Maine Campus April 29 1937

Maine Campus Staff
High School Contests Speak Here
Fifty-seven Schools To Send Entries For Contest
MEDALS FOR PRIZES
Maine Students To Assist With
Competitive Examinations

By Stewart Swift
Representatives from 57 secondary schools from all parts of the state will take part in the annual University of Maine Student Speaking Contest in to be held this week.

The contest will be given the University during their stay between Thursday and Saturday morning. They will be tendered to an assembly in the Memorial Gymnasium at 12:00 Friday, at which President Hauck will welcome the contestants to be seen. It is expected the same are Hugh A. Reeder, Supt. of Schools, Augusta; Carl E. Mosher, Supt. of Schools, Portland; Martin F. Wells, Supt. of Schools, Bangor; William F. Smith, Supt. of Schools, Portland; and George A. Loring, Supt. of Schools, Belfast.

The premiums will be held in the new University Library and the contest is divided into four divisions. The requirements of each are as follows:

Division I: Intermediate, Inter-school.
Division II: Junior High School, Inter-school.
Division III: High School, Inter-school.
Division IV: University, Inter-school.

In each of these divisions, the winners will be granted a gold medal, second prize, a silver medal, and third prize, a bronze medal. More than one school may be admitted to the same division, and each school will take part in the judging, and assist in the marking of the various speeches.

Friday evening to Saturday morning.

Scene From ‘Petrified Forest’

Marion Hatch Enacts Feminine Lead, Gabby Maple,
Cliff, Ramey Depicts Leading Male

In Sherwood’s ‘Petrified Forest’

By Marqueta Ruscsig

The "Petrified Forest," a drama in two acts, written by Robert Sherwood, whose "Idaho" was the fifth Pulitzer play for 1936, is to be produced at the University of Maine this week for the first time, as one of the final productions of the season. The play recently won special praise in song by "Petrified Forest," like Sherwood’s "Rooster of Virginia," is a four-week contract and is expected to be equally successful.

The play is a drama of adventure and mystery, which is the story of a man and a woman who are driven to the brink of disaster and death in the Arizona desert, where they are trapped by a sandstorm and a sandstorm, which binds them together in an endless fight for survival.

The play is divided into two parts, a scene of the desert, and a scene of the city, and is produced by the University of Maine’s Theatre Department, under the direction of Professor William K. Ayers, assistant professor of dramatics.

Tuesday, April 23rd.

The following sub-committees have been named for the election of the senior class of the Class of 1937:

Committees Selected For Senior Elections

The following were nominated: boys, George Black, Hugh A. Reeder, president of the Alpha Alpha.

Boys’ candidates for the Class of 1937 were elected, and the following are the names of those who were successful:

- Harry E. Watson, chairman, Pref. W. D. Ayers, clerk.
- Robert Cail, treasurer.
- Robert A. Hare, secretary.
- Philip Rogers, president of the junior class.
- John Williams, secretary.
- William E. Barrows ‘02, Prof. Benjamin D. Watson, chairman, Prof. Dwight Demeritt, secretary.
- W. D. Ayers, Winthrop H. Sawyer, chairman.
- W. D. Ayers, Winthrop H. Sawyer, secretary.
- W. D. Ayers, Winthrop H. Sawyer, chairman.

Women Candidates for the Class of 1937 were elected, and the following are the names of those who were successful:

- Elizabeth Drummond, secretary.
- Marion Larsen, chairman.
- Ruby Black, chairman, Pref. H. E. Williams, clerk.

Committees for choosing the 1937 senior class were elected, and the following are the names of those who were successful:

- Harry E. Watson, chairman, Pref. W. D. Ayers, clerk.
- Robert Cail, treasurer.
- Robert A. Hare, secretary.
- Philip Rogers, president of the junior class.
- John Williams, secretary.
- William E. Barrows ‘02, Prof. Benjamin D. Watson, chairman, Prof. Dwight Demeritt, secretary.
- W. D. Ayers, Winthrop H. Sawyer, chairman.
- W. D. Ayers, Winthrop H. Sawyer, secretary.
- W. D. Ayers, Winthrop H. Sawyer, chairman.

Woman candidates for the Class of 1937 were elected, and the following are the names of those who were successful:

- Elizabeth Drummond, secretary.
- Marion Larsen, chairman.
- Ruby Black, chairman, Pref. H. E. Williams, clerk.

University is Host to College Teachers

The annual meeting of the New England Association of College Teachers in Education is to be held at the University of Maine this week, and the University of Maine has been the host to the college teachers of the New England Association of College Teachers in Education.

The University of Maine has been the host to the college teachers of the New England Association of College Teachers in Education, and the University of Maine has been the host to the college teachers of the New England Association of College Teachers in Education.

To Send Entrants

All freshmen are to report on the morning of May 3rd, and proceed to the campus for the morning of May 3rd, and proceed to the campus for the morning of May 3rd.

