JOWETT STARS IN BOX AND BATES LOSES 7-5

Again the Maine Team Walloped the Ball, Slamming "Peanut" Hamilton for 13 Hits and 7 Runs; Bates Played an Error-runs Game

Maine won its first game of the State Series from Bates College 7-5 at Alumni Field May 11. Hamilton, the Bates southpaw was knocked from the box and was replaced by Martin, who, when he took his place found the bases full, three runs already across and none out.

Undaunted by the hole he was in, Martin settled down and pitched over nine balls for 3 strike-outs. This was the best stunt of the 1923 State series.

Jack Jowett, the Maine ace, pitched a wonderful game, getting 11 strikeouts and allowing but 6 hits. He also featured in the latter half of the second inning, driving in three runs by a circuit clout to left field.

Capt. Prescott, Dunham and Osgood hit well for Maine, while Cogan got two safeties for Bates.

Domino Club Presents Two Comedies in Alumni

The Domino Club staged two successful plays in Alumni Hall Friday, May 11.

The first play of the evening was Joint Owners in Spain by Alice Brown.

The story portrays the lives of inmates at a Old Lady's Home. The scene opened with pathos made extremely human by the fine acting of Lynette Walker who took the part of Mrs. Fullerton, an invalid in the Home. As the play advanced the comedy became most humorous, when Mrs. Blair acted by Rose Adams, a high spirited and overbearing character solved the problem of a roommate by dividing the room with a chalk line. Mary Friend took the part of Mrs. Mitchell, the matron of the Home and fitted the part in a manner most pleasing.

The other drama was one of the most popular of modern one-act comedies, "The Neighbors," by Zona Gale.

The plot is very true to life and all the cast did justice to their parts.

The play centers around Miss Ellsworth a poor working lady who has received word that her young nephew is coming to live with her. All the neighbors hearing the news prepare to help her by collecting old clothes and money.

The play is made most amusing by Peter, a bashful suitor of Inez, who never can make a conversation when his sweetheart is with him.

Small Crowd Turns Out For State Meet Rally

Thursday night on the eve of the Bates baseball game with the State track meet but a day off, an enthusiastic group of students met in the chapel for a rally. The University band, with the leader protom, "Stut" Linckin, started things off with a bang. Although the crowd was small, they made up in spirit and voice for those who were absent, and one of the liveliest, noisiest, and most spirited rallies of the year took place.

The first speaker was Dr. Little. He said that he was up there to celebrate his first birthday as President of the University. He stated that he believed that the baseball team was through with their

R. O. T. C. Officers Give Banquet to Maj. James

Major Luther R. James, head of the military department, was given a farewell banquet, Sat., May 12, by the officers and non-commissioned officers of the R. O. T. C. staff. Major James is soon to sever his connections with the University, and in appreciation of his services here, he was tendered a solid silver meat platter.

Major James was born in South Carolina, March 30, 1879, entered the regular army at the age of 22, and was appointed a second lieutenant two years later. He received his present grade in 1920. He has been at the University of Maine from September, 1919, to June, 1923, serving as Professor of Military Science and Tactics. During his stay he has been respected by every member of the R. O. T. C.

The banquet in his honor was held at the Chamber of Commerce Building, Bangor. Following the dinner, Toastmaster Doten introduced the following speakers: Charles L. Beckett, Angela B. Fossett, and Bently S. Hutchins. The gift was presented by Leland S. March. Major James made a fitting response. The Stein Song was sung, after which the time was spent in securing autographs, especially those of the Major and his wife.

Noyes Is President of The Agricultural Club

At the regular meeting of the Agricultural Club, Wednesday, May 9, the officers for the ensuing year were elected. The officers are: C. E. Noyes, President; D. A. Pillsbury, Vice President; W. F. Harmon, Secretary; F. E. Hussey, Treasurer; W. H. Elliott, Publicity Agent. The executive committee is W. E. Strong, R. S. Pike, D. W. Thornton, R. E. Ryder, and F. G. Buzzell.

