A TRIBUTE TO "M" ATHLETES

The love of the game and a will to win has long been the University of Maine's athletic tradition. As an integral part of the total educational process, intercollegiate athletics has proved to be a rich experience for hundreds of Maine students. In 99 years the University has awarded the Varsity "M" to approximately 6,000 athletes. The combination of courage, team work and pride has provided excellence in all sports as Black Bear teams have brought honor and distinction to the University.

Athletics at the University of Maine will continue to develop qualities of leadership, fair play and a competitive spirit in those young men and women who choose to include varsity competition as part of their college education. The University takes great pride in paying tribute to all "M" letter winners for their outstanding contribution to the University Family and its athletic programs.

THE ORONO CAMPUS

The University of Maine at Orono, with its six colleges and four schools, is the largest campus in the statewide university system. There is plenty of elbow room on its 1,100 acres, where the student is offered the diversity and challenge of a large university in the invigorating atmosphere of a small college. Close personal contact among students, and among students and faculty, is a tradition at Orono, where one knows his neighbors and his teachers.

Orono is a cosmopolitan campus in a classic New England setting. Last year students from 25 foreign countries and 45 states studied here, and fully 20 percent of the total enrollment of some 11,000 students regularly is admitted from other states and nations around the world.

There is ample opportunity for the student to enrich his university days academically and socially outside the classroom. There are seven scholastic honor societies, four non-scholastic honor societies, 22 departmental and professional honor societies, 56 associations, clubs and organizations, and six religious groups. Nineteen fraternities and 10 sororities have chapters at Orono.

The campus is located one mile from the center of Orono, an attractive town of about 10,000 population, and eight miles from Bangor, the state's third largest city. It is in the center of the state's year-round outdoor recreation area, with ski slopes, scores of ponds, lakes, streams, and the beautiful Maine coast within easy driving distance.

Interstate Route 95, a scenic four-lane highway that bisects the state north to south to the New Hampshire state line, passes within a mile of the campus. Air travelers land at Bangor International Airport, where the University of Maine has established a campus in former Dow Air Force Base facilities, Bangor Community College. BCC, in the 1974-75 academic year, became the new sixth college of the University of Maine at Orono. Although the 162 acre campus, with its 58 buildings, is located in Bangor, its relationship with Orono is the same as the other five colleges.

In its role as a community college, the primary objectives of BCC are to offer two-year associate degree programs, one-year certificate, and short-term programs to meet special educational needs.

The University of Maine at Orono offers programs in physical education, intercollegiate athletics, intramural sports, recreation and related club activities. These programs are recognized as an integral part of the educational process which the university controls and supports within the limitations of budget, staff, equipment, and facilities. These programs are to promote educational leadership, physical fitness, opportunity for recreational pursuits, and athletic excellence through instruction and competition.

In 1968 the State Legislature created a system of public higher education for Maine. This action unified the University of Maine and the five state colleges into one "cohesive structure of public education in the State of Maine." The university now has campuses in Orono, Bangor, Portland-Gorham, Augusta, Presque Isle, Farmington, Fort Kent, and Machias.

The information in this publication pertains only to the activities and programs at Orono.

