MAINE WINS STATE AND NEW ENGLAND TITLES THIS SEASON

Graduation Will Take Nine Men from This Year's Team 1933 Looks Doubtful

By BOB BERG

Winning both the state series crown and New England Conference Title the Pale Blue gridiron squad has completed one of its most successful seasons in years. Coach Brice's eleven won five games, tied one, and had an expected defeat at the hands of a powerful Holy Cross outfit, to roll up an impressive record.

Though they will be the defending state champs, the Black Bear's chances for repeating next year look slim on paper as nine star gridgers have played their last games for Maine. Each of these graduating members was in the starting lineup for Maine throughout most of the season and was a star in his own position. This loss is one of the heaviest in years.

The Pale Blue players who will receive their diplomas next June are: "Gil" Robertson, "Johnny" Wilson, "Mun" Romansky, "Sam" Calderwood, "Mel" Means, Jules Pike, "Sugar" Kane, Frank Craig, and John Wight.

The biggest losses occur in the line. Pike, Craig, and Kane leave a wide open gap at the tackle posts. All three linesmen were 200 pounders and outstanding in the front wall. At guard, Sam Calderwood, veteran of three years and chosen as "All Maine" guard last year will be out of the picture.

John Wight started the year at the other guard post but was forced out for the season as a result of a broken ankle received in the New Hampshire tilt. His place was filled by Sam Reese, sophomore, who filled in capably. Other seniors on the squad who were excellent reserve replacements are Sam Bachrach, center, and Herbie Lewis and Fred Burke, both ends.

In the backfield, gaps left by such brilliant backs as Robertson, Romansky, Wilson and Means will give Coach Brice plenty of worry. Robertson proved to be a bonecrushing fullback in plowing through opposing lines, while Romansky shone at both fullback and halfback. In addition, Romansky finished the season as the highest scoring back in the state. Wilson and Means were Brice's signal blockers, while Means was also used as halfback during the season. Their absence will leave Brice without the services of an experienced quarterback.

The first game of the season saw the Black Bears gain a revengeful 12-0 victory over the Rhode Island Rams at Alumni Field. Romansky proved to be the thorn in the side of the Kearney coached team as he scored both touchdowns for Maine after the Black Bears had made two long sustained marches down the field.

The second encounter saw the Bricemen hand Connecticut a 33-0 whitewashing here. The bright feature of the victory was the return of Gil "Cannonball" Robertson who had been on the crippled list, to the lineup. Three different times Robertson crashed over the Connecticut goal line for touchdowns. Wilson, Butler and MacBride all played well for Maine.

Traveling to Worcester, the Pale Blue gridgers received an expected setback of 32-6 from a powerful Holy Cross eleven. Maine put up a much closer battle than the score indicates. Romansky dashed 80 yards for the Black Bears' only score.

On the following Saturday at Durham, Coach Brice's charges were forced to accept a 7-7 tie from New Hampshire. Maine (Continued on Page Two)

Bad Weather Slows Tennis Tournament

Due to the amount of poor weather during the past week or two, many of the first round matches in the faculty-student tennis tournament have not been played as yet. The results as posted up to Monday afternoon were as follows: Dean Cloke defeated E. Higgins 6-1, 6-3; Dr. Small defeated R. Copeland 6-2, 6-3; W. Butler defeated J. Chacka 7-9, 10-8, 6-2; C. Bunker defeated F. Chandler 6-0, 6-0; R. Heilman defeated S. Hirschon 6-2, 5-7, 6-0; R. Clunie defeated E. Brush 6-1, 6-0; and T. Curtis defeated R. Knowlton 6-1, 6-2. There were four matches which were forfeited: L. Jenness defaulting to B. Ashworth, A. Gardner to W. Matchett, W. Chadbourne to G. Hamilton, and Dr. Young to A. Fuller. All these matches were first round playoffs and there are still many more which will be played as soon as the weather permits.

Sound Reels Taken Of Harmonica Band

The steel bleachers on Alumni Field are now in the movies. Sunday morning the Paramount-Publix photographers from Boston took talks of the Orono Harmonica Band playing several selections while standing on the steel bleachers. One of the selections which they played for the photographers was the Maine Stein Song. Bobby Brautlecht, the son of Professor C. A. Brautlecht, was the leader and waved his baton effectively. Miss Belle Virgie, the director of music in the local schools, played the accompaniments for the band's pieces. There were over 200 children in the Harmonica Band dressed in white and wearing red capes and caps. A small audience, consisting chiefly of the parents of the children and town folks but including some students, watched the taking of the pictures which will appear soon in a Paramount-Publix news reel.