Following the election of officers, an informal discussion of next year's activities took place. A call was issued for candidates for the stock judging team but the matter was deferred until the next meeting.

Mr. Hitchener, speaker of the evening, gave a very interesting lecture. His subject was, "The Relation of Bacteriologists to Agriculture." At the close of the speech light refreshments were served.

Freshman Girls Defeat Sophs in Baseball Game

The girls' freshman baseball team defeated the sophomore team 17-10, Wednesday afternoon, May 9, in a hard fought contest. The game was played in the gymnasium because of the rainy weather.

The sophomores started off with a bang, scoring four points to the freshmen's one in the first inning. Loomis, Fisher, Winslow and Ringdow bringing in the runs.

In the second inning, however, the freshmen, headed by Emery and Johnson, reversed the tables and tied the score 5-5.

Winslow and Hunt, the two pitchers, did some neat work the third inning, only four from each team coming up to bat and those either struck out or were put out on first.

In the fourth and fifth innings the freshmen hit the ball hard, scoring twelve points to the sophomores' five, thus ending the game 17-10.

The batteries and fielders of the two teams were about evenly matched, but the freshmen, being better at the bat, won the contest.

The line-up of the teams was as follows:

Girl Athletes Will Get Their Letters June 2

A banquet is to be held on Saturday evening, June second, at Balentine Hall, for all women undergraduates of the University of Maine. It is under the direction of the Women's Department of the University of Maine Athletic Association. It is hoped that the A. A. Banquet for girls, will become an annual custom and tradition at the U. of M.

This year has been one of splendid progress in women's athletics. The new Student Athletic Board, of which the girls' physical director is also a member, has done admirable work. Among its achievements and innovations are the drawing up of a new A. A. constitution and a point system for awards of numerals and letters. The Penny Carnival, baseball for girls, and the coming A. A. Banquet. A small book, including the girls' athletic constitution, the point system of awards, and the songs which the girls sing, is at present being compiled. It is planned to have these books ready for the banquet.

There are many features on the program scheduled for June second. The most important of these is the awarding of numerals and letters won during the year. Then there are humorous speeches, songs, cheers, and surprises which prophesy a jolly evening for all.

Tickets for the dinner are now on sale and may be obtained from "Cracker" Ring or other board members.

"Honor the Dead by Helping the Living"

President Harding has endorsed the Veterans of Foreign Wars Campaign to have every man, woman and child in America wear a Flanders poppy on Memorial Day. The local post at the University of Maine is to hold a three day campaign, May 27, 28, and 29 for the selling of Flanders Poppies.

The object of the drive is to derive much needed funds through the sale of poppies with which to carry on the relief work of the V. F. W. Their slogan is "Honor the Dead by Helping the Living," and the post here hopes to see every student wearing one of the war memento flowers on May 30th.

President Harding wrote to Col. Tillinghast L. Huston, Commander-in-Chief of the V. F. W., as follows:

My dear Colonel Huston:
I am glad to express my accord with the plan which the Veterans of Foreign Wars have put forth to have the people generally wear a poppy on Memorial Day, as a testimonial of continuing interest and sympathy in the great cause of which that flower has in a way become emblematic. I hope the proposal will be generally accepted this year, for it is certainly an appealing testimony of the Nation's continuing sense of its concern for the men who served it during the World War.

Most sincerely yours,
(Signed) Warren G. Harding

Freshmen vs. Sophs in Chapel Debate, May 23

The Freshman-Sophomore debate will be held in the Chapel Wednesday evening, May 23rd. This is the first contest of this nature to be attempted in recent years.

The admission will be free to all. Three of the faculty members of the Debating Council will serve as judges.

This is practically the only intellectual combat between the Freshmen and Sophomores. They have battled for supremacy in many other ways. Wednesday evening will test their mental alertness and skill in handling their mother tongue. Another reason for supporting this debate is that it is only by training speakers in the first years of their college life that sufficient material for the varsity teams may be assumed.

The Freshmen will uphold the affirmative of the proposition: "Resolved, That France was right in invading the Ruhr."

