First system of musical notation, consisting of a grand staff with treble and bass clefs. The key signature has three flats (B-flat, E-flat, A-flat). The time signature is 2/4. The music features a series of chords in the right hand and a melodic line in the left hand. There are fermatas over the first and third measures.

Second system of musical notation, continuing the piece. It features similar chordal textures in the right hand and a moving bass line. There are fermatas over the first and third measures.

Third system of musical notation. It includes dynamic markings such as ff and 8va. There are accents (^) over notes in the right hand. The system concludes with the instruction D.C. (Da Capo).

Fourth system of musical notation, labeled "Coda" on the left. The time signature changes to 2/4. The music is marked ff (fortissimo) and features a more active bass line with eighth notes.

Fifth system of musical notation, the final system on the page. It concludes with a double bar line and fermatas over the final notes in both staves.