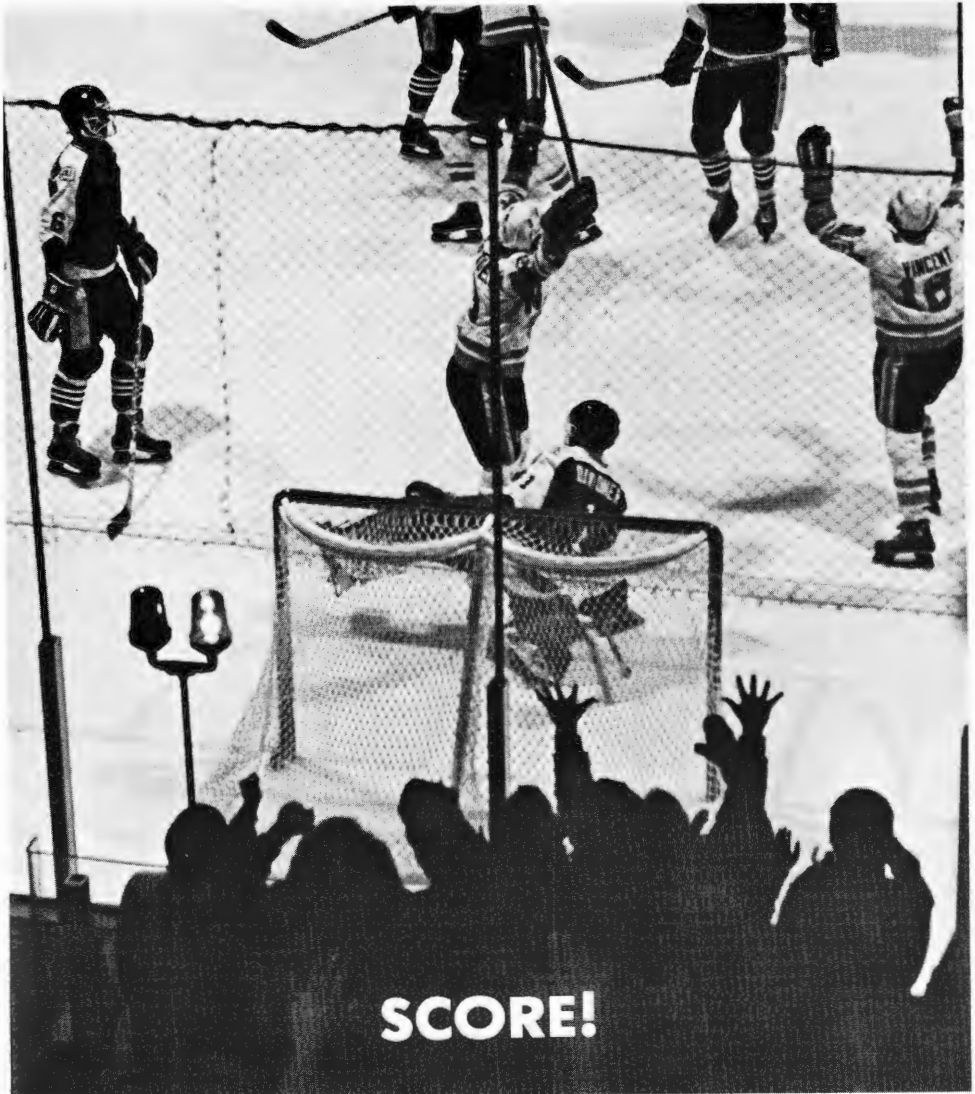

THE COACH'S VIEW

by Jack Semler

While we're bigger, stronger and deeper than we've ever been, we also aren't a surprise anymore. Which of these two factors will weigh more heavily is up to us. We want to make the playoffs badly. We came awfully close last season and just missing them has made us hungry. For us to be in the thick of it we know we must cut down on our penalties and our goals allowed. These will be major objectives.

Although you can never be sure until a player has proven himself in college hockey, Gary and I feel we had an excellent recruiting year. If our young players develop quickly and our seniors and juniors play with the intensity for which they are known, we hope to be battling for a playoff spot.

BEARS AIM FOR THE TOP

by Larry Mahoney, Bangor Daily News

The University of Maine at Orono's third-year hockey team was the new kid on the block last year yet almost earned an Eastern College Athletic Conference playoff slot. Cornell's season-ending 6-5 overtime win over Boston University nosed the Black Bears out of the eighth and final playoff slot.

"Some of the surprises we pulled last year aren't going to happen this year," said Semler, who has led his club to a three-year record of 55-36-2 including a 15-16-1 mark last year (10-11-1 in the division). "I don't think people really knew what caliber of team we were going to have. But they will be looking for us this season so we've got to prove that we can do the job."

Joining the lettermen were Maine's recruits: forwards Todd Bjorkstrand, Paul Giacolone and Don Mattson, defensemen David Hunt and David Ottum and goalie Duffy Loney. All are Minnesota natives except Giacolone, who hails from Gloucester, Mass.

The Bears' specific needs are depth on defense and more scoring from their wingers.

Maine allowed 112 goals in their 22 Division I games which was the fifth highest in the division.

"With our guys being a year older, I hope that the added experience and strength will enable us to cut down on our goals against," said Semler whose corps of defensemen is headed up by All-American Andre Aubut along with David Ellis and Dwight Montgomery. Montgomery and Aubut were the team's fifth and sixth leading scorers a year ago as Montgomery finished with 13 goals and 20 assists for 33 points while Aubut had 6-22-28.

Ellis, Montgomery and Aubut are all juniors while the other regular of a year ago, Ken Fagnoli, is a sophomore. Senior lettermen Don Mason and Marc Son will also compete for blue line spots along with Larry Page and the newcomers.

The Bears' regular wingers averaged just 7.1 goals per man a year ago with only Tortorella (14-22-36) and Robert Lafleur (12-5-17) breaking into double figures. However, Rob Zamejc did finish fourth on the team in scoring with 9-25-34 and captain Bill Demianiuk was seventh with 6-13-19. Zamejc's 25 assists were tops on the club while Demianiuk was one of the team's premier defensive forwards.