MAINE TRACK MEN SECOND IN STATE

Bowdoin Excels in Second and Third Places, but Maine Secures Her Share of Firsts. Rain Prevents Superior Work

DOPE UPSET IN SEVERAL CASES

Bowdoin College won the State Meet on Alumni Field last Saturday, May 12, by a good margin, taking more points than all the other colleges put together. The first places were fairly well divided among the teams, but many seconds and thirds placed Bowdoin far ahead.

Amid drizzling rain which fell all day, the events were run off. The track was wet and soggy. Perhaps it was a little worse for the jumpers, as the take-offs were very soft. The final score of the meet was: Bowdoin 63, Maine 37, Bates 23, and Colby 3.

Maine Loses to N. H. University Nine 12-6

The University of New Hampshire won from the Maine nine 12 to 6 at Durham, N. H. May 8. Thompson and Cooney, the Maine twirlers, were hard hit for seventeen safeties, while Garvin, the New Hampshire southpaw, kept Maine's 10 hits well scattered until the final inning when the blue and blue rallied and scored four runs.

Lunge topped the batting list, getting three safe drives, while Lufkin, Gustafson and Fernald got two hits each for New Hampshire.

Rev. T. E. Fairchild Gives Religious Address May 7

At Chapel on Monday, May 7th, Rev. T. E. Fairchild of Orono gave an interesting talk on the subject of religion and its place in the life of the individual.

"Religion," he said, "is not just for church and chapel, but for everyday life. It can be defined as a legitimate expression of human life, and it will last as long as life itself."

"We must bear in mind, however, that religion has not always had the same mode of expression, nor does it have one mode at present. It changes like everything else. The religious expression of our primitive ancestors was very crude, but was in keeping with their government and family life. The beginnings in any line seem rough and unfinished to us now, for we are always advancing and changing our ideas. The first train which ran on the Baltimore and Ohio Railroad consisted of an engine and three cars, and was considered a marvelous invention. Today, as the result of years of improvement, we have a locomotive larger than the first engine and three cars combined."

"We are always striving for something better, not only in material things, but also in spiritual things. Our ancestors worshipped idols, not for the wood or

"Bucky" Thomas and Cahill were the outstanding high point winners for Maine in the track events, taking respectively the second and third places in the 100 yard dash and first and third in the 220 yard dash.

For Bowdoin, Hardy was not only a high point winner but the individual star of the day, winning both the high and low hurdles. Other first place men were Mason in the 440 yard dash and Butler in the 100 yard dash.

Bates showed up well in the long runs, getting first places thru the efforts of Sargent in the one mile, Corey in the 880, and McGinley in the two mile.

Although the Colby tracksters put up a game fight, Payne and Foran were the only men successful in the finals, getting a third in the 440 and two mile respectively.

In the afternoon trials for the 100 yard dash, Landers of Bates who was counted on as a sure point winner was eliminated by the fast sprinting of Tim Lawry. Cahill was a close second to Butler of Bowdoin in the second heat. Holt of Bates set the pace for the one mile event, keeping the lead until the beginning of the third lap when Foster of Bowdoin forged ahead only to lose his position during the last lap to Sargent of Bates who won the event in a fast finish with a timing of only 4.37 flat, which considering the condition of the track was remarkable.

The 440 was full of thrills with Ned Lawrence, Archibald of Bates, Mason of Bowdoin, and Foran of Colby, running a close race the entire distance, finishing with each contestant only a tenth of a second behind the man ahead of him. Although Archibald appeared to lead at the finish, the judges gave first place to Mason whose time was 53 1-5 seconds.

In the 100 yard dash owing to the failure of Landers to place, the only contestant against Thomas, Cahill, and Lawry was Butler of Bowdoin. This proved to be a fast and close event and although Thomas broke the tape ahead of Butler the judges decided in favor of Butler who finished in 10 2-5 seconds. Cahill had the edge on Tim Lawry for third.

