Bears Defeat Wildcats In Close Baseball Game As "Art" Chick Pitches

2nd Straight Win; Reidman Relieves In 9th Inning

REIDMAN AIDS Gerrish Leads Bears In Hitting; Gets Two

By David Astor

Taking advantage of three hits and three errors to score three runs, a heads-up Black Bear baseball team showed its claws here Wednesday to defeat the New Hampshire Wildcats 3 to 2.

It was a fighting Maine team inspired by Ronnie Dyke, a peppery smooth-fielding second baseman that faced New Hampshire.

From the first it was discernible that it would be a pitcher's duel between Jordan of the Wildcats and Chick, of Maine, and that breaks would decide the issue.

New Hampshire's first run came in the second inning when Flanzbaum made two bases on Lord's error and was given third on a fielder's choice. Johnson beat out a peg to first while Flanzbaum scored.

Maine retaliated in the same inning on a free pass to Chute who showed his gratitude immediately by stealing second. A scratch hit by Gerrish followed by some nice base running by Chute, who went home on the hit, scored Maine's first run.

Score Two More

The Bears continued their rampage the following inning. Chick reached first on an error, was driven to third on a base hit by Norton, and a walk to Craig. With the bases filled Webber poked out a long fly, scoring Chick; Norton taking third. Another infield boot sent Norton in with the last Maine run.

New Hampshire didn't threaten again until the ninth. Casey's single was followed by Decker's double which scored the former. Ernie Reidman replaced Chick on the mound. Decker advanced to third on a sacrifice. The game ended dramatically when Decker attempted to steal home with the tying run, but the third out was called automatically when Jordan, the batter, stepped across the plate. This last play was vehemently protested by New Hampshire but the umpire's decision was upheld.

Gerrish was the leading sticker of the day, collecting two of Maine's four hits.

Balentine Residents Hold Senior Banquet

About one hundred and thirty students, including seniors, their guests, seniors who have formerly lived at Balentine, and underclassmen who eat there, attended the annual Senior Banquet at Balentine Hall last Tuesday evening. All seniors wore caps and gowns.

Lee Boyer, president of Balentine, acted as toastmaster and introduced the speakers. Marguerite Benjamin gave the class history, and Blanche Holman and Mary Leighton gave the prophecy and the will, respectively.

Each of the three underclasses put on a brief entertainment. The Juniors gave a skit entitled Popeye, written and directed by Phoebe Dunbar and telling of the adventures of Popeye, a student at the University of Maine, when he invites his girl friend, Olive Oil, up to the spring house parties. Those taking part were: Popeye, Elizabeth Holmans; Olive Oil, Ruth Pagan; Wimpy, Barbara Whittridge; Sweet Pea, Charlotte Dimitre; Rough House, Marion Roberts.

The Sophomores presented a take-off on campus activities entitled "Snow White and the Seven Dwarfs," directed by Lucy Pray. Priscilla Bickford played the part of Snow White West, and Phyllis Hess portrayed the witch. The parts of the dwarfs were taken as follows: Sleepy, Jane Dyer; Bashful, Betty Kruse; Doc, Mary Cooper; Happy, Mary Scribner; Dopey, Doreen Trask; Grumpy, Lucy Pray; Sneezy, Sophie Maizel; and the Eighth Dwarf, Virginia Pease.

Ether Drummond played the piano for the Freshman part of the program.

Junior Month Conf. To Meet

Maguire To Represent Maine At Meeting In Boston

Virginia Maguire, a junior in the College of Arts and Sciences, has been chosen as the University of Maine representative at the Junior Month conference to be held in Boston June 20 to July 17, Dean Edith Wilson announced this week.

This conference which is sponsored by a group of social agencies including the Boston Family Welfare Society is held for the purpose of giving a better understanding of modern social work. Each year eight girls are chosen from New England colleges to attend. Juniors are sent so that they may bring back to each college knowledge of the most recent field of social service work.

Lucy Cobb, a senior in the department of Home Economics, was last year's candidate from the University of Maine.

Seventeen reunion classes will gather for the events of the Alumni program at the 67th annual commencement of the University, Professor Harry D. Watson, chairman of the commencement committee, announced recently. Events of Alumni Day, June 11, will be led by the class of 1913 whose silver anniversary is this year and the class of 1888, celebrating its golden anniversary.

