Maine Wins Over Bates In Close Baseball Game

First Game of State Series at Lewiston is Loosely Played. Maine Batters Easily Find Bates Pitchers

Maine defeated Bates in a very loose played game in the opening match for the championship of the State at Lewiston on Saturday. The final score was 10-7 but the result was in doubt until the last Bates man was put out. The game was filled with errors on both sides and Coach Smith of the Bates team sent in 15 men against the Maine team but could not succeed to secure the big end of the score. Four pitchers were included in the list and Spratt was the only one that Maine could not connect with.

Bates started scoring in the first inning on a two base hit by Langley. She did not secure another run till the third inning on an error by Sargent and Wiggins hit. They added another run in the fourth inning on Jordan's hit which got through Young.

Maine secured her first counter in the second on a triple mark by A. Johnson and Kennelly's error. Here Spiller was removed from the box and Ansie took his place only to remain for two innings. During his two innings Maine secured four runs on four hits, a sacrifice and three errors. E. Johnson then took the mound and he was found for four runs on three hits, two of which were triples and two errors by Bates team. Spratt pitched the remaining part of the game for Bates and Maine scored the last run in the seventh on two errors by Wiggins. The catch made by Wood of Maine was the big feature of the game.

A. X. S. Hold Initiations At Camp Near Newport

Saturday, April 23. Xi Chapter of A. X. E., Honorary Chemical Fraternity held their spring initiation at the camp of Brother H. C. White on Lake Sebasticook, Newport.

The following initiates arrived in Newport on the afternoon train: Stacy Bragdon, Leonard Lord, Danny Daniels, Hutch Hutchins, Ack Ackley and Stut Lincken. They were met at the station and led up Main St. where several preliminary stunts were pulled off to the amusement of the natives. Stut Lincken's exceptional talent as a band leader was disclosed, and Hutch as a soloist caused many a breast to heave with emotion. Ack Ackley made a valiant attempt to win the affection of one of Newport's belles, but was turned down cold. Danny Daniels was more successful, making such a hit that he is strongly suspected of having the young lady dated up for some future occasion. After the supply of eligible young ladies was exhausted, the party proceeded to Brother White's camp where the initiation was concluded.

About eight o'clock all sat down to a feed of steak, mashed potatoes, green peas, pie and coffee, prepared by Brother Pearsall, with an able corps of assistants. Brother Pearsall bears out the reputation of southern gentlemen as cooks. After the supper excellent poetry was read by each of the initiates.

The last of the party returned to the campus Sunday afternoon, all reporting a good time.

Those present besides the initiates were: Brothers White, Pearsall and Waldbauer of the faculty; Brother Lew Barrows of Newport; Brothers Steve Beeaker, Jim Pennell, Ken Vaughan, Art Lowell, Allen Varney, Skip Perro, Joe Robinson, Homer Ray, Andie Anderson, Paul DeCurcy, Herbie Brawn and Mose Hescok of the student body.

The first event was the 100-yard dash. In the finals, Plummer won first place. Butler second and Reiche third. Time 10 4-5 sec.

The final result of the 220-yard dash gave Spinney first place, Shea coming in second and Buck third. Time 26 3-5 sec.

Donovan won the final of the 440-yard race, Jordan was second and Watson third. Time 59 2-5 sec.

Jordan put the shot 32 ft. 6 1/2 in, winning this event. Second and third places were awarded to Meimeche and Conant.

In the high jump D. M. Patchel cleared the bar at 4 ft. 10 in taking first place, Spinney was second and J. M. Donovan third.

The standing broad jump was won by Small who jumped 10 ft. Sweat took second place and Trask third.

Mt. Vernon Girls Give Annual Dinner Dance

Mrs. Estabrook and the girls at Mt. Vernon were hostesses Saturday at the annual May dinner dance. Twenty-eight couples attended and made it one of the most attractive events held on the campus this year. The afternoon was spent in dancing by Victrola music. Dinner was served at 6.30, the tables being attractively decorated with yellow roses. Music was furnished by Parry Boyd and Percy Bissell for dancing until a late hour.