Other returning wingers fighting for positions will be Michel Vincent (4-12-16), Jamie Logan (8-4-12), Paul Wheeler (2-6-8), Jon Leach (2-4-6) and Richard Cote (1-1-2). Leach and Gaetan Bernier (2-4-6) can both play center and wing.

The list of centers is topped by senior Gary Conn, who has led the club in scoring each year and now has an impressive total of 77 goals and 81 assists in just 93 games. Conn had 21-24-45 a year ago.

Joe Crespi, also a senior, is the team's second-leading career scorer with 59-65-124 after notching 17 goals and 18 assists last year. The team's third-leading scorer, still another senior center, is Brian Hughes with 38-67-105. Hughes slumped to 5-8-13 last season and is expected to return to his form of the previous two seasons when he averaged 46 points per season in Division II.

Jeff Nord, an All-ECAC Division II second team choice two years ago when he posted a sparkling 2.87 goals-against-average in 19 games, will return with another year of eligibility to complement Jim Tortorella. Tortorella was the Black Bears' man in the nets a year ago while Nord was plagued with a leg injury. Tortorella compiled a 3.93 GAA (4.48 in the division) and had some superb games including a 6-5 win over Providence.

The two will likely platoon as they have in the past.

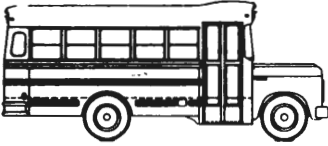

"Hopefully, the fact that we barely missed the playoffs will make us more hungry this season," said Semler whose Bears had the exact same occurrence three years ago when they got nudged out of the Division II East playoffs in their first season. The next year, Maine gained the top seeding in the division before bowing in the semifinals to Salem State.

He also said that his team is going to have to cut down on its penalty minutes (501 a year ago for an average of 16 minutes per game). "We've got to stay away from penalties in order to make the playoffs," stated Semler. "And we've got to have the idea to make it a crusade this season. We aren't the kind of team that can afford to take penalties. Staying away from penalties will make a big difference this year."

Head Coach JACK SEMLER

Jack Semler, 34, guided Maine to an excellent 55-36-2 record in its first three seasons of varsity hockey. He came to Maine after coaching at Princeton for four years, and is also rink coordinator for the Harold Alfond Arena and lecturer in physical education.

Prior to coming to Maine, Semler served as an assistant coach at Vermont, before accepting the freshman post at Princeton in 1972.

An outstanding hockey player at the University of Vermont, Semler captained the 1968 team, was the Catamount's MVP, and played varsity soccer for three years.

A native of Salisbury, CT, Semler served as a captain in the United States Marine Corps from 1968 to 1971.

A graduate of Kent (CT) School, he enjoys the coastal life of Maine, along with sailing, swimming, golf, and fishing. Jack and his wife, Sarah, reside in Hampden.

PRACTICE PAYS OFF

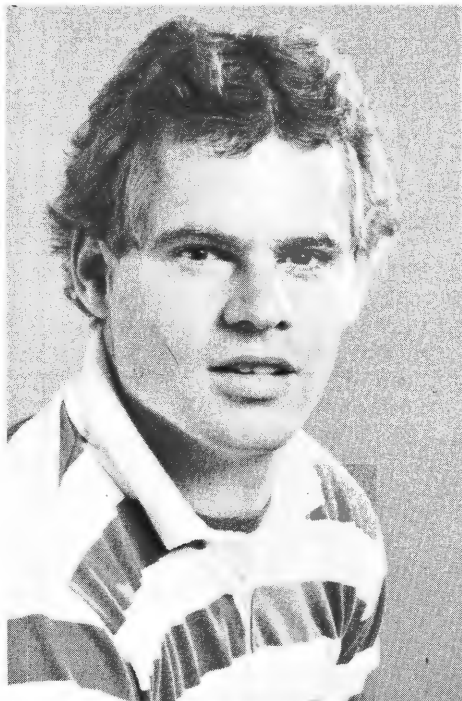

Gary Wright Assistant Coach

Gary Wright, 28, the newest member of the Maine coaching staff, is assistant hockey coach and rink manager of Alford Arena.

A University of Vermont graduate, Wright comes to Maine after serving as hockey coach at Rice Memorial High School in Burlington (VT) for two years.

A four-year player at Vermont, Gary has a B.S. in Education and was the recipient of the UVM Coaches Award in 1976 for dedication and perseverance.

A three-sport standout at Procter Academy in Andover, NH where he played football, hockey and baseball, Gary's outside interests include sports in general and volunteer work. He is single and lives in Veazie.

