MASQUE TO PRESENT YEAR'S SECOND PLAY DECEMBER 6 AND 7

'Death Takes a Holiday' Will Star Elston Ingalls and Charlotte LaChance

"Death Takes a Holiday," rewritten for the American stage by Walter Ferris from the Italian of Alberto Casella, will be presented Wednesday and Thursday, December 6 and 7, at 7:30 p.m. in the Little Theatre, Alumni Hall, by the Maine Masque.

This striking drama has established itself among the important plays of the season. It is based on the poetic conception of Death suspending all activities for three days, during which time he falls in love with a beautiful girl. It is a play that arouses thought, stimulates discussion, and presents a novel and optimistic philosophy on the eternal problem of love and death. No place is lacking in interesting situations, and the end rivals in dramatic value any play of recent years. As fantastic as it may appear to some, it is a play that no theatre lover will want to miss.

The cast: Cora, Hope Wing; Fedele, Lionel Desjardins; Duke Lambert, Richard Wooster; Alda, Ruth Kimball; Duchess, Stephanie, Ruth Walenta; Princess of San Luca, Alice Sisco; Baron Cesarea, John Willey; Rhoda Fenton, Kitta Davis; Eric Fenton, Howard Stagg; Carrado, Robert Morris; Grazia, Charlotte LaChance; Prince Sirki, Elston Ingalls; and Major Whitbread, Paul Langlois.

PHIL JONES CHOSEN NEW 'M' CLUB PRES.

Succeeds Horace J. Cook, '10
R. F. Talbot Elected to Vice-Presidency

Philip A. Jones '19, of Bangor, freshman football coach, was elected to succeed Horace J. Cook '10, of Auburn, as president of the alumni-undergraduate "M" Club, at the second annual meeting of the organization held November 10 in the new Memorial Gymnasium.

Richard F. Talbot '07, of Orono, was elected vice-president, succeeding Arthur W. Abbott '14, of Playland, Rye, N. Y., and Theodore S. Curtis '23, faculty manager of athletics, was reelected secretary-treasurer.

In accordance with the constitution, the new president appointed a few days after the meeting, the following executive committee: Maynard Hincks '32, chairman; William C. Wells '31; Clifton A. Hall '30; Arthur L. Deering '12, and Joseph A. McCusker '17.

In opening the meeting, President Cook outlined some of the work which had been done or was planned. The constitution prepared by a committee was read and approved. Coach Jenkins and Dean L. S. Corbett, chairman of the Athletic Board, spoke, after which Philip Jones, chairman of the executive committee for the past year, brought several matters before the organization.

There were over fifty present. Following the business meeting, there was a social hour, during which refreshments were served and pictures of state series football games were shown.

The All-Eastern team will be selected from players of all New England teams as well as Princeton, Fordham, New York University, Columbia, Manhattan, Rutgers, Army, Navy, Pennsylvania, Villanova, Temple, Cornell, Colgate, Syracuse, Georgetown, and Catholic University. The All-Eastern team will be announced in the Sunday Herald of December 10.

Brice Has Had Successful Career at Maine with Impressive 13 Yr. Record

By Bob Berg

As the big Black Bear of the University of Maine departs for his hibernation for the year with another State Series crown dangling from his belt, the one man responsible for the wonderful success of the team reclines comfortably in his armchair, peacefully puffing away at his pipe, and formulates his plans for another football campaign.

Head Coach Fred M. Brice has been at Maine for thirteen years and has carved a large niche in the Hall of Fame as gridiron mentor at Maine. It has been during his time that Maine football elevens have enjoyed a long string of victories. Eight state titles have been annexed by the Bricemen while but three have been won by the other Pine Tree colleges during that time. Two of the series buntings resulted in deadlocks with Colby and Maine.

Brice has received national recognition four different times since his reign at Maine. In 1927 he was selected as the New England representative of the American Football Coaches' Organization. The following year he was appointed a member of the Rules Committee of which the late Knute Rockne was chairman. In 1930 he was chosen as a member of the Ethics Committee and he was also elected to the same committee last year.

