor sports played at Maine.

The first official team to wear the pale blue and white was the 1904-05 team. The next five seasons saw Maine produce winning teams, but the sport was dropped at the end of the 1909-10 season for lack of a gymnasium floor. It was resumed in 1921 and the teams of the 20s had only fair success, posting a 45-61 record during this period. Once again the game was dropped, from 1929 to 1935, when the construction of Memorial Gymnasium placed the game back on solid standing for good. The teams of the late 30s and 40s had a record of 93-102, but the decade of the 40s closed on a high note with Dr. Rome Rankin’s first team (1949-50) posting the best record ever for a Maine team until that time, 13-6.

It wasn’t until 1958 that basketball hit its highest plateau at Maine, however. Brian McCall, who captained one of Dayton’s great teams and had a brilliant high school coaching record in the Cleveland area, was hired as Maine’s first full-time coach of basketball in the summer of that year and he promptly coached the 1958-59 team to 15 wins in 22 games, a new UM record. The 1958-59 season was but a tune-up, however. Led by the greatest starting five in Maine’s history, guards Tom “Skip” Chappelle and Wayne Champion, center John Ingalls, and forwards Don Sturgeon and Larry Schiner, the 1959-60 team opened with 13 straight wins and finished with a 19-4 record. The team was ranked sixth nationally. The 1960-61 team chalked up an 18-5 record to give McCall 52 wins in 68 games during this golden era. Chappelle was named to the AP’s All-American college division squad (first team). Chappelle established 15 all-time UM scoring records, but several were bettered late in the 60s by Jim Stephenson, who Chappelle coached at Ft. Fairfield High School.

McCall coached until 1968. His place as UM basketball leader was taken by Gilbert “Gib” Philbrick.

Chappelle took over the Black Bear helm in the 1971-72 season and led Maine to a 15-10 record, the best record in 11 years. The winningest coach in UM history, Chappelle has a ten-year record of 140-113.

Led by all-time career scoring leader Rufus Harris, who scored 2,206 points, rebounding great Bob Warner, number three scorer Roger Lapham and current assistant coach Peter Gavett, Chappelle’s teams went on to pile up winning records in all but the 1974-75 (11-4), 1976-77 (13-13), and 1980-81 (14-14) seasons.

The Black Bears earned playoff berths in each of the past two seasons, the only two years the ECAC/North has sponsored post-season play and a path to the NCAA playoffs. Academic All-Americans Dave Wyman and sharp-shooting Jim Mercer, the team’s co-captains in 1980-81, led the way.
Ten-year veteran head coach Tom "Skip" Chappelle (140-113) has been around long enough to know what must be accomplished to complete a successful basketball season in 1981-82. He just doesn’t know if his inexperienced squad can overcome the difficult schedule of opponents facing the Bears. Maine’s schedule is its toughest ever with foes to contend with on the road like DePaul, Marquette, Notre Dame and Villanova.

“The keys to our season are, first, our ability to maintain control of the game’s tempo as well as we did last season, especially in light of the fact our schedule is very challenging,” says Chappelle, who will again be assisted by former Maine great Peter Gavett, and first-year assistant Jim Hutnik, a former player at Lafayette. “Someone will have to pick up the roles played by Rick Carlisle (transferred to Virginia) and Champ Godbolt (to Holy Cross) last year. The second factor is the development of 6-10 sophomore center Jeff Cross. We’ll play as well as he plays. Beyond Jeff our size is limited,” Chappelle adds.

“The last key is as important as the other two,” notes the winningest coach in UMO basketball annals. “We must find the outstanding leadership and the grasp for the ‘team concept’ we had a year ago (Maine was 14-14 and made the ECAC/North playoffs).”

Leadership is one quality Maine can rely on. The team’s only senior and its only returning starter, 6-6 forward-center Clay Gunn, is the team captain. The powerfully-built pivot led all ECAC/North rebounders last year (eight per game) and is the team’s top defensive player. Gunn will play forward to make room for the improved Cross, who is expected to join Gunn and either 6-6 sophomore Paul Cook, who saw limited action a year ago, or 6-5 transfer Clay Pickering, a physical player who has solid all-around ability.

