As the flagship university of the University of Maine System and the state’s land-grant and sea-grant institution, the University of Maine has unique responsibilities for providing high-quality undergraduate and graduate education programs, public service, and basic and applied research. Located in Orono, within close proximity to the ocean, lakes, and mountains, the University of Maine offers an inspiring learning environment. There is plenty of open space on its 1,200 acres, where students are offered the diversity and the challenge of a large university in an invigorating atmosphere of a small college. The campus is located 10 miles north of Bangor, Maine’s third largest city.

NOTABLE FACTS

- The University of Maine was established as the Maine College of Agriculture and the Mechanic Arts under the provisions of the Morrill Act, approved by President Abraham Lincoln in 1862. In 1897, the school changed its name to the University of Maine.

- The first women students were admitted in 1872.
- The first master's degree was conferred in 1881; the first doctoral degree in 1960.

- The Resource Economics graduate program ranks 50th in the world and the Agronomy and Crop Sciences graduate program ranks fifth nationally.
- UMaine’s research enterprise is ranked as one of the 100 largest among public universities.

TRADITIONS

- The Stein Song: One of the most recognizable fight songs in the country. Written in 1910 by Lincoln Colcord and made popular by Rudy Vallée (Maine ’25), it became number one on the pop charts of that day. The song was named the nation’s sixth best fight song in the 1998 book, College Fight Songs: An Annotated Anthology.
- Bananas - The Black Bear: The black bear has been the mascot at Maine since 1914. Jeff, a black bear cub, was the first mascot. At least 15 different black bears have carried on the name “Bananas” until the practice of having live mascots was banned in 1966. Since 1969, the Alpha Phi Omega fraternity has provided a human “Bananas” as a service to the campus and the community. In the fall of 2004, a newly designed “Bananas” mascot was unveiled at the first home football game.
- Maine Day: Since 1935, “Maine Day” has been set aside as a day in the spring for the classes to be suspended as students, faculty, staff and alumni take part in cleaning and sprucing up campus. Several events are held throughout the day, including a wake-up parade, a lunchtime barbecue and games in the afternoon.

The Pulse of College Sports
For six-straight years, Princeton Review has rated UMaine as one of the nation’s best choices for undergraduate education.

ORONO, MAINE - Princeton Review once again lists the University of Maine among the best colleges in the country.

The New York-based publisher announced today “The Best 371 Colleges,” according to its annual guide book. The publication, which rates the nation’s best choices for undergraduate education, has selected UMaine for its list six years in a row.

Only about 15 percent of the four-year colleges in the U.S. are chosen for the list.

“We are pleased that Princeton Review continues to affirm UMaine’s standing as a top-quality university and we appreciate inclusion on a list that includes the nation’s top colleges and universities,” says UMaine President Robert A. Kennedy.

Princeton Review bases its rankings, to a significant degree, on surveys of current students. An average of 325 students per institution respond to Princeton Review’s 80-question survey.

“To me, this makes inclusion on the Princeton Review list all the more gratifying,” says Robert Dana, UMaine’s vice president for student affairs and dean of students. “Our own students are helping spread the word about the quality and value of the UMaine student experience, which certainly validates Princeton Review’s choice.”

“Each of our 371 ‘best’ colleges offers great academics;” says Robert Franek, author of the book and vice president and publisher of The Princeton Review. “However, we don’t rank schools academically because our goal is to help students find and get into the best school for them. Instead, we tally 62 ranking lists based on how students at these schools rate their campus experiences, plus ratings based on institutional data we collect on issues important to applicants. It’s all about the fit.”

With its white, multi-peaked roof, the Harold Alfond Sports Arena is distinctive on the outside. But what goes on inside during Black Bears women's basketball games is what truly makes "The Alfond" a special venue.

Each year thousands of spectators pack Alfond Arena, making Maine one of the region's leaders in total attendance. The Black Bears' loyal, knowledgeable fans help give Maine a unique home court advantage.

The Harold Alfond Sports Arena was completed in February of 1977. It is named after Harold Alfond, one of the University of Maine's largest benefactors and the founder of the Dexter Shoe Company. Mr. Alfond was one of 2,000 people who contributed funds for the original construction of the complex, and donated $52 million for the Arena's expansion in 1993.