Hardy of Bowdoin, the individual star of the day, did a remarkable feat in the 120 yard hurdles when in spite of the soggy condition of the track he topped the high fences in 16 4-5 seconds, finishing with a good lead. "Gus" Fenderson came thru with a pretty second also with good time.

The 880 yard run proved a surprise when Corey of Bates who had hardly been thought of as a winner pounded out a first place in 2 min. 9 sec. The plugging Corey was closely followed by Webster of Bowdoin, and Ed Kneeland who just barely missed second place.

In the 220 yard dash, Bucky Thomas showed his superiority by finishing with a big lead in 22 3-5 seconds. Behind him Butler of Bowdoin and Cahill of Maine ran a close race, Butler finishing with a slight advantage.

As expected, McGinley of Bates finished first in the two mile, he ran a won-

On to the New Englands

With the New England Track Meet at Cambridge scheduled for next Saturday, we should not allow our enthusiasm to become dampened by last week's defeat. Time and time again have Maine teams, defeated in State Meets, gone down to Boston and won, in spite of the predictions to the contrary of so-called "Sport Mentors." Surely the fighting spirit of Maine was no stronger then than now, so why should we not expect this year's team to repeat this performance?

So let us give our track men to understand that we expect much of them, and when they leave let us send them off with such an ovation that their determination to win will be strengthened by the knowledge of our loyal support.

In Spite of the Rain

The Maine supporters deserve a great deal of praise for the encouragement they gave our athletes at the track meet last Saturday. Altho at all times the rain and cold was exceedingly disagreeable, it seemed that the spirits of the Maine supporters could not be dampened or their ardor cooled, for their cheers were always forthcoming when needed. Under the leadership of cheerleader Stackpole, many hundred sets of lungs were put to good use, with the result that Maine placed second instead of in the third place allotted her by the "Dopesters."

Are you afraid the Maine traditions are losing their value? Then do your part by singing out the Maine "Hello!"

Major Luther R. James

In the person of Major Luther R. James the University will lose a valuable member of the faculty at the close of the college year. It is with deep regret that the students and Faculty learn that Major James, by a ruling of the War Department, is to be transferred to other duties.

During the four years that he has been here Major James has made a name for himself for his hard work and square dealings. Under him the R. O. T. C. has been modeled into an excellent military unit. Many new ideas have been instituted, among which are the Spring Military Camp, the R. O. T. C. Circus, the Faculty Demonstration and the Military Hop. In all of these activities Major James has been the guiding hand. In his dealings with the members of the R. O. T. C. Major James has always won the respect and admiration of all for his squareness and ability.

The Campus wishes to extend to Major James its appreciation of the many things he has done for the University, and hopes that he may attain the greatest success in his future duties.

Wear a Poppy

Memorial Day this year is fraught with deeper meaning than ever before. On that date forty-four states, through the celebration of Poppy Day, will unite every part of our country—North, South, East and West, in unanimous joint tribute to those who fell in the World War.

Memorial Day in its origin was the day set apart to do homage to the dead of the North in the struggles of the sixties. But as time has effaced the thought of sectional differences, it has come to be the day on which we, as a nation, honor the memory of all our soldier-dead.

Five years ago we saw in a united country banded inalienably in the cause of right, the gift of the men who fought on the side of the North and the men who fought on the side of the South. This year in Poppy Day we have throughout the Nation the tangible manifestation of that gift in the poppy as the memorial flower of those who fought side by side for the ideals and principles for which we, the United States, stand.

That is the national significance of the Poppy. But it has still a deeper significance. It is the international memorial symbol. In all the countries which constituted the allied and associated powers in the World War, the peoples of these countries, through the wearing of the poppy on a day in keeping with their own national traditions, will do homage to the memory of those who fell in the great conflict.

The poppy symbolizes the gold stars on the service flags of our country. It also symbolizes the blue stars of those thousands on thousands who willing to give their lives, gave more, perhaps, in their shattered health and impaired future. In each country the Poppy Day movement is conducted by a leading organization of ex-service men for the benefit of their disabled comrades.

