Litchfield Corner District.

Summer term, whole number attending, 19; average number, 15; length of term, 9 weeks; wages of teacher, $5 50 per week. Winter term, whole number attending, 20; average number, 18; length of term, 10 weeks; wages of teacher, $6 00 per week.

Mrs. Etta T. Taylor, taught both terms. She is a teacher of large experience and thoroughly enjoys the work and the school made good advancement under her care.

Scholars not absent one half day: Summer term, Charley Larrabee, Genie Campbell, Carl Taylor, Edith Earle, Annie Belle Taylor; Perley Campbell, 5 years old, was absent one-half day.

Winter term, Perley Perry, Charlie Larrabee, Carl Taylor, Edith Earle, Bertha Purinton and Annie Belle Taylor.

South Oak Hill.

Summer term, whole number attending, 9; average number, 7; length of term, 9 weeks; wages of teacher, $5 00 per week.

Winter term, whole number attending, 6; average number, 5; length of term, 9 weeks; wages of teacher, $5 00 per week.

Both terms were taught by Miss Jennie Mitchell. This school is small and and requires a teacher of tact and skill to create a desire for study. Miss Mitchell possesses these qualifications. Her methods of instruction and discipline are of the highest order, and the school made good progress. We should have confidence to place this teacher in a larger and more advanced school. Scholars not absent one-half day: Summer term, Kate Riley, Mary Riley. Winter term, Kate Riley.

Waterman District.

Summer term, whole number attending, 22; average number, 19; length of term, 9 weeks; wages of teacher, $6 00 per week.

Miss Edith Stewart taught the summer term. At our first visit the appearance of the school foretold a successful term, and at the closing visit, the scholars showed a good degree of advancement.

Winter term, whole number attending, 26; average number, 23; length of term, 10 weeks; wages of teacher, $7 00 per week.

Mr. E. W. Varney teacher. Mr. Varney has had a number of successful terms of experience, mostly in his own town; he entered upon his duties in this school with a determination to succeed, and his labors were not a failure.

Scholars not absent one-half day: Summer term, Lena M. Allard, Edna F. Sprague, Mattie M. Douglass, Gertie M. Allard.

Winter term, Edna F. Sprague, Mattie Douglass, Gussie P. Briery, Gertie Allard.

Grant District.

Summer term, whole number attending, 9; average number, 7; length of term, 9 weeks; wages of teacher, $5 50 per week.

Rose Waterman teacher. At our first visit we found teacher and scholars deeply interested in their work, and this interest continued through the term. The closing visit showed that much hard work had been done; much credit is due both teacher and scholars.

Winter term, whole number attending, 10; average number, 7; length of term, 10 weeks; wages of teacher, $6 25 per week.

Miss Neva Hall teacher. Miss Hall has had previous experience in this school, and understood the wants of the pupils, and with this knowledge and her easy manner of conducting recitations a large amount of work was accomplished.

Scholars not absent one-half day: Summer term, Edith Otis.

True District.

Summer term, whole number attending, 14; average number, 12; length of term, 9 weeks; wages of teachers, $5 50 per week.

Miss Cora True, teacher. She has had charge of this school several terms. The scholars are active and worked with zeal, and made excellent advancement.

Winter term, whole number attending, 17; average number, 15; length of term, 10 weeks; wages of teacher, $6 25 per week.

Miss Fannie True, teacher.

Miss Fannie True has had a large experience, several terms of which have been in this school, and the district is always satisfied, so far as we know, to have her there. She inspires her pupils with enthusiasm and does good, faithful work wherever she is placed.

Scholars not absent one-half day: Summer term; winter term, Sadie Tucker, Sallie H. True, George Tucker, Ralph Tucker.

Berry District.

Summer term, whole number attending, 11; average number, 9; length of term, 9 weeks; wages of teacher, $6 25 per week.

Winter term, whole number attending, 10; average number, 9; length of term, 10 weeks; wages of teacher, $7 00 per week.

Miss Augusta H. Edgecomb, teacher.

Miss Edgecomb has had charge of this school the most of the time for a number of years and her services are highly appreciated by the district. She was retained for the year and the school made commendable progress.

Scholars not absent one-half day: Summer term, Lester C. Berry, Lorenzo D. Small. Winter term, Lester C. Berry, Lorenzo D. Small, James A. Colby, Ethel S. Colby, Mertie B. Colby.

Stevenstown District.

Summer term, whole number attending, 18; average number, 14; length of term, 9 weeks; wages of teacher, $5 50 per week.

Miss Fannie True, teacher.

The scholars at the commencement of the term, manifested great interest, and the teacher took special pains with each class that each principle should be thoroughly understood; one class in oral history deserves special mention. The closing examination showed that teacher and scholars had made good use of their time.

Winter term, whole number attending, 15; average number, 14; length of term, 10 weeks; wages of teacher, $6 00 per week.

Miss Rose E. Waterman, teacher.

Miss Waterman has already been reported as teacher, in another part of the town. She manifested excellent qualities as an instructor, and we placed her in this school with confidence that she would do well. She gave perfect satisfaction to parents and supervisor. A profitable year for this school. It has taken a new start, and none but competent teachers will satisfy this district in future.

Scholars not absent one-half day: Summer term, Linda Gowell, Inez M. Gowell. Winter term, Georgie Gowell, Linda Gowell, Inez Gowell, Nina Haynes, Oscar Williams.

Earle District.

Summer term, whole number attending, 10; average number, 8; length of term, 9 weeks; wages of teacher, $6 00 per week.

Winter term, whole number attending, 10; average number, 8; length of term, 8 weeks; wages of teacher, $6 50 per week.