At that time, Mr. Alfond's gift to fund the expansion represented the largest one-time (non-posthumous) cash contribution ever bestowed upon the University of Maine. Altogether, Mr. Alfond donated over $56 million to the University since 1968. The 1992 expansion project created 70-foot by 140-foot additions to both the east and west sides of the Arena, allowing the installation of an additional 1,200 seats. The construction raised the building's capacity to 5,200 for hockey and over 5,700 for basketball, allowing men's and women's basketball games to once again be played on campus. During the previous four seasons, both Black Bear basketball teams had played at the Bangor Auditorium, 15 minutes south of campus.

The Maine women's basketball team played its first game in Alfond Arena against Boston University on Jan. 30, 1992, and posted a 74-57 win. Since then, the Black Bears have recorded a 152-53 mark in their 17 seasons in the Alfond. The largest crowd to see a women's basketball game at the arena was on Feb. 1, 1998, when 5,862 fans packed the building to see the Black Bears face rival New Hampshire.

Since women's basketball began playing at Alfond Arena, attendance has increased dramatically to place Maine among the nation's leaders in women's basketball attendance.

During the 2004-05 season, an average of 2,372 fans came to 12 home games, placing the Black Bears first in the America East Conference in home attendance. Attendance reached an all-time high in 1997-98, when Maine finished 14th in the nation with an average of 4,846 fans.

In addition to being Maine's home court and ice hockey venue, the facility is used by high school and youth hockey leagues, and for concerts and graduation ceremonies.

 Amenities at Alfond Arena include: 19 skyboxes at the south end of the building, with one reserved for University officials; the Alfond Family Lounge, a meeting room used for team functions, hospitality by the various Friends groups, and other special events; the Maine athletic ticket office; game-night locker rooms for both men's and women's basketball; and "Bear Necessities," the athletic department's official retail store for Black Bear apparel and other merchandise.

Alfond Arena's Shawn Walsh Center includes a large training room for treatment of in-game injuries, as well as the offices and locker rooms for the Maine men's and women's hockey programs.

Fan services in the arena include rest rooms under both the east and west side grandstands, and concession stands located at several locations on the main concourse around the building.

PROPOSED RENOVATIONS

► The renovation of Memorial Gym is slated to cost approximately $12.5 million.

► The expected capacity of the new basketball arena is 3,100.

► Dedicated locker rooms for each varsity sports team.

► Improved academic support center.

► Updated heating, ventilation, electrical work, lighting and air conditioning.

► New locker rooms, officials rooms and visiting team locker rooms.

► Modernized training room, easily accessible for indoor and outdoor sports.

► New administrative offices for athletic department officials.

INITIAL GIFT: THE COLLINS

Former men's basketball star Richard R. Collins '59, and his wife Anne '61, have stepped forward to initiate the renovation of Memorial Gymnasium with a $1 million gift. The gift is part of a $6 million pledge that will go toward renovations at the Maine Center for the Arts, to be renamed the Richard R. and Anne A. Collins Center for the Arts. The gift was announced during a ceremony on Aug. 30 at the President's House. The $1 million gift will support Maine's efforts to upgrade athletic facilities, including a planned $12.5 million Memorial Gym renovation. A renovated gym will create a new home facility for Black Bear basketball, while providing much-needed office and support space for the Maine Athletic Department.
Head Coach Cindy Blodgett

It doesn’t take someone long to figure out that Maine head coach Cindy Blodgett has a passion for the University. Whether speaking with local organizations, the media, prospective recruits, or friends of the program, she is quick to point out the storied success of the program and how it will be a part of even bigger and better things in the future.

Blodgett’s burning desire to continue the proud tradition of the program is the same one she had while as a player at Maine. The accolades that she accumulated while at Maine as a player speak for themselves … two (2) America East Player-of-the-Year awards; four (4) WBCA District I All-America honors; three (3) time ECAC Division I All-Star; four (4) NCAA Tournament appearances; four (4) America East Tournament MVP awards; four (4) time America East First-Team selection; 3,005 career points.

For all the impressive individual accomplishments, Blodgett is most proud of her team’s accomplishments, including the four-straight America East Tournament titles which enabled the team to advance to the NCAA Tournament. Blodgett believes those championships aren’t a thing of the past, but are just the start of great things to come in Orono.