The Veterans of Foreign Wars of the United States is sponsoring Poppy Day in the United States. The poppies used in the official observance of the day are themselves significant—the work of our own disabled soldiers or shipped direct from France, the work of the women of the devastated areas.

The Poppy Day campaign on the Campus will be under the auspices of the Girls' Rifle Club. The proceeds from the sales will be devoted to the work of the Charles A. Rice Post of the Veterans of Foreign Wars.

Wear a poppy. Let it be our tribute on this day not only to the memory of the Nation's dead, but also to our own forty-two Maine men who sacrificed their all in the Great War.

A Correction

Because of the faithful and diligent work of Catherine Clark, who was chairman of the decorating committee at the Balentine Hall Dance, it is right to correct the statement in the last Campus. Although Sarah Fisher gave her time and deserves credit, Miss Clark and her committee of Constance Turner and Rachel Maling should be complimented on the beautiful decorations of hand-made flowers, May-baskets, and ever-green.

Campus Board Members Tie on Ye Feed Bagge

Members of the Campus editorial board assembled in the Tarratine Hall, Old Town, Tuesday evening for their annual banquet, and after doing justice to a five course dinner, listened to interesting and instructive speeches by President Little, A. L. T. Cummings, James A. Gannett, Dr. Harold M. Ellis and Edward C. Cutting, the new editor-in-chief. Bryant M. Patten, retiring editor-in-chief, was the toastmaster.

The surprise of the evening was the announcement by Dr. Little that freshmen next year will be obliged to come to the University on Sept. 11, a week before registration of upper classmen begins. The purpose of this, he explained, is to acquaint new students with the routine of the University, and to give them an opportunity to decide definitely what course of study they intend to pursue before registering. Fraternities will be asked not to rush men during this week.

Dr. Little complimented the board on the work done during the past year and spoke generally of the responsibility of the editors to the student body, mentioning some fields in which real service can be rendered the institution. He suggested that students next year take over the minstrel show entirely, and that all jokes used be the product of undergraduates rather than outside coaches.

Mr. Cummings, who was the first speaker on the program, spoke in general of newspaper work, and of the opportunities afforded students by an undergraduate publication such as The Campus. He read several humorous and serious transcripts from the daily press.

Mr. Gannett spoke on "Editorial Sportsmanship," urging the editors to adopt broader views with reference to other institutions and to give compliments and congratulations where they are due regardless of prejudice. His talk was brief, but full of good suggestions, and was much appreciated by those present.

Dr. Ellis reviewed the progress of the last four years in undergraduate journalism, saying that The Campus during that time has shown a steady improvement and that interest in literary work on the campus has constantly increased. He pointed out the revival of Sigma Delta Chi, the organization of the Contributors' Club, the birth of The Mainiac and the Maine-Spring as proof of his contention that interest in writing is growing rather than decreasing.

Speaking more directly of newspaper work, he said that the publicity in outside papers has also improved during that period, and that at the present time the University is better represented in outside papers than it has been in several years. He also spoke in praise of the recent journalistic conference sponsored by Sigma Delta Chi.

Regular courses in journalism will be established at the University next year, he said, plans having been made for the engagement of an instructor to come here with the intention of building up a department of journalism which may in time award the degree of Bachelor of Journalism.

The last speaker was Edward C. Cutting, who spoke briefly in praise of the retiring board, thanking the members for their support in the past and predicting that the coming year would be as successful from a journalistic standpoint. The meeting broke up at 11:15.

Mr. Patten was an admirable toastmaster, interspersing the remarks of the other speakers with a series of jokes which kept the banqueters in a jovial mood. The committee in charge of the affair consisted of Donald Alexander, Gregory Baker, Miss Elizabeth Kingsbury and Miss Kathleen Mahoney.

Those present were Dr. Little, A. L. T. Cummings, James A. Gannett, Dr. Harold M. Ellis, Edward C. Cutting, Bryant M. Patten, Jacob M. Horne, Hazen H. Ayer, Donald Alexander, Kathleen Mahoney, Hope Norwood, Bernice Purinton, W. W. Patterson, C. E. Johnson, Stanley Hyde, Guy Griffin, Frank Hussey, Grace Armstrong, Gregory Baker, Ray H. Carter, Charles L. Fales, Fred Nevells, A. E. Coburn, Mary Friend, Donald Hastings, Irving Kelley, Helen Mayo, Mansfield Packard, Elwood Osborne, H. S. Boynton, Murray Hamilton, Mary Loomis.

