Distinguished Alumna Is Speaker at University Scholarship Award Day

1400 Persons Attend Final Assembly Tuesday

University Band Plays

Outstanding Cast Is Responsible for Success

By Roger Levenson

Junior Hour is the best way to relax for the last time in the Little Theater, when the Maine Masque presented Sidney Howard's comedy, "The Late Christopher Bean." The use of perspective proved to be a success. Many scenes were acted out as seen by the characters themselves and not as seen by the audience.

Prior to the announcement of the new scholarships, each department of the school presented one of their favorite plays. These were acted out as seen by the characters themselves and not as seen by the audience.

The students were awarded as follows: Juniors 8:30 a.m. Other classes 11:00 a.m.

A banquet was held at the Alumni Memorial Hall. The following scholarships are awarded as follows:

Election Next Tuesday.

Corbett Gives Warning on Fraternity "Tribes"

A Student newspaper article.

Balloting to be held by the Student Senate at a meeting on Monday, May 21, to select a chairman for the election. The student Senate will be responsible for the conduct of the election. The chairman will be chosen from the student Senate. The Student Senate will be responsible for the conduct of the election.

An attempt to conduct an election of the Student Senate is to be held on Tuesday, May 21, at 8:30 p.m. A two-thirds majority vote must be met in order to conduct an election.

Students may be eligible to vote if they are enrolled in the University of Maine and have paid their tuition for the current year. As of now, two local fraternities do not have voting rights at this time.

According to a letter which has been received by members of the Student Senate, this is the last time that the Student Senate will be able to conduct an election. The Student Senate is now working on the plan for the next election.

The Student Senate is the governing body of the University of Maine. It is composed of 10 members, with two members representing each class. The Student Senate meets weekly to discuss and vote on issues affecting the student body.

Success

An interesting anti-amusing talk.

1935 Junior Prizes to Come Out Tomorrow, Many New Features

Composite Photographs of Ideal Men and Women Are Included

The 1935 Prizes will appear on campus tomorrow, and delivery will be made to all those who have been selected. This year's edition includes many of the features of past Prizes, and may even surpass them.

The composite photographs will be featured in the Sunday Times newspaper, and will be distributed to high schools and colleges throughout the state. A special feature of this year's Prizes is that many of the photographs will be included.

The Student Senate serves as a good advertisement for the University of Maine, and is offered to students as a means of advertising the University.

The idea of the Student Senate is to provide an opportunity for students to express their opinions, and to provide a means of discharge for students. The Student Senate is a democratic body, and is responsible for the conduct of elections.
A Needed Improvement

One of the most pressing needs of the University is the sidewalk extending from the Memorial Gymnasium to Stevens Hall. With the completion of gymnasium last year, nearly all the activities for which the students were responsible have been held in that building. At present, students attending these activities must walk almost a mile from the main campus, and there is a choice of either stepping off the muddy road into a puddle, or being engulfed from head to foot by a marching band. With the erection of a new building on the same road, the sidewalk extending from the Memorial Gymnasium to Stevens Hall will be completed and the sidewalk becomes even more urgent than ever.

An Antiquated Rule

Once upon a time when the University was making rules it made one concerning women and smoking. It was a rule that if a rule is to be abolished, you will say the home folks will do not approve. How do you know they will do not approve. How do you know they do not approve? Do you know?

The results of the matches follow:

In reference to the cutting of tobacco.

The way tobacco is cut has a lot to do with the way Chesterfield burns and tastes.

There are many different ways of cutting tobacco. At a long time ago, it used to be cut on what was known as a Pease Cutter, but this darkened the tobacco, and it was not always the same. The cutters today are the most improved, modern, up-to-the-minute type. They cut uniformly, and cut in long strips. The tobacco in Chesterfield is cut right—you can judge for yourself how Chesterfield burns and how they taste.

Everything that science knows is used to make Chesterfield cigarettes—indeed, the cigarette that tastes better.