Coming to Maine in the Fall of 1921, Coach Brice was the first mentor to introduce spinner plays and hidden ball tricks in this state. His teams have consequently been noted for their deception in offensive tactics and this system is still raising havoc with opposing clubs. He employs a modified version of the "Pop" Warner system although during the past season he inserted in his attack a double spinner which was a thing of beauty to watch.

In the last thirteen years, the Black Bears have set up a record in the State Series under the tutelage of Coach Brice which would make any coach envious. They have collected 28 victories to 8 losses and 3 ties. Against Bates and Bowdoin, the Bricemen have achieved remarkable success, winning 10 encounters, losing 2 and tying one to each of the schools. Colby has fared somewhat better as Maine has come out on top 8 times, has been vanquished 4 times, while one battle ended in a scoreless tie. Truly, a record to warm the cockles of the heart of any coach.

In 1926 and the following two years, Brice turned out his highest scoring teams. His charges especially enjoyed great wins over Bates whom they defeated 33-0, 67-0, and 46-0. It is believed that these are the largest scores ever rolled up in succession in the history of State Series tilts.

Each year Maine plays one of the leading college elevens in the country. During Coach Brice's term, the Black Bears have contested with Yale four times and Dartmouth three times. It was this Fall season that the Bricemen gained coast-to-coast fame when they held Yale to a 14-7 score as they tallied the first score ever made against the Eli in the historic Yale Bowl since 1912 in an opening game. Coach Brice gets quite a thrill when he recalls the Dartmouth game of 1923 which was won by the Hanoverians 6-0. Dartmouth had one of the strongest teams in its history at the time and the Black Bears upset the dope by holding the "Big Green" to a one touchdown score and almost put across a score themselves towards the end of the contest.

TOM HILL, '36, KNOCKED UNCONSCIOUS BY AUTO

Narrowly Escapes Serious Injury
When Hit by Car Early
Monday Morning

Thomas M. Hill '36 miraculously escaped serious injury when he was hit by an automobile and rendered unconscious early Monday morning while on a fraternity initiation. Hill was crossing College Avenue opposite the Kappa Sigma house at approximately 4 a.m., pushing a wheelbarrow, when a southbound automobile, allegedly travelling at a high rate of speed, struck the wheelbarrow, throwing Hill to the pavement.

The occupants of the car picked him up, but he recovered consciousness in Veazie, while on the way to the Eastern Maine General Hospital in Bangor, and when it was found that he had no injuries, he returned to Orono.

Religious Group Plans Forums. Stevens Chr.

At a dinner in Balentine Hall last Thursday evening, plans for student group for the discussion of present day problems in society, government, and theology were proposed to Unitarian and Universalist students. Plans were made for permanent organization of the group at a meeting on Tuesday evening, January 9.

Rev. Stephen H. Fritchman, of Bangor, presided at the meeting. William Geyson, Secretary of the Unitarian student committee in Boston, Prof. A. C. Lyon, representative of the Bangor layman's league, and Dean Muilenburg, of the College of Arts and Sciences, were present.

The purpose of organizing such a society would be to encourage liberal thinking on national and international problems. It is planned that meetings be conducted by students, but that the subject for discussion be presented by a speaker.

Howard Stevens, of Portland, was named chairman of the program committee. Members of the hospitality committee were: Miss Margaret Thayer, of Bangor, chairman, Miss Phyllis Peavey, of Bangor, and David Brown of Ellsworth.

Sigma Chi fraternity elected the following officers at a recent meeting: George W. Warren, president; Ernest E. Curtin, vice-president; Woodrow L. Palmer, secretary; and Charles T. Janney, treasurer.