Ken Yeates Goalie Coach

Ken Yeates, 27, a four-year letterman at the University of Vermont, is assistant hockey coach handling the goaltenders for the third year. He has an M.S. in therapeutic counseling. Ken has two brothers, Jim and Ted, who also played hockey at Vermont. He played on two of Vermont's ECAC Division Two championship teams.

A native of Montreal, Que., Yeates went to Kent School in Kent, CT before attending Vermont, where he received a B.S. in education. He is a certified history teacher.

He enjoys tennis, sailing, canoeing, and is a water ski instructor. He is single and lives in Orono.

HOCKEY AT MAINE

Hockey at the University of Maine became a reality with a $400,000 contribution from businessman Harold Alfond, for whom the arena is named. After dropping the ceremonial first puck, Alfond and 3300 fans sat back and watched the Black Bears take back-to-back 7-5 triumphs from Acadia.

The Bears' late season rush at a playoff berth fell just short after Maine defeated the Colby Mules, 4-1, in Waterville. The Mules bumped Maine from the number eight spot when they defeated number one Bowdoin in the regular season finale.

Sophomore Gary Conn, who led Maine in scoring the first season, opens the second campaign with record-setting performance at Mt. Allison. His five goals, including four in the final period, led Maine to a 5-4, come-from-behind win over the Mounties. The next afternoon, Conn tallied the game-tying goal with only six seconds left.

Goaltender Jeff Nord cops Goalie of the Week honors twice in three weeks for his performances against defending NCAA Division Two champion Merrimack and arch-rival Bowdoin. His 37-save, 6-0, victory over the Polar Bears is Maine's only shutout, and snap Bowdoin's 243 consecutive game team scoring streak, a Division Two record.

Jim Tortorella wins the Most Valuable Player award in leading the Black Bears to their first tournament victory as they take the Holy Cross Crusader Classic with a 4-3 triumph over the host Crusaders. Four weeks later, he turned in a 56-save performance leading Maine to its first ever win over a Division One opponent, 5-4, against R.P.I.

Center Joe Crespi sets a new consecutive game scoring streak of 19 games, and wins Forward of the Week honors leading Maine to wins over Division Two arch-rival Salem State and Vermont.

Freshman defenseman Andre Aubut is named ECAC Division Two Rookie of the Year and to the All-ECAC first team, while Gary Conn and Jeff Nord are named to the second team. Maine, seeded first for the ECAC East Tournament, had its drive towards the title stop, 7-4, by Salem State.

The Black Bears move into the ranks of Division One after only two seasons of varsity hockey. With a renovated Alfond Arena, which now has a balcony at the north end, the Bears took on their most ambitious schedule.

The Bears prove they belong when they knock off, at the time nationally-ranked, Boston College, 6-3, on the road, and New Hampshire, 5-3, at home, in the same week. Defenseman Dwight Montgomery is named ECAC Defenseman of the Week for his outstanding play in these two triumphs.

The Bears clinch their first Downeast Classic title with solid, team performances over Bowdoin and Colby. Aubut, Montgomery, and captain Bill Demianiuk are named to the all-tournament team, while Aubut is also named the tournament's Most Valuable Player.

Maine begins its stretch run as the playoffs with a solid 5-3 victory over Harvard, then collects the first-ever overtime win in Black Bear history when Dwight Montgomery tallies the game winner at 1:44 against New Hampshire at Durham.

Gary Conn's six point performance leads the Bears to an amazing 8-7 come-from-behind victory over Boston University. Maine, down 6-1 in the second period, scored four times in the final period to nip the Terriers. Six days later, Conn scored with only 2:39 left to propel Maine to a 6-5 win over Providence in Providence to keep the Bears' slim playoff hopes alive.

After splitting their first Northern Trip, the Bears are sitting in the eighth spot, but must wait for the regular season to finish to see if they have made the playoffs in their first season in Division One. Cornell went on to defeat Providence and Boston University in overtime on the final day of the regular season, knocking the Bears out of the playoffs, and the Big Red clinched the number eight spot.

Andre Aubut becomes one of only a handful of sophomores ever to win All-American honors. He is named to the Titan Hockey All-American squad, as well as to the All-ECAC first team.

Centers Gary Conn, Joe Crespi, and Brian Hughes rank one, two, three in career scoring and will lead Maine's first senior class in the Bears' effort to repeat hockey history at Maine.

SR.

by Gary Thorne, WABI play-by-play

So it has come to this. On the programs they are designated as Sr. They are the lettermen, but they are more. In 1978-79, they were Fr., they were the beginning of a dream come true and have been that dream personified beyond even the dreamers' expectations.

