VARSITY TRACKMEN COP FOURTH PLACE IN N.E.I.C.A.A. MEET

Marsh and Black Lead
In Fast 880
Yd. Run

Favor Is Second in Hammer
Throw; Black, Saunders
Place in Mile

In a meet which saw two records go by the boards and another equalled, the University of Maine tracksters finished fourth in the 48th annual N.E.I.C.A.A. track meet at Springfield last Saturday with 16 points. Bowdoin's well balanced team captured the title, with Northeastern second, M.I.T. third, Maine fourth, Rhode Island fifth, and the defending champions, Boston College, sixth.

Maine's strength lay in the 880 yard run in which Joe Marsh and Ken Black both placed, with Ken holding up in the final stretch to let Marsh take the lead and win. Ernie Black and Harry Saunders captured a second and third respectively, in the mile run which Jenkins of M.I.T. won in the fast time of 4:26.

Don Favor, who placed in the weight trials on Friday in the discus and hammer throws, was able to place only in the hammer when the finals were run off Saturday. His best heave was second to that of his old rival, Henry Dreyer of Rhode Island, who heaved the 16 pound weight 167 feet 9 inches.

The high and broad jump association records were broken as Stuart Parks, who performed here two weeks ago, leaped 24 feet 3/4 inches in the broad jump, and James Sandler of Northeastern jumped 6 feet 3 3/4 inches in the high jump to eclipse the old mark. Phil Good, of Bowdoin, tied the 220 yard low hurdle (Continued on Page Four)

W. W. Johnson, Former Campus Editor, Refutes Magazine's Depiction of Maine

Editor's Note—The following letter, published in the letter supplement of Time, a weekly magazine, was written by William W. Johnson '32, a former editor of the Maine Campus.—Ed.

Sirs: TIME [April 23] errs factually in referring to the Maine "Stein Song" as a hymn. The University does have an especially written Maine hymn which is sung at appropriate times, but it differs widely from its better known brother, the "Stein Song."

TIME errs much more seriously in its misleading characterization of the University, achieved through the selection of superficial traits that served to show only one aspect of the University.

The cowhide boots and sheepskin coats which TIME refers to are not the universal costume for Maine students as your article would have us believe. These articles are worn by students engaged in field work that makes their use imperative. Other students, financially handicapped, find that they can wear these practical and economical accouterments without incurring the disdain of more fortunate classmates.

Neither is hunting and fishing the universal pastime for Maine men. The number who have the time and inclination to indulge in this sport is relatively small, probably smaller than average among men who enjoy equal opportunity. If athletics are gone in for in a big way, as TIME suggests, then other colleges must be virtually schools of physical education by comparison. Only football, track and baseball are major sports at Maine. Basketball exists only as a freshman sport, hockey and soccer are not played at all, and golf, tennis and similar minor sports are more or less private matters among students interested in this form of recreation. The Maine football team, which was good enough last year to throw a mighty scare into the ranks of a strong Yale eleven and which walked away with the State title for the third straight year does not take its play seriously enough (Continued on Page Three)

BOARD VOTES FUNDS FOR BETTERING OF CAMPUS

Committee Is Appointed To Direct
Expenditure of Money. Type

The administration of the money was placed in the hands of a committee composed of James E. DeCourcy, Burton E. Mullen, Elston P. Ingalls, and James O. Day.

The committee is at present considering the purchase of new type for the paper, which, it is hoped will constitute a noticeable improvement in the appearance of the Campus.

COMPREHENSIVE EXAMS BEING HELD IN TECH TOMORROW AND MONDAY

Comprehensive examinations in the College of Technology will be held tomorrow and May 28.

The senior examinations are planned to cover all of the work which has been taken up in the four years, and are used, together with the oral comprehensive examinations which have already been given, to determine departmental honors.

The sophomore examinations cover work in mathematics and science, and are designed to get an idea of the individual student's fitness to go on with the last two years' work.

Professor W. J. Sweetser is chairman of the committee in charge of the examinations.

MANY RAILROADS TO OFFER SPECIAL RATES

In a spirit of cooperation with students, parents, and school authorities, the railroads of the United States and Canada are again extending the convenience and economy of "College Special" round-trips for the school year 1934-1935 between home stations as a point of origin and the school stations that serve educational institutions. The "College Special" fare is one and one-third of one-way first-class fare for the round-trip and liberal stopovers going and returning have been arranged, with the only restriction that each single trip shall not take more than ten days.