DR. SANGER, NEWLY APPOINTED TRUSTEE, SUCCEEDS SAWYER

Has Reputation as Surgeon
And Physician. Degrees
From Yale, Columbia

Dr. Eugene B. Sanger and John T. Gyger were nominated by Governor Brann, November 13, to serve as trustees of the University for seven years. Their nominations have since been confirmed by the Governor's Council. Dr. Sanger succeeds William McC. Sawyer '01, of Bangor, whose term expired October 21, and Mr. Gyger succeeds himself. His term expired on the same date.

Dr. Sanger who is widely known both in Maine and outside has long been interested in the University. That interest dates back to a time when Mr. Farley was coach of athletic teams at the University. During his time here, Dr. Sanger served as physician to the athletic teams. Since then he has followed University activities closely and has been a regular attendant at all major athletic events. A talk with the Doctor soon reveals his interest in and knowledge of University affairs.

He is a native of Bangor and has made a reputation as a physician and surgeon, even as his father before him was a noted surgeon. He is a graduate of Phillips Exeter Academy, Yale University, and Columbia University, holding degrees of Ph.B., M.D., F.A.C.S. He served his internship in various hospitals in New York, after which he returned to Bangor to practice his profession.

He is a member of the surgical staff of the Eastern Maine General Hospital, Visiting Surgeon at the Children's Home, and Consulting Surgeon at Bangor State Hospital and Children's Hospital in Portland. He is also Medical Director of the Great Northern Paper Co. Of particular significance is the fact that he is a member of the Board of Governors of the American College of Surgeons. He is a member also of Penobscot County Medical Society, Maine Medical Society, and American Medical Society. During the War, he served as member of the Registration Board and the Draft Board without pay.

He has been active in several business enterprises in Bangor, being one of the founders and directors of the Merrill Trust Company, president of the Bangor Opera House, Inc., and other companies. He is a member of many social and college clubs and fraternal orders.

He has been much interested in municipal affairs and to some extent in politics, though he has never been an aspirant for public office. He served as Surgeon General on Governor Hill's staff.

In April, 1902, Dr. Sanger married Ethel Field who died in 1927, and later married Mildred Moore in January, 1929. He has three children.

Faculty and students of the College of Technology, particularly freshmen, are invited to join in this informal meeting.

Have You a Little Bo-lo in Your Home Yet, Mister? It's Being Done Now

Bo-Lo, Bo-Lo, Bo-Lo!!! Don't duck. It's not a South African machette or boom-erang. It's just the new indoor sport which has taken Maine by storm—students, officials, yes, even dignified, portly professors.

The roving reporter walked into the Book Store the other day and was he astounded, for there, in various vantage points of the establishment, were representatives of the social, athletic, and intellectual elite of the University, all engaged in the novel pastime of Bo-Lo.

To the uninitiated, Bo-Lo looks simple. All you have to do is to hit a rubber ball attached to a paddle by an elastic cord with the paddle, and keep hitting it as it is drawn back by the cord. Yes, it looks simple, but after watching the antics of Paul Langlois, Larry Miller, and even Mr. Bruce, the writer came to the conclusion that it may not be so simple.

The struggling scribe next turned his steps toward Stevens Hall. As he approached the office of the members of the public speaking department, loud voices and the noise of overturned chairs greeted his ears. As he cautiously knocked and entered the office, Mark Bailey, the genial orator, was just finishing a game of Bo-Lo with Delyte Morris.

"One up," said Mark, as the reporter meekly withdrew to wend his way back to the Book Store to buy a Bo-Lo.

ATHLETIC AWARDS MADE BY PRESIDENT BOARDMAN AT MORNING ASSEMBLY

Race Against Time Brings Don Favor Here This Morning

A burning of telegraph and telephone wires, a frantic search for an automobile, and a desperate dash through the night for 200 miles brought Don Favor from Maine's forestry camp at Princeton to the campus early this morning.

It was necessary that Don be at the assembly this morning and that he be on campus before the assembly, because as president of the Athletic Association he must affix his signature to all athletic certificates.