Maine Review Will Be Out After Xmas

The Maine Review, the college magazine which was started last year and of which one issue appeared in May, will be published twice this year. The first issue is to be ready after Christmas vacation and the second in May.

The type of the articles has been changed somewhat, in answer to student opinion. The copy will include an article on education by Dean Muilenburg; two—one for and one against—on compulsory military training; an article on the question of women smoking by Wilma Perkins; two reviews of "King Football: The Vulgarization of the American College," by Robert Berg and Monroe Romansky; and other articles and book reviews dealing with contemporary problems.

Two Teams Debate at Milford on Advertising

Two University of Maine debating teams will clash in a forensic contest in the fourth grange debate of this season next Saturday evening before the Penobscot Pomona Grange in Milford.

A Hamilton Boothby '35 and Max Rapaport '35 will defend the affirmative of the question: "Resolved: that most advertising tends to be detrimental to the best interests of the general public"; while Al Gordon '36 and Dave Brown '36 will uphold the negative.

Boothby and Gordon will debate against Bates on the same question at the Houlton High School auditorium on Nov. 29.

A debate with Colby is now being arranged on this advertising question to be held before the Pittsfield Grange. Kaplan and Gordon will represent the University of Maine.

Before Christmas there will probably be a debate here with Springfield College of Springfield, Massachusetts.

A radio debate will be held between the Junior-Varsity debating teams of Maine and Bates over Station WLBZ about the middle of January on the question: "Resolved: that approximately one-half of all state and local revenue should be derived from sources other than tangible property."

HONORARY CAPTAIN

JULIUS PIKE

JULIUS PIKE NAMED FOOTBALL CAPTAIN

Elected by Team Mates to Honorary Position for Good Work in Line

Julius Pike of Chelsea, Mass., was elected honorary captain of the varsity football team at a meeting of the lettermen yesterday afternoon. Pike has starred at tackle for the past three years and was one of the few players to break into the varsity lineup in his sophomore year. He was considered by Coach Fred M. Brice as his most valuable linesman and was a real bulwark of strength on the Maine frontier. Newspaper reporters termed him as a "sixty minute man" as he played nearly every minute in all the games in his three years of competition.

Edward Perry To Be Chapel Speaker

Edward Perry of the Language School in Istanbul, Turkey, will speak at assembly on Monday, Nov. 21, at 9:45. He will speak on "Maine in Turkey."

Due to several years' residence in Turkey, and through his intimate contact with the people there, he is qualified to show the conditions of life there and the progress being made toward a more democratic life.

The personnel of this University should be particularly interested in Turkey and in the work being carried on there due to the fact that there are several Maine graduates who are in that country devoting their life to missionary work. Lee and Helen Vrooman '18, and Ruth Hastings Allee, '28, are some of those with whom we are probably most familiar. Mr. Vrooman is Dean of International College at Izmir, and Mrs. Allee is working with her husband in planning a system of agricultural extension in a large part of Turkey.

Mr. Perry's address will be interesting not only because of his thorough knowledge of the rapidly moving events in Turkey for the past few years, but because of the relationship which students and faculty members have had with the work of Maine graduates in Turkey.

M.C.A. To Conduct Drive Next Week

On Monday, November 21, the annual financial canvass of the Maine Christian Association will be made under the direction of Clark L. Abbott '33. Solicitors will approach all undergraduate men sometime in the near future. It is hoped that donations will be rapidly forthcoming so that the work may be completed within a few days.

"PRISM" NOTICE

SENIORS AND JUNIORS
All seniors and juniors are requested to procure blanks for their activities list for the "Prism," if they have not already received them, from the M.C.A. building as soon as possible.

Following the awards of the prizes, the delegates will go to Bangor where they will inspect the plant of the Bangor Daily News.

BROWN AND LELAND RHODES CANDIDATES

Selected from State of Maine To Compete for New England Awards

Two University of Maine students, Arthur Albert Brown and Hollis Littlefield Leland, are among the eleven candidates from the State of Maine for the Rhodes Scholarship for New England.