University of Illinois—The Suicide Club is the latest society to organize at the University of Illinois with its membership limited to four men. All the members are working at daily danger to life and limb on chemical experiments which are either poisonous or highly combustible.

Foreign Delegation to Visit Campus Next Week

Three foreign students are to visit the University of Maine next week, May 22, 23, and 24. This will be the 80th college or university that they have visited while in America. The names of the three are: Hans Teisler, of Berlin, Germany, Piet Roest, of Holland, and Jorgen Holck, of Denmark.

During those three days the men will inspect the University, study our customs, and speak to the students in chapel. They will offer constructive criticism, compare our American colleges to those of foreign countries, and make helpful suggestions. The visit of these students is sponsored by the National Student Forum of America.

Girls Now Turning to Track for Excitement

Preparations are fast being made for the girls' interclass track meet which is to be held Friday, May 18. A new jumping pit has been made which is a great help to the broad jumpers.

Many of the former stars and point-winners, including Dennison, Pride, Harkness, Twitchell, Winslow, Keyes, Peabody, Staples and several other upper classmen, are showing their former "pep" at the practices.

A number of freshmen are also signed up for the events, among whom are some very good prospects. In the field events especially the freshman class has some very good material.

Fine work and close competition can be expected Friday.

Round Table

The regular meeting of the Round Table was held a Balentine Hall, Tuesday, May 1. After the usual business meeting, a very interesting program was given as follows:

Solo, Miss McGinnis
Piano Solo, Mrs. C. A. Brautlecht
Selection by the Mandolin Club, composed of the following members: Edith Twitchell, Daphne Winslow, Margaret Boothby, Mary Friend, pianist.
Solo, Alice Keene

The program was delightful and the members of the Round Table and their guests were very appreciative. Ice cream cones were served and the meeting broke up very informally.

Intercollegiate Hop

On Saturday evening, May 12, an Intercollegiate Hop was given under the auspices of the "M" Club at Alumni Hall.

An order of sixteen dances was cleverly "gotten up" in honor of campus "celebrities," as to "Prexy" Little, "Cuddy" Murphy, Howard Flack and "Grant" Tootell. Reich's Orchestra furnished the music.

The committee in charge consisted of "Ollie" Berg, "Speed" Merritt, "Dave" Hoyt, "Phil" Taylor and "Jim" Blair. Refreshments of punch, ice cream and cookies were served.

Intramural Baseball

Intramural baseball started last week. All games played were very good and were close in their results.

In the North League, Sigma Phi Sigma defeated Delta Tau Delta 4 to 0, and S. A. E. whitewashed Sigma Nu 4 to 0. Commons Council closed out Theta Chi 7 to 6. This puts Sigma Nu, Delta Tau Delta, and Theta Chi out of the race in the North League.

In the South League A. T. O. was defeated by the Sigma Chi boys by the score of 3 to 1. The game between the Phi Ep's and Lambda Chi was postponed to May 14.

No games were played in the Central League last week.

Order of the Temple

The Order of the Temple held its last meeting of the semester Tuesday evening, May 8, at which the following officers were elected for the coming year: W. M., Sidney Osborne; S. W., S. W. Hutchinson; J. W., J. W. Hutchins; Sec. and Treas., George Wescott.

Prof. Pearsall, Hitchiner, Stewart and Meserve were given the first degree at this meeting.

Don't forget the Maine "Hello."

Balance of $304,230 to Be Raised by June 11

Depicted by the cartoon may be seen the results so far of the Alumni Memorial Drive. The amount subscribed, $195,770.00, leaves a balance of $304,230, which must be raised before June 11. The amount already raised includes the $102,000 subscribed by the student body. If the student body can raise 102,000 dollars in two days, the sum that could be raised by the Alumni in the same number of months should be tremendous. Each day must now see subscriptions amounting to the total of $12,160 pouring in. The torch is in the hands of the alumni to hold high, or to let fall.