The story is simple but thrilling. Dean Deering's permission for Don to leave forestry camp was obtained, and Don was notified. At 6:20 last night Don talked by long distance telephone with Ed DeCourcy, and was told that if it was humanly possible to get him to the campus by morning, it would be done.

The Senior Skulls, who were running this morning's assembly and whose job it was to get Favor to the campus, then began a search of the campus for a car that would make the trip, and finally located Wilfrid G. Matheson '35 with his Buick sedan. Next it was necessary to find a man who knew the road well and who knew the location of the camp. Maurice Day '37, whose home is in Princeton, filled this job adequately, and the two along with Carl Davis and Ed De-

GORDON ASTONISHES FORUM AT LEWISTON

Proposal of New Government
System Surprise at First Conclave

Alfred B. Gordon, Rhodes Scholar candidate, tossed a bombshell into the midst of the first Maine intercollegiate forum at Lewiston, Monday, with the proposal of a model of government based on achievement in political academics.

Gordon's suggestion which came during a discussion period, was generally adopted by speakers from Bates, Bowdoin, and Colby.

It embraced the formation of a system of academies of political education, with graduation necessary to attain ruling power in the government. Gordon's original plea that a council, from which a prime minister be selected to control the affairs of government, was later modified by the Bates delegate in his suggestion that it be applied to the present presidential government in the United States.

The Maine representative declared in presenting his plan, that it would take the place of all present national governments as a safeguard against graft and party politics. He named a congress, the people's part, to "check" the administration of the ruling council.

Earlier, Maine had described the parliamentary system, Bowdoin the Fascist, Bates the presidential, and Colby the Communistic forms of government.

The Forum, the first to be held in Maine, was promoted by Prof. Brooks Quimby, of Bates. It took place in the Little Theatre building, Bates campus, Lewiston.

Maine extended an invitation through Coach D. W. Morris for a second forum to be held at Orono in the spring. Representatives from Maine in addition to Gordon and Coach Morris were Stanwood Searles and David Brown.

"Man's Castle," now on the screen at the Opera House, has been called "The Seventh Heaven" of talking pictures.

"Seventh Heaven," as you may remember, was, and still is, hailed as the greatest production of the silent screen. It was directed by Frank Borzage, made immortal stars out of Janet Gaynor and Charles Farrell, and was counted by the country's critics as one of the ten best productions of 1924.

"Man's Castle" features Spencer Tracy and Loretta Young, already listed among the finest players of the screen. They are not unknown, as were Miss Gaynor and Farrell at the time of "Seventh Heaven." In addition, Mr. Borzage has had years more of experience since he made the silent picture. It is safe to predict that "Man's Castle" will do for talking pictures what "Seventh Heaven" did for the silent screen.

Dean Deering Presides; University Leaders Speak Briefly

Letters and gold trophies were awarded to the members of Maine's state championship football and cross country teams by President Harold S. Boardman this morning in the Memorial Gymnasium at a special assembly arranged and sponsored by the Senior Skull Society.

Deering of the College of Agriculture presided over the assembly, which was opened with the singing of the Football Song by the entire audience, accompanied on the accordion by Harry C. Saunders '35. Following the song, Dean Deering made a few opening remarks, and introduced in order: Dean Lamert S. Corbett, chairman of the Athletic Board; James Moreland, Coach Chester A. Jenkins, Coach Fred M. Brice, and Professor Charles P. Weston, all of whom spoke briefly.

President Boardman was then introduced, and he awarded certificates and gold trophies to the following football men: Donald E. Favor, Philip S. Parsons, Kenneth E. Aldrich, Lawrence J. O'Connell, Carleton F. Davis, Richard L. Rice, William H. Bessom, George L. Cobb, Samuel H. Reese, Morris H. Judd, Clayton O. Totman, Harry P. Files, M. Milton MacBride, Edward L. Brice, William Kenyon, Stanley M. Wallace, and Ralph Jordan. Service letters were awarded to Stanwood R. Searles and Lewis B. Varney.