Mr. Joseph Parker, Maine '15, a dairy specialist from the United States Department of Agriculture, discussed the dairy marketing situation as it is today in New England, before a group of state Extension Agents at Winslow Hall on Monday morning.

Battalion Inspected By Charlotte LaChance

By the Roving Reporter

Eyes Right! and nine platoons discovered at 11:00 o'clock Saturday morning that it was an extremely difficult proposition to obey the following command of Front. Charlotte LaChance, Honorary Lieutenant Colonel, Cadet Major John Quinn, and Major E. J. Oliver reviewed the battalion on the new baseball field. According to various opinions received from a number of privates, it seems that a certain attraction, or better, an apparition dressed in a smart military uniform held the eyes that looked to the right and completely demoralized the cadet corps.

ALL MAINE WOMEN TO OFFER MASQUE

Is Feature of Eighth
Annual Pageant
Given Here

The Book of Romance is the title of the eighth annual pageant which is to be given by the All-Maine Women's Society June 8 as a part of the University of Maine Commencement program. The masque is written by Mrs. Marcia E. Bailey, of Orono, who is directing the production and who has been author of several of the previous seven pageants which have been staged since 1927.

Each year this event has attracted large audiences. The stage setting is on the Coburn Green. While it is given under the auspices of the All-Maine Women, honorary women's society, members of all the classes participate according to their ability in this art.

A unique feature in the history of these pageants is that not once in seven years has it been necessary to postpone this event which has always been staged outdoors.

The general theme of the masque is The Spirit of Romance with her attendant Pages who present a book, and who are bidden to write pages based upon what the girl and her college mates spin and weave in life. Much progress has already been made in training those who are to take part in this production.

TWELVE FRATERNITIES HAVE SPRING FORMALS TO END SOCIAL SEASON

GOVERNOR LOUIS BRANN

BRANN WILL SPEAK AT BANQUET HERE

Seniors May Attend
Colorful Function
Of Alumni

Honorable Louis J. Brann '98, Governor of Maine, is to be a speaker at the annual Alumni Banquet which is to be held on the campus Saturday, June 9, for which extensive preparations are now being made.

Each member of the Senior class is entitled to one complimentary ticket for this function which is regarded as one of the big events of the year.

The banquet is to be held in the new gymnasium for the first time. For several years the attendance has been so great that many persons have not been able to purchase tickets due to the limited capacity of Alumni Hall gym. The banquet will be a very colorful occasion; special music is to be provided together with one or more stunts by reunion classes, the singing of college songs, and other details which go to make up a very pleasing program.

Dr. Harold S. Boardman is to serve as toastmaster, and in addition to Governor Brann, F. D. Knight, president of the class of 1909, which is observing its 25th anniversary this year, will speak.

Seniors may obtain their tickets beginning next Monday, May 28, by calling at the Alumni office. They may purchase additional tickets at a cost of one dollar each.

THEATRE CLASS GIVES SECOND PRODUCTION

Helen Buker Gives Outstanding
Character Portrayal.
Play Is Private

The Theatre Class presented its second play of the season, "Cradle Song" by Martinez Sierra, on Thursday evening, May 17, to the other members of the class.

The theme of the play is the love of Sister Joanna of the Cross for the little orphan, Theresa, who is left at the Convent in a basket. Theresa is adopted by the Doctor and brought up by the nuns in the Convent. After eighteen years she leaves the Convent to marry Antonio. The parting is sad, and the final scene is an emotional one, particularly for Theresa and Sister Joanna of the Cross, who has been as a mother to her.

Helen Buker gave the outstanding performance of the evening in the intensely dramatic role of Theresa.

Directors of the production were Dorothy Sawyer and Roy Holmes. The cast was: Sister Joanna of the Cross, Alice McMullen; Theresa, Helen Buker; the Vicar, Frances Austin; the Prior, Jane Sullivan; Mother of the Novices, Bettina Sullivan; Sister Marcella, Elizabeth Dill; Sister Maria Jesus, Margaret Sewall; Sister Inez, Frances Jones; Sister Sagario, Carolyn Brown; Sister Toner, Paulette Roussin; the Doctor, Roy Holmes; Antonio, Arthur Roberts; the Poet, Elizabeth Story.

COLONEL J. F. GOHN INSPECTS R.O.T.C. UNIT

The annual inspection and review of the local Reserve Officers' Training Corps unit was held yesterday morning at 11 o'clock on the new baseball diamond, with Colonel Joseph F. Gohn, of Boston, acting as inspecting officer.