Neatly Combed Hair

Neatly combed in the morning—but what about three o'clock in the afternoon?

For wiry, unruly hair—for soft, fluffy hair—for any kind of hair that won't stay combed all day use Stacomb—then your hair will stay combed just as you want it.

Ideal after washing your hair. Leaves the hair soft and lustrous. Ask your barber for a Stacomb Rub.

At all druggists.

Contributor's Club Meeting

Dean and Mrs. Stevens entertained the Contributors' Club Thursday, May 10. The meeting was opened by the reading of an original paper written by a member of the club, entitled "Spring-time and Studies." Arthur Wilson read an essay "The Mountain Range of Life." After the discussion, Dr. Turner gave the criticism on the papers.

Professor Richards read selections from Macefield's "Renard the Fox" and gave a criticism on it.

Plans were discussed for the Contributors' Club annual picnic, but no definite arrangements were made.

The kleptomaniac seems to have taking ways.

The University of Engineering

Of all the things that go to make the successful engineer, none is more important, nor more in step with the spirit of the profession, than a studious attitude. One man says about another—"he is always willing to learn," "he doesn't think he knows it all"—and he intends to pay a high compliment when he says it.

The great engineers are always at school, always learning, always seeking for more knowledge. They begin with this desire for fuller understanding, and they keep it up to the end.

Any engineering operation, over and above the primary purpose for which it is carried out, is an active and post-graduate class in engineering, also. So that Westinghouse, or any other great business, is, of its very nature, a University where theory and practice combine to make bigger, broader and more practical engineers.

The courses in this University are not limited to prescribed subjects nor terms—the subjects are almost infinite, and the semesters are endless. Men with the weight of years on their shoulders work and learn side-by-side with those whose day has just dawned.

This post-graduate school fits men for almost anything. Fits them for it, and makes them continually fitter. Out of this continuing fitness have grown the engineering accomplishments on which this institution has grown. It is, perhaps, one of the great educational institutions of its day.

streak of rotten luck and that we would get the state championship yet. In closing he said: "Don't cheer the men just when they are in front of the grandstand. It's the dirty back stretch that gets them, so give them a yell when they are out there."

"Cuddy" Murphy was called on to give out the dope on the weight men. He said that he had never seen a bunch train so conscientiously thru a long period as had these men.

Coach Flack, when called upon, said the result of the meet would depend largely upon the second and third places that Maine takes. In closing, he said: "If you will get out there and back that team as you should with spirit and voice, if we don't win we will give somebody an awful time until they do."

Prof. "Benny" Kent, a new speaker at rallies, was then introduced. He spoke particularly of the second string men, the men who do not make their letters, the ones who get but little credit but get all of the knocks because they do not do better. He said that he almost had more respect for them than for the first string men.

The members of the Athletic Board, Hosea Buck, Parker Crowell, Prof. Sprague, William McC. Sawyer and Prof. Grover were called upon in turn and spoke briefly.

Captain Lawrence and Capt. Prescott came to the platform and asked for the support of the students in the coming contests.

The rally closed with cheers and the Stein Song.

stone they were made of, but for what they represented. These idols were symbols of something stronger, higher and nobler than mere human beings.

"Many people think of religion as a musty, dusty creed and a long tiresome list of 'Thou shalt not's.' We should remember in our judgment of creeds that no creed ever came to us except by demand, and the reason we have great creeds today is because men are trying to overcome evil and attain something higher.

"We live in a scientific age, and pride ourselves on our scientific attitude. Yet what is a scientific attitude but the finding of values and the judging of facts in an unbiased manner? Every branch of learning has its own principles. We would not think of applying the rules of chemistry to government or the rules of mathematics to literature. If we approach religion with the proper instruments—a warm heart and an open mind—we shall discover new truths as useful as any in the realm of science."