Letter certificates were awarded to the following members of Bates's cross country team: Donald P. Corbett, Ernest T. Black, Kenneth D. Black, Joel W. Marsh, Robert F. Wishart, Harry C. Saunders, Jr., Francis G. Morong, George M. Osgood, and Elmer W. Randall, Jr., Manager. A trophy for winning the New England and National Freshman Championship in Cross Country was awarded to William F. Hunnewell '37.

AMA Awards to assistant managers went to Donald Rollins and Milton Owen in football, and to Albert Verrill and Charles Robie in cross country.

Following the awards by President Boardman the assembly closed with the singing of the "Stein Song" by the entire audience with Harry Saunders accompanying on the accordion.

Let's Change It

That league politics, though probably not in any way dishonest, are creeping deeper and deeper into class elections here is undoubtedly true. This fact, along with a proposed remedy, was brought out in a letter, which appeared in the Campus last week. That league politics defeat the purpose of class elections is also true.

There are those who believe that membership on a class committee brings honor to the student and his fraternity or her sorority. As a matter of fact a large majority of the students do not know who the members of the various committees are. Also there are those who claim to believe in so-called student democracy in which every fraternity and sorority has a part in class government.

As a matter of fact, the only thing that this Northern and Southern League amounts to is a system of bargaining and swapping votes, and then trying to get all the members of the member fraternities to vote the "straight ticket." Fortunately the voting students in the senior and junior classes showed their honesty and intelligence this year by voting for the candidates they thought best fitted for the position rather than voting the ticket that their league representative had told them had been decided upon.

Probably the chief evil of the system, crops up in the secondary nominations. It is here that candidates are eliminated. At the unofficial meeting of league representatives, held between the time of the primary nomination meeting and the secondary nomination meeting, the league finally has swapped enough candidates so that every member fraternity will support it, and in doing so has usually eliminated most of the best candidates for the positions.

The result is that if one fraternity happens to have as its members the logical candidates for both the president's and vice-president's position, one or the other is bound to be eliminated in the secondary nominations, because the league representatives think that two such offices are too many for one fraternity to hold. Well, maybe they think so, but it is extremely doubtful whether or not the holding of class offices and committee memberships has a marked effect on the number of pledges that a fraternity gets.

In other words, the league system that has cropped up is useless, narrow minded, hollow, and false.

A committee of the Student Senate is working upon a plan of revising the election rules. More power to them. The Campus takes a pot shot and offers a suggestion. Throw out the primary and secondary nomination system. It has shown itself to be full of loop holes and flaws. In its place put a nomination system like this. Hand in a blank to the Student Senate, with the name of the candidate and the signatures of fifty members of that class. If the blank is honest, and no forgery is evident, declare the man nominated and place him name on the ballot. Do this for the major officers in all classes. For the committees, abolish class election on all of them with the exception of the Executive Committee. In this case let thirty signatures nominate a candidate, and the class elect the committee. Then, after the election, let the major officers along with the members of the Executive Committee, appoint the other committees, where they are necessary.

This system would certainly give the members of the class a chance to vote for the candidate who is really their choice. It would also abolish the undesirable league system by making it possible to have as many as six or eight candidates for major offices.

Professors L. M. Dorsey and H. W. Hall, of the Department of Animal Industry, attended the Annual Exhibition of the Maine Dairymen's Association which was held at Portland November 21-23. Professor Dorsey served as official judge of dairy products.