Emily Dean Given Danforth Award

Emily Dean, a junior in the department of Home Economics, has been awarded a summer fellowship offered annually by the Danforth Foundation of St. Louis, it was recently announced by Dean Arthur L. Deering of the College of Agriculture.

The award covers Miss Dean's expenses for two weeks in St. Louis. There she will visit research laboratories in which manufacturing, control methods, nutritional studies, experimental milling and baking, making vitamin assays, and other experiments are being carried on. She will observe management methods and nutritional studies with birds and animals at the Purina Experimental Station in Gray Summit, Missouri. An introduction to business personnel problems, side trips through large industrial plants, and a study of the problems of manufacturing, distribution, and advertising will be included in the trip.

Miss Dean is an assistant editor of the 1939 Prism and a member of both the Home Economics club and the Y.W.C.A.

Rev. Albion P. Beverage, of New Gloucester, has been appointed General Secretary of the Maine Christian Association, Prof. Pearl Greene, chairman of the Advisory Board, announced today. He will be on campus a few days this spring but will not officially commence work until next September.

Mr. Beverage, who is at present pastor of a church at New Gloucester and also attending theological school in Cambridge, Mass., has had an unusually fascinating career, which will give him an understanding especially of the interests and problems of the male students. He is a native of North Haven. He attended Norwich University and later Bates College from which he was graduated in 1936.

Varied Career

As a student he was prominent in athletics, especially football and wrestling, in which sports he was for a time engaged professionally. Last year, while attending divinity school, he coached the freshman football team at M.I.T. with marked success. During the interval between his attendance at Norwich and Bates, he also organized and led a dance orchestra which played throughout New England.

While at Bates he was pastor of a church at Oxford, Maine, where he achieved outstanding success. He has also enjoyed notable achievements at his present parish. He is known to several University students through his leadership at summer camps. He was leader of a young people's group at Trinity Church in Boston last year, and organized and trained a choir of 50 voices which sang on special occasions.

Among the persons who have highly recommended Mr. Beverage are: Rev. Arthur L. Kinsolving, pastor of the Trinity Church, Boston; Rev. Roscoe Roundy, superintendent of the Congregational Christian Churches of Maine; Rev. Mervin F. Deems, Bangor Theological Seminary; Rev. F. H. Meek, All Souls Church, Bangor; Wallace W. ### Cooper Is Elected New Sports Editor

Erwin E. Cooper was appointed Sports Editor of the Maine Campus last Friday by William Treat, editor-in-chief, to fill the vacancy left by Robert Atwood, who resigned because of pressure of work.

Cooper, who is treasurer of the International Relations Club, a member of the Student Senate, and a member of the interfraternity council, is Sports Editor of the 1939 Prism. A member of the M.C.A. Cabinet for next year, manager of the debating club his sophomore year, and its vice president this year, he also served as editor-in-chief of The Freshman, weekly sheet of the freshman class, since discontinued.

Maine Women Initiate Ten

Honorary Society Takes Ten New Members At Banquet

One honorary member and nine women students were initiated into the honorary non-scholastic society of All Maine Women at the Bangor House Saturday night preceding the society's annual banquet. The new members, chosen on a basis of character, dignity, honor, and willingness to accept responsibility, are Mrs. Arthur A. Hauck, honorary member; Marion Hatch and Iris Guion, seniors; Laura Chute, Margaret Hoxie, Fernie Lunt, Edna Louise Harrison, Virginia Maguire, and Madge Stacy, juniors; and Alice Ann Donovan, a sophomore.

Miss Caroline Colvin, the first campus mother of Maine co-eds and professor emerita of history at the University, was the guest of honor. This was the first time in many years that a faculty member had been thus honored by this organization. Miss Colvin, for whom the girls' dormitory is named, was head of the history department for forty years and was also the first dean of women.

Guest Speakers

Guest speakers included Dr. Mary Ellen Chase and Margaret Flint Jacobs, authors and alumnae of the University, Dr. Percie H. Turner, of the English Department, Dean Edith G. Wilson, and Miss Elizabeth Ring, alumnae toastmistress. Student speakers included Mary-Helen Raye, president of the All Maine Women and student toastmistress, Fernie Lunt, Alice Ann Donovan, and Lucy Cobb.

Mrs. Jacobs told experiences of her days at Mount Vernon House with "Ma" Colvin. Mrs. Jacobs, author of The Old Ashburn Place, does not claim to be a professional writer, but rather a homemaker.

