Dear University of Maine Employees,

The University of Maine's Council of Retired Employees is now accepting nominations for the 2024 Barbara Hikel Retiree Award. This award was established in 2006 in memory and recognition of Barbara Hikel, an exemplary UMaine employee who stayed involved with the university for many years after her retirement.

The award is presented to a University of Maine retiree who provides extraordinary voluntary service to our university. Retirees contribute to our community in many ways, and the Barbara Hikel Award provides meaningful recognition of those efforts.

The recipient of the Barbara Hikel Award must be a University of Maine retiree with at least ten years of university service and age 55 or older. Typically, those eligible for the award have been retired from the university for at least three years before their nomination.

Members of the UM Retiree Council will assist the President of the University of Maine in evaluating nominations and recommendations from the council. Please consider nominating a retiree you know who continues to contribute and provide their service to the University of Maine.

For more information regarding the award and nomination form, please visit the UM Retiree Council website at <https://umaine.edu/retirees/>. The deadline for nominations for the 2024 award is December 1, 2023.

Please mail your nomination to the Barbara Hikel Award Committee, c/o the University of Maine Foundation, Two Alumni Place, Orono, ME 04469-5792, or e-mail your nomination to sarahm@maine.edu.

Thank you for your consideration and for continuing this tradition of recognizing members of our community and their influential contributions to our university.

Sincerely,

The Office of the President