The MAINE SNOOPUS

ROOSTERS MAY be roosters, but that is no reason why they should be put to roost in girls' dormitories. Rumor has it that one very much alive and extremely angry chanticleer found himself thrust into the room occupied by Barbara Bertels and Naida Saunders the other morning, at a very early hour. Yes, dearest readers, it was on Sunday, November 19, 1933, at 7:30 o'clock that the great event happened....and it happened at Balentine Hall....Dot (Polly) Newman got a door-call which was a general invitation to Phi Eta for a date with a man named Randall....So the aforesaid Miss Newman was escorted to the Phi Eta house, and there had to wait until the aforesaid Mr. Randall had finished dressing....And this isn't leap year either....Helen Thompson, that freshman beauty of the auburn hair, doesn't know her elders when she sees them....She thinks Alice Crowell is still going to high school....And what do you suppose (we hate that expression, it's too Bowdoinish), Mal Goodwin has lynched his pin....Pardon it, please, we mean hung his pin, and the lucky woman is a home town girl....It was Ben Caswell, who barged into the Library the other night, and asked one of our fairer co-eds what she was doing...."I'm looking for Ann Vickers," says she...."Is she a co-ed here?" queried Ben of the red coat....Maddy's all up in arms about Perky's invitation to the military ball....And of all surprises....Last Friday, the Book Store was suddenly turned into a kindergarten, for there they were, all the little boys and girls trying to set records in the game So-Long, or Bo-Low, or something like that in which a paddle, that instrument that gains such popularity with the members of the freshman and sophomore classes at this time of year, is used to hit a ball, and the ball is attached to the paddle, and it comes back, and then goes away, etc., etc., etc....Well, tomorrow is the day when all turkeys head out for Greenland, Alaska, or Kalamazoo to avoid being the subject of many complaints and many compliments on a large table, and it is rumored that the inmates of Balentine and Hannibal will get together to see if they can settle the turkey's hash....Who hit Ed Jordan with the egg?...The question of the hour is, "What time is it?"....And we're all beginning to wonder who will be the sweetheart of the corps, when December 8 rolls around, and all the betuxed and begowned lads and lassies trip the light fantasmagoric to the strains of Joe Roman's Pennsy boys in the new gym....And we nominate for oblivion the writer, of "The Branding Iron" in the Freshman for unethical journalism, if it can be called journalism.

Initiation cropped up at the Pi Beta Phi Stag Dance Friday evening and took the honors away from the turkey which was raffled off. A fraternity lad had to measure the gymnasium floor with a match. He probably will never forget how many matches wide and long it is. Another initiate did a tap dance.

The Phi Gam's will now have an extra turkey for their Thanksgiving dinner, donated by Bruce Moyer.

Music was furnished by Larry's Bears.

A public lecture on "Protection for 100,000 Guinea Pigs" will be given by C. C. Sullivan, Chief Inspector of the Boston Station of the Food and Drug Administration Tuesday, December 5, at 3:20 in 30 Coburn Hall, under the auspices of the Agricultural Club and the Home Economics Club. The lecture will deal with the proposed new Food and Drugs Bill, and will be illustrated by an exhibit showing the inadequacies of the present law.

IT TAKES HEALTHY NERVES TO BE A FOOTBALL REFEREE

M. J. ("MIKE") THOMPSON, FAMOUS FOOTBALL REFEREE

IF YOU WANT TO SEE nerve strain, look at "Mike" Thompson's job—refereeing two tons of football brawn. "Mike" Thompson has been a steady smoker for years. "I'm open-minded on cigarettes," he says, "but I've got to keep my nerves in shape, so I stick to Camels."

Steady Smokers turn to Camels

M. J. ("Mike") Thompson, football's most famous referee, has to keep his nerves healthy. He says:

"Because nothing can be allowed to interfere with healthy nerves I smoke Camels. I have tried them all—given every popular brand a chance to show what it can offer. Camels don't upset my nerves even when I smoke constantly. And the longer I smoke them, the more I come to appreciate their mildness and rich flavor."

Many smokers who have changed to Camels report that their nerves are no longer irritable...."jumpy." Switch to Camels yourself. You will find that Camels do not jangle your nerves—or tire your taste.

IT IS MORE FUN TO KNOW
Camels are made from finer, MORE EXPENSIVE tobaccos than any other popular brand.

It was a wild ride through snow and ice and up and over hills. Once it was necessary for the party to push the car up a rather steep hill.