The house was a bower of evergreen, palms and jonquils, with the color scheme of yellow and green throughout. Much of the credit for the success of the party is due to the various committee heads and their assistants. The chairman for decorations was Lois Mantor; refreshments, Marie Hodgdon; music, Sarah Wiswell.

The University of Maine R. O. T. C. camp which will be held at Newport from May 5 to 8 inclusive has been named "Camp Andrews" in honor of Harold T. Andrews. Mr. Andrews who was in the class of 1918, was killed in action at Cambrai, France in 1918.

Military Hop Refreshing Change as Social Event

One of the Most Successful Social Events Held in the Gym this Year. Hall Divided into Attractive Booths

The Military Hop of last Friday night was by far the most successful social event held in the gymnasium this year according to reports from the large number who attended. The affair was a refreshing change from the usual dances and although a formal time it had no suggestion of stiffness or restraint.

The gym was pleasingly divided into booths for the occasion in addition to the company booths, the faculty, Veterans of Foreign Wars, Headquarters and Scabbard and Blade all had booths. Prizes for the best booths were awarded as follows:

First: Company G; Second: Company A; Third: Company B.

Before the dancing a program given by the different companies furnished great entertainment. The awkward squad in particular made a decided hit. The five numbers that completed the drill were:

1. Selection by Band.
2. Bayonet Fencing.
3. Awkward Squad.
4. Demonstrations in Art of Self Defence.
5. Butt's Manual.

Cobby O'Brien's orchestra furnished peppy music for the order of twenty-four dances. Refreshments were served at intermission. The commanding officers and sponsors presided at their respective booths. They were as follows:

Regt. Hq., Cadet Lieut. Col. Sullivan, Miss Ethel Packard; 1st Battalion, Cadet Major Whitehouse, Miss Florence Salley; 2nd Battalion, Cadet Major Nickerson, Miss Dorothy Hart; Co. The men who go will take the electric here at the University on Thursday morning, and go to Bangor where they will change to the automobile trucks that will take them the remaining thirty miles to Newport.

The camp will be in the charge of Lieutenant Nichols, assistant professor of military science and tactics at the University, because of the illness of Major James. Lieut. Col. Sullivan will be second in command. Whitehouse will act as Police and Sanitary Officer and as major of the 2nd battalion. Nickerson will be major of the 1st battalion and Norcross will be camp adjutant.

There are about 250 men going who will be assigned to four companies consisting of five squads each.

A dance will be held at the pavilion on Saturday night which should prove to be surely a wonderful time. Camp will be abandoned on Sunday morning and the men will return to college in the same manner which they go and will check off all equipment at the military office.

Maine's Tennis Team Playing State Series

One minor sport that one does not hear much about on the University of Maine campus is tennis. There is a small group of tennis players working out every afternoon at 4 o'clock on the Beta House tennis court under Captain Trafton for places on the tennis team which is to represent the University at the State Intercollegiate games at Lewiston May 16 and 17. On May 25, Boston University plays Maine here.

Captain Trafton would like to see a few more candidates out for places on the team. There is also a call for a Manager and an Assistant Manager. Anybody desiring to work out for these places see Captain Trafton at the Beta House any afternoon at 4 o'clock.

There are three more matches to be played off from the fall tournament. The winner captures the cup that is offered for the best single tennis player in college. Littlefield thus far is the only man who has not been defeated. S. L. Bragdon is to play Durham. Libby versus C. A. Walker and Torsleff play L. P. Barton. The winner of these matches plays for the cup.

Maine Men Appear Well At The Penn. Relay Meet

Capt. Pratt Leads Maine Team in Good Fight Against Best Athletes Country Can Produce

The University of Maine relay men led by Capt. Hep Pratt succeeded in putting up a good fight in competition with the best colleges of the United States and the University of Paris, France at the annual Pennsylvania Relay Race Carnival winning 4th place in the American College Relay and 7th place in the American College Championship Sprint Medley Relay.