Conn, Hughes, Demianiuk, Crespi and Leach — the point leaders in year one in Division Two (15-12) and only one game out of the playoffs. They sat in the locker room at Alford Arena, their home ice, but they had never played a game on it. Nobody had. They were first — they were Fr. — and they were loved. Joe Crespi drives home the game winner against Acadia in "Game One", ecstatic as he falls to the ice; Jamie Logan, stick high over his head, following Crespi through the crease; Gary Conn jubilant to the left of the net, jumping for joy. The signs on the wall said "Welcome to Maine Hockey." In goal were Jeff Nord (3.83) and Jim Tortorella (3.96), with Don Mason, Marc Son, Paul Wheeler and Larry Page jamming in front of them — all those Fr. beating off all those pucks from another team's Sr. Jack Semler had his nucleus.

In 1978-79, the Soph. were first (25-8-1) in Division Two. Conn, Crespi and Hughes were the top point getters, Dan Sweeney was their captain, Nord (2.87) and Tortorella (3.78) shared the schedule in heavy pads. Another Tortorella, John, became the "new Soph.", thirty-two points, and eighty-five minutes in the box. He spent just as many minutes in the other goal-tender's crease, battered and bruised, and hoping for more. They were that good.

But how soon they question. The challenge had just begun. Division Two was gone, Maine moved to Division One — "the big boys." Could they? Would they? Yes! Yes!

1979-80. There were new names to help the Jr., but the Jr. led. Conn continued scoring (21-24-45), with Crespi close behind (17-18-35). Bill Demianiuk was elected captain. John Tortorella watched a little less from the box (71 minutes) and became the second-leading point man of the season (14-22-36). Jeff Nord, injured after only five games in the net, was red-shirted. Jim Tortorella logged sixteen hundred minutes and thirty-nine seconds of grueling goal tending in twenty-eight games. The mask had double the dents.

They finished (15-16-1) one game, one lousy game, out of the playoffs. Maine? Ask B.C. (6-3, Maine at Boston), B.U. (Maine down 6-1 in the second, wins 8-7), U.N.H. (oh, that sweet overtime win on a snowy night in Durham), or Providence (6-5 in Rhode Island when they had to win). Jack Semler, the NEWS sportsperson of the year, and properly so.

Now they are Sr. Gary Conn, leading scorer in goals, assists and total points (77-81-158) and career power play leader (28). Assist leader for a single season Brian Hughes (31) again at the back of the bus, quiet and reading, and Maine's third-leading scorer. The captain, in fact and name, Bill Demianiuk — showing the most games played (93) with Gary Conn. SHG leader Jamie Logan (4), the man on the breakaway.

In goal, there have been the two — Nord and Tortorella. They will go again. Joe Crespi, Maine's second-leading scorer, will spend another winter with buckets of pucks, staying after practice, firing at the net. Jon Leach, the versatile forward, will be there to give meaning to "depth", John Tortorella, the "new Sr.", will test the mettle and temper of opposing goal tenders.

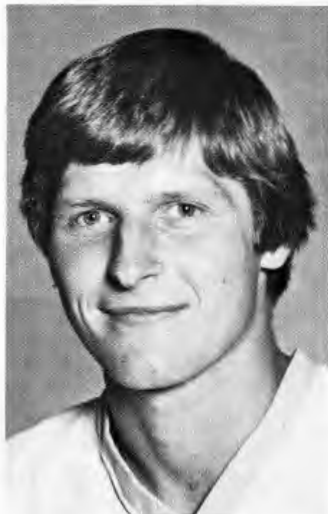

It is difficult to imagine Maine Hockey without these Srs. Perhaps that is when a sports program becomes of age, when those that gave birth leave. They have been superior, and their accomplishments are forever — and ours to retell.

But wait. The best of this written sojourn is the end of the beginning is now being written. They are not gone. Sr. dream too, and why shouldn't they. Our dream was their's in 1977-78, but they were Fr. It mattered not, they rose to fill the winter nights with strong efforts and success. We doubted with them in 1979-80 about the move to Division One, even if it went unspoken. They shared their victory over doubts in wondrous moments of sheer joy, beating those who wish they were admonished to hold in awe.

Now, we share the Sr. dreams, but will not speak them. One does not mention the no-hitter in progress. But just listen on a cold winter's night outside the Alford Arena as that space between fallen snow and clear sky fills with sound as the red light at the other end ignites. That is the sound of a Sr. dream four years in the making.