Two from this group of eleven candidates will be selected to represent the state at the district meeting held in December. A state committee, of which Professor S. R. Ashby of the English department is a member, meets December 8 to make the selections.

Arthur Brown is a member of Phi Beta Kappa, president of the Contributors' Club, a member of the Spanish Club and of the Mathematics Club. He was literary editor of the 1933 Prism and a member of the Maine Review staff.

Hollis Leland is a member of Alpha Chi Sigma.

The other candidates from Maine colleges are: George Russell Booth, Bowdoin; Albert Samuel Davis, Jr., Bowdoin; Leonard Helie, Colby; Robert Cassell Hill, Bowdoin; Frank Suther Murray, Bates; Richard Newhall Sanger, Bowdoin; George Tingey Sewall, Bowdoin; Edward Dana Woodberry Spingarn, Bowdoin; John Allan Webb, Colby.

The members of the Maine State Committee of Rhodes Scholarship selections are: Guy P. Gannett, chairman; Professor Thomas Means, secretary (Bowdoin); Professor S. R. Ashby (Maine); Dean Paul Nixon (Bowdoin); and Professor C. J. Weber (Colby).

Work on New Gym Is Progressing Rapidly

The construction of the Memorial Armory is progressing rapidly. The foundation is complete. All the heavy steel framework, over 200 tons, has arrived and is being erected by the Boston Bridge Company, the same firm that erected the framework of the Indoor Field. The framework will be completed in another week or two.

The men will probably start laying bricks the latter part of this week or the early part of next week.

The granite for the building has started to arrive and the light iron and reinforcing steel is expected any day.

A Thanksgiving Vacation

The question of a change in the college calendar to allow a Thanksgiving vacation of three days was brought up and discussed at the last meeting of the Student Senate. This question like all others has two sides and deserves careful consideration before the student body does anything about it.

A change in the calendar would not take effect until next year, and in order to make a change which will take effect next year the Student Senate must act on it at its next meeting, December 13. It must be remembered that the Senate is not authorized to make changes in the University calendar, but the Senate is the recognized connecting link between the student body and the Board of Administration. If students want a change the proper method of procedure is to bring the question to the Student Senate, and the Senate in turn, if it deems the change advisable, takes it to the Board of Administration for consideration.

If the two days after Thanksgiving should be granted as a vacation it will be necessary to make them up at some other time. The reason for this is that in order to compare favorably with other New England colleges the University of Maine must be in session for a certain number of days each year. In all probability the two days would be made up by cutting either the Christmas or the spring vacation or both. Since a large number of students work during the summer it would be inadvisable to cut the summer vacation.

A vacation at Thanksgiving would be a benefit to those students who live near Orono, but those from longer distances would either stay at college or have to rush so much that they would not enjoy the vacation as they would the two days at Christmas or in the spring. Naturally, if there are more students living within a reasonable distance from Orono than there are from far away it would be beneficial to have a Thanksgiving vacation.

Another point to be taken into consideration in this question is how it will affect the faculty. To most of the faculty members it would probably mean a loss of two days from one of the regular vacations, since they probably would not use the two days at Thanksgiving as a vacation. On the other hand, it might give them an opportunity to finish correcting and grading mid-semester examinations, and thus become a welcome break between the two halves of the semester.

Probably a vacation at Thanksgiving would be an added expense to the University and to fraternities since it would mean two more days during which the dormitories dining halls, and fraternity houses would have to be open.

The University once had a Thanksgiving vacation beginning the Wednesday noon before Thanksgiving and lasting until the following Monday morning, but that was abolished in 1914, and the present scheme has been in effect since then with some exceptions. Columbus Day, October 12, was recognized as a holiday part of the time between 1914 and now. The reasons for abolishing the Thanksgiving recess were not published in the Campus of 1913, probably the year when the change was made, or in 1914 when it went into effect.

We must remember in considering this question that we want a calendar that will be somewhat permanent. Quite probably, changing conditions would necessitate alterations in any calendar, yet we should attempt to have one that will meet the needs and desires of the student generations to come. If the present calendar is satisfactory to a majority of the students, we ought to keep it; but if it is not satisfactory and a better one can be drawn up we ought to draw up another calendar and submit it to the Board of Administration.

Maine Masque Opens 26th Season with Modern Play In Alumni Chapel Thurs.

The Maine Masque opened its 26th season last Thursday evening with the production in the university chapel of Rachel Crothers' comedy As Husbands Go.