Dr. Turner stated that women were in no way handicapped because of their sex, and credited this in a measure to the splendid standing that Miss Colvin had maintained in every relationship she bore the University.

The concluding speaker for the alumnae was Dr. Mary Ellen Chase '09, one-time student of Miss Colvin. Taking as her subject "The Aristocratic Spirit," she analyzed it, pointing out the true meaning of aristocracy, defining it as all that which is excellent, the purest and best in life. Saying that aristocratic spirit exalts the love of excellence for its own

Mrs. Jacobs led an informal discussion on writing. She told the club that the weakest thing about the modern novel was the fact that the reader insists upon a complicated plot rather than characterizations. Mrs. Jacobs also related experiences connected with the writing and publishing of her own novels.

At the business meeting, plans for the sail around Penobscot Bay, which is to be held next Sunday, were discussed.

Professor and Mrs. John H. Hud-dleston, Miss Pearl Baxter, and Mrs. Edith McCollum were among the guests at the meeting.

Sproul To Give Graduation Address

National Figure Baccalaureate Talk To Be Delivered By Dr. Gray

By Lillian Herrick

Robert Gordon Sproul, president of the University of California, will deliver the commencement address at the 67th commencement of the University June 13, it was announced today from the office of President Arthur A. Hauck. The baccalaureate sermon, on Sunday, June 17, will be delivered by Clifton Daggett Gray, president of Bates College.

President Sproul, who started his education under a classical curriculum and then graduated from the University of California in 1913 as a bachelor of civil engineering, has spent the past quarter century in educational administration. He became president of his alma mater in 1930.

The total student population under President Sproul's administration at the University of California totals 25,000, including graduate and research workers in such outposts as the Scripps Institution of Oceanography at La Jolla, the Lick Observatory on Mount Hamilton, various agricultural experiment stations, and a medical school at Los Angeles.

Awarded Honorary Degrees

Dr. Sproul has been a leader in joint discussions and mutual action between the colleges and universities in California to avoid duplication of effort and competition. His interests have also carried him into national and international fields of activity, where he has served on committees devoted to inter-racial and inter-religious movements.

A member of Tau Beta Pi, engineering scholastic fraternity, and Phi Beta Kappa, he has also been awarded honorary degrees by Yale University and several other colleges.

A frequent speaker in public, it has been said of him, "One always knows when Dr. Sproul is in the vicinity because his laugh and his voice arrive far in advance."

President Gray, baccalaureate speaker, who has been president of Bates since 1920, has received degrees from Harvard College, Newton Theological Institution, the University of Chicago, and the University of Maine. He is the author of "The Shamash Religious Texts" and "Youth on the March."

A great reader, President Gray takes special interest in international affairs, a subject on which he often speaks.

The texts on which he will base his baccalaureate sermon are Micah 6:8, Romans 7:19, and John 12:25.

Better Music

The Student Senate should be commended for its rejection on Tuesday night of the proposal to limit the price paid to orchestras for the large formal. This proposal was undoubtedly suggested in order to curb rising assessments for the three formal dinners supported by the classes. Probably because Maine is a state university and predominately a "poor man's" university, some believed it desirable to limit the increasing fees which students are paying for these orchestras. There is some justification for this contention, but the objectors to the prevailing conditions have neglected to consider one of the important results of the present system.

When a good orchestra is obtained, such as, at the Junior Prom, the tickets are in great demand and in most cases the holders of tickets have little difficulty in selling them, if they so desire, at a price equal at least to their original cost. This system not only gratifies the students' desire for good music, but it places the incidence of the burden on those most able to bear it. Consequently, under this system the quality of the dances is improved and the additional expense is borne by those with the most ability to pay.

In the past, Maine's orchestras have been notably inferior to those of the other Maine colleges. The time has definitely arrived when the students of the University of Maine should be allowed to enjoy that music which the students at the other Maine colleges have long considered essential.

3 Tennis Matches Stopped by Rain

Incessant rain stopped any attempts at tennis last week and prevented three varsity matches from being played. A match scheduled with Colby on the Orono courts on Wednesday, May 11, was postponed until Thursday.