The three companies of the unit, under the command of the student officers, passed in review before the Colonel, and then were formally inspected by him.

It was announced by the military department shortly afterward that the battalion had retained its blue star rating, which signifies excellence in drill.

Six Hundred Guests
Attend Parties
Held Here

OPEN HOUSE SATURDAY

Many Picnics and Outings Held Saturday for Formal Guests

The campus was the scene last week-end of the most brilliant of the season's social functions—the spring formal and informal house parties. Twelve fraternities entertained approximately 600 guests. Orchestras from various parts of New England contributed to the occasion.

Theta Chi

Decorations of evergreens intermingled with streamers of the fraternity colors and colored lights created an excellent background for Janey and the Georgians at Theta Chi. A flashlight picture of all present was taken and one is to be given to each girl as a souvenir of the party. Saturday afternoon a picnic was held at Green Lake, after which a visit to Cadillac Mountain in Bar Harbor was made. Al Val's orchestra played for the informal on Saturday evening. Chaperons were: Mrs. Blanche Roberts and Mr. and Mrs. D. Morris.

Beta Theta Pi

The voices of the Three Radio Rascals and the music of Nat Gold's orchestra rang through the rooms of the Beta House at their formal Friday evening. All rooms were attractively decorated with the Beta rose. Prior to the dance, a banquet was enjoyed. The same orchestra played both evenings, and during open house on Saturday evening many couples visited the fraternity. Chaperons for Friday night were Dr. and Mrs. Small and Mr. and Mrs. Stevens. Those for Saturday night were Major and Mrs. Eberle and Dr. and Mrs. Small.

Sigma Alpha Epsilon

About 50 couples attended the formal at Sigma Alpha Epsilon on Friday evening. Refreshments of chicken salad, potato chips, rolls, coffee, and strawberry shortcake were enjoyed at intermission. Larry Miller's Bears furnished the music for both formal and informal. Combinations of compact and cigarette cases were given as favors. Chaperons were: Mrs. Edith MacCollum and Dr. and Mrs. A. Andrews.

Phi Kappa Sigma

Stan Blanchard's orchestra rendered slow waltzes and fast foxtrots, as the Phi Kappa Sigma's and partners danced against a background of orchid and lavender streamers at the chapter house on Friday evening. The ladies were presented with small wooden jewelry boxes carved with the fraternity initials. Refreshments consisted of ice cream and angel cake. Chaperons were Prof. and Mrs. P. Bray, Mr. and Mrs. F. Young, and Mrs. Carrie Newman. (Continued on Page Three)

CAMPUS MAY CONDUCT INTERCLASS SCRAP POLL

Senior Skulls Ask for Action to Determine Student Sentiment
On Fight Situation

Representatives of the University of Maine Senior Skull Society yesterday challenged the Maine Campus to conduct a poll among the students here to find out the general student sentiment in regard to fighting between members of the Freshman and Sophomore classes.

The Campus has accepted the challenge of the Skulls, provided that permission from the administration can be obtained, to conduct this poll. It will probably be held shortly after the opening of school in September.

At a class meeting held last Thursday noon in Alumni Hall, members of the freshman class voted to contribute a sum of fifty cents per member to the Student Senate Loan Fund.

This will amount to a sum of approximately two hundred dollars, and will be charged to the term bills of the freshmen.

NOTICE

According to the chairman of the Sophomore Pipe Committee, Donald Huff, there are still three sophomore pipes which have not been sold. These may be purchased from Huff at the Phi Kappa Sigma house by the first three men calling for them.

Farewell

The Campus joins the student body in saying farewell to President Harold S. Boardman. It extends its hearty best wishes to him in whatever field of endeavor he pursues after leaving the University.

Under President Boardman the University has passed through one of the most difficult economic periods in American history. Through his untiring and self-sacrificing efforts, the building and campus beautification projects have progressed steadily, in line with academic advancement.

The Campus extends a cordial Maine "Hello" to Dr. Arthur A. Hauck, President Boardman's successor, and expresses the hope that under his leadership, the University of Maine will progress as it has under its retiring president.

Campus and Skulls

The Maine Campus wishes to make public the fact that it has no personal antagonism toward the Senior Skull Society or any other organization on the campus.

The Campus respects and admires, in general, the purposes, organization, and aims of the Skull Society. It has merely taken issue with one point in the program of the Skulls, a point in which it believes the Skulls have taken an inadequate and fundamentally unsound stand.

