Bailey Picks Cast of "Journey's End" Striking War Play

LEVENSALOR AND BITTLETT

Drama eventful in the spirit of Bailey C. R. Schirriff's striking war play "Journey's End" February 16 and 20th. This production, the unadorned dramatic portrait of the last moments of the front line trenches, will undoubtedly mark the peak of the organization's season. This play promises to be the climax of a tremendous undertaking for an organization that has been so far a small band. Mr. Levensalor's head-grounded cast, aided by Atwood Levensaler as Lieutenant John Barry, is a thoroughly professional group. John Barry, as the young officer on the front line, will surely solve any difficulties the young actors may have with their parts. The play is an ever changing emotional character study. This makes the play possible to stage in the Alumni stage has been selected for the production. Here the play will receive its first and biggest test. Mr. Bittlett is considering the potential of the parts of the show to bevised with interest by University authorities.

John Longley '34 is Levensalor's seaborn in the cast for the main role of the game. The role is a most challenging one. Here Longley meets his first big break in the University. The part of Private Horace B. Little is also a fine opportunity for Mr. Bittlett. Bittlett has accepted the head-grounded cast, and has also added the desired impact that makes his work outstanding. CORRESPONDENCE

Editor of the Campus

Does anyone at Maine at all think that we have not seen a day or two of sunshine during the past eighteen years of my life as a student? To me, the weather here is always different. Sometimes it rains, sometimes it snows. I have seen both in the same day.

The weather here seems to have a mind of its own. One day it may be hot and sunny, the next day it may be cold and rainy. But no matter what the weather is like, there is always something interesting going on here at Maine."
SERIES OF ORGAN RECEPTALS PRESENTING "FINISHING" TRICKS

In the absence of the usual Monday morning meeting, Mr. Harry G. Smith presented a series of organ recitals from 4:30 to 5 o'clock each afternoon during the week of examinations. The recitals were well attended, and the good work that the Mr. Smith did for the splendid work. They provided enjoyment for several students at this time of enjoyment of other students as well.

The recitals were greatly appreciated by those who heard them, and it is hoped that the plan will develop into a permanent feature of such examinations. The recitals will be carried out each year during the week of examinations.

The members of the University will make an annually good opportunity to have a first-hand experience as part of the journalism department activities, at Vespers next Thursday evening. The speaker will be Miss Mildred Miller, Industrial Secretary of the Maine Review. She will discuss the responsibilities of religion for social conditions such as this. The question to be debated will be: "The Eighteenth Amendment should be repealed. Maine is upholding the affirmative in this question. The schedule for the debate has been arranged by Mr. Spear. Miss Finberg is now organizing with Bates on the subjects to be discussed. Dual debates with Colby are also being planned. This is the first year that Colby's women are debating, and it is hoped that this attempt will be greatly accepted by the public.

The question that the women are debating is: "A Song of Devotion," by Williams, and "Berceuse No. 2," by Strang. Those debating on the male side are: Eva Robich, Jean Campbell, Clarine Coffin, Florence Cantel, Mary Smith, Frederick Foster, Eddy Higgins. Those debating on the female side are: Clarine Coffin, Florence Cantel, Eddy Thomas, David Barker, Maurice Cousins, Albert Rubins, John Vickers, Harry G. Smith, Frederick Foster, Eddy Higgins.

Now they manufacture weather for telephone testing
A test illustrating work in the Bell Telephone Laboratories is made with the standarmeter. This device produces rain and sunshine to order, and determines just how the existing properties of telephone equipment.

This test indicates an interesting habit that the more you study the telephone research. It is to get sure knowledge bearing on efficiency, economy, life and reliability of apparatus.

Information is sought continuously during the development of a design, in advance of manufacture and of course long before the equipment gets into use.

Men who delight in thoroughness of method find that the opportunity is there.

"POLITICAL CORRUPTION" TO TOP THE AUTO MEET PROGRAM

The program for the annual Plymouth State Spring Fling Auto Meet this year promises to be one of the most practical ever held. Taking as its theme "Political Corruption," the Fling will include a special prize-giving event in which money will be awarded to the students who can demonstrate the greatest evidence of political corruption, particularly in the fields of political activities and municipal politics.

The leaders will be Mr. Edward Moran, Jr., of Rockland, who can be heard on the floor at the day of the Fling, and Mr. George Bailey, who has sufficiently entertained the jury at his last appearance.

FRESHMAN Kernel will be run. In February 27 to March 3, each group shall have its kernel. The number of students from each group shall be limited to the number of students in the group. The kernel will be held in the basement of the dormitory, and the prize will be awarded to the group that has the largest number of kernels.

The fast and clever light weights are expected to make a fine showing.

Our friends, the girls, who are so much interested in securing a fresh group, will probably be interested in these events. The leading men have been doing good work in these events, and the freshmen have done exceptionally well.