But at 12:30 Maine's sleeping foresters were awakened from their peaceful slumbers, and none too pleased with the visit past calling hours, directed the party to the "Ritz," from which Favor was taken after a hurried dressing. The party, including Favor, then sped to Princeton where they received very welcome nourishment and heat at Day's home.

At 2:30 this morning they started back to the campus. Halted by Federal Revenue officers, apparently in search of smuggled liquor, at 3:30 with the temperature far below the comfort point, the three Skulls, guide, and chauffeur were soon told to proceed upon their journey, and did so, very much.

When 5:30 rolled around this morning, Don Favor was on the campus, and the mission, making it possible to have the assembly, had been completed.

Brice Has Had Successful Career at Maine With Impressive 13-Year Record

N. H., that Brice started on his career as coach in 1908. Three years later, he became coach of Manchester High School in the Granite State and remained there for ten years. His teams attained a great deal of success as they won the state championship nine out of the ten years. Twice Manchester played for the New England title.

Bill Kenyon, Assistant Varsity Coach at Maine for the past seven years, was a star member of Brice's team at Manchester for three years and was on the 1917 outfit which travelled to Braves Field in Boston to play Medford High School in a championship inter-state battle. Kenyon went to Georgetown University where he became an All-American fullback.

Several other players who performed for Brice at Manchester developed into brilliant college gridmen. Among them was Carrol Gooch, whom Coach Brice regards as the best forward passer he ever came in contact with. Gooch entered Vermont and in one game he completed 22 forward passes in 26 attempts.

The University of Maine athletic authorities signed up Brice in 1921 as head varsity coach of football and baseball. His first year was a trying one because he had just two weeks in which to build a team for the opening game. Six freshmen were on his eleven since at that time there were no rules prohibiting a freshman from going out for the varsity. The initial battle was with Fordham, but to the surprise of all, the Bricemen played a bang-up game and lost a close 25-14 tussle. In the following year, Coach Brice led his team to a state title and from then on has continued to produce outstanding clubs.

The popular Black Bear mentor resides with his wife and young daughter, Barbara, in Orono during the school year. In the Summer, he goes with his family to his home in Pittsfield, N. H., where he has been spending his vacations for many years.

The difficulty of modern education is that we're so busy taking courses that we have no time left to learn anything.

VARSITY TENNIS SQUAD TO USE GYM FOR PRACTICE

Arrangements have been made for the completion of the autumn tennis tournament on an indoor court in the new Memorial Gymnasium.

There will also be systematic indoor training of the varsity tennis squad this winter. This has been made possible through the cooperation of Professor Wallace with Coach Small, in having an indoor court constructed in the new gymnasium.

The limited number of hours available for the use of the gym make it necessary to confine the matches to the varsity tennis squad and those additional matches left over from the recent tournament.

CURTIS EXPRESSES HOPE FOR VARSITY HOOP TEAM

Maine Will Have Varsity Basketball If Any Other State College Will Adopt It

Hope that the University of Maine may soon be represented by a varsity basketball quintet on New England courts was expressed this week by Theodore Curtis, faculty manager of athletics.

The University Athletic Board will consider and probably act favorably upon the adoption of basketball as a major sport as soon as any one other Maine college does likewise, said Mr. Curtis.

At the present time Maine has a fairly large sum of money set aside for outfitting a hoop team, and according to the athletic manager, there are four men now connected with University athletics who are capable of coaching a team, should it be organized.

M.O.C. PLANS OVERNIGHT HIKE FOR THE WEEK-END

The regular meeting of the Maine Outing Club was held last Thursday evening at Winslow Hall. Roger Cameron led a discussion of the overnight hike, which will take place Saturday and Sunday, Dec. 9-10. The chaperons will be "Ted" and Mrs. Curtis and "Wally" and Mrs. Wallace.

Those wishing to go on the hike should sign up before December 1 with Darrell Brown, Roger Cameron, or Winifred Cushing. The cost of the trip will be approximately $1.00 per person. The meeting adjourned with a sing led by Dana Sidelinger.