In tentatively accepting the challenge of the Skulls to conduct a student poll in regard to the fighting, the Campus hopes to find out the true sentiment of the student body in regard to the situation now existing here.

Jobs and Sheepskins

In less than three weeks, approximately 300 men and women from the University of Maine will swell the ranks of college graduates looking for employment.

Time was when, as June drew near, employment agents from large companies flocked to college campuses with armfuls of contracts, and securing a job was only a matter of personal preference.

Those days are gone, perhaps not forever, but at least temporarily. The graduate of today must elbow his way into the ranks of industry with something more in his favor than a sheepskin.

With hundreds of thousands of college men striving for a much smaller number of jobs, it will be the man or woman with outstanding personality, willingness to work, and a constant care for his personal appearance, who will succeed in the present American business world.

VARSITY GOLF TEAM SINKS EAGLE QUARTET

The Maine golf team defeated a Boston College quartet last Saturday morning in an 18 hole contest over the Penobscot Valley Country Club course at Orono. Maine scored 4½ points while Boston College gathered 1½.

The visitors were represented by Fitzgerald, Black, O'Dowd, and Halligan. The Maine golfers consisted of Leddy, Emerson, Babbidge, and Bendtsen.

In the singles matches Leddy scored one point on Fitzgerald, Black of B.C., one point on Emerson M. Babbidge M. one point on O'Dowd, B.C., and Bendtsen M. one point on Halligan, B.C. The doubles matches showed Leddy and Emerson, of Maine, split, giving each team half a point. Babbidge and Bendtsen, of Maine, took over O'Dowd and Halligan, of Boston College, for a one point tally.

The individual scores placed Leddy in the lead with low gross 87. Fitzgerald, of Boston College, was running close behind with an 88.

PALE BLUE GOLF TEAM TAKES THIRD PLACE IN STATE CHAMPIONSHIP

Maine's Pale Blue golfers trailed behind the Colby and Bowdoin players, on the difficult Penobscot Valley Country Club course Monday, to take a third place in the state college championship playoffs.

Carroll Abbott, of Colby, took honors for the day, posting a 152. He led his teammates to a glorious victory by including seven birdies during the day. The victory was easy with the Colby players all touring the 36 hole route under 100.

Bowdoin played good golf to come into second place. Noyes, of Bowdoin, held second place in the individual scores with his 164.

Jack Leddy, of Maine, saved the day for the Pale Blue, turning in his 169 for third place individual laurels. Maine ran somewhat behind the other two teams continually. The final cards showed Colby with 1047, Bowdoin with 1096, and Maine with 1149. Bates drew up with 1285.

To the Editor of the Campus:

Dear Sir:

Concerning the current discussion of class fights and the unwillingness of the Senior Skulls to bend their efforts toward the termination of such fights, is it not in line to challenge the association of student legislation and ability as an athlete?

It is no mystery beforehand as to who are the leading "possibilities" for the distinction of being a Senior Skull. Any individual on the campus at the end of the junior year, if he has sufficient bulk or sufficient physical coordination or both, is in line to be one of the legislators of undergraduate activity for the next year.

It goes without saying, athletes are not inhuman, and we may expect of them normal conduct. It is, however, apparent that there are each year on the campus, students who are able, both mentally and sentimentally, to govern such activities as are now governed by the Senior Skulls. Any change would necessarily come slowly, and there is no necessity of offending such young men as have shown their line-plunging or ball-playing abilities; but it is necessary in view of latest developments to keep in mind this question—"Should the students of the U. of M. depend upon the legislation of an athletic hierarchy?" "Jarby"

Even glass insulators behave badly toward telephone currents when humidity is high. This has been proved by experiments at Bell Telephone Laboratories.

When it's humid, a film of moisture forms on the glass. The more humid, the thicker the film—and the more electrical current escapes! Important factors governing amount of leakage are the chemical nature of the glass, its shape and age, the amount and kind of dirt on its surface.

Through exhaustive studies, telephone men have developed more efficient types of glass insulators—and are seeking ways to make them still better. Close attention to every detail of Bell System equipment leads to constantly improving service.

FRESHMAN RELAY TEAM SECOND AT SPRINGFIELD

Running in competition against freshman outfits from 11 colleges and universities, a Maine freshman relay team finished third in a special medley race held at Springfield last Saturday in conjunction with the N.E.I.C.A.A. meet. Holy Cross won the event and M.I.T. finished second.