“The University of Maine provides a solid education, unlimited opportunities, and quality people to assist you to become successful,” Blodgett says of her alma mater. “The Maine women’s basketball program is known statewide for its pride, tradition, and fan support. All of these things add up for an outstanding college experience.”

BUILDING A FOUNDATION

Upon returning to Maine, Blodgett quickly instilled a rigorous workout plan that she used as a player in becoming one of the finest competitors in conference history. The team bought into the system and played hard in every game during her first season.

A young Black Bear squad (which returned only 19 percent of its scoring and 28 percent of its minutes from the previous season) turned in several strong performances on the season, including a win over ACC-foe Miami in the opening round of the Hurricane Holiday Classic in Coral Gables, Fla. The Black Bears’ 54-53 win over the Hurricanes marked the just the fifth win in program history over an ACC opponent.

The Black Bears proved to be a solid team at home in conference play as they posted a 4-4 record, including an 82-77 win over Boston University on Jan. 23. The win came against the same BU team which would advance all the way to the America East Tournament title game in March.

Maine was also recognized at the league’s annual year-end banquet, as freshman guard Tanna Ross was named to the America East All-Rookie Team. Ross became the 10th player in program history to be named to the squad and the first since Abby Schrader in 2003.

Off the court, the Black Bears were active in the community while also turning in several outstanding achievements in the classroom. The team took part in several events including Race for the Cure, Run for Hope, and spending time with several local Special Olympics teams. Maine had 11 players named to the America East Academic Honor Roll in the spring, and as a team, ranked 16th nationally in the WBCA poll for highest overall team grade point average at 3.345. Maine was the only school in America East to be ranked in the national top-25 poll, and finished ahead of a pair of Ivy League schools.

Another young Black Bear squad took the floor in 2008-09, and provided glimpses late in the season which showed their potential for years to come. It was most evident with a 2-1 stretch during a three-game homestand in late February. The Black Bears played solid all-around basketball in knocking off New Hampshire and Albany to pick up their first conference wins of the season.

A LEGENDARY PLAYING CAREER

A four-time All-American, Blodgett was just the second woman in NCAA Division I history to lead the nation in scoring for two-consecutive seasons, averaging over 27 points per game in her sophomore and junior seasons at Maine. She finished her career with the Black Bears with 3,005 points, breaking a total of 20 school records. Blodgett ranks sixth all-time in NCAA history in scoring. She led Maine to its first four appearances in the NCAA Tournament in the program’s history. In both 1996 and 1998, she was the America East Player of the Year, while also being named a preseason candidate for the Naismith Player of the Year in 1997 and 1998.

In addition to her on-the-court accomplishments, Blodgett was also a standout in the classroom. She earned Academic All-America honors in 1998.

“I am thrilled with Cindy being named the head coach at Maine,” said former Maine head coach and current Duke University head coach Joanne Piaombo-McCallie. “I can’t think of a better fit and can’t think of a better person to lead the way. She is gifted, she has worked very hard and understands the commitment it will take to elevate the program. This is a wonderful hire and I commend Blake, Anne Pooler, and the search committee for their efforts. I am excited for Cindy in every possible way.”

After a storied career at the University of Maine, Blodgett went on to play in the WNBA from 1998-2002. Drafted sixth overall in 1998, she played for the Cleveland Rockers for one season, before going on to play with the Sacramento Monarchs for three seasons. She has also played internationally in Korea, two years in France and for the National Women’s Basketball League. For three years, Blodgett ran a summer skills basketball camp in Waterville, Maine.

A native of Clinton, Maine, Blodgett led Lawrence High School to four-straight Class A State Championships. She is Maine’s all-time leading scorer in high school basketball with 2,596 career points. She was named Maine Gatorade Player of the Year in 1992, 1993 and 1994, and was Miss Basketball in Maine in 1994. Blodgett was also the Portland Press Herald Athlete of the Year in 1994, and the recipient of the Bangor Daily News Owen Osborne Award.

Blodgett earned a Bachelor of Science degree in Elementary Education from Maine in 1998, graduating cum laude.

Save Money. Smell the Flowers.

Looking for ways to save money on gas and help the environment? The EPA wants to share some smart driving tips that could give you more miles per gallon of gas and reduce air pollution. Tips like making sure your tires are properly inflated and replacing your air filter regularly. And where possible, accelerate and brake slowly. Be aware of your speed...did you know that for every 5 miles you go over 65 mph, you're spending about 20 cents more per gallon of gas? If you're shopping for a new car, choose the cleanest, most efficient vehicle that meets your needs. If we each adopt just one of these tips, we'd get more miles for our money and it would be a little easier to smell the flowers.