On Friday afternoon in a heavy drizzle the medley sprint relay race was run off. 18 men started among whom were some of the famous Olympic runners. Bub Herrick who ran the 880 in the medley was pitted against Earl Eby the famous U. of Pennsylvania flier. Ned Lawrence in a fast field in the quarter finished 5 yards behind the leader, the time from when he started until he passed the baton was 49 4-5 seconds. This distance is about 5 yards less than a quarter mile, and was remarkably fast time, for a full quarter mile he would have done it in 50 and a fraction. Capt. Hep Pratt passed one man and gained on the field, finishing next to French runner. Bob Cohen lost slightly in his relay and handed the baton to Bub Herrick in 5th place. Maine was beaten out for 6th place by the University of Chicago by a yard. The winners of the medley sprint relay won by Pennsylvania University (Maxim, Gill, McFadden, Eby). Lafayette second, Princeton third, France fourth. Time 3.31 4-5. Maine finished seventh.

Intra-Mural Twilight League in Full Swing

The games of the Intra-mural Twilight League began recently and the series is now in full swing. Twelve games have been played within the last week and great interest is being shown by the students in the games while the baseball and relay teams are on their respective trips.

The games which consist of five innings each, have been very interesting and closely contested in many instances. In the North League Sigma Nu beat Lambda Delta by a score of 5-4, in the first game of the series. Theta Chi has won two games, one over Beta Theta Pi 9-7 and the other over Lambda Delta 10-1, while the Commons Council defeated Lambda Delta 4-3.

In the Central League but three games have been played thus far. Two of the games were won by Sigma Alpha Epsilon, who won from Phi Gamma Delta 4-1 and from Kappa Sigma 5-2. The third game was played between Phi Eta Kappa and Kappa Sigma and was won by the former by a score of 6-2.

The South League has succeeded in completing five of its scheduled games. Sigma Chi won a 6-4 victory over Lambda Chi Alpha and forced Phi Epsilon Pi to defeat by the score of 9-6. Phi Kappa Sigma lost to Lambda Chi Alpha 15-1, and dropped a game to Alpha Tau Omega 6-5, but succeeded in defeating Phi Epsilon Pi 13-0.

Editorial

It is nearly the end of the year. From now on you will want to spend all your extra time out-of-doors. There will be the baseball games to attend and numerous other things to which you will want to go. But before you begin to let down in your studying you should get entirely caught up in your work. For most of you a couple of days extra work will put you up where you belong. For some it will probably take longer and for still others less. But whatever it is or how big or little it is don't let it hang over. Do it now and get it off your hands. You will feel enough better for it and the next four weeks of college will be twice as pleasant.

Knowing Meservie as we do, we surely believe it is the latter.

Deer Ma an' Pa:

I ain't written home in a long time, but I been so busy I ain't had a minnit. I got your cake, Ma, and it was swell. The fellers ate it up in about three minnits. They said you was the best cake maker they ever saw, I mean heard of because, of course, they never saw you. I gut some awfully good news to tell this time. In fact it's the reason why I haven't written before. I been elected an officer in my class. We had a kind of meetin one day last week—not a class meetin but a lot of fellers from different classes was congregated together an' someone says: "What's Risin' Day?" You can guess pretty well that it was me who says that. Well, we was talkin' about freshmen an', I bein' one of that class, wanted to show I was interested. Besides I really didn't know just what this Risin' Day is. Of course you folks don't know all about it but I'll tell you soon as I finish my story. Well, anyway, one of the older fellers, a big athlete with a square jaw, says lookin' at me, "Don't you know what's Risin' Day?"

I told him I didn't and someone appointed me a committee of one to find out what's Risin' Day. Bein' made a committee of one is a class honor because most of the committees are a crowd. I was tickled, but it's been a terrible job. I've been lookin' into this matter all I was able, but there's a mystery about it somewhere. Every freshman I see I ask him what's Risin' Day, an' every one of 'em laughs and says, "Just wait till it comes." I been asking upper class folks too and they says, "Risin' Days is a thing of the past." It don't matter who I ask I ain't been satisfied yet but I'm a committee of one an' I'm goin' to do my dooty so if you don't heer from me for a while I'll be lookin' into this mystery. Coarse you know Risin' Day don't mean wash day or anything like that an' it don't refer to settin' bread, but it's got a big secret meanin' that no one is willin' to let out, but what I starts to do I does, as you folks no, so I'll stick to my job an' I'll write soon as I find out what's Risin' Day.