Jack Gatti, frosh lead off man, was penalized one yard at the start for jumping the gun, although a Holy Cross man stated to the starter that he was to blame for the false start. This handicapped the frosh outfit which had impressed the crowd with its ability the day before in the trials, but Perkins and Murray held their own in the 220 yard laps despite difficulties encountered by Murray when Gatti handed him the baton. Bill Hunnevell, who finished, ran the 440 in a rapid pace and closed the gap which had been opened at the start of the race.

Each member of the Maine outfit received a medal for his performance.

Minus the services of five of its star performers, the Pale Blue Cub track outfit sustained its initial defeat of the outdoor season last Saturday by the scant margin of 1/4 of a point at the hands of an Aroostook team consisting of Presque Isle, Caribou, and Houlton.

Like the N.E.I.C.A.A. meet the outcome depended on the last event which was the pole vault. The visitors took first place in this event while two of their contestants tied for second with Crowell of Maine, to give them 7 3/4 points and the meet.

to go off on week-long jaunts in search of games.

Freshmen and sophomores do not entirely forsake classes during the three days of class rivalry as you state. Most members go to most of their classes during this period, which is about all that can be said for any group of college students at any time.

And such catcalling and foot-stamping in the local moving picture theatre as TIME sees fit to mention died a natural death with the advent of talking pictures, a circumstance which took place in Orono some five years ago, thus dating TIME's story as having been drawn, perhaps, from the memory of some alumnus who left the University on the Penobscot these many years ago.

Balanced against the statements which did appear, tending to show that Maine is a boorish collection of ill-bred yokels, TIME might well have published such facts as the following: That the University of Maine was the birthplace of Phi Kappa Phi, an honorary society of scholastic excellence which rates not far below the haughty Phi Beta Kappa in its high standards of membership, that one of the Rhodes scholars selected from this district last year was a Maine student, an honor that passed by many of the larger, older and supposedly more cultured colleges; that a Maine-trained engineer is supervising the building of the mammoth Boulder Dam....

Has TIME in its desire to print only the unusual, the bizarre, the sensational, forsaken its vaunted stand for truth, impartiality and completeness?

Saturday will mark the last appearance of Don Favor in athletic competition for the University of Maine. Once again he will journey to a distant field to try his hand at the hammer throw, and we sincerely hope that he will be able to climax his long and brilliant career in Pale Blue togs with a win at the I.C.4A. meet. Favor has been one of the most outstanding athletes this institution has produced, having been a star performer with All-Maine rating on the gridiron, and no small cog in the machine which has brought the Black Bears three successive state crowns.

In track he has been a leader not only of state athletes but classed with the best in the country in the 35 pound weight and hammer tosses. He weighs but 170 pounds and according to Coach Jenkins it is his flawless form which enables him to outthrow many men who weigh many more pounds than he does. Last Saturday, according to Ted Curtis, Blond Don was troubled somewhat by the sandy material used in the hammer ring at Springfield. With his speedy turn which is so essential to his throwing form, a soft footing handicaps him a great deal.

Along with Favor Coach Jenkins is taking Ken Black to compete in the half mile run. Ken ran a great race at Springfield last week, and, according to press reports, might have lowered the association record if he had not held up on the final stretch to try for a tie with Joe Marsh. Ken has been turning in excellent performances all year starting with cross country and ending with relay and outdoor track. If he is pushed sufficiently, as he will no doubt be while running against the best runners of the country, there is a strong possibility of his placing in the run.

Among the interested spectators at the Maine-Bates meet two weeks ago were Arnie Adams, former Bates middle distance star, and Harry Richardson, who with his teammate, Bud Lindsay, brought Maine the national cross country championship honors in 1929. Adams sat in the stands and timed every event which was run off. The starter of that meet, J. B. McNamara of Boston, is also a renowned football official besides being considered the best starter in New England. In the fall he referees many of the football games played by larger institutions.

With school drawing to a close it is only natural, I suppose, to retrospect a bit in regard to Pale Blue athletics. Maine fared very well in some branches of sports, while not being so successful in others. The crowning achievement, perhaps, aside from the winning of the state crown in football, was the Black Bears' great stand against a powerful Yale eleven. The cross country team enjoyed success as did the indoor track team. The phase of track which brought Maine the most renown was the relay outfit which won indoors, and placed in the Penn Relays outdoors not so long ago. The track aggregation will be practically the same next year except for the gap which will be left by Don Favor, who will also be sorely missed by Coach Brice when he assembles his gridiron stalwarts next fall.

