A graphic with a dark blue background and a white border. It features a quote in white serif font: "When we allow violence against some, we enable violence against all." Below the quote, there is a faint, larger version of the Maine Alumni Association logo and the text "1865 THE UNIVERSITY OF MAINE".

“When we allow violence against some, we enable violence against all.”

— Dr. DaShanne Stokes, author and scholar

The Alumni Association is firmly committed to the values of respect and dignity for all individuals regardless of their race, ethnicity, sexual and gender identification, abilities, and religious beliefs and practices.

The Alumni Association condemns the recent acts of hatred and violence in the US targeting individuals of Asian, Asian American, and Pacific Islanders. We stand in support of the individuals, communities, and cultures that have been subjected to, and suffered from, fear, anger, violence, and intolerance directed toward them.

We join with other organizations and institutions that are committed to working toward justice and equality for all.