With a well balanced cast including experienced performers in the more important roles, the Masque succeeded in playing this delightful comedy with almost professional skill.

Ernestine Merrill and Barbara Sawyer in the roles of the two matrons portrayed their characters in a realistic manner. Elston Ingalls as the husband, Charles Lingard, who succeeds with great diplomacy in breaking up Lucille's infatuation for Ronald Derbyshire, also deserves praise for his fine acting of the role. The parts of the two European lovers were taken by Kenneth Foster and Alfred Sweeney, the only freshman to appear in the cast. They were well cast in these roles and played them convincingly. Among those who appeared in minor roles Dorothy Sawyer should be mentioned for her interpretation of the character of Emmie's daughter Peggy. John Glover, young son of Mr. and Mrs. John Glover of Orono, was well received by the audience in the part of Wilbur, the twelve-year old nephew of Charles Lingard.

The complete cast of the performance follows: Lucille Lingard, Ernestine Merrill; Ronald Derbyshire, Kenneth Foster; Emmie Sykes, Barbara Sawyer; Hippolitus Lomi, Alfred Sweeney; Walter, Stuart Mosher; Charles Lingard, Elston Ingalls; Wilbur, John Glover; Peggy Sykes, Dorothy Sawyer; Jake Canon, William Butler; Christine, Alice Sisco; and Katie, Lucinda Ripley.

Tribute Paid to E. B. Winslow By Dean Hart, Sec'y Crossland

Dean James N. Hart and Alumni Secretary C. E. Crossland attended the meeting of the Western Maine Alumni Association in Portland, Wednesday, November 9. On this occasion, tribute was paid to Hon. Edward B. Winslow, after whom Winslow Hall was named and who for twelve years was a trustee of the University, being president of the Board the last three years. An honorary degree was conferred upon Mr. Winslow last June.

Present also at this meeting was Col. Fred N. Dow who is a close friend of Mr. Winslow and who, although 92 years old, spoke informally and very interestingly concerning changes which have taken place and concerning his recollection of the Maine State College as he remembered it on the occasion when he delivered the address at a Commencement dinner early in the seventies.

After tributes had been paid to Mr. Winslow by Col. Dow, Dean Hart, Mr. Crossland, and Toastmaster Frank P. Preti, he responded very pleasantly, indicating his continued interest in the University and recounting some of the humorous and outstanding incidents which occurred during his term on the Board of Trustees.

Julius Pike Named Football Captain (Continued from Page One)

in the Bates game this season and was forced to watch the Colby and Bowdoin games from the bench. This injury robbed him of certain "All Maine" mention as he was playing the best games of his career this year. Pike played regular guard on the freshman football team of 1933 which went through the season undefeated. He also played on the freshman basketball team as a back. He is a member of Tau Epsilon Phi Fraternity.

JUNIORS SWIM TO 6-0 WIN OVER SOPHOMORES

By CYNTHIA WASGATT

The juniors and sophomores gathered on the W.A.A. hockey field prepared to see the "best of enemies" last Friday. Fight showed in their faces, their coaches, Miss Rogers and Miss Lengyel, and even in their costumes, for the juniors wore red and the sophomores wore yellow!

"Richie" Richardson, junior center-forward was the star of the game, rushing down the slippery field for many goals. "Richie" alone plowed her way through the dismayed sophomore lines, and, splashing mud over her self and Coach Rogers, she scored!

Mud, mud covered everyone! Knee deep in slimy goo the juniors waded to a decisive victory, 6 to 0. Ella Rowe slipped in a grand rush toward the junior goalie and fell flat at her feet in dirty water. When that game ended hardly one of the players had escaped a toboggan slide thru the softest bed of earth possible, a soft bed that was hard to leave!

The sophomore team, weakened by lack of practice struggled with handicap upon handicap in vain; the juniors led throughout the game.

This game might be called "moonlight madness." 22 sane girls, feeling their way in semi darkness, straining their eyes to find the ball, occasionally sighing at the beautiful clear moon overhead; and then finally falling head over heels onto muddy old Mother Earth. Both teams were verging on hysteria by the end of the last half, and weary but gay they cheered each other, and ran along home.

Last Saturday night the freshman boys showed what they could do in the way of entertainment by staging the annual dorm dance. About seventy-five couples attended. Refreshments of fruit punch, ice cream, and cake were served during intermission.