MEET THE BEARS

Captain Bill Demianiuk

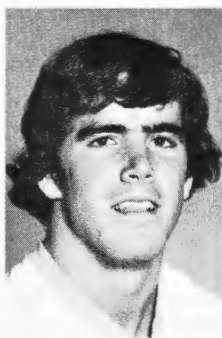

Demianiuk

LW., Sr., 5-11, 188, 6-29-58, Alliston, ONT.

A hard-working left-winger selected by his teammates to be the Maine captain for the second straight year. The fourth all-time leading scorer in Black Bear hockey annals needs only six more points to hit the century mark, and is one of only two players to participate in all 93 games in UMO's three-year history. The possessor of an excellent slapshot, Bill has two career hat tricks. "There's no greater honor for a player than to be named captain by his teammates. Billy has demonstrated the playing skills and the leadership qualities that make him an outstanding captain."-Coach Semler. A very intense competitor, the versatile physical education major has seen duty on the power play and is one of the best penalty killers on the team.

Maine's all-time leading scorer with 77 goals and 81 assists, Gary has been the top scorer every year he's been at UMO. He holds or shares 15 scoring records for forwards, including most career goals, assists, and points, and season records for goals and points. Twice he has scored six points in a game, and led Maine's dramatic come-from-behind victory over Boston University with two goals and four assists. Not to be overlooked are Gary's outstanding penalty killing and face-off work. He has deceptive speed, is an excellent stickhandler, has a very accurate shot, and has not missed a game in three years. "Gary's a terrific hockey player. He's the best forward I've ever coached. He'll score over a hundred goals at Maine before he's through."-Semler.

JOE CRESPI, C., Sr., 195, 11-14-58, Bridgewater, Mass.

The second all-time leading scorer for the Black Bears, Joe is one of the hardest working players at Maine. He is usually one of the first players on the ice for practice and is always one of the last to leave. A consistent threat to score any time he is on the ice, Joe put together the longest consecutive game scoring streak in Maine history, 19 games, during the 1978-79 campaign. He has made big strides forward each year, improving every facet of his game. Along with Gary Conn and Brian Hughes, he gives Maine three quality, experienced centermen. "Joe is quite a player. He works incredibly hard. We're all hoping Joe will end his career on a bright note."-Semler.

One of the smoothest skaters on the team, Brian is the third all-time leading scorer, Opponents have to keep an eye of him every time he is on the ice. A vastly improved defensive player, he will be looking to bounce back from an off-year scoring wise. Brian will be looking to capture the scoring touch that netted him 33 goals in his first two seasons. He holds the record for most assists by a forward in a season, and is one of only three players ever to score six points in a single contest. A very spirited player who really makes things happen. "Hughesie is a tough competitor who is well-liked and respected by all our players. Not too many players love hockey more than Brian. He'll be out to make his last year a memorable one."-Semler.

JON LEACH, F., Sr., 5-11, 180, 1-29-59, Lexington, Mass.

Maine's most versatile forward, Jon played all three forward positions last season. He scored the game winning goal in the last minute against in-state rival Colby. Jon was Maine's first ECAC award winner, capturing Division Two Rookie of the Week honors his freshman year. Came back strong from a knee injury during his sophomore campaign with improved speed. Developed into a fine center over the last half of the 79-80 season. A good attitude, an excellent stickhandler, and has a way of working himself into the line-up. "Jon's got a great attitude and I hope his dedication will result in a rewarding senior year."-Semler.

Logan

JAMIE LOGAN, RW., Sr., 6-1, 175, 5-19-59, Montclair, N.J.

Known for his reckless abandon on the ice, Jamie can pick up the team with his hustle and hard work. A strong player in the corners who always gives 100%. An excellent penalty killer who has a knack for getting short handed goal scoring opportunities, he has scored four short handed goals in three seasons. Has a tremendous slapshot and is a very physical player. "What's great about Jamie is that he could care less if he sometimes looks awkward getting the job done. I try to use him as an example for young players."-Semler.

Son

MARC SON, Def., Sr., 5-8, 170, 4-4-58, Wellesley, Mass.

A solid player who saw limited duty last season, Marc is very strong handling the puck and has a good low slapshot. He's never been a scorer from the blue line, but knows what to do with the puck. He missed three games his freshman season with a broken nose and the last eleven games during the sophomore campaign with a knee injury, but was healthy last year. "Marc's a good competitor who will be looking to capture one of the six dressing defensemen positions."-Semler.

Jim Tortorella

JIM TORTORELLA, G., Sr., 5-8, 160, 9-20-59, Concord, Mass.

