Maine Hunger Dialogue and Climate Action Summit

Safeguarding Food Systems from a Warming Planet

October 11, 2023

Wednesday, October 11, 2023 | 8:30 a.m. – 5:00 p.m.

Wells Conference Center, University of Maine, Orono, Maine

Free! Register by October 6 as space is limited.

Join students, faculty, and staff from colleges, community colleges and high schools across the state for this one-day conference. Participants will have an opportunity to network, discuss food security and climate change, and find solutions to combat these issues within our own communities.

- Discuss food security and food waste as factors in hunger equation.
- Learn from experts about hunger and how it affects learning.
- Participate in a pre-conference gleaning activity, campus tours.
- Be part of a cooking challenge that will feed the local community.
- Apply for grants to support projects that address food security on your campus or in your community.

All food left over from the conference and the cooking challenge will be donated to area food banks and meal sites.
