Dr. Hemant Pendse is an internationally renowned leader in forest bioproducts research and has brought opportunities for the University of Maine and the state to new heights with his work.

Since joining the university in 1979, the professor of chemical engineering and chair of the Department of Chemical and Biomedical Engineering has spearheaded innovative research that has earned two patents, produced 82 publications, given more than 200 technical papers, and garnered $17 million in external funding.

We invite you to watch this video tribute to Dr. Pendse, the Alumni Association's 2021 Distinguished Maine Professor. The video, originally released on May 20th as part of the Alumni Achievement Awards ceremony, now includes Pendse's acceptance remarks, which were recorded after the tribute video's debut.
