MOTHER'S ROSARY OF LOVE

Chorus

She counted the first bead when you were born
The second when you tried to walk,
The third bead she counted filled her with delight
Twas when she first heard you talk
And so for each deed she would count a new bead
And that's what her dreams were made of Smiles, sighs and tears
Joys, hopes and fears
Are a Mother's Rosary of Love.

Slowly

VOICE

The best a dream-er of rich-ess and love, And my dream they love Just like an an-ge from heav-en di-vine, They the gates of my heart you have done, But the love I have sighted for And All the world I would give, dear, if would I have loved her, and dear, when I look at you

I could but live, dear, to love and to call you my own.

Words & Music
C. W. WOOD

Andante

think of you and feel the best part, I had, There's nothing you can do to with I can't look for me, All the world think, Why did I see, or hear,

To tell the world that I love them, and soon I'll be back here I know,
My pals are waiting for me, I know the way, by the, I love them,