Your lovin sun,
Zeke

NEWS OF AGRICULTURAL DEPARTMENT

Harry E. Bickford, the newly appointed assistant county agent in Aroostook, was at the College of Agriculture two days this week, in conference with Director Merrill and the state field workers. His headquarters, and that of John H. Philbrick, the county agent, will be at Presque Isle, Mr. Philbrick covering the southerly half and Bickford the northerly half of the county. Aroostook is the only county in Maine having two agricultural agents its immense size necessitating a division of the extension work.

Dr. L. Sherman Cleaves, sheep specialist, has been granted leave of absence for the summer. He will spend a month on his farm in Washington county and will be at Bar Harbor in July and August, following his profession as a veterinary surgeon.

Arrangements are being made for a semi-annual conference of all the state and county workers in the extension service to be held in Winslow Hall four days in July, probably in the middle or latter part of the month.

County Agent Richard B. Dodge of Penobscot, who has had headquarters on the campus, is now located in Bangor, the county commissioners having assigned an office in the basement of the county court house for his use in the extension service and as field executive of the Farm Bureau.

Prof. H. P. Sweetser of the department of horticulture recently gave out an interview in which he advised Maine orchardists to give their trees the best of attention this year, in order that they may be able to take advantage of the great demand for first quality fruit next fall, sure to result because of the short crop in the South and Middle West due to the severe freeze in March. Since the publication of the interview Prof. Sweetser has received a letter from C. F. Close, pomologist of the United States Department of Agriculture, confirming the reports of damage to orchards. "The conditions," he wrote "are pitiable in many states from the Rocky Mountains to the Atlantic. It is almost an entire clean-up on tree fruits for scores of miles in every direction from Washington."

L. H. Shibles and Miss Alfreda Ellis, state leaders of boys' and girls' club work, are holding in the various counties conferences of county and local leaders. The enrollment in the various clubs in Maine is in excess of the record up to the corresponding date last year. Cumberland county has been holding the lead in enrollment, with Somerset in second place and Kennebec third.

Tau Beta Phi Holds an Initiation and Smoker

On Thursday, April 21, the following technology students were initiated by Tau Beta Phi, the honorary engineering fraternity: F. K. Chapman, P. W. Ham, L. S. Hatch, H. L. Jackson, R. W. Laughlin, F. G. Patterson, H. F. Ray, I. M. Rusk, P. R. Shean, A. E. Stover and M. M. Weisman.

The society confers the rites of initiation twice yearly; once in the fall and again in the spring. All of the initiates are juniors or seniors with the single exception that in the spring the sophomore who has attained the highest rank in his class in engineering is eligible for membership. After the ceremonies, refreshments were served and the new members were given an opportunity to become better acquainted with the older ones. Professor Weston read humorous poetry and Mr. Creamer of the Electrical Department presented a few of his original comic selections.

A week later on April 28, an initiation smoker was given by the fraternity in Wingate Hall. Many representatives from the other honorary societies on the campus were present. It is hoped that thru get-together times such as this, the men of the various honorary fraternities will come to know one another better and help make their organizations mean something more than "joiners'" societies.

Even the biggest fish began life on a small scale.

It was on the Athletic field.
Coach: "What are you out for?"
Meservie: "Me? Why, for about ten minutes, I guess."

The Balentine house president with a demerit (Demeritt)?
The crowds at chapel?
Julia Gilpatrick's short skirts?
The girls in quarantine?
Our record at the Penn meet?
The sunburns?
The unpopularity of the movies?
Betty Hunt's rosy complexion?
The stream running to Chemo?

That the Mt. Vernon baseball teams are shaping up for the season?
That green, green grass?
The popularity of the Fernald Hall reviewing stand in hot weather?
That white flannels do look spiffy?

The unsuspected track material that came to light in the P. T. meet?
That the number of co-ed chasers is daily increasing?

The fine condition of the Mt. Vernon tennis court?
That spring visitors are really beginning to appear on the campus?

The zest of danger in following the sidewalk to Estabrook Hall?

That it is not impossible to have a two o'clock dance on the campus after all?

The large number of ferocious May flowers that have been captured by our intrepid heart-hunters?

That the sophomore civils may be observed playing winkum on our highways of an afternoon?

That moonlight evenings may come and go, but studies go on forever?