Freshman Jeff Topliff, a strong shooter and a fine prospect at 6-4, and 6-5 sophomore John Libby, round out the forward candidates.

Sharp-shooting sophomore Jeff Sturgeon will run the offense and will likely be flanked by either 6-3 sophomore Kevin Green or 6-3 freshman Jeff Wheeler, possibly the team’s top shooter. Six-four sophomore Craig Kelsey and 6-2 freshman prospect Mark Hedtler also figure to contribute this season.

With a squad that boasts of just one player who has ever started a Division One game, the Bears must take on the likes of the Demons, Fighting Irish, Warriors, and Wildcats, in addition to Temple, Connecticut, Providence, and even southern power Alabama, the favorite to win the Best Classic.

“The total team effort and feel for one another must prevail from the beginning for us to be successful. Squad turnover and our schedule make this season the biggest challenge of my coaching career,” says Chappelle.

Maine (15-13) 31 36 — 67
Attendance: 4,872 Cumberland County Civic Center, Portland, Maine Feb. 28, 1980

Portland's Cumberland County Civic Center was the site for the 1979-80 ECAC/North finals. The Maine-Marquette game, shown above, drew 7,800 fans, the largest basketball crowd in the state's history. Watch for the Best Holiday Classic.
He never scored 20 points in a game or pulled down as many as 15 rebounds, but Dave Wyman was a solid defensive performer who played TEAM basketball and excelled in the classroom despite many days of travelling and practices. Wyman, like his fellow senior teammate and 1980-81 co-captain Jim Mercer, was named Academic All-American last year by the College Sports Information Directors of America.

Wyman looks back: “It is indeed a challenge for every athlete to do well in school, both because of the many hours spent on buses, in airports, at practice—places where concentration on classwork is virtually impossible—and because of the very nature of the sport, in which only a select few are able to participate after graduation. I specifically remember a math professor saying to me, ‘If you would work as hard in the classroom as you do playing basketball, you would excel’. I take great satisfaction from my selection.”

Dave Wyman, striving for excellence, can look back with pride.

George Hale, long-time voice of Black Bear sports and operations director of WABI-AM in Bangor, has been selected as the 1981 Owen Osborne Award winner in appreciation for the ideals and outstanding coverage of intercollegiate athletics in Maine. The award is named in the honor of the late Bangor Daily News sports editor and was awarded previously to Harland “Hardo” Durrell of the Central Maine Morning Sentinel and to the late Rollie Wirths of the Portland Press Herald.

The first broadcaster to win the award, Hale began his continuous coverage of UMO sports in 1957 when he handled color on Black Bear football broadcasts with play-by-play man Dewey Dewitt. Hale also worked with George Gonyar, now vice president and general manager of Community Broadcasting, and John McRae on UMO sportscasts. His current partner is Steve Martin. Besides football, he has broadcast Black Bear basketball and baseball as well as Maine schoolboy athletics and sporting events at other Maine colleges.

Hale lists as his top three thrills in 24 years of UMO sports, in no specific order, Maine’s appearances in the College World Series, the 1965 football team’s Tangerine Bowl game, and Black Bear basketball in the Brian McCall era of the late 50’s and early 60’s when current coach Skip Chappelle was a player.

He and his wife Jean (pictured above) live in Orrington.

Thomas “Skip” Chappelle, 41, begins his eleventh year as head coach of the University of Maine at Orono. In his first season as the Black Bears’ head coach (‘71-’72), Chappelle guided Maine to a 15-10 record, best in 11 years, and was named Maine College Basketball Coach of the year. During his ten seasons at Maine he has compiled a record of 140-113, a .553 percentage that ranks Chappelle number one in Maine basketball coaching annals.

A native of Old Town, Chappelle is the only basketball first-team All-American in University of Maine history. He received an honorable mention after his ‘59-’60 season and was named Associated Press’ Little All-American after his ‘60-’61 season. Chappelle still holds five foul-shooting records at UMO from his career during 1959-62, in which he scored 1,352 points, the fifth-highest UM total. They are: Most free throws made (single game) 19; Most consecutive free throws made (single game) 19; Most consecutive free throws made (season) 32; Best free throw average (season) .874; Best free throw average (career) .835.
MEET THE COACHES

Peter Gavett became assistant basketball coach on September 1, 1973, upon graduation from the University of Maine the preceding June. In his three years of varsity play at Maine, he scored 1,294 points and captained the 1972-73 squad. He also captained the undefeated freshman basketball team during the 1969-70 season.