The baseball nine, with green pitchers and infielders in general, is at this writing in third place where they were hardly expected to land when the season got under way. The frosh baseball nine is as yet undefeated, and if they can get by the final tilt with Kents Hill, should finish with a clean slate. The frosh track outfit received its first licking in five years last winter when it dropped a dual meet and was again defeated last week when it was deprived of the services of its stars and sure point winners who undoubtedly would have swung the meet in its favor. Although interest in golf and tennis is growing rapidly the teams as yet have not developed to such an extent that they can gain a state crown. The experience gained this season, however, will aid those who again report next year.

Intramural sports enjoyed one of their greatest years, with Theta Chi showing its heels to the others in basketball, indoor baseball and bowling. Basketball drew the interest of the students more than any other of the intramural activities. We still regret the fact that the other institutions in the state have not as yet cast a favorable eye on intercollegiate basketball, for Maine is apparently ready for it.

Bowdoin's golf team kept its slate clean as it defeated the University of Maine 7-2 in a match which was held at Brunswick Wednesday, May 16. Maine won only two matches as Jack Leddy defeated Mitchell 5 and 4, and Carl Babbidge bested Rolfe 2 and 1.

HOYT FANS ELEVEN MEN AS VARSITY NINE LOSES

Bates Takes First Series Victory By Defeating Maine 6-4 Here Saturday

In a pitching duel featuring Bob Darling of Bates and Win Hoyt of the Pale Blue, the Garnet nine annexed its first state series win last Saturday at Alumni Field by a 6-4 score. Darling held the Maine batters to six hits while Hoyt allowed the visitors seven which, coupled with several Maine errors, were enough to win the ball game. Hoyt fanned 11 while nine Pale Blue players took three swings in vain at the offerings of Darling.

Bates got away to an early lead by tallying three times in the first inning off two errors, a base on balls, and a triple. In the last of the seventh Maine put three men on base by virtue of Pruet's walk, and hits by Marshall and Hoyt. While the Bates team held a conference, Pruet stole home. Woodbury followed with a single to score Marshall and Honer who ran for Walton, tallied when the Garnet second baseman dropped the return throw on Woodbury's hit.

The score by innings:

FAVOR AND K. BLACK ENTER I. C. 4A MEET

Black Will Run 880; Favor To Throw Hammer

The sole representatives of the University of Maine in the I.C.4A. track meet to be held in Philadelphia Saturday will be Don Favor, sporting the Pale Blue for the last time, and Ken Black. Favor will compete in the hammer throw and Black in the 880 yard run.

DONALD FAVOR

In the N.E.I.C.A.A. meet last week Favor was handicapped by the soft dirt of the hammer throwing ring and was not able to get the full benefit of his rapid turns. He is expected to be able to better his heaves on Saturday when he will be stacked against the best opposition in the country.

Pete Zarembo, of N.Y.U., who won the event last year, will again be a rival of Favor's as will Henry Dreyer of Rhode Island, who beat him out last week in the New England's. Favor finished second in the I.C.4A. meet last year with a heave of 168 feet 9 inches, six inches behind Zarembo.

According to Arthur Sampson of the Boston Herald, had Ken Black kept on running in the 880 at the N.E.I.C.A.A. last week he would have broken the meet record, but he waited for Joe Marsh instead. Ken is considered one of the outstanding half milers in the country and he will have his opportunity to show his mettle Saturday when the leading middle distance men in the country become his opposition. Ken holds the indoor half mile record here at the University.

PROF. SWEETSER AT TROY A.S.M.E. MEETING

Prof. W. J. Sweetser attended a regional meeting of the American Society of Mechanical Engineers held at Rensselaer Polytechnic Institute, Troy, N. Y., May 18. He was accompanied by Robert Hill, G. M. Cox, and A. P. Scheller who attended a meeting of the student branch of the A.S.M.E. Mr. Cox gave a paper on the uni-flow steam engine upon which he, Robert Hill, and A. M. Giguere are writing a thesis.

Dean Mulenburg attended a meeting of Deans held at Wesleyan University, Middletown, Conn., May 18 and 19.

VARSIITY TAKES 5-0 WIN OVER BOWDOIN

With Win Hoyt holding the Bowdoin hitters to five hits and shutting them out, as well, the Pale Blue baseball nine clinched second place in the series standing by virtue of its 5-0 victory over the Polar Bears yesterday. Rusty Walton and Hal Woodbury were the big stickers for Maine, getting three hits apiece, and Walton batted in two runs. Steve Marshall got two hits, one of them a long home run.

The score by innings:

	r.	h.	e.