"She is pigeontoed."
"So that's why her fellow calls her dovelike!"

"Her mind is never made up."
"No?"
"But the rest of her is."

Prof: "What shape is the earth?"
Stude: "Round."
Prof: "How do you know?"
Stude: "All right, then it's square. Don't let's argue, for heaven's sake."

SYMPATHY
Molly: "Everett said he couldn't live without me."
Polly: "He probably couldn't—he hasn't got a cent of his own."

Teacher: "Every day we breathe oxygen. Willie, what do we breathe at night?"
Willie: "Nitrogen."

Little Willie, ruffer-nell,
Shoved his sister down a well;
And his mother, drawing water,
Said, "It's hard to raise a daughter."

God made moonshine, but He never put it in bottles.

One day I asked Marie to tell
Why hair of dogs and cats
And pompadours stood up so well.
She simply answered, "Rats!"

Soph: "Get that Freshman's name and we can tell his mother."
Freshman: "But my mother knows my name."

What Makes the Firefly Glow?

YOU can hold a firefly in your hand; you can boil water with an electric lamp. Nature long ago evolved the "cold light." The firefly, according to Ives and Coblenz, radiates ninety-six percent light and only four percent heat. Man's best lamp radiates more than ninety percent heat.

An English physicist once said that if we knew the fire-fly's secret, a boy turning a crank could light up a whole street. Great as is the advance in lighting that has been made through research within the last twenty years, man wastes far too much energy in obtaining light.

This problem of the "cold light" cannot be solved merely by trying to improve existing power-generating machinery and existing lamps. We should still be burning candles if chemists and physicists had confined their researches to the improvement of materials and methods for making candles.

For these reasons, the Research Laboratories of the General Electric Company are not limited in the scope of their investigations. Research consists in framing questions of the right kind and in finding the answers, no matter where they may lead.

What makes the firefly glow? How does a firefly's light differ in color from that of an electric arc, and why? The answers to such questions may or may not be of practical value, but of this we may be sure—it is by dovetailing the results of "theoretical" investigations along many widely separated lines that we arrive at most of our modern "practical" discoveries.

What will be the light of the future? Will it be like that of the firefly or like that of the dial on a luminous watch?
 Will it be produced in a lamp at present undreamed of, or will it come from something resembling our present incandescent lamp? The answers to these questions will depend much more upon the results of research in pure science than upon strictly commercial research.

Saturday afternoon on a muddy track in the one mile relay event Maine finished fourth, 15 year to the rear of the winning team from Cornell (Iowa). Colgate was a close second, Wabash was third. Time 3 m. 26 4-5 sec. Maine led Holy Cross all the way and finished well ahead of the University of the South, U. of West Virginia and Nebraska.

Dick Hagerty started and led around the first curve, and when he passed the baton to Cohen Maine was in fourth place. Cohen did not gain, Lawrence held his own and when Capt. Pratt received the stick Maine was still in fourth place. Hep made two unsuccessful attempts to get into third place, but continued to run abreast of the Wabash anchor man, on the home stretch he tried to pass him again but in vain. On the last ten yards the Wabash man pulled away, winning by a yard.

Maine's time for this event was 3 m. 27 sec.

Colby was the only Maine college to win a relay event winning over Bucknell in the time of 3 m. 33 2-5 seconds, a much slower time than Maine's. Bowdoin came in fourth against Howard University, Kentselaer Polytech and Carnegie Tech. Ray Baker of Bates College won the Championship two mile run in one of the prettiest races ever seen at the Penn classic, beating out Gordon Nightingale of U. of W. Virginia and Furnas of Purdue by overcoming a 20 yard lead with a remarkable show of endurance and speed at the finish. Robert Legendre of Lewiston wearing the colors of Georgetown University won the Pentathlon over Hamilton of U. of Missouri by winning four of the five events and coming sixth in the javelin. A new world's record for the 440 yard hurdles was made by Desch of Notre Dame, time 53.4-5 s. An international air was given the meet by the University of Paris team which finished fourth in the sprint medley race.

Results:
 American college championship sprint medley relay race won by U. of Penn., 2nd Lafayette, 3rd Princeton, 4th France. Time 3:31 4-5 sec.
