The biggest happenings on the campuses are the regular sings. Everyone in college gathers on the steps of some building whenever a meeting or lecture is announced. Let's get this picture to the 11th steps.

Chesterfield

the cigarette that's MILDER

that makes a cigarette taste better

WHAT makes anything taste better? It's what's in it that makes a thing taste better.

CHESTERFIELDS taste better because we buy ripe tobaccos. These ripe tobaccos are aged two and a half years—thirty months. During this time the tobaccos improve—just like wine improves by aging.

CHESTERFIELDS taste better because they have the right kind of American tobacco and Turkish Tobacco "welded together."

We hope this answers your question.
SAVAGE-COPPIN NUTS

TO BE ZELENEIZED SOON

Hope Coffin '23, is to be married to Thomas Savage, New York newspaper man, at her home in Portchester on October 26 at 6:00 o'clock.

After a short honeymoon in northern Maine, Mr. Savage is leaving for a trip around the world to gather material for his paper. If the necessary arrangements can be made, the bride will accompany her husband.

Mr. Savage at present is reviewing books for the New York Herald-Tribune, and he also has a column in the Old Town Enterprise which he calls "Camps and Glades" on Broadway. During his trip, however, he will collect material for a daily column for the Herald Tribune.

Do you remember all of the claims that have been made about smoking tobacco—how it was that one was this and that one was that?

After all, what you want to know when you get a thing for a certain purpose is...

"Was it made for that?"

Granger is made of White Burley—the kind of leaf tobacco that's best for pipes.

And old man Weilham, who taught us how to make Granger, knew how.

Granger is made to smoke in a pipe—and folks seem to like it.