To Oppose Maine

Gov. Barrows Will Speak At Annual Banquet Week; Tapping of Senior Skulls

Will Speak

The University of Maine’s track team has been engaged in the gate at Boston College, presenting one of the finest team performances to date in the University.

Monday night’s event at the University is the second in the series of games against Boston College.

The array of power does not stop with Maine, as the team has won its first three meet in the University.

The University of Maine’s track team has been engaged in the gate at Boston College, presenting one of the finest team performances to date in the University.

The array of power does not stop with Maine, as the team has won its first three meet in the University.

The University of Maine’s track team has been engaged in the gate at Boston College, presenting one of the finest team performances to date in the University.

The array of power does not stop with Maine, as the team has won its first three meet in the University.
The Maine Campus

Published Thursdays during the college year by the students of the University of Maine.

5th Saturday 1917

CORRESPONDENCE

The Maine Campus was a weekly student newspaper published by the students of the University of Maine. It covered various topics, including campus life, local news, and community events. The newspaper provided a platform for students to express their opinions and stay informed about the happenings at the university and beyond.

Campus Headlines As They Were

By George Weatherite

By Richard Popkin

By Hugh Moehr

3—Edgeworth Jr.—the some table., a"...io Traci-m... 114,A, but cut

4—Edgeorth

By John Hunt

By Thomas Lynch

By William Treat

By Marion Larsen

By Ruth Kimball

By Joyce Woodward

By Lawrence Denning

By Arland Meade

By Robert Cullinan

By Erwin Cooper

By Robert Laken

By Edna liarrison

By Mary Orr

By Eleanor Crockett

By Merril Eldridge

By Jane Green

By James Lysite

By John Smith, Jr.

Byoriously engaged in a trade of rather dubious repute. The League of Nations investigates, thought it was shocking. Waugh doesn't think so, but warns the reader to "please be prepared for some over-doses of polish.

"That's your instructions. Talk." He

"Oh, shut up," said Paul.

"Good—morning, sir," said the next.

"Good—morning," said Paul.

"Good—morning," said Paul.

"Good—morning," said Paul.

"Good—morning," said Paul.

"Good—morning," said Paul.

"Good—morning," said Paul.

"Good—morning," said Paul.

"Good—morning," said Paul.

"Good—morning," said Paul.

"Good—morning," said Paul.

"Good—morning," said Paul.

"Good—morning," said Paul.

"Good—morning," said Paul.

"Good—morning," said Paul.

"Good—morning," said Paul.

"Good—morning," said Paul.

"Good—morning," said Paul.

"Good—morning," said Paul.

"Good—morning," said Paul.

"Good—morning," said Paul.

During Final Production

During Final Production

During Final Production

During Final Production

During Final Production

During Final Production

During Final Production

During Final Production

During Final Production

During Final Production

During Final Production

During Final Production

During Final Production

During Final Production

"One Picture Tells as Much as Ten Thousand Words"

Shutters click . . . flashes light . . . conversers are "Johnny on the spot" wherever and whenever anything of interest to the college student happens. To bring to the Editor of 'The Maine Campus' three pictures each month, but of course it is only possible to bring you the best of them in addition to the numerous other features appearing exclusively in "The Maine Campus."
Bears Open Track Season With Close 71-64 Victory Over Springfield College

Gowell High Scorer With Close 71-64 Victory

By Bill Saltzman

The Eagles are coming. The leading athletic event at the University this week will be the opening of a powerful Boston College track team. Fortunately, the Eagles are favored to defeat the Bears. In addition, many of Boston's track coaches are in attendance at the meet.

By the end of the second week of the season, the rotation will have been fixed, and the Bears will be able to concentrate on the meet.

The Eagles are coming. The leading athletic event at the University this week will be the opening of a powerful Boston College track team. Fortunately, the Eagles are favored to defeat the Bears. In addition, many of Boston's track coaches are in attendance at the meet.

The Eagles are coming. The leading athletic event at the University this week will be the opening of a powerful Boston College track team. Fortunately, the Eagles are favored to defeat the Bears. In addition, many of Boston's track coaches are in attendance at the meet.

By the end of the second week of the season, the rotation will have been fixed, and the Bears will be able to concentrate on the meet.
Section B
2:30 p.m., Room 215, Stevens Hall

Preliminary—Section B
2:30 p.m., Room 215, Stevens Hall

Section C
2:15 p.m., Room 115, Stevens Hall

Preliminary—Section C
2:15 p.m., Room 115, Stevens Hall

Section D
2:15 p.m., Room 41, Stevens Hall

Preliminary—Section D
2:15 p.m., Room 41, Stevens Hall

Section E
2:20 p.m., Room 39, North Stevens

Preliminary—Section E
2:20 p.m., Room 39, North Stevens

Going East . . . or going West
Chesterfield satisfies 'em.