CAREN FIORILLO
ASSISTANT COACH - FIRST SEASON
FLAGLER COLLEGE ('06)

Caren Fiorillo enters her first season as an assistant coach of the University of Maine women's basketball program. Fiorillo comes to Orono after spending the past three seasons as an assistant coach at Lees-McRae College in Banner Elk, N.C.

"Caren has a solid understanding of what it takes to build a program, and will help provide the energy, passion and work ethic that is crucial as we continue to grow as a program here at Maine," Blodgett said. "Caren has extensive recruiting experience, and has shown the ability to build strong and sincere relationships that foster successful recruiting and community building."

At Lees-McRae, Fiorillo was in charge of recruiting, film exchange and the creation of scouting reports for the program. In addition to those duties, she was also directly involved in player development for the Lady Bobcats.

Prior to her arrival at Lees-McRae, Fiorillo had the opportunity to learn under Hall of Famer Nancy Lieberman while serving as an intern for her 2006 summer basketball camps. While working for the Lieberman summer camps, Fiorillo had been placed in charge of marketing and directing camps in the Dallas, Phoenix, and Detroit areas.

Fiorillo was a member of the Flagler College women's basketball program in St. Augustine, Fla., and graduated from the school in 2006 with a bachelor's of arts degree in sport management and a minor in business. Fiorillo has also been heavily involved in community service projects throughout her playing and coaching career. She has taken part in events with the Boys and Girls Club of McKinney, Texas, as well as the YMCA Little Dribblers of St. Augustine.

"I'm really excited for the opportunity to join the University of Maine women's basketball program," Fiorillo said. "The program is definitely headed in the right direction under Coach Blodgett, and I look forward to helping her build the program into what she believes it will become."

ASSISTANT COACH - FIRST SEASON
MAINE-FARMINGTON ('96)

Gavin Kane joins the University of Maine women's basketball coaching staff in 2009-10 as an assistant coach after a highly successful career as a high school coach in Maine. Kane brings a tradition of success with him, having won at every level that he has ever coached.

"I'm excited to announce that we have hired Gavin Kane to be a member of our University of Maine women's basketball staff," said Coach Blodgett. "Gavin has an unparalleled track record of success coaching both men's and women's basketball. I'm confident that he will impact our program in multiple ways both on and off the court. Gavin is driven, a person of integrity, and has incredible passion for the game of basketball."

Gavin Kane was named coach of the year on five different occasions.

Kane has served as the men's basketball coach at Dirigo since 2005. In that span, he has compiled a record of 74-10, and earned his 400th career victory. His team finished as Western Maine Champions in 2009, after finishing as runners-up the previous two years. The squad was Mountain Valley Conference Champions in 2007, 2008 and 2009. He coached a Mr. Maine Basketball and Maine Gatorade Player of the Year. Kane earned coach-of-the-year honors in both 2006 and 2007.

Prior to coaching at Dirigo, Kane served as a men's basketball assistant coach at the University of Maine-Farmington. He was directly involved in scouting, recruiting and practice instruction. He also served as head coach of the Maine Hurricanes AAU team, which finished as state champions in 1991, 1992, 1993, 1994, 1995 and 1996. Kane compiled a record of 110-68, including winning a 1989 state championship as head coach at Rangle Regional High School.

In addition to basketball, Kane has served as a baseball recruiter and scout at Bates College, in Lewiston, Maine. He has also coached high school golf, softball and baseball. Kane played basketball for the University of Maine at Augusta, where he served as a team captain.

JUSTIN REES
ASSISTANT COACH - THIRD SEASON
BARRY ('97)

Justin Rees (Barry '97) enters his third season on the Maine coaching staff.

In his first two seasons in Orono, Rees has worked with the post-players, and helped mentor forwards Colleen Kilmurray, Brittanay Boser and Katia Bratishko, who at some point during that time set career highs in scoring, rebounding and minutes played.

In addition to working with the post players, Rees serves as the team's recruiting coordinator.

