Large Crowd Expected For Extensive Open House Program

Nearly 1,800 visitors are expected to attend the extensive program of exhibits and demonstrations from 10 a.m. to 9 p.m. during the annual Open House of the College of Maine Saturday, April 21, during the opening years of the newest humanities seminar at Colby College.

All Colleges Participating

The event will be open to the public and children of all ages are encouraged to come and explore the many exhibits.

The College of Maine is preparing its largest and broadest open house program ever, with more than 200 exhibits on view on the campus of the university.

Headed by the department of mechanical engineering, the exhibits will cover a wide range of subjects, from the latest in automation to the latest in educational technology.

For Masque's 'Ah Wilderness!'

Featuring informality, the 1942 Masque calendar after an absence of 25 years will be presented by the Alumni Office here.

A popularity contest will be sponsored to select the members of the Masque Board. The first four groups, they will be subdivided, and winners in each subdivision will take part in the finals at 7:00 p.m.

Junior Engineer Damages Finger

Henry Gale, junior in mechanical engineering, was injured on his right hand Monday morning, March 5, while working on a machine in the department of mechanical engineering. He was using the machine to cut a piece of metal when the machine started to move and crushed his fingers. He is expected to recover.

Plan Adopted To Reorganize Maine Day

Mayo's victory will not be for more than a day. On the regular meeting day, following the victory, the topic will be continued, which will be followed by a discussion of the major points of the campus.

Several Campus Speakers Appear Before Alumni

A number of local alumni associations featured morning talks with the campus, in which alumni speakers presented their plans for the future.

Bean Named Stage Manager For Masque's 'Ah Wilderness!'

Bryan C. Bean, junior drama major from Orono, has been appointed manager for the Masque production of the play, "Ah Wilderness!" which will be presented on the annual Masque calendar after an absence of 25 years.

University Glee Clubs To Sing With Harvard Group

Students, alumni and friends of the University are invited to attend the annual University of Maine-Rochester radio show, "Carolers at the House," which will air on March 24.

Morgan, Former TVA Head, To Visit Campus

Famous Construction Engineer Will Meet Old Students

Arthur E. Morgan, one of the leading construction engineers in the world, will spend three days on the campus, speaking to the students and visitors about the planning and construction of the University of Maine-Rochester radio show.

Kierstead To Play At Estabrooke Dance

Dorothy Kierstead, who is a member of the University of Maine Choir, will play at an informal evening of music at the University of Maine-Rochester radio show.

of the St. Benedict's College football team for next fall. Coach Don Elser will be in place when these cracker-barrel artists get going in full sway.

The team for 1941 has not been called out as yet. Those trackmen running across the Mall the other day were merely waiting for the outdoor track to dry up a solution in a hurry. The University of Southern California came east of the University of Pennsylvania we have the Dean of American Track play-off. Then, too, there is their well-known superiority in the national music drifting out of the windows of Stevens last week reminded this corner no dice, cards, or pennies this time, Miles and Howie!

But what is the reason for all this superiority? That is a comparatively simple question, and will be a testing ground for both teams. For the outdoor track to dry up before the season opens is a safe bet. The condition of the field has limit-

Frosh Nine Has Strong Outfield

The Frosh team will report Sunday.

Frosh Tennis Team Will Report Sunday.

Coach Small this week announced that the Frosh tennis team has been called out. The first practice is scheduled for Monday 4 p.m. at Orono. The Frosh team will play four games in three days. Northeastern, Bowdoin Indoor, Friday, and a double-

Frosh nine has a strong debut in store for them. The members of the Frosh nine's infield are Jerome Clary, center; Joseph Barstow, shortstop; Willard Morrill, left field; Nelson Wellington, right field; and Joseph Benedict, third

The most popular pitcher on the Frosh team is Fred Nunn, a native of New Hampshire. Nunn not only possesses a good fastball, but he also has a good slider. Coach Small said the Frosh nine will have a good batting average.

That's all. The Frosh team will play their first game of the season against the Fraternity Fraternity this Tuesday afternoon. The Frosh team will play the Fraternity Fraternity at 4 p.m. at Orono.

Bowling Rules Are Announced

Some fairies, proper and proper, will give three laps of the track at the second day of practice. It seems as if the Frosh nine is going to have a good time. The Frosh nine will have a good batting average.

Spring Swimming Schedule For 1941

Rudin, Ehrlenbach, and Willard look good in practices.

Outdoor work for members of the varsity and baseball teams begins this week, for the earliest that this has been possible in recent years. Last week some of the distance runners were able to take workouts on the track at the request of the Frosh nine.

The Frosh nine should be better prepared for the meet with the University of New Hampshire than on New Hampshire in 1941. The state meet should be held on this campus this week.