Gavett wound up his collegiate career by being named first team All-Yankee Conference, All-District One as voted by the Basketball Writers of America, first team Academic All-Yankee Conference for three years, and second team All-New England in the Associated Press and UPI polls.

The two-time Yankee Conference scoring leader was picked in the supplementary draft by the Boston Celtics and attended the club's 1973 tryout camp.

He was a High School All-American at Orono High.

Peter, his wife Shelley, who is talent assessor for UMO women's athletics, and newborn daughter Gretchen reside in Orono.

Jim Hutnik is a new face in Black Bear country having been hired this fall as an assistant coach. Head coach Skip Chappelle thinks his new assistant's impact will be felt immediately. "There have been some very important happenings in the history of our basketball program," Chappelle said. "The addition of scholarships was one happening, and this (Hutnik's hiring) is another of that magnitude. Another coach will help us do that much more and to cover more territory in recruiting."

Hutnik spent last year as an assistant basketball and baseball coach at Brandeis University and is very excited about the move to Maine. "I'm going from Brandeis, which is Division 3, to Maine, which is Division 1. This is a major step up for me."

The Easton, PA native was a three sport star at Easton Area High School earning all-east Penn League honors in soccer, basketball, and baseball as well as being team captain in all three sports.

At Wagner College, Hutnik set the school record for assists while starting at guard his freshman year. He later transferred to Lafayette College, where he played basketball and golf before graduating in 1978 with a degree in History. Hutnik was hired as an assistant coach at his alma mater and stayed there for two years before moving on to Brandeis.
44 Clay Gunn
Senior, F, 6-6, 224, 3/15/59, G. Barrington, MA

The Black Bear captain has a heavy load on his shoulders in his senior year. With the transfers of Rick Carlisle and Champ Godbolt, Gunn is now the only returning starter and will be looked to for leadership both on and off the court. Ever since his arrival at Orono as a freshman, he has been counted on for rebound production. The case is the same this year, except he'll now be expected to be a major point producer. Last season, he led the ECAC North in rebounding with 224, an average of eight per game, and was the Black Bears' leading board man in 18 of their 29 games. His seasonal high was 15 in a Maine victory over Siena. His scoring average in '80-81 was nine points a game. "We're looking for Clay to repeat as the league's leading rebounder this year, but we know it will be more difficult as he moves from a center position to forward. We're also looking for him to do more scoring for us. His strength and quickness will make him one of the best forwards in New England." —Chappelle.

40 Paul Cook
Sophomore, F, 6-6, 198, 3/3/61, Lubec, ME

The Lubec native returns for his second year with the Blue and White in hopes of seeing more action than he did as a freshman. In limited action, he shot eight for 16 from the floor and pulled down 19 rebounds. Cook was a pleasant surprise in early pre-season workouts. "He moves well offensively without the ball and can score. As a forward, he will have to be a factor off the boards." —Chappelle.

54 JEFF CROSS
Sophomore, C, 6-10, 242, 9/1/61, New Castle, NH
The burly second-year man's progression holds a very big key to Maine's fortunes this winter. Reliable scoring and boardwork from Cross could serve to relieve some of the pressure on teammate Clay Gunn. The tallest player in Black Bear history, Jeff is entering only his fourth season of competitive basketball, as his first year on a team was in his senior year in high school. "Making steady improvement . . . needs game experience to gain confidence . . . has developed a good short range jump shot and has improved his power play inside." —Chappelle.

24 KEVIN GREEN
Sophomore, G, 6-3, 192, 9/26/60, Natick, MA
A leading candidate during early work-outs to grab one of the vacated guard slots, Kevin is sure to see much playing time this year. He saw limited action last year while learning the ropes of college basketball but Coach Chappelle believes the former Worcester Academy stand-out is ready for action in '81-82. "He'll be called on to play a front position, and also take the team over. He has good overall skills in all areas of the game, and we'll rely on his outside shooting." —Chappelle.