Maine dropped basketball as a major sport in 1929, after all the other Maine colleges had discontinued it. The expense of sending the team on long trips through New England, and the apparent lack of student interest in the sport, were given as the reasons for dropping it at that time.

MR. MORELAND GIVES FIRST OF SERIES OF READINGS

Mr. James Moreland, reading from the stories of Roark Bradford last Wednesday afternoon in Alumni Hall, gave the first of a series of afternoon readings to be presented on alternate Wednesdays by the English department.

Mr. Moreland's selections were from "John Henry," a novel; "Old Man Adam an' his Chillun," the group of sketches which suggested to Mark Connelly his play "Green Pastures"; and "Old King David an' the Philistine Boys."

CORRECTION

The placings of Maine's cross country team in the National Championship Meet were reported erroneously in last week's Campus. Ernie Black placed thirteenth, Ken Black twenty-eighth, Joel Marsh forty-first, Harry Saunders forty-ninth, Bob Wishart fifty-sixth, Frank Morong seventy-fourth, and Don Corbett ninety-eighth.

NOTICE TO FRESHMEN

The Sophomore-Freshman track meet will be held Saturday afternoon at two o'clock. Whether or not Freshman Rules will be cancelled depends upon the turn-out of the freshman class, the spirit shown, the number of entries, and the sportsmanship displayed.

Senior Skulls

The seniors defeated the freshmen 3-2 Friday afternoon. The first half was characterized by fast rushing plays of freshmen, who pushed the ball in for 3 scores, only 2 of which counted. These two scores were made by Dot Ayer and Libby Story. The second half the seniors took things in their hands making final score 3-2. This victory gives the seniors first place in tournament.

Why
You say Chesterfields are not like other cigarettes

CIGARETTES are made of tobacco, wrapped in paper, and they may look alike; but that doesn't mean that they are alike.

Chesterfield Cigarettes are not like other cigarettes. The tobacco is not like the tobacco used in other cigarettes. It is mild, ripe—not harsh, or strong.

Then again, Chesterfields taste better. They are seasoned in the right way with the right kind of Turkish Tobacco. There is nothing flat or tasteless about them.

You're telling me "They Satisfy"!

Funeral service for Hinckley '35, who was killed Saturday afternoon in a mobile accident on the highway, were held Tuesday afternoon at the home of his parents, a delegation of the Tau Omega fraternity.

The accident of an automobile driven by Hinckley '36 and occupied by Roger Nash, who was killed, hit a fence off the Red Bridge, and the car was managed to extricate from the wreckage, tried vainly to pull out through the trees.

Winston Robbins, a drawing at the time of the accident, after tearing off his icy waters in a prisoned student, he was forced to go to the hospital with a broken body.

A telephone company reported the accident, righting the overturned car, which was taken to the Eastern Maine Hospital. Efforts to revive the injured student, Nash, were treated with exposure and bruising, released Saturday morning from the hospital with a broken body.

The accident was reported by the police, who explained the car was traveling at high speed when it skidded, and the vehicle's path indicated it was off the road for approximately 100 feet before hitting the guide fence, breaking the car into pieces.

Hinckley was the son of Robert Hinckley, a member of Alpha Chi Omega, who had been a member of Sigma Chi since entering the University of Maine. He was an officer in the Sigma Chi chapter and a member of the fraternity's executive committee.

An investigation of the accident is being conducted by the Maine State Police. According to a statement issued by the police, the accident occurred on the highway between Bangor and Orono.

PURE FOOD

ADDRESSES

"Protection for 100 years" was the subject of a lecture given by Van, Chief Inspector of the Pure Food and Drug Administration, when he spoke at the Home Economics Club last night.

Mr. Sullivan gave a leading advertisement, prohibited under the Pure Food Laws, and other provisions of the Pure Food Laws, and of the deceptive practices which were displayed by the Home Economics Club.

Red roses, sundresses, caps, and mysterious black marks marked the beginning of five more of the week as the initiation about the campus rounding country. Seven pledges wandered aimlessly.