Professor and Mrs. L. S. Corbett, Professor and Mrs. Stanley Wallace, Mr. and Mrs. Maynard Hincks, and Mr. William Wells chaperoned. The committee for arrangements was "Mun" Romansky, Roy Levenson, Bill Brooks, "Doc" Ford, and "Jerry" Waxman.

Maine Wins State and New England Titles This Season (Continued from Page One)

completely outplayed and outrushed the Wildcat outfit and led the home team 7-0 until late in the third quarter when a New Hampshire linesman crashed through the Maine line and blocked a punt which was converted into the tying score.

Entering the state series, Maine proceeded to win three hard fought tilts in succession. Extensive scouting by Bates, Bowdoin and Colby throughout the season offset the Bricemen's offensive game to a certain extent. The Black Bears were forced to change from their usual type of spinner and runner plays to an entirely different sort of attack. Coach Brice dug out several new plays from his "bag of tricks" and uncorked many surprise forward passes to get runners out in the open. This new type of Maine offense somewhat baffled the other state teams as in all three games it was three distinct forward passes which were the turning points of the games. In the Bates setto, it was a beautifully hurled pass from Favor to Romansky which gave Maine its first state victory. The following Saturday against Colby another pass from the hands of Favor but this time to Means forced Roundy's team to bite the dust. Then in the final contest with Bowdoin it was Wilson's heave to Parsons which led to the score against the Polar Bear.

Juniors Stop Freshmen and Seniors Trim Sophomores in Mud Slinging Hockey Battle

The junior girls defeated the freshmen in a hockey game played Saturday morning, November 12, by an 8-0 score. The game was played in the rain on a muddy field and was more exciting than the score indicates. Those scoring for the winners were Richardson 3, Haney 3, Young 2.

The MAINE SNOOPUS

FREDDY BURK will be leaving along with the other senior foresters in a short while so he must get his "break" in the Snoopus before he goes. It seems that whenever Freddy "wants to know where his sweetheart is all he has to do is look at her schedule for he carries it with him always. Squeer but Dixie Dickson can always find out where her great big man is by the same process....Are there any rats in Balentine? Ask Alice Sisco why she awoke with a scream the other night, and then deserted her room....Hester McNair has been bragging about never having been in the Snoopus, well cut it out, Hester, you've made it now....Millie Noyes became known as Tillie Zilch when she attended the freshman dorm dance Saturday incognito....And speaking of illustrated lectures, one of the members of the history department appeared in cap and gown last week to give a lecture on medieval and modern universities. It's a great idea....Are you a Phonograph?...And Peanut Bunker has been giving the freshmen a break during the past week-end, and has forsaken the old faithful upperclassmen. Good work, frosh....The Holy Rollers have attracted some of our University family recently....Mud, mud, mud, beautiful mud, one young lady lost her shoe in the mud and didn't know it....Rules were off, the freshmen were to have a dance, so six confident lads pranced over to Balentine and there found that it is usually a good plan to let your girl know that you want a date sooner than five minutes before the date is to start....A permanent pin hanging this time. Florence Berry and Austin Fittz, both of whom trotted this fair campus last year, were alerted this week. They will live in New Jersey....Better a sour grin than no smile at all. If the cap fits wear it.

On Saturday morning the seniors also romped to a 9-0 victory over the sophomores. Smith scored 4 goals and Brown 5 for the seniors.

SENIORS: Moulton, ri.....rw, Rowe Smith, c, 4.....ri, Stone Brown, li, 5.....c, Crowley Dunn, lw.....li, Lord Henry, rh.....lw, Colson Dixon, ch.....rh, Willard Callaghan, lh.....ch, MacLellan Hanaburg, rb.....lh, Hardy Whittman, g.....rb, Williams lb, Wasgatt g, McDonald

Something for pipe smokers to think about!

ABOUT 1864, farmers began to grow White Burley Tobacco. A few casks were taken to the St. Louis Fair in 1867 and sold for 58c a pound.

White Burley Tobacco is used to make Granger. It is the best pipe tobacco that grows.

You will notice the difference as soon as you light up your pipe of Granger. It burns slower, smokes cooler and never gums a pipe.

It haunted clerks for generations

"The first of the month" used to be a time of feverish activity for ledger clerks. But the Bell System accounting staff—breaking away from tradition—simplified the keeping of accounts and rendering of monthly statements to customers.