Poor condition of the University courts on that day resulted in a trip to Colby for the netmen where it was reported that sun had dried the courts into a playable surface; before any of the matches were begun, however, rain started there, turning the trip into a wild goose chase. On Friday the match with Bates at Lewiston was called off, as was the match with Bowdoin on Monday. As a result the team will face each of the other Maine colleges only once instead of twice as in other years.

The Maine players were scheduled for a match with Bates on Wednesday at Orono and will engage in a return match with Rhode Island here on Friday followed by the closing dual match of the season with Colby on Saturday. The big test of the season comes on Monday when the four Maine colleges meet in Lewiston for the State Championship.

The freshmen were washed out of a return match with Wassookeag at Wassookeag last Friday.

A competition ladder has resulted in the following positions on the varsity and freshman teams:

Varsity: (1) Brookes, (2) Chamberlain, (3) Cahill, (4) Elliott, (5) Lull, (6) Chandler, (7) Harvey, (8) A. Veague.

Freshmen: (1) Brodie, (2) Kent, (3) Pierce, (4) Chase, (5) Peavey, (6) Howe, (7) Hook, (8) Day, (9) Greenlaw, (10) Ellis, (11) Hopgood, (12) Cates.

Debate Club Holds Banquet

The Debate Club will hold its annual banquet this evening at the Penobscot Exchange Hotel in Bangor. At this time the shingles will be awarded to the members.

Prof. Mark Bailey and Dr. Howard L. Runion will be the faculty guests. All persons who have participated in debating this year have been invited.

Intramural Tennis Tournament Opens

The Intramural Tennis Tournament opened Monday, May 9, and four matches were played between the members of Sigma Alpha Epsilon, Theta Chi, West Oak, Phi Eta Kappa, Hungry Hollow, Phi Mu Delta, Sigma Nu and Kappa Sigma.

The results of these matches are: Sigma Alpha Epsilon (Neal-Gilbert) vs. Theta Chi (Goud-Kane), won by Sigma Alpha Epsilon 7-5, 6-2.

Phi Eta Kappa (Hemingway-Dingway) vs. West Oak (Leining-Gilbert) won by Phi Eta Kappa 6-3, 6-3.

Phi Mu Delta (Stevens-Chick) vs. Hungry Hollow (Shaw-Adams), won by Phi Mu Delta 6-3, 6-2.

Kappa Sigma (Hinckley-Macgillivray) vs. Sigma Nu (Bates-Merseeau) won by Kappa Sigma 6-1, 6-2.

Softball Matches Played

Competition in the outdoor softball entered into its second week of play with many teams advancing into the second round of the playoffs.

The results of the matches played last week are:

NORTHERN LEAGUE
Kappa Sigma defeated Oak (W) 7-3; 395 Club defeated Dorm A 26-4; Phi Eta Kappa defeated Sigma Nu 15-2; Theta Chi defeated Beta Theta Pi 11-10.

SOUTHERN LEAGUE
Phi Mu Delta defeated Sigma Chi 16-4; Phi Gamma Delta defeated Hungry Hollow 20-4; Alpha Tau Omega defeated Tau Epsilon Phi 14-3.

Members of Der Deutsche Verein will make an excursion to Professor Drummond's summer home in Lamoine, Sunday, May 22.

There they will play German games involving the use of the foreign language, sing German folk songs, listen to German records of speech and song, and enjoy various outdoor sports.

There is an exhibit of prints taken from the American Annual of Photography, being held in the Art Museum in South Stevens until next Wednesday, May 25. The museum will be open Friday and Saturday nights this week.

By Louise Rice

Margaret Fishback's poems which have appeared from time to time in many and various magazines (from the "Buffalo Town Tidings" to "Harper's Bazaar") have been collected in "One to a Customer". Few of the poems are polished, few lift us into the upper regions of spiritual emotion, but they all have a very definite appeal to those of us who read Wodehouse, Thurber, Day, Benchley and Hatch.

The poems usually begin with a supreme show of harmlessness, and then end up with a quip. They are Lewis Carroll poems to date in high heel shoes; a trifle cynical, sophisticated, but always good-natured.

The book is divided into four parts: I Feel Better Now; Out of My Head; I Take It Back; Poems Made Up to Take Out. Aside from this very general grouping, the poems are not arranged according to ideas.

Comparative Merit

Baird Leonard published a book of verse a few years ago that may well be compared to "One To a Customer." Leonard's poems, however, go deeper and show more feeling than Fishback's. For in the latter, everything is surface impression, and the commonplace is preferred to the unusual. In order to let you judge for yourself, here are some typical Fishback poems.