Rees came to Orono after spending the previous five years at Ferris State University in Big Rapids, Mich. While at Ferris State, Rees served as the associate head coach, recruiting coordinator and camp director for the women's program. Rees helped guide Ferris State to a 23-9 record and a berth in the NCAA Division II Tournament Great Lakes Regional Final. It marked the first time in program history that Ferris State had won a game in the NCAA Tournament. Overall, Ferris State went to the NCAAs twice during Rees' time on the staff.

Rees mentored six players who combined to earn 13 all-conference honors and three players who were named All-Americans. He also worked with a pair of players who went on to play professionally overseas.

Rees was responsible for overseeing the recruiting operation at Ferris State. On the practice court, he worked with the low-post players and did individual skill workouts with the perimeter. He also organized all defensive scouting reports and scout tapes. Prior to coming to Ferris State, he served as an assistant coach at Post University in Waterbury, Conn., for three years.

"Justin Rees is dedicated to the game of basketball and being an educator," Blodgett said. "He knows coaching can make a big difference in a student-athlete's life, so he takes his role as a mentor very seriously. He's young, energetic, and excited about being here. He's very aware of where we're heading as a program and he is excited for the challenge."

Rees graduated from Barry University in Miami Shores, Fla., in 1997 with a degree in broadcast communications and a minor in business. He also played on the men's basketball team during his collegiate career. Rees worked as a broadcaster on a radio station in Melbourne, Fla. following graduation, but before he got into coaching. He also worked as a camera operator at a TV station in New Britain, Conn., while coaching at Post.

Black Bear Club

Mission Statement
The University of Maine and its athletic fund-raising arm, the Black Bear Club, are committed to enhancing the educational experiences and opportunities for our student-athletes.

Maine’s student-athletes possess a strong commitment to athletics and academics, as well as community involvement. Gifts to the Black Bear Club provide our student-athletes with the tools and resources necessary to be successful throughout their lives.

Areas of Assistance

BLACK BEAR FUND - If you would like to make a gift that will positively impact each student-athlete and all athletic programs, the Black Bear Fund accomplishes that. Donors to the Black Bear Fund help supplement scholarships for student-athletes on an annual basis. In FY08, scholarships costs exceeded $5.2 million and the Black Bear Club raised vital funds to support this important annual need.

ENDOWED SCHOLARSHIPS - Increasing private support for scholarships has never been more critical. In order to attract and retain the best and brightest student-athletes, Maine must provide these young men and women with adequate financial aid to cover tuition, room and board, and books. Scholarship support is the most crucial element to the success of the student-athlete and each team.

TEAM-SPECIFIC SUPPORT - You can direct your support to your favorite Maine team(s). Team specific support provides discretionary funds for head coaches to enhance recruiting efforts, purchase new equipment or uniforms, expand the travel schedule nationally, compete in international competitions, meet emergency needs, attract and retain excellent assistant coaches, and improve facilities.

CAPITAL PROJECTS – Capital and facility improvements are vital to the success of the athletic department. In recent years, the construction of the Shawn Walsh Hockey Center, the replacement of synthetic turf on Morse Field and Mahaney Diamond and the addition of a dedicated, field hockey field have vastly improved the student-athlete experience and created an important enhancement for recruitment and competitive success. The Memorial Gymnasium, home to Black Bear Athletics, represents the most important fundraising project underway with a $12.5 million modernization planned in the coming years. For information on current capital projects please contact the Black Bear Club at 207-581-1130.

Advantages of Giving
We cannot stress enough the impact that our Black Bear Club members have in the lives of the Maine student-athletes. By making a gift to Maine Athletics, you are getting meaningfully involved with the success of the young men and women of one of America’s premier institutions.
• The Black Bear Club is a non-profit group, which allows you to deduct gifts as charitable contributions. 80% of a gift to the Black Bear Club may be deducted unless a benefits waiver is signed in which case, 100% may be deducted. Please consult your tax advisor for details.
• Seating priority is given to Black Bear Club members at men’s ice hockey games - the hottest ticket in town!
• Black Bear Club members receive first priority when ordering post season tickets as well.
• Events are held throughout the year where members are able to meet coaches, administrators and Black Bear Club staff.
• Throughout the year, we publish a quarterly newsletter Bear Tracks, which features articles highlighting Maine Athletics as well as pertinent news for our Black Bear Club membership.

WE APPRECIATE YOUR CONSIDERATION AND SUPPORT OF MAINE ATHLETICS!
