FACULTY WIVES MAKE PUPPETS

Clever Plays Attract Wide Doll Sales

The making of puppets has become extremely popular among several of the women of University during the past year. Although a start is being made now, it has grown rapidly, and the sale of the various puppets has netted a considerable amount of money for the Campus of Our House.

The single playlet No. 1 is a subject entitled "The Little Professor." This is small enough to be held in the hands of a child, and the box containing it is about as big as a small shoe box. It is priced at 50 cents. The second playlet No. 2 is a subject "The Professor and the Nurse." This playlet is somewhat longer than the first one, and is priced at $1.00. The third playlet No. 3 is a subject "The Professor and the Nurse." This is a very short playlet, and is priced at 25 cents.

All Maine Women in Many Campus Affairs

Membership in the All Women's Association is made up of women of all the branches of the college and has a membership of about 100. The women of the college are divided into five sections: Alpha, Beta, Delta, Epsilon, and Zeta. Each section is responsible for its own activities and has a corresponding section in the All Women's Association.

For an outdoors camp there are things we wouldn't mind—that is, if the skies were clear. Blimp Ricker's awful hat.

Lady rheas are another thing. We've seen quite a few of them around this campus. There's a fat one out there. We'll look for her on a certain A.O.T. judge. Come on, you'll learn to spot that kind of stuff a lot of time, all right. Things are getting pretty bad when the courts are passing on the question of banning tobacco, when some of us were thinking of a large campaign to get the state to pass a law against blindfolds or Zippo's. It's true, too, that we hear the Kappa Sigs have plucked up the get-dressed routine. At last they goes for a suit, the other night. We want a certain A.O.T. judge. Come on, you'll learn to spot that kind of stuff a lot of time, all right.