Miss Mattie Cunningham taught this school for the year and transported the scholars from number 4. She has had considerable experience in the schools, in town; is pleasant and easy in the school-room and the school made excellent advancement.

Scholars not absent one-half day: Summer term, Carrie Alexander, Mamie Morrell, Josiah Morrell. Winter term, Sula Dennison.

Mills District.

Summer term, whole number attending, 18; average number, 16; length of term, 9 weeks; wages of teacher, $5 75 per week.

Miss Mabel Norcross, taught the summer term. At our first visit we found the school orderly, in good condition, and well classified, and we were confident that good work would be done. At our closing visit the pupils gave fine explanations of the principles that they had taken up, during the session. A successful term.

Winter term, whole number attending, 26; average number, 20; length of term, 10 weeks; wages of teacher, $7 00 per week.

Mr. Miles H. Dustin, teacher.

Mr. Dustin has taught in town several terms and always with success. The scholars worked with him, and much practical knowledge was acquired. The closing examination was very satisfactory.

Scholars not absent one-half day: Summer term, Flossie Gilman, Nettie Dyer, Edna Dyer, Elbridge Allen, Bertie Baker, Irvin Dyer. Winter term, David Allen, Elbridge Allen, Frank Butler.

Springer District.

Summer term, whole number attending, 13; average number, 11; length of term, 9 weeks; wages of teacher, $5.50 per week.

Miss Lena Gilbert, teacher.

This school has often been reported as an orderly school and it maintained its reputation under the direction of Miss Gilbert, and gave evidence at the close of good instruction.

Winter term, whole number attending, 13; average number, 11; length of term, 10 weeks; wages of teacher, $7 00 per week.

Mr. Emery M. Baker, teacher.

Mr. Baker, had been in this school before, and the district wanted him again; he is a fine discipliarian and thorough and conscientious instructor, and the school made marked progress.

Scholars not absent one-half day: Summer term, Herbert Libby. Winter term, Sadie Bosworth, Lewis Hutchinson.

North Oak Hill.

Winter term, whole number attending, 3; average number, 3; length of term, 6 weeks; wages of teacher, $4 50 per week.

Wallace Stewart, teacher.

We decided to have a short term in this district, because we could not get the scholars carried to South Oak Hill. This was Mr. Stewart's first experience, but he displayed some admirable qualities as a teacher, and his labors were satisfactory to parents and supervisor.

Scholars not absent one-half day: H. L. Rose, D. S. Powers.

Thurlow District.

Summer term, whole number attending, 12; average number, 10; length of term, 9 weeks; wages of teacher, $5 00 per week.

Winter term, whole number attending, 19; average number, 14; length of term, 10 weeks; wages of teacher, $6 00 per week.

Roscoe Bosworth, teacher.

Mr. Bosworth taught the summer term, and gave satisfaction, and his services were retained for the winter. It is much better for any school to retain a competent teacher. A teacher can do more satisfactory work the second term than the first. A teacher taking charge of a school for the first time has to learn the capacity of each pupil, and deal with him accordingly. Mr. Bosworth's work was satisfactory to all.

Scholars not absent one-half day: Summer term, Bertie Powers, Joseph Larrabee, Grace M. Haley, Willie Haley, Laura Ridley. Winter term, Berton Powers, Edith Ridley, Ida M. Larrabee, Lizzie Larrabee.

Plains District.

Summer term, whole number attending, 18: average number, 18; length of term, 9 weeks; wages of teacher, $6 00 per week.

Emery M. Baker, teacher.

We had hard work to get a teacher for this school for the wages we could pay. A supervisor can pay no more than he has money to pay with. We were fortunate at last to secure the services of Mr. Baker. One of Mr. B's characteristics is that when he says no he means No. Good order was established at the beginning and retained through the term. Mr. Baker's qualifications as an instructor have already been mentioned. This was a successful and profitable term for this district.

Winter term, whole number attending, 17; average number, 17; length of term. 10 weeks; wages of teacher, $7 00 per week.

George M. Rogers, teacher.

The fact that 14 out of 17 pupils did not miss a half-day during a term of 10 weeks, is recommendation enough for this school. Mr. Rogers taught his pupils to think for themselves. He is clear and concise in his explanations. He kept good order, and the school did excellent work. This school has been blessed this year with competent and faithful teachers.

Scholars not absent one-half day: Summer term, Della Gilpatrick, Frank W. Purinton, Ernest E. Tarr. Winter term, Sadie L. Hutchinson, Angie V. Roberts, Minnie E. Rollins, Della Gilpatrick, Eddie Gilpatrick, Lee M. Varney, Frank Purinton, Clara D. Hutchinson, Emma A. Rollins, Edith M. Small, Ernest Tarr, Elmer J. Purinton, Ray Small, Walter I. Varney.

REMARKS.

There have been two Free High Schools in town during the year; one was held in the Waterman school house, and was taught by W. I. Simpson, with 21 pupils; the other was held in the Plains' school house, and was taught by Geo. M. Rogers, with 19 pupils; each being a term of 10 weeks. Both were profitable terms. A third term of Free High School is now in session at the Waterman house with W. S. Brown as teacher.

Our teachers, with one exception had had previous experience, and all did satisfactory work. Some of them, however would do well to draw the reins of government a little tighter. The terms were shorter than last year as we had not as much money to work with, also some quite extensive repairs had to be made to make the houses comfortable. The house in the Earle district is beyond redemption. Parents declined to send their children when the cold, rough weather came, and therefore, the winter term was shortened.

Parents have manifested much interest in their schools during the year, which has been a help and encouragement to your supervisor.

Respectfully submitted,

HENRY TAYLOR.

Supervisor.