Sales Resistance

Here is something I do not need—
A chair of metal and woven reed
At $22.50. Nor do I rate
A bench to the station beside the gate

If a little garden. I don't demand
An awning top or a hammock stand,
For none of these things is the proper shape
To use on a fifth-floor fire escape.

Letter to Santa Claus on Discovering That Christmas Comes on a Wednesday

I'd like a Mediterranean cruise
And a sable coat
And some velvet shoes.

I'd like a touch of spring in the air
And a brand-new face
And coal-black hair.

But most of all a convincing cough
That will get me Monday
And Tuesday off.

In Memoriam

Ice cubes seem very dull to me,
For I prefer variety
And personally do deplore
The fact that icebergs are no more.

I Take 'Em and Like 'Em
I'm fonder of carrots than carrots,
And orchids are nicer than beans,
But life in a series of garrets
Has made me receptive to greens.

Protection Signs Placed
On Botanical Plantation
Preliminary steps to marking off the Botanical Plantation, located in a strip of land running along the Stillwater River between the Lambda Chi Alpha house and the power plant, at the University of Maine, will be taken this week with the placing of signs, by order of the trustees, asking students and visitors to "Protect Trees and Wild Flowers." The additional injunction of "Firearms Prohibited" is included because of the damage done to several rare shrubs and young trees that have been injured or killed by students shooting at targets.

Prof. Ferdinand H. Steinmetz is asking co-operation of students and visitors in not only protecting this outdoor laboratory, but against endangering workers by shooting.

NOTICE

Drawings for Dormitory rooms will be held on May 23 and 24 at 15 Coburn Hall at 1 p.m. The junior and sophomore girls will draw on Monday, May 23, and the freshmen on May 24.

Bears Are Victorious In State Track Meet At Bowdoin Saturday

Bowdoin Is Second In Hard Fought Contest

Led by Johnny Gowell, Sid Hurwitz, and Don Smith, who together accounted for six first places, the University of Maine track team scored 68½ points as it swept to a convincing victory and retained its State Championship at Brunswick last Saturday. Bowdoin, in second place, scored 48½ points, while the weak Bates and Colby teams in third and fourth places, respectively, could take only 10½ and 8½ points.

Despite the fact that the Maine team won the meet in such convincing fashion, a surprisingly strong Bowdoin team went out in front in the early stages of the meet and threw a scare into the Pale Blue Flyers.

Bowdoin got off to a good start and took eight points in the javelin throw when Bud White, a star pitcher, and swimmer, stepped off the baseball diamond, donned a track suit and without any practice beat his teammate, Melindy, the favorite, in the event with a throw of 186 feet 1½ inches. Soule, of Bowdoin, won the broad jump, and Rowe was third as the Bowdoin team began to pile up points.

Bowdoin Leads

Things really began to look dark for the Maine team when Bowdoin swept the quarter mile. Johnny Haggett figured in pre-meet predictions to have a chance to take Bowdoin's ace quarter miler, Charley Pope, who made a good bid at the last corner and seemed to have the Polar Bear sophomore, but the pace was too fast for the Maine senior who faded badly in the closing moments of the race, and he was edged out by Hamblen and Jeff Stanwood, of Bowdoin, who were second and third, respectively. Pope won the race in the fast time of 49½ seconds.

From here on, however, the Maine team began to go places. Previously, Don Smith had things all his own way as he ran a 4 minute 22½ second mile to lead Wallace and Foster, of Bates, to the tape by a good margin. The Maine sophomore was especially strong at the finish, and had he been pressed, he would undoubtedly have broken the Maine Intercollegiate Track and Field Association record of 4 minutes 21 seconds, which is held by Colbath, of Bowdoin, and Wills, of Bates.

Despite an ailing leg, Johnny Gowell, with two firsts and a second, was the high point man of the meet. Contrary to expectations and pre-meet statements, the sorrel-topped seniors competed in the broad jump. Soule, of Bowdoin, however, led at the end of the qualifying round with a jump of 21 feet 11 inches. On his last jump, Gowell jumped 22 feet 3¼ inches to take the lead. Soule had one more jump, and he countered with a leap of 22 feet 5½ inches to win the event by ½ of an inch, or as one spectator quite humorously put it, "three grains of sawdust." This setback did not stop Johnny, however, for he went out to win the next event, the 120-yard high hurdles in 15½ seconds. Allen, of Bowdoin, was second while McKenzie, of Maine, was third. Allen also followed Gowell to the tape in the 220 yard low hurdles while Foster Higgins added another point for the Pale Blue by finishing third.

