PREP JOURNALISTS ATTENDING ANNUAL CONFERENCE HERE

F. L. Perrin, Editor, Will Be Speaker on This Week End

As heads of the Freshman and Sophomore classes broke up on the campus Wednesday afternoon, the Sophomore Hop and Freshman Bar were among those events which kept the members of the group inflated. Although many of the group kidnapped William B. Sears, president of the Sophomore class, and another, Terence Ryan, editor of the student paper, "The Argus," the raids turned out to be only an attempt to pin the Y's on the campus and scare the students. Sears was captured Ted Butler, who was supposed to have been the leader in the kidnapping of Sears. After a grueling hunt, the kidnappers were captured by Edward Gunther and Arthur Stetson of Colby.

Sophomore: The musical migrant was furnished by the freshman music department, and subtle lighting effects secured by multiple colored spotlights. The musical numbers included: "Oh, What a Beautiful Morning," "The Man I Love," "The Giant," "Swing Low, Sweet Chariot," and "The Blue Tail Fly." A series of shows were established for this year, which are thus made eligible for the award.

Nutting Fans Eight Batters
As McCabe Hits 3 Out; Team Plays Harvard Today

The Maine Athletic Association has set May 15th as election day of various offices, which includes election of managers and assistant managers in relay, basketball, track, and baseball. There will also be a vote to decide the election of a member to the athletic board and the head baseball coach.

SPORTS SPIELS
By BOB BERG

It looks like old man Depression has hit the University of Maine athletic department with the result that several of the varsity baseball players have to miscast as the baseball tour through New England, which is a rather unexpected affair, much to the delight of Coach Fred Frisbie. It is just allowed to take 14 players and naturally some of the boys, whose desire the trip and ought to be taken alone, must take it on themselves. It's a tough break, but it must go.

A year ago Harvard College was happy to announce that fact that it possessed an out of the ordinary scholar in the person of the famous athlete, Barry Wood. But now, Maine has in its midst one of its rare combinations in Clark Abbott, a varsity baseball catcher. Recently Abbott was elected to Phi Beta Kappa which is one of the greatest honors an undergraduate can attain, and more to us than that goal in the junior year. Abbott starred on last year's baseball team and is now considered to be the best catcher at Maine. Clark Abbott, scholar and student, Maine is proud of you! * * * * * * * * * * * *

Here is some news that ought to tickle the hearts of you true ivory towers and educators. Efforts are now being made to arrange a track meet between the varsity and and a team composed of former pale blue track stars. With the cooperation of final Friday, Ted Curtis has sent out letters to about 18 of Maine's former track runners, and, to judge by some of the responses, it would not be surprising to see the gala event take place on May 7th. Maybe it would not be thrilling to watch some of Maine's greats, whose feats we will know, strut their stuff on the Alma Field.

Those who took advantage of going to blunder and losing to Bill Cunningham, famous columnist of the Boston Post, were certainly given as interesting a two hour entertainment as could be asked for. Using a style decidedly original and refreshing, Cunningham included in his talk high lights of sporting events and personalities during the past few years. One of the features of his talk was his conception of the "long count" in the famous Dykeman-Turney fight. Coaches Kenyon and Jostie were also among the speakers, the former having as his subject "Baseball" and professional football, while the latter gave an informative talk on track.

"Made-to-measure" service for business

Whether the business is small or large — corner store or fully equipped factory — requirements for telephone service vary. For more special conditions, the Bell System men custom-fit the service to the situation.

They worked out a telephone conference plan for a large manufacturer. Every Friday, at specified times, each district manager calls the home office, where telephone facilities are so arranged that the chief sales executives are on the line simultaneously. Problems are discussed; decisions given. In minutes, the executive cover a large area. This plan lowered selling costs, raised efficiency, helped the user to increase profits 31% in a year's time.

By making the telephone more useful, the Bell System men contribute to the success of the business

The varsity baseball team of the University of Maine is completly in the hands of the team itself, as a group of the boys have been given carte blanche by their coach in the Eastern Intercollegiate and interscholastic league, and after the first game of the season the boys will choose the starting line-up for their first game. This is their first big break in the entire season. The team will be largely composed of five men selected from the baseball team of the University of Maine.

Weekly or student seats are available. These seats are available to all students and will be assigned to the men with the most enthusiasm. The match will be held on the athletic field of the University of Maine. The first game of the season will be played on May 15th.