They applied a modern system of rotation billing to the telephone business which now spreads this work evenly throughout the month. In co-operation with manufacturers, they devised special typewriters and bookkeeping machines. Thus they did away with inefficient rush and achieved greater accuracy, speed and neatness.

This is but one example of a point of view found throughout the Bell System. Even long accepted routine is constantly studied—it's always worth looking for the more efficient way!

THE SEA WOLF

"Nature in the Raw"—as portrayed by the noted artist, N. C. Wyeth... inspired by the infamous Captain Kidd's fierce raids on the gold-laden Spanish galleons (1696), which made him the scourge of the Spanish Main. "Nature in the Raw is Seldom Mild"—and raw tobaccos have no place in cigarettes.

No raw tobaccos in Luckies —that's why they're so mild

WE buy the finest, the very finest tobaccos in all the world—but that does not explain why folks everywhere regard Lucky Strike as the mildest cigarette. The fact is, we never overlook the truth that "Nature in the Raw is Seldom Mild"—so these fine tobaccos, after proper aging and mellowing, are then given the benefit of that Lucky Strike purifying process, described by the words—"It's toasted". That's why folks in every city, town and hamlet say that Luckies are such mild cigarettes.

HARRIERS FINISH EIGHTH IN ANNUAL I.C.4A MEET

Ken Black Takes 12th Place Followed By Booth

Coach Jenkins' Pale Blue hill and dalters completed another successful season by capturing eighth place in the annual cross country meet of the I.C.A.A.A. held last Monday at Van Courtland Park, New York City. Ken Black, stellar sophomore plodder, led the Black Bear aggregation over the six mile course to place twelfth in a spectacular race in which over one hundred harriers from the majority of the leading colleges in the United States competed. Harry Booth, veteran varsity runner, broke the tape five seconds behind Black to garner thirteenth place. Black, running a hard race, fought continually to gain eleventh position, but was barely beaten by McKenna of Manhattan, who finished four seconds ahead of him. Black covered the course in 30 minutes 55 seconds, while Booth finished in 31 minutes flat, just nosing out Canning of Yale.

George Barker, N.Y.U., crossed the finish line in record breaking time to defeat Joe McCluskey of Fordham, Olympic steeplechase runner who placed second in that event at Los Angeles in August. Barker finished first in 28 minutes 58 4-5 seconds, while McCluskey's time was 29 minutes 8 seconds.

SPORTS SPIELS

By BOB BERG

With the football season over and new sports coming into the limelight, sports writers all over the country are picking "All" football eleven, the results of which are severely criticized, pro and con, by the sport followers. Even your most insignificant scribe has undertaken to select a mythical "All Maine" eleven although he plans to wear a disguise around campus for the next two weeks.

Parsons (Maine) right end—Outstanding player of the state series—Quick to diagnose plays—fierce tackler—Excellent receiver of forward passes—Good blocker.

Low (Bowdoin) right tackle—Bulwark of strength in Polar Bear line—Hard tackler—Few plays able to make consistent gains through his position.

Gilman (Bates) right guard—Colorful linesman—Steady—Showed to great advantage at crucial moments—Clever in diagnosing plays.

Cobb (Maine) center—Consistent throughout—Outstanding especially in Bates and Colby games—Played roving center post well—A bulwark in frontier.

pendable linesman—220 pounds of strength—Noted for pulling out of position and leading interference—Hard tackler—Giant in line.

Berry (Bates) left tackle—Outstanding as tackle—Most feared linesman in state—Demon on offense and defense.

Wilson (Colby) left end—Quick ability to diagnose opposing plays—Brilliant in Maine and Bowdoin games—Noted for his interception of enemy forward passes—Clever tackler.

Hubbard (Bowdoin) right halfback—Hard running back—Noted for elusiveness—Dependable for long gains—Standout in

"They Click with Me, too"

© 1932, LIGGETT & MYERS TOBACCO CO.

THE young man is saying the reason he smokes Chesterfields is because they satisfy.

The young lady agrees with him. She says: "They click with me, too. I'm not what you'd call a heavy smoker. But even I can tell that they're milder. Besides, I always have a kind of feeling that Chesterfields taste better."

She's right. Chesterfields are just as pure and wholesome as Nature and Science can make them. And we have upwards of 90 millions of dollars invested to ensure their mildness and better taste.