A goalie who can come up with the spectacular save at a crucial moment in any game. He carried the load last year, playing in 19 of the last 20 games. Backstopped Maine's stretch drive run at the playoffs that just missed with victories over New Hampshire, Boston University, and Providence. Posted an excellent 3.93 goals against average and compiled 14 victories over the 79-80 campaign. Set a single season save record last year with 794 saves, 300 more than his old record. Outstanding reflexes, quick glove hand, and improvement at playing the angles made Jimmy one of the better Division One goaltenders last year. "If Jim can get his concentration to peak every game, he'll have his best year ever."-Semler.

John Tortorella

JOHN TORTORELLA, F., Sr., 5-8, 185, 6-24-58, Concord, Mass.

One of the most aggressive players in Division One last season, John has added a spark to the Maine offense since transferring from Salem State. A hard-working winger, he played both right and left wing last season. An outstanding penalty killer and very tough in front of the net on the power play. Fine shortstop for John Winkin's baseball team. His lack of size has not deterred him from becoming one of the best wingers in the corner. Gives 100% in games and practices. Led the wings in scoring with 36 points on 14 goals and 22 assists last season. "If 'Tort' can cut his penalty minutes in half and play with as much intensity as he has in the past, he can be one of the most effective players in the league."-Semler.

A tough-two-way forward who has missed only two games in three years. Had an outstanding sophomore year, but tailed off scoring-wise last season. Excellent size and speed, and tough in the corners. At his best when he plays aggressively. Takes very few penalties. Excellent penalty killer. "Paul needs to get off to a fast start and be more aggressive than ever. Excellent positional player."-Semler.

THE JUNIORS

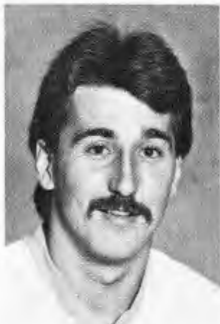

Aubut

ANDRE AUBUT, Def., Jr., 5-10, 185, 2-3-60, Laval, QUE.

One of the top defensemen in the ECAC last year, Andre was named to the Titan Hockey All-American squad as a sophomore, and was also named to the All-ECAC First team. As a freshman, he was an All-ECAC Division Two First team defenseman and Rookie of the Year. An outstanding offensive player, his defensive work goes unnoticed. He does the little things you can't teach a player. Sees up to 40 minutes of ice time per game. Has the ability to dictate the pace of the game, and is an excellent playmaker. Working hard to build himself up physically and improve his shot. "Andre has outstanding anticipation. He's in great shape. I think our added depth will help him have his best year ever."-Semler.

An excellent defensive defenseman who plays the body. Superb body checker. A tough competitor whose skills are recognized by opposing players and coaches, but often overlooked by the fans. A quiet leader by example. Named to the All-Tournament teams at the Holy Cross Tournament and the Downeast Classic as a freshman. Complements whoever he plays with. He has not missed a game in his two years at UMO. "If David can be just as physical and intimidating without taking penalties he'll be outstanding."-Semler.

ROBERT LAFLEUR, LW., Jr., 5-7, 175, 10-14-59, Mirabel, QUE.

One of the fastest skaters in the ECAC, Robert's speed puts constant pressure on opposing defenses. The most improved defensive player last year. An outstanding penalty killer who is a threat to score short-handed. Had his second career hat trick last year in Maine's 4-2 win over St. Lawrence. Very powerful for a player of his size. Very strong shot. Ready to bust out with a big year. Showed no effects of an ankle injury that slowed him in his freshman year. "Has the ability to be one of the best forwards in the league. If Robert gets off to a fast start and plays with emotion, he'll have his best year."-Semler.

Montgomery

DWIGHT MONTGOMERY, D., Jr., 5-11, 190. 1-8-60, Gloucester, MA

Dwight had a superlative year coming back from a freak shoulder separation his freshman year. A solid two-way defenseman who came into his own offensively last year, scoring 13 goals, a scoring high for UMO defensemen. A key man on the power play. Has a tremendous slapshot from the blue line. He scored the game winning goal in Maine's first ever overtime victory at New Hampshire last season. Named to the Downeast Classic All-Tournament team and was ECAC Defenseman of the Week for his play against Boston College (12-11) and New Hampshire (12-15). "Dwight's one of the most talented defensemen I've ever coached. Has amazing quickness. I hope he gets the recognition he deserves this year."-Semler.

Nord

JEFF NORD, G., Jr., 5-10, 175, 4-17-59, Quincy, Mass.