Maine was definitely underway when Hurwitz took first in the 100 yard and 220 yard dashes and his teammate, Bob Atwood, scored thirds in these same events. Hurwitz got off to a bad start in the 100 and Soule, of Bowdoin, led him by the half-way mark, but Sid began to pick up speed and he nipped Soule at the tape. In the 220, however, Hurwitz led Jeff Stanwood, of Bowdoin, who finished second, all the way. Forced to run his own race, Bill Hunnewell breezed through the two mile in 9 minutes 53½ seconds more than 50 yards ahead of Bridges and Wallace, of Bates, who were second and third, respectively.

Don Smith won his second event of the afternoon as Maine swept the half mile. Boxed on the first corner, Pope, of Bowdoin, who previously had won a fast quarter mile race, was regarded in some circles as a dark horse in this event, but fell far behind and seemed to be tired out. As the runners came out of the chute, Smith led and Smokey Jordan was on his heels. Things continued unchanged until midway through the second lap when Hamblen of Bowdoin, began to make a bid to take the lead. Jordan fell back slightly, but Haggett began to come from the outside. He passed Jordan who seemed to be faltering. At that point Hamblen also tried to pass the Maine sophomore, who rallied quickly and pulled away to take third place. Smith's time was 1 minute 57½ seconds.

Breaks Record

Herbert "Spike" Leonard, who by breaking the State Record in the pole vault Saturday was the only record breaker of the meet.

Frosh Baseball Nine Beaten by Kents Hill

The frosh baseball team met its first defeat Tuesday afternoon when it was upset by Kents Hill by a score of 4 to 1. Played in the semi-gloom of the early evening, the game was called in the eighth because of darkness.

The Maine boys started out strong and with the aid of several errors by the visiting club, Humphries scored in the first. The preppers rallied, and in the first of the fourth two Kents Hill players crossed the plate after a hard single to center field. The prep boys tallied again in the sixth when two frosh pitchers were unable to retire the side until two runs had been scored.

Craig started in the box for the freshmen but after walking two men in the sixth, he was relieved by Millay. Norton hurled the entire game for Kents Hill.

Robert Carlisle Injured

Robert Carlisle '41 suffered severe lacerations about the head when he collided with another student as they were both attempting to catch a fly ball during a softball game in physical education class. He was taken to the Eastern Maine General Hospital and discharged from there after brief treatment. He is enrolled in the College of Arts and Sciences and is a pledge to Phi Gamma Delta fraternity.

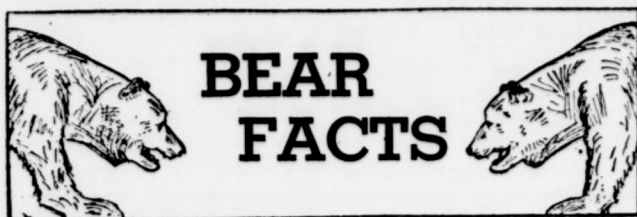

The only record breaking performance of the day came when Herb Leonard vaulted 12 feet 5½ inches to break the meet record which was formerly held at 12 feet 3¾ inches by his teammate, Hardison.

Johnson, of Maine, won the hammer with a throw of 159 feet 4 inches. Boulter and Tootell, of Bowdoin, were second and third place winners.

Bill McCarthy, of Maine, and Hank Dolan, of Bowdoin, finished in a tie for first in the high jump when neither man could clear 5 feet 10½ inches. Hodges took Colby's lone first place when he put the shot 44 feet 7½ inches. Reardon, the favorite, was second, while Russell, of Bates, was third. Each man who placed in this event put the shot two feet farther than he had ever done in his life. The event was an upset all around, for Hodges won, while Reardon was the favorite, and Hal Dyer, Maine's shot putter, was calculated to take either second or third place.

Dyer won the final field event of the afternoon, however, when he threw the discus 137 feet 10½ inches to win. Following each event the winners were introduced to the crowd, Olympic style, and the new state champions were awarded certificates by Frank Lowe, the referee.

