Gymnasium Lay Plans for Annual Harvest Ball

Psychological Effect of Jazz on Farm Animals to Be Tested

One of the largest and most educational events of the year is the annual Harvest Ball, which takes place this Saturday evening. The ball is a significant event for the students of the Agricultural Club, as it provides an opportunity to learn about the psychological effects of jazz music on farm animals. This event is expected to attract a large crowd of participants and spectators.

One of the most intriguing aspects of the ball is the idea of using jazz music to influence farm animals. The students of the Agricultural Club have been conducting research on this topic for several months, and they have developed some interesting theories. They believe that jazz music can have a positive impact on the behavior of farm animals, improving their productivity and well-being.

The ball will feature a variety of activities, including live jazz performances, dances, and other social events. It is a great opportunity for students to socialize and network with their peers, as well as engage in some friendly competition. The proceeds from the ball will be used to support the Agricultural Club's activities and research.

The ball will begin at 7:30 PM and will continue until the early hours of the morning. Tickets are available for purchase at the door, and students are encouraged to come early to secure their spot.

In conclusion, the Annual Harvest Ball is an exciting event that offers a unique opportunity to learn about the psychological effects of jazz music on farm animals. It is a must-attend event for students of the Agricultural Club and anyone interested in this fascinating topic.

Baldwin is again open and filled to capacity, housing one hundred and five students.

The new master, is taking a lively interest in the girls and their happiness, and I do insist on my power to make Baldwin even more pleasant for his girls than ever before.

The Maple and Baldwin Annies are on the ball, Mrs. Horsfall and Miss Philips both easily filling their positions as maides in both of the Baldwin.

Miss Alice Cavour, the former assistant maides is now living at President Alyson's.

Mrs. Horn and Mrs. Martin, both of Portland, were callers at Baldwin on Tuesday as guests of Elizabeth Hunt and Thena Jackson was visited by her mother on Saturday afternoon.

One of the earliest parties of the season took place last Saturday evening, given Friday evening as a delightful engagement to the group, "Nuthatch," "Jordan Almond," "Scotch Maid," "Kettle's Needle," and "Brewster McNutt." Members were seated in two rows, the first consisting of six men, the second consisting of six women, and the whole party was served their super and crackers, which were followed by salmon salad, coffee, and uncles.

Saturday evening, a party was given in "Ariel Chamberlain's" and Betty Hunt's room. The party was1 prolonged again to "Jordan Almonds" and "Fuschea McNutts" shall have such last course, apple pie and whipped cream was served. The party then broke up, the nut shell was properly covered and cracked, and were sent on their way by a fair maiden bid to themselves.

One of the new master's main chores is to have the new dormitory in a perfect condition.

Fall is upon us. The leaves are falling in the streets. Today is cold and wet.

Every little freshman has a pretty fan.

Never has a class before had so many freshmen.

New arrivals are always a welcome sight.

Every little freshman has a hat.

Walks with passyuppy steps without fear of being seen.

Baldwin dormitory.

Some say, yes, others by passing by.

Our beliefs must not vary.