Jeff redshirted the 79-80 campaign after suffering a severe ankle sprain against Colgate. Although in his fourth year of studies, he will have an extra year of eligibility. His return to the form that made him the All-ECAC Division Two second team goalie in 78-79 will give Maine two outstanding Division One netminders and take the load off Jim Tortorella. Excellent glove and concentration plays the angles well, stand-up type goalie. Recorded the Black Bears' only shutout in 78-79 with a 37-save, 6-0 win over Bowdoin. "Jeff's going to be a key to our year. He's going to be starting a lot of big games right away. He'll do the job."-Semler.

Zamejc

ROB ZAMEJC, RW., Jr., 6-1, 195, 3-23-59, Oshawa, ONT.

Rob led the Black Bears in assists with 25 last year in his first season after transferring from St. Louis University. A big, strong player in the corners with an excellent shot. He will be working at shooting the puck more this year, looking to recapture the goal scoring touch that he had at St. Louis. Fit right in last year. Scored the fastest goal from the start of a game (11 seconds against New Hampshire). "Rob knows the system now. I feel he has the ability to be a 20-goal scorer. I'm relying on him to be one of our most aggressive forwards in the corner."-Semler.

THE SOPHOMORES

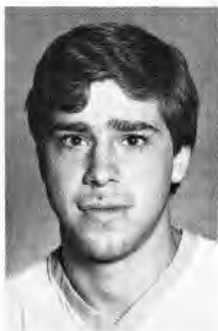

Bernier

GAETAN BERNIER, C., So., 5-11, 170, 10-2-58, Laval, QUE.

Gaetan was just starting to come into his own last year when a knee injury against R.P.I. put him on the shelf for the year. He has great potential to be a big cog in Maine's drive towards the playoffs. A strong skater, good face-off man, and a tough body checker for his size. An excellent golfer who works as a teaching pro in the summer. "If Gaetan can become consistent in practice and in games, he has the ability to make a major contribution."--Semler.

Ken stepped right in as a freshman and played all 32 games. An excellent skater who adjusted very well to the pace of Division One. He has the potential to be an outstanding Division One defenseman. A strong shot, he saw action on the power play at the right point. "Kenny has exceptional ability. If he can avoid being overly offensive-minded, he'll develop into one of the best defensemen in the league. He is a terrific skater."--Semler.

An outstanding stickhandler and playmaker, Michel adjusted well to Division One hockey before a shoulder separation against Providence late in the year. One of the most complete players on the team. Very tough with the puck. Handles himself well in the corners despite his limited size. Excellent skater. "With added size and strength, I expect Michel to earn an important playing position."--Semler.

THE FRESHMEN

Bjorkstrand

TODD BJORKSTRAND, F., Fr., 5-10, 170, 10-14-62, Minnetonka, Minn.

Todd is one of five Minnesota natives at Maine this year. An All-Conference selection while at Hopkins Lindbergh H.S., he led the powerful Lake Conference in scoring last year with 25 goals and 20 assists. Deceptive moves, great finesse, excellent stick handler, a natural goal scorer.

Giacalone

PAUL GIACALONE, W., Fr., 5-10, 165, 10-27-60, Gloucester, Mass.

A hard-hitting two-way hockey player, Paul comes to Maine from Northwood School in Lake Placid, N.Y. He has good speed and is fearless in the corners. He will provide speed and depth at the wing position.

Hunt

DAVID HUNT, Def., Fr., 6-2, 200, 2-3-62, Edina, Minn.

An All-Lake Conference selection, this big, rangy defenseman does a lot of things well. He captained his Edina West H.S. team to the state sectional finals before losing to Hopkins-Lindbergh H.S. He has good play making abilities, and his size will be a welcome addition to Maine's blue line corps.

Loney

DUFFY LONEY, G., Fr., 5-10, 165, 9-12-61, Minnetonka, Minn.

A teammate of Todd Bjorkstrand's at Hopkins-Lindbergh, Duffy backstopped Hopkins-Lindbergh to the state title. An All-Lake Conference selection, he gives Semler a goalie in every class. Duffy had a 2.5 goals against average last year and served as an alternate captain.

THE BLACK BEAR HALL OF FAME IS ALIVE AND SKATING

The ice hockey season has arrived. The Black Bears have a tough, Division One schedule for just the second year and coach Jack Semler has put together a squad that looks to be improved with added experience and quality recruits. This winter should be something special with the likes of such outstanding performers as All-American defenseman Andre Aubut and high-scoring centers Gary Conn, Joe Crespi and Brian Hughes.

Backing them up is solid goaltending, improved defense and better depth at forward.

We hope you will follow us through the campaign and give us the support we need from the most important part of our athletic program — you.

We look forward to having Black Bear Booster activities both home and away this year and encourage every fan to look for our representatives at these events. Should you wish to join us in these activities and need more information just give us a call.

Because we'll be looking for you.
