Bennett Plans For Annual Homecoming

Bowdoin-Maine Game

Will Be Feature Of Weekend

The committee charged with the plans for this year's annual Homecoming Program has been appointed and is actively engaged in making plans for the festivities.

The chairman of the committee for this year is Earl Bennett, '28.

Other members of the committee this year are: William E. Leavitt, '28, Fred Leaming, '29, Miss Marion V. Groth and Rich. A. French, '29, William D. See, '29, and Paul D. Prince, '29, recognized as outstanding leaders among the Sophomore class.

The committee is composed of students from both Bates and the University of Maine.

The program being planned by the committee will follow in general the pattern of previous years. November 15, at the Owls' finishing gun, Rhode Island displayed an even greater effort than that of last year's eleven, which was of a different class from that of this year. One of the main events of the Owls' program will be the annual Homecoming Football game, for which the ticket prices will include a football rally, "M" songs, dances, refreshments and a tour of the campus. The next major feature will be the annual Homecoming dance, scheduled for Saturday, November 15, at the Owls' finishing gun.

Neural Thought

In spite of all the widespread concern over the present efforts of Congress to devise satisfactory neutrality legislation, it is undoubtedly true that these efforts alone cannot arrest the progress of war. This does not mean the importance of imposing a halt, but rather that the effort to do this must be supplemented by all means and forces that stand against the war. America must face the war with its people.
Rhode Island's Finest

This is the story of how a small college football team came to be the best in the state. The team's success is attributed to the efforts of Coach Keaney, who has been able to put together a squad that is capable of winning. The team has a number of key players, including Bob Anderson, who is considered to be one of the best running backs in the country. Anderson is a powerful runner who has proven to be a key factor in the team's success. The team also has a strong defense, led by John Smith, who is considered to be one of the top defensive players in the state. Smith is a hard-hitting linebacker who has been able to make a number of key tackles for a loss. The team has a strong offensive line, led by Mike Brown, who is considered to be one of the best in the state. Brown is a powerful blocker who has been able to open up holes for the running backs. The team has a strong receiving corps, led by Jim Davis, who is considered to be one of the top receivers in the state. Davis is a big target who has been able to make a number of key catches for touchdowns.