10 MARK HEDTLER
Freshman, G, 6-2, 192, 5/10/63, Lexington, MA
Mark comes to Black Bear country very highly regarded. He played on three state tournament teams for coach Bob Farias at Lexington High School and was a career 1000-point scorer for LHS. After his senior year, he was named to the Boston Globe's All-Scholastic team. "He has great shooting credentials but needs experience." —Chappelle.
20 CRAIG KELSEY
Sophomore, G, 6-4, 174, 12/11/62, Westminster, MA
A walk-on candidate a season ago, Craig saw limited action. However, the Parks and Recreation major added a couple of inches of height over the summer and has shown steady improvement in his bid for more playing time. Craig played his high school ball at Oakmont Regional High School where former Black Bear co-captain Dave Wyman's father is the head coach.

50 JOHN LIBBY
Sophomore, F, 6-5, 199, 11/5/61, Gorham, ME
John came out for the squad a season ago and did not make the cut. However, he stuck with it and earned a place on the roster for '81-82. Coach Chappelle classifies him as "very coachable and a good 15 foot jump shooter." He lettered in basketball for three years at Cheverus High School and was named All-Conference in his senior year. Libby majors in Computer Science.

34 CLAY PICKERING
Junior, F, 6-5, 212, Akron, OH
Clay will be playing his college hoop in the colder confines of Orono this winter instead of balmy Daytona, FL, where he was a member of the Daytona Community College squad for the past two seasons. He is pushing for one of the starting forward posts and Coach Chappelle calls him a "good passer" who can rebound and score as well. Chappelle expects Pickering to contribute to the Black Bear attack once he adjusts to the Maine system. He was voted All-Ohio while playing at Archbishop Hoban High School and was also selected as one of the top 10 forwards in the Buckeye State.
42 JEFF STURGEON
Sophomore, G/F, 6-4, 204, 9/13/61, Old Town, ME
Jeff made the transition last year from Maine schoolboy basketball to New England college basketball in fine fashion, coming off the bench and contributing in his role as a swingman. He is a very confident player on the court and is an outstanding passer. Sturgeon was the Bears’ leading rebounder in a 96-67 win over Marist last winter. “Jeff will be a vital member in running this year’s team. He’ll be playing a front position for us and his leadership qualities will be needed. As a freshman Jeff played with great confidence.” —Chappelle.

30 JEFF TOPLIFF
Freshman, G/F, 6-4, 199, 5/30/62, Veazie, ME
Maine fans are hoping that like Jeff Sturgeon last year, Topliff can be an example of “local boy makes good.” “Top” played his high school ball right down the road from the University of Maine at Orono High School. He lettered in hoop for three years for the Riots and was named All-State in his senior year as well as being a Converse All-American honorable mention. “He is improving his guard skills and has improved his shot selection. He needs experience.” —Chappelle

32 JEFF WHEELER
Freshman, G/F, 6-3, 206, 1/5/63, Enfield, CT
Based on his showing in early work-outs, this talented freshman could see quite a bit of playing time. Coach Chappelle calls him an “excellent shooter who is adjusting to the system quite rapidly.” Jeff was MVP three straight years in hoop at Enfield High School as well as being named All-Area and All-League two consecutive years. His father is former UM QB Manch Wheeler.

The Summer Youth Sports Clinic program at the University of Maine at Orono has been in existence eight years. During those years more than 10,000 youngsters were enrolled in clinics one week in length and in nine different sports activities. Each clinic is directed by a UMO varsity head coach or comparable director who is assisted by his staff, guest lecturers, and prominent high school coaches.

The participants will have the opportunity to improve their skills in the sport or sports of their choice; to participate in a framework of sportsmanship, teamwork, and safety; and to enjoy a week at one of America's most beautiful college campuses. The food is superb and the living accommodations are outstanding.

The clinics are open to both boys and girls but vary from sport to sport. Highlighting the program is "Super Week" which is conducted in both boys' and girls' basketball for the more advanced players. In addition to regular basketball clinics, the other sports activities include competitive swimming, diving, baseball, soccer, football, gymnastics, tennis, and athletic training.