By Erwin E. Cooper

For the second time this month the name at the top of this column changes. We are sorry to see Bob Atwood resign and we hope that at some future date he will be able to assume the duties of editing and writing this column. Incidentally, I'd like to point out that Bob predicted Maine would score 70 points. Just 1¾ out of the way. Not bad.

Despite personal feelings, however, the news must be written, and as I find myself back at this desk this morning and watch the rain come down, I wonder if we are ever going to have anything to write about again. The atmosphere has been anything but favorable to local sporting events, and when I see seagulls landing on the football field, I say it's time to call a halt. This is a fine way to begin a column, but possibly a good stinging editorial will bring the weather man to his senses.

Well, the State meet is all over, and once again the championship banner comes to Maine. Despite the one-sided score, I want to assure all of you who were not fortunate enough to make the trip to Brunswick that it was really a pleasure to see. Most of the shorter events were close all the way and "Spike" Leonard's record breaking performance in the pole vault was something worth watching. Spike was hot last Saturday and he went over the 12 feet 5½ inches mark on his first attempt. Johnny Gowell competed in three events despite the fact that he was in poor physical condition and obviously in much pain. Let's hope that he's ready to start in the New England meet Friday.

Johnson, our hammer thrower, lost his track suit and competed in the trials during the morning in his street clothes, but his qualifying throw of 156 feet 8 inches was good enough to win the event although he later threw the hammer out 159 feet 10 inches.

Don Smith didn't seem to be bothered by a slow track and looked capable of getting down to at least about 4 minutes and 20 seconds.

The boys down at Bowdoin have a strong freshman team and already are predicting a state championship for their team next year. They have two crack freshmen, Ray Hewling, a hurdler who they say can beat Allen, their best varsity man, easily right now, and Doubleday, a miler, who has done about 4 minutes and 25 seconds. Hewling has also done over 22 feet in the broad jump.

While things at the moment for next year may outwardly have a Bowdoin tinge they should not be as easy for Bowdoin as Polar Bear supporters are predicting. It should not be forgotten that Maine will have Smith in the mile and half mile, McCarthy in the high jump and Leonard in the pole vault. The hammer throw should find Johnson and Bennett as first and second place winners next year while Mitchell in the shot put rounds out what looks to us like a fairly strong team of first place winners. If Colby and Bates are stronger next spring, as they probably will be, with Daggett and Cochran of Colby coming up from their freshman team, and Thompson, of Bates, the meet ought to be fairly close, and nobody is going to have a walkaway. The Polar Bears ought not start planning that victory banquet right now.

To get back closer to home, I see where Myron Collette—Porky to you—has just resigned his job as football coach at Mexico high school where he has been working as teacher coach for the past two years to accept a similar position at Skowhegan High School. Lots of luck, Porky, in your new venture.

Bates Beats Maine In State Series

Bates defeated Maine 5-4 in a state intercollegiate baseball game at Lewiston Friday.

Bates got its first run when Hasty Thompson doubled in the first inning and later scored on a wild pitch by Reidman.

Bad fielding by both teams gave them four runs each, and spoiled what would otherwise have been a great pitching duel between Reidman and Austin Briggs.

Maine got its four runs in the second inning by means of a bunting game, which followed up a double by Bill Weber. Two of the bunts turned into hits, and two more errors added in gave the final score.

In the third inning Bates made three hits which, combined with three Maine errors and a passed ball gave Bates the game.

Pale Blue Team Face N. E. Meet

Bubbling over with optimism after successfully defending their state title, the University of Maine track team journeys to Providence, R. I., this week end to participate in what is scheduled to be one of the hardest fought New England Intercollegiate track meets in recent years. So close is the competition that twenty-five points are expected to be enough to win.

Although Rhode Island is considered to be the favorite, the Maine Bear is a definite threat to win the title.

Coach Chester A. Jenkins, showing no signs of over-confidence, but nevertheless optimistic, in reviewing Maine's possibilities declared, "For the last two years lady luck hasn't given us any breaks at all."

"Last year, for instance," Jenkins went on, "if Gowell hadn't pulled a muscle in his leg, we could have taken the New England quite easily. If we can persuade Dame Fortune to come on our side this time, we've got an even chance of winning."

In the dashes the New England colleges offer a flock of good competitors of which Scanlon, of Holy Cross, is the heavy favorite. Sid Hurwitz should be a place winner even though he was beaten in the quadrangular meet by Zeimetz, of Boston College, who was in turn defeated last week by Scanlon.

Johnny Gowell is still bothered somewhat by a sore leg but is expected to be in shape to run both hurdle events. When asked how he expected to figure in the scoring Gowell beamed and said, "You can put me down right now for two first places."

When in shape, Gowell is undoubtedly one of the best hurdlers in the east.

Maine's "Easton Express," Don Smith, is almost a sure bet to grab five points in the mile run. Without any competition, whatsoever, Don has traveled the distance in 4:22, and has done as low as 4:20 in practice. Smith is also expected to have more than an even chance in the half mile as has Johnny Haggett.

Eckhard, of Rhode Island, by virtue of his time of 9:33 in the two mile run, is a slight favorite over Maine's Bill Hunnewell. It must be reckoned, however, that Hunnewell did 9:39 indoors with only slight competition, and that outdoors he has won every race easily in approximately 9:45.

In the weight events, Hal Dyer and Stan Johnson are Maine's hopefuls. Dyer has been hurling the discus 136 feet consistently and with a little more improvement might do 140 feet which would figure him prominently in the scoring.

Stan Johnson in the hammer throw must compete against present IC4A champion, Folwarshy, of Rhode Island State.

Baseball Team Defeats Bowdoin Tuesday, 3-2; Browne Hurls Victory

Maine Turns Tables On Bowdoin Ace; Gets 9 Hits

The University of Maine baseball team lifted itself to a tie for second place in the State Series Standing by a 3-2 victory over Bowdoin Tuesday.

It was a well earned victory at the expense of Bud White, ace of the Bowdoin pitching staff, who blanked them with five hits in his first appearance here.

Maine got nine hits off White Tuesday, but only five of them aided in the Maine scoring. Browne, the Maine pitcher, allowed Bowdoin but eight well scattered hits.

Two newcomers to the Maine lineup did noble jobs in the game; Gordon Chute in right field and Ronnie Dyke on second base. Chute, a last minute selection, got three hits in four times at bat, scored one run, and stopped the Bowdoin attack in the first inning when he made a fancy catch on the third base foul line with the bases loaded. Dykes, the other new man, also turned in a commendable performance. Although he got no hits, his pick up of a slow roller and underhanded toss for the putout in the seventh inning was the outstanding piece of work by any infielder for the day.

Browne's erratic pitching in the first inning combined with an error by Webber gave Bowdoin a two run advantage, but Dwight Lord erased this when he drove home two runs in the same inning with a three bagger.

After the first inning Browne pitched scoreless ball, and he was in complete control of the situation after the fourth inning when Fisher, of Bowdoin, smashed out a three bagger but was put out by Craig on an attempted steal home.

Maine clinched the game in the fourth with a single by Chute, who scored when Gerrish got a long double to centerfield.

Maine Bears Meet Connecticut State

Maine moves back to the New England Conference baseball wars again Saturday when the league-leading Connecticut State combine invades Orono to play a double-header.

Connecticut State is undefeated and recently defeated Rhode Island's Rams who boast a win over Maine. It is interesting to note that Pringle, Janiga, and Peterson, the leading scorers on the Nutmeggers' basketball squad, are now the leading "swatsmiths" on the baseball team.

When Coach Kenyon was asked of Maine's chances of upsetting the league leaders, he said confidently, "If the boys can only stop making all those mental errors, I think we can take that bunch from Storrs. Of course," Kenyon went on to explain, "our hitting hasn't been what it should be either, but that's because we haven't had any decent weather for outdoor batting practice. My boys are in great physical condition, and I think I've got as good a pitching staff as any college in New England. It's only those mental errors, but one of these days they're going to regain their stride and then there won't be any stopping them."

And by the way," Maine's genial coach concluded, his face beaming with confidence, "we might as well start on that club from Connecticut as anybody."

Following his usual custom, Coach Kenyon refused to name his starting pitcher or his starting lineup, but intimated that some new faces might be on the field Saturday. In all probability, the infield will consist of: Craig, catcher; Webber, first base; Dykes, second base; Tapley, shortstop; and Lord, third base. The outfield is the question mark but it is likely that Gerrish, Smith, Morton, and Chute are the leading contenders for starting positions.

Dean Edward J. Allen will go to Bar Harbor May 26 to address the high school students at the initiation of new members into the National Honor Society.
